

Third Eye Leadership

You'll get much more than "off-the-shelf" training at Third Eye Leadership. We are passionate about leadership and believe in more than simply a philosophical approach. We provide a research-based, behavioral approach to leadership, one that asserts that leadership is learned and that anyone can be a leader if they choose.

Professional Expertise/Services

We base our primary services on the proven concepts and over 30 years of research conducted by Jim Kouzes and Barry Posner, authors of *The Leadership Challenge and creators of The Leadership Practices Inventory (LPI)[®] 360-Degree Assessment. Building on this research, we offer the richest resources available to transform the leadership culture of your organization, including:

- The Leadership Challenge[®] Workshop, customized to organizational results required, with additional follow-up & application workshops
- The LPI[®] Executive Coaching
- Leadership is Everyone's Business
- Accountability & Commitment Workshop
- Bridging the Leadership Divide, Generational Leadership

Recent Assignments
