

Samuel Johnson

Samuel Johnson is president of Synchro Consulting, LLC, a Veteran-Owned small business, that has provided innovative training and consulting services to public and private sector clients since 1996. Samuel's goal is to provide services that exceed customers' expectations that allow for a return on investment.

Professional Expertise/Services

Samuel was a member of the General Motors Powertrain Synchronous Implementation Team and a Senior Supplier Development Engineer, which afforded him an opportunity to work with Tier One (1) Automotive Supplier Companies, both large and small, in North America and Europe in the areas of Development, Productivity and Quality Improvements. After leaving General Motors he worked as General Manager of a Tier One (1) Supplier to gain another perspective of the automotive business. Samuel had over twenty years experience in the automotive industry, and international business experience, before starting Synchro Consulting in March, 1996.

Samuel is the author and has a copyright for "Problem Solving for Work Teams". Most recently his company has expanded its training programs to accommodate the business needs of both private and public organizations with an emphasis on Accountability, Leadership and Employee Development. The company offers clients pre and post workshop assessments in order to measure training effectiveness.

Samuel is a Military Veteran having served in the United States Army.
