

Index

• A •

- abrupt endings, 183–184
- abuse
 - child abuse, 215, 235, 254
 - by counsellor, 32, 36
 - domestic violence, 235, 254
 - elderly, 215
 - emotional abuse, 216, 235
- abusive calls, 247
- acceptance, 132
- accepting gifts, 187–188
- access to records, 58
- accreditation
 - importance of, 35
 - obtaining, 297–298, 307
 - professional bodies, 34
- acting for someone, 70
- action skills, 89–92
- action stage of helping conversations
 - assessment, 166–167
 - defined, 14, 165
 - problem-solving, 168–175
 - skills used in, 166
- active listening skills
 - action stage in helping conversations, 166
 - benefits of developing, 9
 - blocked listening, 19–20
 - counsellors, 12
 - defined, 1–2, 11, 88–89
 - distractions, 13–14
 - effective listening, 66–68
 - experience, 299
 - interruptions, 13–14
 - knowing when not to listen, 53
 - limits of listening, 277–278
 - sessions, 12
 - value of listening, 63–64
- activities, 30
- actualising tendency, 19
- addictions, 77
- adolescence, 223
- adult development, 223
- advanced empathy, 133
- advice, 12, 36
- advising
 - defensive behaviour, 101
 - power, 70
- affirmative approach, 219
- ageism, 215
- aggression, 230
- agreement with help-seeker, 50
- agression, 231
- alcohol, 228
- alternatives to questions, 147
- anger, 76–77, 230–231
- answering questions, 152–153
- anxiety, 231–232, 234
- application of BEST-I BEST-R model, 278–279
- appointments, 34
- Asperger's syndrome, 133
- assertiveness
 - developing, 47–48, 250
 - personal quality of counsellors, 87
- assessing strengths and limitations (in problem-solving), 174
- assessment, 166–167
- assumptions
 - avoiding, 26–27
 - helping conversations, 122
- attachments, 222
- attention, giving full attention, 134
- aural cues, 245
- autism, 133
- automatic thoughts, 163
- avoidance, 231–232
- avoiding
 - assumptions, 26–27
 - distractions, 13–14
 - harm, 77–78
 - judgements, 26–27
 - prejudices, 26–27

• B •

- BACP (British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy)
 accreditation, 34, 297, 307
 code of ethics and practice, 51
 contact information, 266
CPR (Counselling and Psychotherapy Research), 267
 Ethical Framework, 51, 81, 254
 guiding principles for good practice, 58
 membership process, 34, 267
Therapy Today, 29–30, 267
 bad news, 247–248
 barriers to listening
 advising, 101
 being right, 101
 comparing, 101
 defence mechanisms, 98–99
 defences, 97–98
 derailing, 101
 discounting, 103
 dreaming, 102
 filtering, 102
 identifying, 102
 judging, 102
 mind-reading, 102
 placating, 103
 rehearsing, 103
 sparring, 103
 BBC Web site, 269
 behaviours
 acting for someone, 70
 advising, 70, 101
 BEST-I BEST-R model, 200
 clarifying, 70
 defensive behaviours, 99–105
 empathy, 70
 prescribing, 70
 questioning, 70
 reflecting, 70
 self-harming, 254–255
 signs of distress/stress, 204
 summarising, 70
 being right (as a defensive behaviour), 101
 belief patterns, 163
 benefits of developing active listening skills, 9
 bereavement, 226–229
 BEST-I BEST-R model
 application of, 278–279
 behaviours, 200
 body, 195–196
 case studies, 279–290
 defined, 14–15, 194–195
 emotion, 197
 environment, 200
 imagery, 199
 metaphors, 199
 relationships, 203
 sensation, 197
 spirit, 201
 thinking, 198–199
 time, 201–202
 bipolar disorder, 234
 birth experiences, 222
 blind spot, 21–23
 blocked listening, 19–20
 blogs, 268
 body
 BEST-I BEST-R model, 195–196
 healthy habits of care, 196 physical presentation, 195–196
 self-care, 38
 signs of distress/stress, 203
 substance abuse, 195
 trauma, 196
 Bolton, Gillie
 Reflective Practice: Writing and Professional Development, 273
 The Therapeutic Potential of Creative Writing: Writing Myself, 29, 273 boundaries
 ethics, 50
 helping conversations, 92, 116–117
 helping relationships, 50
 reasons to stick within, 251–252
 safe space, 32
 setting, 32, 116–117 brainstorming, 169
 breaking
 bad news, 247–248
 confidentiality, 55

