

Domingo Barrios

Gina Barrios - a lifelong passion to inspire others in their search for better ways to balance their professional careers and life paths and for creating fulfillment, led me to pursue a career in coaching”...

Professional Expertise/Services

Domingo Barrios has a long career in the nonprofit sector and experience in nonprofit leadership, management, governance, and resource development. He has served as Vice President of Greater Houston Community Foundation, Grant Officer with Houston Endowment Inc., Executive Director of CHRISTUS Galveston Ministry, Executive Director of GHAHEC, Manager with HDHHS, Development Coordinator for FIRM and Manager for the AIDS Foundation Houston.

Domingo has served on numerous nonprofit boards including ALF Houston Gulf Coast Chapter, Harris County Healthcare Alliance, Hogg Foundation for Mental Health, Rockwell Fund, Texas Health Institute and Texas Lyceum Association. He is founder and president of The Nonprofit Coach, LLC a coaching firm whose mission is to coach and train nonprofit leaders to achieve and maintain sustainability.

Gina Barrios has over 20 years in sales, management, and facilitation in small and large organizations including SBC and AT&T Global. She is a master practitioner and trainer in interpersonal communications and has completed advanced coach training with Coach University.

Gina Barrios is co-founder and coach of The Nonprofit Coach, LLC.

Recent Assignments - Examples below

- Microsoft – description
- UBS - description
- CEO to learn how to develop and effectively communicate strategic objectives
- SVP of a major insurance company with a focus on developing leadership skills
- Chief Marketing Officer of a global manufacturing organization wanted to increase his ability to work with and create an innovative atmosphere for his “Creatives”
- Three global development teams in a pharmaceutical company; to enhance their performance and ensure ‘block buster’ products are launched on time
- CFO to learn how to reposition himself as an authoritative and decisive leader without shedding his “nice guy” image
- Newly promoted Regional Sales Manager with a focus on building credibility, executing strategy, determining critical short and long-term priorities, evaluating current and future talent needs, and aligning team processes

Education and Professional Affiliations

- M.S. Health Administration, University of Colorado M.B.A.
- B.S. Computer Science
- Certified Master Practitioner, Neurolinguistic Programming
- Coach, Coach University Graduate
- International Coach Federation Member

Contact Information

The Nonprofit Coach, LLC.
PO Box 84601, Pearland, TX 77584
Tel / Fax: 281-692-2048 • Email: info@thenonprofitcoach.org
Website: www.thenonprofitcoach.org