I had the privilege of working with and learning from Angie. Her high-energy, optimistic spirit is combined with knowledge of leadership practices and specific behaviors. Angie keeps client needs in the forefront to ensure they receive the level of individualized, personal attention that fosters an active learning experience. Having worked with public and private sectors, organizations and groups of varying sizes and budgets, Angie easily adapts her learner-centered facilitation style to best serve the needs of her clients. She is very giving - and very capable. Enjoy your work with her. - owner & managing partner, leadership development company

I've worked with Angie in academia, business and a military environment. Angie is the consummate professional who breathes life into every aspect of her work. She is recognized as a subject matter expert on leadership and organizational behavior. A gifted professional, she is extremely successful in envisioning a future and inspiring others in that process. Without question and with 25 years of experience in the United States Armed Forces, I personally and professionally recommend Angie Chaplin." - Colonel, U.S. Army, SOCOM / CENTCOM

Simply put, Angie is terrific! She masters the material in advance and can maintain the attention of large groups with big expectations. She is a tremendous talent. She listens and leads at the same time. I am impressed with her ability to connect with the audience and keep a session focused. Angie will impress you, too. - VP of enrollment management, higher education