- breaks in helping relationships, 185
- British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP)
- accreditation, 34, 297, 307
 - code of ethics and practice, 51
 - contact information, 266
 - CPR (Counselling and Psychotherapy Research)*, 267
 - Ethical Framework, 81, 254
 - guiding principles for good practice, 58
 - Therapy Today*, 29–30, 267
- British Journal of Guidance and Counselling*, 29
- Building Confidence For Dummies* (Burton and Platts), 48
- bullying, 222, 235
- BUPA Web site, 269
- Burton, Kate, Building Confidence For Dummies, 48
- Buzan, Tony (creator of mind-mapping technique), 174
- ● ●
- cancellation policy, 36
- career satisfaction, 74
- case studies
- BEST-I BEST-R model, 279–290
 - loss, 285–290
 - struggling student, 279–285
- catastrophising, 198
- celebrating helping relationships, 179–180
- Certificate in Counselling Skills, 298
- challenging
- edge of awareness, 156
 - help-seeker, 156, 160–164
 - yourself, 28–30
- change
- cycle of change model, 93–94
 - handling, 205–206
 - strategies for managing, 226
 - types of, 224–225
- characteristics of counsellors, 81–82
- chat rooms, 268
- child abuse, 215, 235, 254
- child safety, 56, 119
- childhood development, 222–223
- clarifying, 70, 142–143, 262
- classes, 215
- clinical supervision, 45
- closed questions, 149–151
- closing exploration, 262
- closing skills (for ending helping conversations), 178
- co-counselling, 31
- code of ethics and practice from British Association of Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP), 51
- colleagues, consulting, 221
- commitment to the profession, 82
- comparing (as a defensive behaviour), 101
- competence, 87
- complaints, 255–256
- compliments, discounting, 103
- concealing emotion, 136–137
- concrete details in helping conversations, 162
- conditions of worth, 19
- confidentiality
- breaking, 55
 - child safety, 119
 - confidentiality statement, 120
 - discussing, 35
 - exceptions, 35
 - helping conversations, 246–247
 - limits of, 118–120
 - organisational responsibilities, 119
 - record-keeping, 119
- confronting, 156, 160–164, 259
- consultation, 45
- consulting colleagues, 221
- contracting, 14, 244–245
- control, relinquishing, 71
- controlling unmanageable feelings, 207
- conversations
- action stage, 14, 165–175
 - assumptions, 122
 - boundaries, 92, 116–117
 - characteristics of, 13
 - closing skills, 178
 - concrete details, 162
 - confidentiality, 118–120, 246–247
 - coping with the different types of, 15

- conversations (continued)
 - differences between helping
 - conversations and ordinary conversations, 88–89
 - disclosures, 248
 - empathy, 157–159
 - ending, 177–179
 - exploration stage, 14
 - face-to-face, 243
 - family, 242
 - focusing, 164
 - friends, 242
 - here-and-now talk, 125–126
 - immediacy, 161–162, 260–261
 - language, 137, 160
 - managing, 78–79, 92
 - metaphors, 160
 - opening, 92
 - prejudices, 122
 - prioritising, 164
 - privacy, 246
 - self-disclosure, 127–128
 - specific details, 162
 - stories, 92, 120–122
 - structure of, 129–131
 - telephone help-line, 243–247
 - themes, 158–159
 - three-stage model, 14, 89–92, 129–130
 - time, 131
 - time limits, 92, 178
 - uncharacteristic responses, 122–123
 - understanding stage, 14, 155–157
 - unexpected, 245–246
- conveying the core conditions, 132
- coping
 - with different types of helping
 - conversations, 15
 - with discussion about sexual difficulties, 206–207
- core conditions
 - conveying, 132
 - defined, 65–67
 - empathy, 124–126
 - genuineness, 126–128
 - helping relationships, 131–132
 - If . . . Then hypothesis, 65–67
 - respect, 123–124
 - core message, 125
- Counselling and Psychotherapy Research (CPR)*, 29, 267
- Counselling Directory Web site, 34, 266
- Counselling for Toads: A Psychological Adventure* (de Board), 274
- Counselling Ltd Web site, 34
- counselling skills
 - action stage in helping conversations, 166
 - benefits of developing, 9
 - blocked listening, 19–20
 - counsellors, 12
 - defined, 1–2, 11, 88–89
 - distractions, 13–14
 - effective listening, 66–68
 - experience, 299
 - interruptions, 13–14
 - knowing when not to listen, 53
 - limits of listening, 277–278
 - sessions, 12
 - value of listening, 63–64
- Counselling Skills and Theory* (Hough), 272
- counsellors
 - abuse by, 32, 36
 - accreditation, 35, 297–298, 307
 - advice, 36
 - appointments, 34
 - assertiveness, 87
 - avoiding harm, 77–78
 - benefits of the role, 72
 - cancellation policy, 36
 - career satisfaction, 74
 - challenges of the role, 72–75
 - characteristics of, 81–82
 - competence, 87
 - confidentiality, 35
 - counselling skills, 12
 - courage, 87
 - critical thinking, 83
 - effect of work on personal relationships, 71–73, 296
 - emotions, 74–75
 - empathy, 82–83, 299–300
 - experience, 35, 300, 306–307
 - fairness, 86
 - finding, 33–34
 - humility, 85–86

