

Kerry Webb, PhD

Professional Expertise/Services

Kerry S. Webb, Ph.D. currently serves as the President of Peak Leadership, LLC. For the past twenty years, Kerry has been energizing audiences with his content rich, fast-paced interactive training. Dr. Webb has spoken to corporate, government, and non-profit audiences across the United States and internationally. In 1990, he joined a team of Harvard MBA's to provide a train-the-trainer system for leadership development, team building, and creating positive work environments. He quickly emerged as a top performer in providing training in ways that energize his audiences!

Dr. Webb has coached, trained, and motivated thousands of leaders to create high performance work teams and to develop positive organizational cultures. He is an expert at increasing worker satisfaction, developing stronger leaders, training effective managers, enhancing clear communication strategies, and developing conflict management strategies.

Kerry was raised in rural east Texas and eventually graduated from the University of North Texas with a doctorate in Educational Administration, majoring in Business Management. Kerry currently serves as the President of Peak Leadership, LLC and teaches in the MBA program at Texas Woman's University. He has also taught master's and doctoral courses for the University of North Texas and Dallas Baptist University. In addition to motivational speaking and training, Kerry is the author of several articles involving research in the field of leadership.

Family is an important priority for Kerry as the father of three boys. In addition, he enjoys golf, riding his motorcycle, kayaking, and fly fishing.

Recent Assignments

- Cedar Valley College – President and Executive Cabinet, leadership and problem solving strategies, executive coaching for two team members
- Eastman Kodak – Team building for R&D team
- USAA Insurance – People Skills training for top 10 national performers in sales
- CEO – to develop effective communication strategies
- Educational organization – seven departments in a training center to enhance their team performance and conflict management skills

Education and Professional Affiliations

- Doctorate in Education Administration with a cognate in Business Management, University of North Texas
- M.A. Southwestern Seminary
- B.A. East Texas Baptist University
- Qualified in DISC Behavioral Inventory
- Emotional Intelligence – ESCI (Goleman)
- Strengths Deployment Inventory (SDI) – Personal Strengths

Contact Information

Peak Leadership
3305 Highland Village, TX 75077
Tel / Fax: 469-878-9322 • Email: Kerry@peakleadership.com
Website: www.peakleadership.com