

Pfeiffer Partner Program

John Goldberg, MBA

- Led training program for the largest company in Central America
- Managed diversity training program for America's most integrated city
- MBA in Organizational Behavior from the best school in the field

Professional Expertise/Services

John Goldberg has over twenty years experience as a trainer in private, public and non-profit organizations. He served as Manager of Organization Development for Chiquita Brands International, Organizational Development Specialist and Instructor for the City of Sacramento and Training Officer for the State of California. John also served in several non-profit organizations as a community organizer, trained at the Gamaliel Foundation in Chicago where Barack Obama trained.

John Goldberg is a very skilled organizational development consultant and trainer with a passion for people. In all of his work, John demonstrates 100% commitment to the work and the people, creativity in the design and execution of his interventions and classes, and the sensitivity and ability to work with people in numerous cultures and at all levels of the organization. John's areas of expertise include the following:

- Communication
- Conflict management
- Diversity
- Leadership
- Management
- Personal/career development
- Supervision
- Teamwork

Recent Assignments

- Trained state government employees in critical thinking, problem solving and decision making
- Trained financial services managers and employees in change management, problem solving and decision making
- Trained local government managers and employees in diversity/inclusion and preventing harassment
- Presented to Business for Social Responsibility national conference
- Presented to Ethical Corporation international conference
- Presented to Forum on Business and Social Responsibility in the Americas international conference

Education and Professional Affiliations

- M.B.A., Case Western Reserve University
- B.A., California State University, Sacramento
- Train-the-Trainer Certificate, California State University, Sacramento
- Leadership Certificate, City of Sacramento's City University

Contact Information

John Goldberg & Assoc.
418 T Street, Sacramento, CA 95811-6914
Tel: 916-595-1224 • Email: johngoldberg@hotmail.com
Website: johngoldberg.com