- information, 36
 integrity, 84–85
 job opportunities, 269–270, 296–297
 knowledge areas, 94–95
 life experiences, 300
 maturity, 300
 modes of delivery, 36
 motivations, 18–19, 295–296
 payment, 36
 personal qualities, 64–65, 81–82
 personal resources, 74
 portfolio career, 296
 qualification, 35, 304
 resilience, 85
 respect, 84
 self-disclosure, 127–128
 sincerity, 83
 theory, 35
 training, 35
 venues, 34
 wisdom, 86
 couple counselling, 33
 courage, 87
 courses for counselling skills training, 298, 300–306
CPR (Counselling and Psychotherapy Research), 29, 267
 creativity, 40
 crisis, 55–56
 critical thinking, 83
 Cruse organisation, 266
 cutting, 254
 cycle of change model, 93–94
 cycle of defences, 98–99
- D ●
- Daines, Brian, Medical and Psychiatric Issues for Counsellors, 274
 Data Protection Act legislation, 35, 58–60
 de Board, Robert, Counselling for Toads: A Psychological Adventure, 274
 deaf culture, 213
 death, 228–229 decision-making
 goals, 171
 model for ethical decision-making, 52–55
 defence mechanisms
 cycle of defences, 98–99
 defined, 18, 26
 examples, 106–109
 overcoming, 105–106
 sincerity, 83, 98–99
 undoing, 105–106
 defensive behaviours
 advising, 101–104
 being right, 101
 comparing, 101
 derailing, 101
 discounting, 103
 displacement, 99–100
 dreaming, 102
 filtering, 102
 identifying, 102
 interactive effects of, 104–105
 judging, 102
 mind-reading, 102
 placating, 103
 put-downs, 103
 recognising them in yourself, 104
 rehearsing, 103
 sparring, 103
 delivering bad news, 247–248
 demonstrating
 acceptance, 132
 empathy, 132–133
 dependence of help-seeker, 78
 depression, 223, 232
 depth, 133, 157–159
 derailing (as a defensive behaviour), 101 detective role type, 240
 developing
 assertiveness, 47–48, 250
 personal qualities, 81
Developing Person Centred Counselling (Mearns), 271–272
 developmental theories, 222
 difficult endings, 182–183
 Diploma in Counselling, 35, 297–299
 direct practice, 1–2
 direct support, 41
 Disability Discrimination legislation, 213 disabled, prejudices against, 213
 disclosures, 178–179, 248

discounting, 103
 discrimination
 ageism, 215
 classes, 215
 gender, 216
 racial, 214
 discussing confidentiality, 35 discussion groups, 30
 displacement, 99
 distractions
 avoiding, 13–14
 environment, 13–14
 internal conversations, 134–135
 distress signs and symptoms, 15, 204 disturbed emotions, 229–231
 divorce, 235
 domestic violence, 235, 254
 doorknob disclosures, 178–179, 248
 dreaming, 102
 drugs, 228

• E •

EAP (employee assistance programme), 33
 early childhood difficulties, 233
 eating disorders, 234
 edge of awareness, 156
 educative function of supervisor, 46
 effective listening, 66–68
 Egan, Gerard
 BEST-I BEST-R model, 194
 The Skilled Helper, 271 elaboration, 260
 elderly
 abuse, 215
 discrimination, 215
 old age difficulties, 233
 emotion
 anger, 76–77, 230–231
 BEST-I BEST-R model, 197
 concealing, 136–137
 counsellors, 74–75
 emotional upset, 75–76, 183
 help-seeker, 75–76
 loss, 225
 reflecting, 139

 self-care, 39
 signs of distress/stress, 204
 emotional abuse, 216, 235
 emotional distress, 229–231 emotional intelligence, 21 emotional language, 137–138
 empathy
 advanced empathy, 133
 core condition, 124–126
 defined, 70, 82, 260
 demonstrating, 132–133
 depth, 133, 157–159, 260
 frame of reference, 133
 non-verbal communication, 124
 over-identification, 124
 personal quality in counsellors, 82–83
 subtractive empathy, 133
 employee assistance programme (EAP), 33
 encouragement
 non-verbal, 135–136, 261
 self-direction, 93–94
 ending a helping conversation, 177–179 endings
 abrupt endings, 183–184
 difficult endings, 182–183
 goodbyes, 186
 immediate endings, 182
 phased endings, 181–182
 planning, 181–182
 reflecting on your own, 175–177
 reluctance to end, 186
 unexpected endings, 185
 environment
 BEST-I BEST-R model, 200
 distractions, 13
 signs of distress/stress, 204
 ethical issues, 290–294
 ethics
 boundaries, 50
 British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP) Ethical Framework, 51, 81, 254
 child protection, 56
 crisis, 55–56
 defined, 50
 ethical-mindedness, 56

examples of ethical dilemmas, 51–52
 gifts, 187–188
 helping relationships, 50
 model for ethical decision-making, 52–55
 non-maleficence, 186
 record-keeping, 57–60
 self-harm, 56–57
 suicide, 56–57
 evaluating
 goals, 173
 support network, 41–44
 work, 189–190
 evaluations, 189–190
 exceptions to confidentiality, 35 expected consequences of meeting
 goals, 172
 experience, 35, 299–300, 306–307
 explicit agreement with help-seeker, 50 exploration stage of helping conversations, 14

● F ● face-to-face helping conversations, 243

 fairness, 86
 family
 childhood development, 223
 family patterns and systems, 223
 helping conversations, 242
 family therapy, 33
 feedback
 defined, 2
 giving, 24–26 seeking, 23–24
 feeling words, 137–138
 feelings. See emotion Feltham, Colin, The Sage Handbook of Counselling and Psychotherapy, 272 figures of speech, 199 filling the gaps (in a story), 142–143
 film, 29
 filtering, 102
 finding a counsellor, 33–34 focusing helping conversations, 164 force-field analysis, 174
 frame of reference, 133, 199

friend role type, 240 friends, and helping conversations, 242 friendships, 118, 253–254
 furniture, 116
 further education colleges and universities, 269
 future-proofing, 175

