

— Contents

Preface	vii
The Author	xi
Section One: Basic Information on ADHD	1
1.1 ADD, ADHD, AD/HD: What's the Difference?	1
1.2 Definitions and Descriptions of ADHD	2
1.3 Risk Factors Associated with ADHD	3
1.4 Behavioral Characteristics of ADHD	5
1.5 ADHD and the Executive Functions	11
1.6 What We Do and Do Not Yet Know About ADHD	13
1.7 ADHD and Coexisting Conditions and Disorders	17
1.8 Possible Causes of ADHD	19
1.9 ADHD Look-Alikes	22
1.10 Girls with ADHD	24
1.11 Making the Diagnosis: A Comprehensive Evaluation for ADHD	25
1.12 Multimodal Treatment for ADHD	33
1.13 Medication Treatment for ADHD	39
1.14 Behavioral Treatment and Management of ADHD	44
1.15 What Teachers and Parents Need to Know About Medication	52
1.16 The Impact of ADHD on the Family	55

1.17	The Impact of ADHD on School Success	57
1.18	Critical Elements for School Success	59
1.19	Positive Traits Common in Many Children and Adults with ADHD	60
1.20	Educational Rights for Students with ADHD	60
Section Two: Checklists for Parents		67
2.1	What Children and Teens with ADHD Need from Parents	67
2.2	Positive and Effective Discipline	69
2.3	Preventing Behavior Problems at Home	73
2.4	Preventing Behavior Problems Outside the Home	75
2.5	Coping and Dealing with Your Child's Challenging Behaviors	77
2.6	Rewards and Positive Reinforcers for Home	80
2.7	Following Directions and Increasing Compliance: Tips for Parents	83
2.8	Environmental Modifications at Home	85
2.9	What Parents Can Do to Help with Organization	87
2.10	What Parents Can Do to Help with Time Management	91
2.11	Homework Tips for Parents	94
2.12	Parenting Your Child with ADHD: Recommended Do's and Don'ts	99
2.13	Supports and Training Parents Need	101
2.14	Building a Positive Relationship with the School	103
2.15	Advocacy Tips for Parents	105
2.16	Planning Ahead for the Next School Year	108
2.17	Pursuing an Evaluation for ADHD: Recommendations for Parents	110

Section Three: Checklists for Teachers	113
3.1 Proactive Classroom Management	113
3.2 Preventing Behavior Problems During Transitions and Challenging Times of the School Day	120
3.3 Tips for Giving Directions and Increasing Student Compliance	124
3.4 Managing Challenging Behavior	125
3.5 Rewards and Positive Reinforcers for School	130
3.6 Environmental Supports and Accommodations in the Classroom	132
3.7 Getting and Focusing Students' Attention	136
3.8 Maintaining Students' Attention and Participation	139
3.9 Keeping Students on Task During Seat Work	144
3.10 Strategies for Inattentive, Distractible Students	146
3.11 Communicating with Parents: Tips for Teachers	149
3.12 Homework Tips for Teachers	151
3.13 What Teachers Can Do to Help with Organization	154
3.14 What Teachers Can Do to Help with Time Management	159
3.15 Adaptations and Modifications of Assignments	163
3.16 Adaptations and Modifications of Materials	165
3.17 Testing Adaptations and Supports	169
3.18 If You Suspect a Student Has ADHD	172
Section Four: Academic Strategies for Home and School	177
4.1 Common Reading Difficulties	177
4.2 Reading Strategies and Interventions	179
4.3 Math Difficulties Related to ADHD and Learning Disabilities	189

4.4	Math Strategies and Interventions	192
4.5	Why Writing Is a Struggle	196
4.6	Strategies to Help with Prewriting: Planning and Organizing	199
4.7	Strategies for Composition and Written Expression	203
4.8	Strategies for Revising and Editing	207
4.9	Multisensory Spelling Strategies	210
4.10	Improving Handwriting and the Legibility of Written Work	214
4.11	Strategies for Bypassing and Accommodating Writing Difficulties	217
Section Five: Other Important Checklists for Parents and Teachers		221
5.1	The Team Approach	221
5.2	Memory Strategies and Accommodations	223
5.3	Relaxation Strategies, Visualization, Exercise, and More	227
5.4	ADHD and Social Skills Interventions	232
5.5	ADHD in Young Children	237
5.6	ADHD in Adolescents	242
5.7	Web Resources to Understand and Support Children with ADHD and Related Disorders	246
5.8	Books and Other Resources by Sandra Rief	249
	Index	251