

Steve Coats

Professional Expertise/Services

Steve Coats is a managing partner and co-owner of International Leadership Associates, a leadership development education and consulting firm. For nearly twenty years, Steve has taught, coached, and consulted with executives and all levels of managers in several countries around the world. His expertise is in the related areas of leadership development, team development, change, personal and business growth, and business strategy.

Steve is co-author of the book, There is no Box, (Executive Excellence, 2007) and also co-authored the booklet, Raise the Bar. He has also published several articles on various topics related to the subject of leadership. His articles have been published in industry magazines, trade journals, and have been used in educational efforts at the UN and the Management Institute of Paris.

Recent Assignments - Examples below

- Managing Partner, co-owner International Leadership Associates
- Managing Partner, co-owner Leadership Strategies, LLC

Education and Professional Affiliations

- Executive Program, Innovation and Technology, The Wharton School
- M.B.A. North Texas University
- B.S. Kansas State University
- Master Facilitator, The Leadership Challenge Workshop
- Qualified in Myers Briggs Type Indicator
- Certified in the Belbin Team Role Inventory
- Certified in the Emotional Competence Inventory

Contact Information

International Leadership Associates
8114 Paul Manors Dr. Ste 400.
West Chester, OH 45069
513.755.7112
www.i-lead.com
stevec@i-lead.com

