

CONTENTS

Part I

INTRODUCTION 1

Chapter 1

Why Influence: What You Will Get from This Book 3

Part II

THE INFLUENCE MODEL 13

Chapter 2

The Influence Model: Trading What They Want for What
You've Got (Using Reciprocity and Exchange) 15

Chapter 3

Goods and Services: The Currencies of Exchange 36

Chapter 4

How to Know What They Want: Understanding Their Worlds
(and the Forces Acting on Them) 56

Chapter 5

You Have More to Offer Than You Think if You Know
Your Goals, Priorities, and Resources (The Dirty Little Secret about Power) 80

Chapter 6

Building Effective Relationships: The Art of Finding and Developing Your Allies 96

Chapter 7

Strategies for Making Mutually Profitable Trades 121

Part III

PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS OF INFLUENCE 145

Chapter 8

Influencing Your Boss 147

Chapter 9

Influencing Difficult Subordinates 170

Chapter 10Working Cross Functionally: Leading and Influencing a Team, Task Force, or Committee 188Chapter 11Influencing Organizational Groups, Departments, and Divisions 200Chapter 12

Influencing Colleagues 216

Chapter 13

Initiating or Leading Major Change 233

Chapter 14

Indirect Influence 246

Chapter 15

Understanding and Overcoming Organizational Politics 254

Chapter 16Hardball: Escalating to Tougher Strategies When You
Can No Longer Catch Flies with Honey 269Appendix A: Extended Case Examples Available on the Web 291*Appendix B: Additional Resources 296*Notes 298*Index 301