

Contents

Preface	ix
List of Contributors	xi
Robin Bryant
1 The Challenge of Digital Crime	1
Robin Bryant
1.1 Technology and crime	1
1.2 Analogue and digital	11
1.3 The growth of digital technologies	14
1.4 Key features of digital crime	17
1.5 Growth and development of digital crime	20
1.6 A new criminology?	23
Questions	24
References	24
2 The Legislative Context for Digital Crime	27
Tracey Stevens
2.1 International initiatives to combat digital crime	28
2.2 Legal initiatives in the UK to combat digital crime	33
Questions	46
References	47
3 Investigating Digital Crime	49
Ian Kennedy
3.1 Digital evidence	52
3.2 How a digital device becomes involved in a crime	54
3.3 Forensic examination in practice	59
3.4 Professional accreditation	64
3.5 Digital evidence in the courts	71

3.6	Ethical issues	74
3.7	Professional development for digital forensics	75
	Questions	75
	References	76
4	Countering Cybercrime	79
	Denis Edgar-Nevill and Paul Stephens
4.1	Recognising digital crime as something new	79
4.2	The inadequacy of existing law	81
4.3	What is cybercrime?	83
4.4	Legislation and law enforcement	85
4.5	Challenges	87
4.6	Individual responsibilities	88
	Questions	93
	References	93
5	Encryption	97
	Dave O'Reilly and Paul Stephens
5.1	Keys and passwords	98
5.2	Encrypted hard drives	104
5.3	Email encryption	110
5.4	VoIP	111
5.5	Wireless local area networks	113
5.6	Encryption and investigation	116
	Questions	117
	References	118
6	IPR and Technological Protection Measures	121
	Paul Stephens
6.1	Copyright	122
6.2	IPR in practice	124
6.3	Open source alternatives	129
	Questions	129
	References	130
7	Plastic Card Crime	133
	Robin Bryant and Paul Stephens
7.1	Plastic cards	133
7.2	Card crime	141
7.3	Investigating card crime	148
	Questions	149
	References	150

CONTENTS

vii

8 Telecommunications Fraud	153
Joe Carthy, Tahar Kechadi and Paul Gillen
8.1 Telecommunication systems and services	154
8.2 Telecommunications crime	159
8.3 The Convention on Cybercrime	168
8.4 Telecommunications investigations	171
Questions	175
References	176
9 Identity and Identity Theft	179
Angus Marshall and Paul Stephens
9.1 Concepts of identity	180
9.2 Recognition and recognisability	180
9.3 Authority and authorisation	182
9.4 Recognition and authority in the digital world	182
9.5 Obtaining information through social engineering	184
9.6 ID Fraud in practice	189
9.7 Investigating identity theft	191
Questions	193
References	193
10 Internet Grooming and Paedophile Crimes	195
Denis Edgar-Nevill
10.1 Pre-digital paedophile crime	196
10.2 The internet and paedophile crimes	196
10.3 A brief history	197
10.4 Recent initiatives to combat internet child pornography	200
10.5 The internet grooming process	200
Questions	207
References	208
11 Digitalisation and Crime	211
Robin Bryant and Paul Stephens
11.1 Mobile phones	212
11.2 Games consoles	216
11.3 Money laundering	218
11.4 Pharmaceutical drugs	222
Questions	228
References	229
12 Criminological and Motivational Perspectives	231
Robin Bryant and Angus Marshall
12.1 Criminological perspectives	231

12.2	Motivational perspectives	240
12.3	Cyberprofiling	241
	Questions	246
	References	247

Index	249
--------------	------------