● G ●

Gask, Linda, Medical and Psychiatric Issues for Counsellors, 274
 gender inequality, 216
 generalisations, 162
 genuineness, 126–128
 gestures, 136
 gifts, 187–188
 giving feedback, 24–26 giving full attention, 134
 goals
 decision-making, 171
 evaluating, 173
 expected and unintended consequences, 172
 identifying, 168–170
 maintenance, 172
 monitoring, 173
 prioritising, 171
 reaching, 171
 SMARTER exercise, 170
 support network, 172
 goodbyes, 186
 greeting help-seeker, 114–115
 group discussion, 30
 group therapy, 31–32
 guiding principles for good practice, 58

● H ● handling change, 205–206

 harm
 avoiding, 77–78
 self-harm, 77, 254–255
 Hawkins, Peter, Supervision in the Helping Professions, 273 healer role type, 240

helpers

- abuse by, 32, 36
- accreditation, 297–298, 307
- advice, 12
- assertiveness, 87
- avoiding harm, 77–78
- benefits of the role, 72
- career satisfaction, 74
- challenges of the role, 72–75
- characteristics of, 81–82
- competence, 87
- courage, 87
- critical thinking, 83
- defined, 2
- development as, 10–11, 16
- effect of work on personal relationships, 71–73, 296
- emotions, 74–75
- empathy, 82–83, 299–300
- experience, 300, 306–307
- fairness, 86
- humility, 85–86
- integrity, 84–85
- job opportunities, 269–270, 296–297
- journal, 11
- journey, 10–11
- knowledge areas, 94–95
- life experiences, 300
- maturity, 300
- motivations, 18–19
- motivations of, 18–19, 295–296
- personal qualities, 64–65, 81–82
- personal resources, 74
- portfolio career, 296
- qualification, 304
- reflection, 11
- resilience, 85
- respect, 84
- responsibilities, 14
- roles, 14, 239–241
- self-disclosure, 127–128
- sincerity, 83
- stress, 40–41
- wisdom, 86
- work as, 10–11
- worries, 40–41

helpful questions, 148–149helping behaviour, 70*helping conversations

- action stage, 14, 165–175
- assumptions, 122
- boundaries, 92, 116–117
- characteristics of, 13
- closing skills, 178
- concrete details, 162
- confidentiality, 118–120, 246–247
- copied with the different types of, 15
- differences from ordinary conversations, 88–89
- disclosures, 248
- empathy, 157–159
- ending, 177–179
- exploration stage, 14
- face-to-face, 243
- family, 242
- focusing, 164
- friends, 242
- here-and-now talk, 125–126
- immediacy, 161–162, 260–261
- language, 137, 160
- managing, 78–79, 92
- metaphors, 160
- opening, 92
- prejudices, 122
- prioritising, 164
- privacy, 246
- self-disclosure, 127–128
- specific details, 162
- stories, 92, 120–122
- structure of, 129–131
- telephone help-line, 243–247
- themes, 158–159
- three-stage model, 14, 89–92, 129–130
- time, 131
- time limits, 92, 178
- uncharacteristic responses, 122–123
- understanding stage, 14, 155–157
- unexpected, 245–246

helping relationships

- abrupt endings, 183–184
- assumptions, 26–27
- boundaries, 50

- breaks, 185
 - celebrating, 179–180
 - core conditions, 65–67, 131–132
 - ethics, 50
 - greeting help-seeker, 114–115
 - If . . . Then hypothesis, 65–67
 - meeting a help-seeker, 114–115
 - obstacles, 17–18
 - power, 27–28, 69–70, 209–210
 - prejudices, 26–27
 - reluctance to end, 186
 - reviewing, 179–180
 - seating arrangements, 116
 - starting, 113–114
 - touching, 115
 - unexpected endings, 185
 - help-line
 - abusive calls, 247
 - aural cues, 245
 - contracting, 244–245
 - helping conversations, 243–247
 - volunteering, 244, 266–267
 - help-seeker
 - agreement with, 50
 - anger, 76–77
 - challenging, 156, 160–164
 - confronting, 156, 160–164
 - contracting, 14, 244–245
 - defined, 2
 - dependence on listening helper, 78
 - doorknob disclosures, 178, 248
 - emotional upset, 75–76, 183
 - greeting, 114–115
 - manipulation, 249–251
 - meeting, 114–115
 - needs, 241
 - physical contact with, 186–187
 - touching, 115
 - here-and-now talk, 125–126
 - higher education colleges and universities, 269
 - homophobia questionnaire, 218
 - homosexuality, 218
 - Hough, Margaret, Counselling Skills and Theory, 272
 - human experience, 14–15
 - humility, 85–86
- 1 •
- 'I' statements, 24, 147
 - ideal listener, 64
 - identifying
 - blocking mechanism, 102
 - goals, 168–170
 - obstacles to a helping relationship, 17–18
 - themes, 158–159
 - If . . . Then hypothesis, 65–67
 - illogical patterns of thinking, 163
 - imagery
 - BEST-I BEST-R model, 199
 - language, 160
 - signs of distress/stress, 204
 - immediacy, 161–162, 260–261
 - immediate endings, 182
 - implicit agreement with help-seeker, 50
 - importance of personal qualities, 64–65
 - inappropriate information-seeking questions, 151
 - Incomplete Guide to Using Counselling Skills on the Telephone, An* (Sanders), 272
 - Independent Practitioner Network (IPN)
 - accreditation, 297
 - membership process, 34
 - indirect support, 41
 - information from counsellor, 36
 - Ingham, Harry (inventor of the Johari Window), 21
 - insecurities. See defence mechanisms
 - institutionalised racism, 214
 - integrity, 84–85
 - interactive effects of defensive behaviour, 104–105
 - internal conversations, 134–135
 - Internet diaries, 268
 - Internet resources, 268–269
 - interrupting, 144
 - interruptions, 13–14
 - IPN (Independent Practitioner Network)
 - accreditation, 297
 - membership process, 34

