

Partner Bio

Alliant Leadership

My name is Joe Denner. Before becoming a coach, I spent over 15 years working in mid-level and executive leadership positions within a couple of organizations as well as in the church and community. My extensive experience in finance and accounting, production operations and human resources brings to any individual or organization a wealth of knowledge relating to the development of human capital for positive, profitable growth.

I provide executive coaching and team coaching as well as training and organizational development services to leaders in various industries and market spaces. The goal of these services is to assist leaders, at all levels of the organization, in increasing their own personal effectiveness and efficiency as well as assisting them in creating sustainable, transformational leadership development within their organizations.

I enjoy the process of equipping others, as well as seeing them reach their goals and potential. It satisfies me to see others grow and develop as people and as leaders of significant influence. My wife and our eight children reside in Wheaton, Illinois..

Professional Expertise/Services

Executive Coaching – We provide leadership coaching for executives and managers at any level of an organization focusing on what the company and the leaders need most. Some of the specific needs that companies request assistance with include:

- New Leader
- Growth Catalyst/Leadership Ascent
- Underperforming Leader
- Strategy Development
- Career/Organization Vision Mapping

Team Coaching – We work with executive and management teams to increase their effectiveness in working together and in accomplishing their goals and objectives. This includes:

- Team Effectiveness Workshops
- Leadership Practices Inventory Workshop & 360° Surveys
- StrengthsFinder 2.0 Assessment
- The Twelve Key Questions for Managers
- Executive Coaching

Recent Assignments

- I am currently the Vice President of Operations for Microdynamics in Glendale Heights where I have worked for almost 11 years. I have 8 direct reports, all of whom I coach on a weekly basis. I have been the VP of Operations for the last 5 years. Prior to that I was the CFO.

Education and Professional Affiliations

- I have received and am receiving my coach training through the Center for the Advancement of Christian Coaching
- B.A. Economics, University of Illinois (Urbana-Champaign)

Contact Information

Alliant Leadership
1126 Delles Rd, Wheaton, IL, 6087
Tel: 630.464.8923 • Email: joe.denner@alliantleadership.com