

Larry Tew

Professional Expertise/Services: Engineering/Professional: Aerospace Industry: Larry was with Lockheed Martin for 19 years and in addition to a number of positions as Program Manager he was a Systems Engineering Manager, Business Development Manager, Project Engineer, and First Line Supervisor

Air Force: Larry joined Lockheed Martin after an Air Force career as a nuclear engineer in research and development.

Training/Consulting Professional: Certified instructor for the Error Prevention Institute. Larry is a certified corporate facilitator for Tom Peters "Leadership Challenge", "Leadership is Everyone's Business" and "WOW Projects" programs. Larry is also a certified instructor for Development Dimensions International.

Engineering/Program Management: Larry facilitated courses on Systems Engineering specialties. He has facilitated a number of courses for the Lockheed Martin Evening Institute Consultant and trainer for the Lockheed Martin for Certified Principal Engineer (CPE). He created and presented a series of program management and leadership training classes for Lockheed Martin Evening Institute

Recent Assignments:

- Teaching the Leadership Challenge to the Lockheed Martin Chapter of the National Management Association
- Facilitator for a 4 hour Workshop on Coaching for improving Two-Way Communication
- Facilitator for Lunch and Learn on The Leadership Challenge
- Course developer and facilitator for a video conference training at four different geographical locations using local site facilitators to assist.
- Training of the management team at an aerospace firm on The Leadership Challenge

Education and Professional Affiliations

- Bachelor of Science, Colorado State University – Natural Sciences
- Bachelor of Science, Arizona State University - Engineering
- DDI Certified Facilitator
- Certified Facilitator – The Center for Error Management
- Certified Facilitator – Tom Peters Company – The Leadership Challenge

Contact Information

LT Consulting and Training
8056 S, Clayton, Cr
Centennial Colorado
Tel / Fax: 303-221-2397/303-221-2398 • Email: tewcons@aol.com