• J •

job opportunities, 269–270, 296–297
 Johari Window model, 21–23
 journal writing
 client-related information, 60
 reflection, 11, 80
 journey, 10–11
 judgements
 avoiding, 26–27
 non-verbal communication, 133–134
 judging (as a defensive behaviour), 102

• K •

Karter, John, On Training to be a Therapist: The Long and Winding Road to Qualification, 274

keeping records
 access, 58
 confidentiality, 119
 Data Protection Act, 58–60
 guidlines for content, 59
 journal, 60
 legal proceedings, 59
 medium, 59
 organisational requirements, 57–60
 ownership of records, 59
 purpose of, 58
 retention, 58
 storage, 58
 structure of records, 59
 knowing when not to listen, 53
 knowledge areas for listening helpers, 94–95

• L •

language (in helping conversations), 137, 160 Lazarus, Arnold (counselling theorist), 194
 leading questions, 151
 learning opportunities, 163 legal proceedings and records, 59 legislation
 Data Protection Act, 35, 58–60
 Disability Discrimination, 213

Leigh, Anne, Referral and Termination Issues for Counsellors, 273 library, 270
 life experiences, 300
 life stages, 206, 233–234
 Likert scale, 190
 limits of confidentiality, 118–120
 limits of listening, 277–278
 listening helpers
 abuse by, 32, 36
 accreditation, 297–298, 307
 advice, 12
 assertiveness, 87
 avoiding harm, 77–78
 benefits of the role, 72
 career satisfaction, 74
 challenges of the role, 72–75
 characteristics of, 81–82
 competence, 87
 courage, 87
 critical thinking, 83
 defined, 2
 development as, 10–11, 16
 effect of work on personal relationships, 71–73, 296
 emotions, 74–75
 empathy, 82–83, 299–300
 experience, 300, 306–307
 fairness, 86
 humility, 85–86
 integrity, 84–85
 job opportunities, 269–270, 296–297
 journal, 11
 journey, 10–11
 knowledge areas, 94–95
 life experiences, 300
 maturity, 300
 motivations, 18–19
 motivations of, 18–19, 295–296
 personal qualities, 64–65, 81–82
 personal resources, 74
 portfolio career, 296
 qualification, 304
 reflection, 11
 resilience, 85
 respect, 84
 responsibilities, 14
 roles, 14, 239–241

- self-disclosure, 127–128
 sincerity, 83
 stress, 40–41
 wisdom, 86
 work as, 10–11
 worries, 40–41
- listening skills
 action stage in helping conversations, 166
 benefits of developing, 9
 blocked listening, 19–20
 counsellors, 12
 defined, 1–2, 11, 88–89
 distractions, 13–14
 effective listening, 66–68
 experience, 299
 interruptions, 13–14
 knowing when not to listen, 53
 limits of listening, 277–278
 sessions, 12
 value of listening, 63–64
- loss
 bereavement, 226–229
 case study, 285–290
 emotional reactions, 225 understanding, 206
- low moods, 232
- Luft, Joseph (inventor of the Johari Window), 21
- M ●
- maintenance of goals, 172 management supervision, 45 managing helping conversations
 boundaries, 92
 expectations of help-seeker, 78–79
 opening, 92
 stories, 92
 time limits, 92, 178
- manic depression, 234
 manipulation, 249–251
 marginalisation of groups, 210
 maturity, 300
- Mearns, Dave
Developing Person Centred Counselling, 271–272
Person Centred Counselling in Action, 271
- Medical and Psychiatric Issues for Counsellors* (Daines, Gask, and Usherwood), 274
- meditation, 29
 meeting a help-seeker, 114–115
- mental health
 adult development, 223
 anger, 230–231
 anxiety, 231–232
 birth experiences, 222
 change, 224–225
 childhood development, 222–223
 depression, 223, 232
 developmental theories, 222
 life stages, 233–234
 low moods, 232
 nature, 221–222
 nurture, 221–222
 panic attacks, 231–232
 past-present connections, 223
 post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 229, 233
 pre-birth experiences, 222
 transitions, 224–225
- mental ill-health
 anxiety, 234
 depression, 223, 232
 eating disorders, 234
 schizophrenia, 223, 234
 self-harming behaviours, 234, 254
 stabilised bipolar disorder, 234
- mentally disabled, prejudices against, 213
- mentor role type, 240
- mentoring, 45
- metaphors
 BEST-I BEST-R model, 199
 imagery, 160
 language, 160
- middle class, 215
- middle (understanding) stage of helping conversations, 14, 155–157
- mid-life difficulties, 233
- mind and self-care, 39
- mind mapping, 174
- MIND (National Association for Mental Health) organisation, 266
- mind-reading, 102

