

Leadership Mechanics LLC, Craig Haptonstall, President and CEO

Leadership Mechanics is dedicated to elevating individual and organizational Leadership capacity and effectiveness.

Professional Expertise/Services

Craig's background and experience includes Southwest Airlines, The Tom Peters Company, and The Staubach Company. Since 1995, Craig has operated as President of Leadership Mechanics, a firm dedicated to Leadership development. This practice includes creating custom Leadership development strategies, and extensive use of the Leadership Practices Inventory, (LPI), along with other assessment tools.

Recent Assignments - Examples below

- United States Navy – NSWC Crane
- UBS - description
- SMU Cox Business School CEO to learn how to develop and effectively communicate strategic objectives
- Children's Medical Center Dallas
- Keystone Foods
- CFO to learn how to reposition himself as an authoritative and decisive leader without shedding his "nice guy" image
- Newly promoted Regional Sales Manager with a focus on building credibility, executing strategy, determining critical short and long-term priorities, evaluating current and future talent needs, and aligning team processes

Education and Professional Affiliations

- BA Speech Communications, Stephen F. Austin University
- SMU Cox Business School
- 25 years direct business Expertise

Contact Information

Leadership Mechanics LLC
4100 Bentley ct.
Grapevine Texas, 76051
817-690-8745
Craig@leadershipmechanics.com