

The Leadership Challenge Forum 2010

Whether you are already an established member of The Leadership Challenge family or just curious to learn more about the most trusted source on becoming a better leader, San Diego, CA is the place to be on August 5-6, 2010.

The Leadership Challenge® Forum 2010 will deliver a truly unique opportunity to come together in a knowledge exchange—to share ideas, techniques, skill-building activities, case studies, the very latest research, and the practical tools you need to expand and deepen your practice.

This year's Forum promises more engagement, more interaction, and more applicable takeaways than ever before.

- You will be inspired by such keynote speakers as Jim Kouzes, Barry Posner, and Steve Farber.
- Plenty of skill-building breakout sessions focused on practical ideas to implement
- Best practice presentations and successful case studies from industry leaders
