

CONTENTS

DOWNLOADABLE FORMS	ix
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xi
INTRODUCTION	xiii
CHAPTER 1 Get Motivated, Set Goals, Get Started	1
A Short-Sale Case Study—with a $200,000 Profit	2
Getting Motivated	6
Setting Goals	7
Accomplishing Your Goals	9
This Is a Business, Not a Hobby	10
Dealing with Naysayers	10
Personal Appearance	12
Setting Up Your Office	13
Structuring Your Business	14
Ready to Do Business	16
CHAPTER 2 What Is a Short-Sale? An Executive Summary of How to Negotiate with the Bank and the Homeowner	19
Why Do I Need to Do a Short-Sale?	20
Why Do Banks Accept Short-Sales?	21
How Much Do You Offer the Bank?	23
Successful Short-Sales Start with the Homeowner	33
Financial Agreement with the Homeowners	33
How Much Should You Pay the Homeowner to Move?	35
Setting the Move-Out Date	36
CHAPTER 3 Expert Strategies for Finding Distressed Properties and Foreclosures	39
Buying Bank-Owned Properties for Pennies on the Dollar	39
Newspaper Ads	43
"I Buy Houses for Cash" Street Signs	44
Networking	44
Postcards	45
Magnetic Vehicle Signs	45

CONTENTS

	Bail Bondsmen	46
	Pawnshops	46
	More Deal-Finding Favorites	49
CHAPTER 4	How to Approach the Homeowners and Create a Win-Win Solution	51
	Understanding Why Homeowners Want to Work with You	52
	Building Courage to Knock on Doors	53
	Friendly Negotiations with the Homeowners—What to Say and What You Need from Them	54
	Establishing Rapport over the Phone	57
	Knock on Doors Like a Pro	57
	Helping Homeowners Understand Their Options	59
	Deed in Lieu of Foreclosure	64
	Chapter 13 Bankruptcy	65
	Final Thoughts	65
CHAPTER 5	Preparing Your First Offer	69
	Authorization to Release Information	75
	Going to Contract	79
	Hardship Letter	88
	Pictures	98
	Investor Cover Letter	99
	Comps That Justify Your Offer	101
	Net Sheet	105
	Estimated List and Cost of Repairs	107
CHAPTER 6	How to Approach the Bank	113
	How to Get the Bank Interested in Talking to You	114
	What the Bank Wants from an Investor	114
	How to Get Through to a Stonewalling Lender	115
	Presenting Your Short-Sale Offer to the Bank	115
	The Asset Manager's Role	119
	Working with the Portfolio Representative Directly	121
	Getting Your Short-Sale Assigned to a Loss Mitigation Rep	121
	Additional Information the Bank May Require	122
	My Offer Is Submitted—Now What?	127
CHAPTER 7	Negotiating with a Second or Third Mortgage Holder	131
	Your Conversation with the Second Lender	136
	Variations on a Theme	139

Contents

vii

CHAPTER 8	Key Elements of the Legal Process You Must Understand	145
	Understanding Ownership versus Debt	146
	Foreclosure Process	149
	Types of Liens	152
	Types of Mortgages and Loans	155
CHAPTER 9	When the Bank Says Yes	159
	How Do I Buy More Time?	162
	How Does the Homeowner Buy More Time?	163
CHAPTER 10	Three Profit-Making Exit Strategies: Wholesaling, Rehabbing, and Renting	169
	The Wholesale Path	170
	The Rehab Path	173
	Selling the Home	180
	The Rental Path	180
CHAPTER 11	Setting the Closing Date and Making Sure the Closing Goes Smoothly	183
	A Successful Closing	185
	What If My Homeowners Change Their Minds?	186
	What If My Buyers Change Their Minds?	189
	Closing with the Assignment of Contract	191
	Double or Simultaneous Closings	196
	Are Double Closings Illegal?	198
CHAPTER 12	First-Year Expectations	201
	How You Can Become Rich without Going to College	204
	What We Did to Get Here	205
	What You Can Expect in Your First Year	207
	Thinking Like a Millionaire	208
INDEX		209

