Tim Link, MA, MCC
Executive Coach
Principal, Link Resource Group Inc.

Tim Link is an executive coach and performance consultant with a record of success in guiding leaders and organizations from small business through Fortune 50 companies to increased productivity and satisfaction. Tim is the principal and founder of Link Resource Group, a Midwest company devoted to enhancing performance through coaching for executives, managers, small business owners, entrepreneurs, teams and organizations.

Tim is a Certified Master Coach in the area of business and performance development. Recognized by many as a pioneer in the industry, he was the second coach in the state of Kansas to have earned his Master Certified Coach (MCC) designation from the International Coach Federation, the world's largest professional organization of business and personal coaches, where he is a member. His clients represent many sectors including construction, manufacturing, education, aviation, financial services, health care, high tech, telecommunications, real estate, business services, pharmaceuticals, government and non-profit.

Tim brings a successful track record as a corporate VP and over eighteen years of organizational leadership experience to his coaching and consulting practice. His diverse experience includes: sales, marketing, sales management, public relations, talent management, and general management. He has experience in start-ups, turnarounds, established businesses and mergers. In 1998, Tim was recognized by the industry's leading trade publication as a General Manager of the year finalist for successfully leading a multi-station radio operation through a complicated merger while outperforming more than eighty other radio stations across seven states.

Tim holds a B.A. in Business Administration and Marketing from Wichita State University. He earned his master's degree in Organization Management and Development with an emphasis in Evidence Based Coaching from Fielding Graduate University. He is a certified facilitator for both the MBTI® and DiSC® suite of assessments.

Tim believes in giving back to his community and has done so through service on a variety of boards including Communities in Schools, Wichita Metro Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis and Rotary. He actively volunteers with the Boy Scouts, Youth Entrepreneurs of Kansas and St. Thomas Aquinas Church. Tim is a faculty member and Leadership Coach with The Kansas Leadership Center and is on the advisory board of the graduate program in Organizational Development at Friends University.

Tim is an affiliate of the nation's premier corporate coaching firm, Pyramid Resource Group, Inc. www.pyramidresource.com, recognized world-wide for coaching forward-thinking corporations into new dimensions of leadership.
