Professional Experience

Michael W. Wright, DMin, is the president of Peak Living, a leadership consulting company dedicated to providing ministry and non-profit organizations with outstanding training and leader development seminars, workshops, and personal coaching. Dr. Wright has trained thousands of people across the nation in leadership practices and people skills.

Organizations such as the Association of Christian Schools International, the Gathering of Men, Walk Thru the Bible, and hundreds of churches and groups of all denominations have benefitted from Wright's enthusiastic leadership development approach. Michael loves people and watching them learn and grow as effective leaders.

Education

Michael grew up in Pearland, Texas where he graduated from high school. Moving to East Texas, Wright earned a Bachelor of Arts in Ministry Careers and later a Masters in Education. Later Michael moved to Colorado where he earned a Doctor of Ministry degree with a project emphasis in Leadership Coaching. Dr. Wright's passion is to collaborate with leaders to experience deep personal fulfillment, higher professional performance, and enjoyable ministry longevity.

Personal

Michael and wife, Natalie, have been married 25 years and have two children. Aaron lives and works in Denver, CO. Lauren is a student at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas. Michael enjoys flying as a private pilot and fly fishing when he is on the ground.