Miracle Question, 169, 171
 mirroring, 261
 model for ethical decision-making, 52–55
 modes of delivery, 36
 monitoring
 goals, 173
 work, 50
 motivations of listening helpers, 18–19, 295–296

• N •

National Association for Mental Health (MIND) organisation, 266
 national organisations, 266–267
 nature, 221–222
The Nature of Unhappiness (Smail), 211 needs of help-seeker, 241 negative stereotypes, 27 Newcastle, North Tyneside, and Northumberland Mental Health NHS Trust Web site, 269
 niceness, 252
 non-maleficence, 186
 non-verbal communication
 empathy, 124
 encouragement, 135–136, 261
 judgements, 133–134
 non-verbal exploration, 29
 normalising experience, 127–128 normative function of supervisor, 45–46
 note-taking, 146
 nature, 221–222

• O • observations, reflecting, 139 obstacles to helping relationship, 17–18 obstacles to listening

 advising, 101
 being right, 101
 comparing, 101
 defence mechanisms, 98–99
 defences, 97–98
 derailing, 101
 discounting, 103

dreaming, 102
 filtering, 102
 identifying, 102
 judging, 102
 mind-reading, 102
 placating, 103
 rehearsing, 103
 sparring, 103
 obtaining accreditation, 297–298, 307
 old age difficulties, 233
On Training to be a Therapist: The Long and Winding Road to Qualification (Karter), 274
 open questions, 148–150, 261
 opening exploration, 262
 opening helping conversations, 92
 oppression, 26–27, 211–212
 organisational requirements for keeping records, 57–60 organisational responsibilities and
 confidentiality, 119
 organisations, 266–267
 overcoming defence mechanisms, 105–106
 over-identification, 124
 over-probing questions, 151
 ownership of records, 59

• P •

panic attacks, 204, 231–232
 paraphrasing, 140–141, 262
 parent role type, 240
 past-present connections, 223
 payment, 36
 peer attachments, 222
 peer counselling, 31
 peer group discussion, 30
Person Centred Counselling in Action
 (Mearns and Thorne), 271 personal development activities, 30
 challenging yourself, 28–30
 couple counselling, 33
 family therapy, 33
 film, 29
 group discussion, 30

- group therapy, 31–32
- importance of, 10
- meditation, 29
- nonverbal exploration, 29
- peer counselling, 31
- personal therapy, 31–33
- prayer, 29
- radio, 29
- reading, 28–29
- relationship counselling, 33
- television, 29
- theatre, 29
- writing as therapy, 29
- personal qualities
 - assertiveness, 87
 - commitment, 82
 - competence, 87
 - courage, 87
 - developing, 81
 - empathy, 82–83
 - evaluation of by selectors, 299–300
 - fairness, 86
 - humility, 85–86
 - importance of, 64–65
 - integrity, 84–85
 - life experience, 300
 - maturity, 300
 - resilience, 85
 - respect, 84
 - sincerity, 83
 - wisdom, 86
- personal references, 299
- personal relationships, effect of counselling
 - work on, 71–73, 296
- personal resources, 74
- personal supports, 44
- personal therapy, 31–33
- phased endings, 181–182
- physical contact with help-seeker, 186–187
- physical presentation of body, 195–196
- physically disabled, prejudices against, 213–214
- placating, 103
- planning endings, 181–182
- Platts, Brinley, Building Confidence For Dummies, 48
- poor attachments, 222
- poorly timed questions, 151
- portfolio career, 296
- positive reframing, 163
- positive transference, 104–105
- post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 229, 233
- posture, 136
- power
 - helping relationships, 27–28, 69–70, 209–210
 - marginalisation of groups, 210
 - society, 210
- practice
 - direct practice, 1–2
 - effect on personal relationships, 296
 - evaluating, 189–190
 - feedback, 2
 - guiding principles for good practice, 58
 - monitoring, 50
 - record-keeping, 57–60
 - reflecting on, 49, 79–80
 - replenishing your batteries, 46
 - self-care, 10, 38
- prayer, 29
- pre-birth experiences, 222
- prejudices
 - affirmative approach, 219
 - ageism, 215
 - avoiding, 26–27
 - classes, 215
 - forms of, 26–27, 211–212
 - helping conversations, 122
 - mental disabled, 213
 - physically disabled, 213–214
 - racism, 214
 - sexuality, 216–218
- prescribing, 70
- presenting problem, 142–143
- prevailing attitudes in society, 211
- priest role type, 240
- Princess Diana, 229
- principles for good practice, 58
- prioritising
 - goals, 171
 - helping conversations, 164

privacy, 246
 private counsellors, 34
 probing, 142–143
 problem-solving
 action stage of helping conversations, 168–175
 assessing strengths and limitations, 174
 defined, 19–20, 262
 future-proofing, 175
 mind mapping, 174
 scaling and measuring, 174
 procedures for complaints, 255–256
 Proctor, Brigid (counselling pioneer), 45–46
 professional bodies, 265–266
 professional supports, 44
 prompting, 143
The Psychotherapist, 267
 PTSD (post-traumatic stress disorder), 229, 233 purpose of keeping records, 58
 put-downs, 103

