

“Follow your dreams, and help others to do the same.”

As a facilitator and coach, this is the basis of everything I do.

Kelly Ann McKnight

is a personnel development professional who focuses on bringing innovative tools to her clients. Her business thrives because of her ability to assess the needs of clients, and design programs to develop appropriate skills and abilities. Kelly Ann facilitates Leadership Challenge Workshops and Executive Coaching. She also tackles management development, behavioral profiling and team building. As a keynote speaker, Kelly Ann inspires in the areas of leadership, management and creating the workplace of tomorrow. She helps her clients to understand that they have what it takes to tackle the big issues and she shows them how to do it.

Kelly Ann's business acumen was developed in various sales and marketing roles, including strategic marketing, market research and database marketing with firms such as Dow AgroSciences, BASF, Cyanamid, and the University of Guelph. She is a Master Facilitator with The Leadership Challenge and Langevin and holds an M.B.A. from York University and a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture from the University of Guelph.

Kelly Ann's current client list includes a range of organizations including private firms, government organizations and not-for-profits. For more information please visit www.theleadersway.ca

“How can I help?”

