

Pfeiffer Partner Program

Café Leadership is a professional development firm founded by Angel Garcia Jr., providing distinctive leadership effectiveness applications for individuals, teams, and organizations worldwide. Leveraging extensive field-tested leadership models with a practical results-based coaching process provides clients an invaluable resource for professional development and business growth. The scope of delivery creates that café feel where great dialogues and visions are brought to light. Our clients of choice are the organizational leaders who view leadership development as a key driver of organizational and business performance. We work interdependently with clients to assess, design, and implement solutions in alignment with an organization's strategic business objectives and human resource management and our success is evidenced by our client's sustained success and creating ongoing value proposition. We take tremendous pride in the fact that our executive development services have been consistently retained by many clients over the course of several years.

Angel Garcia Jr. – Leadership Barista

Angel serves as the Leadership Barista and founder of Café Leadership, a professional development firm based in Miami, FL. He is currently pursuing his PhD in Industrial/Organizational Psychology at Florida International University. Throughout his career he has researched and traveled the country to facilitate many workshops in the areas of maximizing human potential, personality theory, effective communication skills, leadership development, and global citizenry.

His style is unique, and with over 10 years of experience as a distinguished Toastmaster, he knows how to capture an audience. He blends a mix of humor, charisma, and real life lessons to empower those he shares his time with. He has provided services in education, non-profit, corporate, and military settings. Human Resources Executive magazine ranked Angel as one of the "top 15 newest and youngest leadership coaches in America."

In addition to serving as a Leadership Barista within Café Leadership, he is the Assistant Director for the Center for Leadership & Service at Florida International University and an officer in the United States Army Reserve Special Operations Command. His most recent projects include the establishment of a leadership academy for one of the largest non-profit service immersion programs in the country, and an exceptional customer service plan for a large Florida insurance provider.

Personally, Angel has a true passion for bringing out the best in people!