• Q •

qualification, 35, 304
 qualities of counsellors
 assertiveness, 87
 commitment, 82
 competence, 87
 courage, 87
 developing, 81
 empathy, 82–83
 evaluation of by selectors, 299–300
 fairness, 86
 humility, 85–86
 importance of, 64–65
 integrity, 84–85
 life experience, 300
 maturity, 300
 resilience, 85
 respect, 84
 sincerity, 83
 wisdom, 86
 questioning
 alternatives to questions, 147
 closed questions, 149–151
 helpful questions, 148–149

inappropriate information-seeking questions, 151
 leading questions, 151
 open questions, 148–150, 261
 over-probing questions, 151
 poorly timed questions, 151
 power, 70
 responding to questions, 152–153
 role of, 145–147
 tentative approach to, 149–150
 unhelpful questions, 151
 why questions, 151
 questionnaires
 homophobia questionnaire, 218
 Likert scale, 190
 self-care questionnaire, 37–40

• R •

racism, 214
 radio, 29
 reaching goals, 171
 reading, 28–29
 reasons to stick within boundaries, 251–252
 record-keeping
 access, 58
 confidentiality, 119
 Data Protection Act, 58–60
 guidelines for content, 59
 journal, 60
 legal proceedings, 59
 medium, 59
 organisational requirements, 57–60
 ownership of records, 59
 purpose of, 58
 retention, 58
 storage, 58
 structure of records, 59
 references, 299
Referral and Termination Issues for Counsellors (Leigh), 273 referrals, 188–189
 reflecting
 defined, 70, 138, 262–263
 emotion, 139
 on facts, 138–139

- on feedback, 24
 - journal writing, 11, 80
 - observations, 139
 - on practice/work, 49, 79–80
 - on thoughts, 138–139
 - on your own endings and transitions, 175–177
 - reflection techniques
 - paraphrasing, 140–141, 262
 - silence, 144–145
 - summarising, 70, 140–141, 263
 - Reflective Practice: Writing and Professional Development* (Bolton), 273
 - reframing, 163
 - rehearsing, 103
 - Relate counselling service, 211, 267
 - relationship counselling, 33, 234–235
 - relationships (helping)
 - abrupt endings, 183–184
 - assumptions, 26–27
 - boundaries, 50
 - breaks, 185
 - celebrating, 179–180
 - core conditions, 65–67, 131–132
 - ethics, 50
 - greeting help-seeker, 114–115
 - If . . . Then hypothesis, 65–67
 - meeting a help-seeker, 114–115
 - obstacles, 17–18
 - power, 27–28, 69–70, 209–210
 - prejudices, 26–27
 - reluctance to end, 186
 - reviewing, 179–180
 - seating arrangements, 116
 - starting, 113–114
 - touching, 115
 - unexpected endings, 185
 - relationships (personal)
 - BEST-I BEST-R model, 203
 - relationship-building skills, 89–91
 - signs of distress/stress, 204
 - strained relationships, 207
 - relinquishing control, 71
 - reluctance to end helping relationships, 186
 - replenishing your batteries, 46
 - resilience, 85
 - respect, 84, 123–124, 263
 - responding to questions, 152–153
 - responsibilities of listening helper, 14
 - restorative function of supervisor, 45–46
 - retention of records, 58
 - reviewing helping relationships, 179–180
 - Rogers, Carl (counselling theorist and educator), 19, 65
 - Rogers' Core Conditions, 65–67, 131–132
 - roles of listening helper
 - defined, 14, 239–241
 - detective, 240
 - friend, 240
 - healer, 240
 - mentor, 240
 - parent, 240
 - priest, 240
 - teacher, 240
- S ●
- safe space, 32
 - safety of children, 119
 - The Sage Handbook of Counselling and Psychotherapy* (Feltham), 272
 - Samaritans organisation, 57, 267
 - Sanders, Pete, An Incomplete Guide to Using Counselling Skills on the Telephone, 272
 - SANE Web site, 269
 - saying goodbye, 186
 - scaling and measuring in problem-solving, 174
 - schizophrenia, 223, 234
 - seating arrangements, 116
 - secure attachments, 222
 - seeking feedback, 23–24
 - self-acceptance, 128
 - self-awareness, 18, 21–23, 250
 - self-beliefs, 163
 - self-care
 - body, 38
 - creativity, 40
 - emotions, 39
 - importance of, 10–11
 - mind, 39
 - questionnaire, 37–40
 - replenishing your batteries, 46

