

Twitter Alert! Joining the ranks of a Who's Who of leadership experts, The Leadership Challenge @TLCTalk was named to the Top 50 Leadership Experts to Follow on Twitter list in November 2011. Find it here < <http://www.evancarmichael.com/Business-Coach/4492/November-2011-Top-50-Leadership-Experts-to-Follow-on-Twitter.html>.

An in-depth profile of Peggy Collins-Gibson, of Regina, Saskatchewan, tells of her own development journey as a leadership consultant, and her work as a certified trainer of The Leadership Challenge. At Leader-Post <http://www.leaderpost.com/story_print.html?id=5631445&sponsor>

Listen in as Jim Kouzes shares the history and development of the powerful Five Practices model and looks forward to celebrating the 25th anniversary of the publication of the first edition of The Leadership Challenge. On EVOCA: Empower Your Voice <http://www.evoca.com/blog/2011/10/24/best-selling-author-jim-kouzes-speaks-on-the-leadership-challenge>

Peoria Magazine <<http://www.peoriamagazines.com/ibi/2011/nov/challenging-tomorrow-s-leaders>> features a powerful case study of how Illinois American Water has fully embraced The Leadership Challenge throughout the company, to identify and develop the leaders of tomorrow.

In an extensive interview with Barry Posner, China STAFF magazine brings the universal wisdom of The Leadership Challenge to its readers and provides a 4-step process to reinforce shared values throughout any organizational system.

VoiceAmerica's Trust Across America program recently welcomed back Jim Kouzes to discuss Credibility—How Leaders Gain and Lose It, and Why People Demand It. Listen in at <http://www.voiceamerica.com/episode/57904/jim-kouzes-on-leadership-credibility-and-daniel-diermeier-on-corporate-reputation>.