

Bob Younglove, Performance Improvement Specialist
President, PATH Associates

Professional Expertise/Services

Bob Younglove is a behavioral psychologist, master facilitator of learning, performance coach and author. His specialty is helping people change their habits to be more successful in achieving their goals. His focus is to help individuals and teams develop their potential into improved job performance. Bob has consulted with major corporations, small businesses and numerous government agencies in the US and internationally.

Recent Assignments -

- Currently managing a Mentor/Protégé program for the Federal Highway Administration
- Recently I became a Subject Matter Expert for the 2010 Census data capture project for Lockheed Martin. I assisted in recruiting and managing a staff of 8 trainers as well as providing Train the Trainer programs for staff in Arizona, Indiana and Maryland. I designed and facilitated classes for management and assisted in providing instruction in 15 computer/procedures operations training programs for 3,000 employees.
- I custom-designed and facilitated training programs on Managing Change and Mastering Stress for employees of major banks in the process of mergers and acquisitions.
- I increased participatory management and creative problem solving of chronic organizational concerns among 210 top and middle-level managers in the Health Department.
- I was asked to be a contributing author to the book Speaking of Success: World Class Experts Share Their Secrets with co-authors Jack Canfield, Ken Blanchard and Stephen Covey.
- Contributing author for various Pfeiffer publications since 1998.

Education and Professional Affiliations

California State University, Long Beach, California, BA, Industrial Psychology
Towson State University, Towson, Maryland, MEd, Guidance & Counseling
Towson University, Towson Maryland, MA in Psychology
National Training Laboratories, Internship in Human Resource Development

Contact Information

PATH Associates
#19 Coldwater Court
Baltimore, Maryland 21204
Email: PATHassoc@aol.com