- self-care (continued)
 - spirit, 40
 - support network, 41–44
 - work, 38
- self-defeating thinking, 163
- self-direction, 93–94
- self-disclosure, 127–128
- self-esteem, 18
- self-harm
 - behaviours, 234, 254–255
 - defined, 77
 - ethics, 56–57
 - handling situations with, 254–255
- self-help books, 267–268
- self-protection, 18, 26
- self-understanding, 10
- sensation
 - BEST-I BEST-R model, 197
 - signs of distress/stress, 204
- separation, 235
- sessions
 - counselling skills sessions versus counselling sessions, 12
 - emotional upset at the end of, 183
- setting boundaries, 32, 116–117
- setting for helping conversations, 34, 218
- sexual problems, 234–235
- sexuality
 - coping with sexual difficulties, 206–207
 - homosexuality, 218
 - prejudices, 216–218
- Shohet, Robert, Supervision in the Helping Professions, 273
- signs of distress/stress, 15, 203–205
- silence, 144–145
- sincerity, 83
- The Skilled Helper* (Egan), 271
- Smail, David, The Nature of Unhappiness, 211
- SMARTER acronym, 43–44, 170
- society
 - oppression, 26–27, 211–212
 - power, 210
 - prejudices, 26–27, 211–212
 - prevailing attitudes, 211
 - socio-cultural influences, 209
- sparring, 103
- speaker
 - agreement with, 50
 - anger, 76–77
 - challenging, 156, 160–164
 - confronting, 156, 160–164
 - contracting, 14, 244–245
 - defined, 2
 - dependence on listening helper, 78
 - doorknob disclosures, 178, 248
 - emotional upset, 75–76, 183
 - greeting, 114–115
 - meeting, 114–115
 - needs, 241
 - physical contact with, 186–187
 - touching, 115
- specific details in helping conversations, 162
- spirit
 - BEST-I BEST-R model, 201
 - self-care, 40
 - signs of distress/stress, 204
- stabilised bipolar disorder, 234
- starting helping relationships, 113–114
- stereotypes, 27
- storage of records, 58
- stories (in helping conversations), 92, 120–122
- strained relationships, 207
- strategies for managing change, 226
- stress
 - childhood development, 223
 - listening helper, 40–41
 - signs of, 15
 - symptoms of, 15
- structure of helping conversations, 129–131
- structure of records, 59
- struggling student case study, 279–285
- substance abuse, 195, 228
- subtractive empathy, 133
- sudden death, 228
- suicide
 - bereavement process, 228
 - dealing with as a counsellor, 254
 - ethics, 56–57
 - Samaritans organisation, 57
 - summarising, 70, 140–141, 263
 - supervision, 45–46

Supervision in the Helping Professions (Hawkins and Shohet), 273

support network
 evaluating, 41–44
 goals, 172
 personal supports, 44
 professional supports, 44
survivor guilt, 229 symbols, 199
symptoms of distress/stress, 15

• T •

taking notes, 146 teacher role type, 240
teasing, 222
telephone help-line
 abusive calls, 247
 aural cues, 245
 contracting, 244–245
 helping conversations, 243–247
 volunteering, 244, 266–267
television, 29
tentative approach to questioning, 149–150
theatre, 29
themes, 158–159
then-and-now immediacy, 161–162
theory, 35
The Therapeutic Potential of Creative Writing: Writing Myself (Bolton), 29, 273 therapy
 abuse, 32
 family therapy, 33
 group therapy, 31–32
 personal therapy, 31–33
 writing as therapy, 29
Therapy Today, 29–30, 267
thinking
 automatic thoughts, 163
 belief patterns, 163
 BEST-I BEST-R model, 198–199
 critical thinking, 83
 illogical patterns of thinking, 163
 self-defeating thinking, 163
 signs of distress/stress, 204
 ‘What if . . .?’ pattern of thinking, 198

Thorne, Brian, Person Centred Counselling in Action, 271

three-stage model of helping conversations, 14, 89–92, 129–130
time
 BEST-I BEST-R model, 201–202
 signs of distress/stress, 204
time limits for helping conversations, 92, 131, 178 touching help-seeker, 115 tracking, 262
training
 Certificate in Counselling Skills, 298
 commitment, 303–304
 courses, 298, 300–306
 Diploma in Counselling, 35, 297–299
 professional bodies, 265
transference
 defined, 104
 positive transference, 104–105
transitions
 reflecting on your own, 175–177
 strategies for managing, 226
 types of, 224
trauma
 body, 196
 childhood development, 222
travelling, 198 trust, 17–18

• U •

UKCP (United Kingdom Council for Psychotherapy)
 accreditation, 297–298
 contact information, 266
 membership process, 34
uncharacteristic responses in helping conversations, 122–123 understanding loss, 206
understanding skills, 89–91 understanding stage of helping conversations, 14, 155–157 undoing defence mechanisms, 105–106
unexpected endings, 185

unexpected helping conversations, 245–246
 unhelpful questions, 151
 unintended consequences of meeting goals, 172 United Kingdom Council for Psychotherapy (UKCP)
 accreditation, 297–298
 contact information, 266
 membership process, 34
 university counselling services, 269
 unmanageable feelings, controlling, 207
 Usherwood, Tim, Medical and Psychiatric Issues for Counsellors, 274

• U •

value of listening, 63–64
 venues, 34
 viewing the body of a lost loved one, 227
 volunteering Cruse, 266
 help-lines, 244, 266–267
 MIND (National Association for Mental Health), 266 Relate, 267
 Samaritans, 267

• W •

WEA (Workers' Educational Association), 269
 Web logs, 268

'What if . . .?' pattern of thinking, 198
 why questions, 151
 Wikipedia, 268
 wisdom, 86
 women and gender inequality, 216
 work
 direct practice, 1–2
 effect on personal relationships, 296
 evaluating, 189–190
 feedback, 2
 guiding principles for good practice, 58
 monitoring, 50
 record-keeping, 57–60
 reflecting on, 49, 79–80
 replenishing your batteries, 46
 self-care, 10, 38
 Workers' Educational Association (WEA), 269 working class, 215
 workplace counselling, 33
 worries, 40–41
 writing
 journal writing, 11, 80
 therapy, 29

• Y •

you-me talk, 162
 young adulthood difficulties, 233