

Exhibit 2.1. Questions to Ask About Web Learning Sites.

1. What did I hate about the site?
2. What did I like about the site?
3. What did I learn at this Web site (other than that I liked or hated it)?
4. Can I do something now that I could not do before (that is, did I learn a new skill)?
5. If so, what was it about the Web site that enabled me to learn? Was it the way the content was arranged, the exercises that I did, the person that I chatted with or e-mailed from the Web site?
6. If I did not learn anything from the site, why not? What got in the way of my learning?
