Professional Expertise/Services

Human Resources Consultant, specializing in Executive Coaching, team coaching, training, and organization development. I work with various sized companies, including non-profit organizations. I have had my own company for 14 years, prior to which I worked for a telecommunications company doing the same work internally. I also have a great deal of experience in the workplace diversity arena.

Recent Assignments

- Museum of Science and Industry: several individual, Executive Coaching engagements; team coaching; diversity work
- Gateway Foundation: working with Manager in Executive Coaching (helping him identify strengths and development opportunities, create development plan, work the plan)
- A division of Kemper Financial: working with team to identify strengths and development opportunities of the 4 team managers
- Discover Card: Executive Coaching with Director, helping her develop for next level; when she was promoted to Vice President I worked with her to identify necessary skills for new role

Education and Professional Affiliations

- MBA, University of Chicago
- MA, social work/social policy, University of Chicago
- B.A. University of Michigan
- Certified in Benchmarks (Center for Creative Leadership)
