

Index

A

Acceptance of self, 135, 186
 Administrators and department chairs, as enablers, 173–174
 Adulthood, seasons of, 135
 Advice to faculty, 258–260
 Advice to graduate students, 256–258
 Aspirations, scaled-down, 140–145
 Assertiveness, 124–126, 250–252
 Attention, divided, 25–26
 Austin, A., 24
 Author's experiences, 12–16

B

Baker, S. M., 231
 Bee, H. L., 135, 162
 Biological clock, racing against,
 48–52
 Bjorklund, B. R., 135, 162
 Bostic, T., 8, 15, 270, 273
 Boundaries, setting, 120–123
 Brantner, C., 111

C

Caplan, P., 3
 Career aspirations, scaled-down,
 140–145
 Career paths, nonlinear, 168–170
Challenges of the Faculty Career for Women: organization of, 16–17; as qualitative interview study, 6–11

Child care, 70, 92, 94, 95, 96,
 235–236, 258
 Colbeck, C., 2, 23, 263, 265
 Comparisons: across generations,
 206–228; of disciplinary background, 191–192; men versus women, 192–206
 Conclusion of qualitative study,
 261–271
 Coping strategies: early-career, 70–79;
 late-career, 168–190; mid-career,
 109–126
 Corporatization of the university, 159
 Costs: feeling torn, 145–149; sacrifices of pioneers and outsiders, 154–161;
 scaled-down aspirations, 140–145;
 unbearable, 149–154
 Counseling opportunities, 237
 Creative outlets, 117
 Curtis, J. W., 2

D

Data collection process, 7, 10, 11
 Day care, 70, 92, 94, 95, 96, 235–236,
 258
 Decompressing at end of day, 74–75
 Degree inflation, 218
 DeVellis, R. F., 274, 286
 Divided attention of parents, 25–26
 Division of labor for parents, 26–28,
 72, 200–204, 211–212

Drago, R., 2, 263

Dual career issue, 52–58, 236–237, 263

E

Early career: coping strategies during, 70–79; ill-defined expectations and, 19–24; of immigrant scholars, 58–69, 80; of parents on tenure-track, 25–46; of single women, 46–52; two-body problem during, 52–58

Ego development, theory of, 135

Elder care, 136–139, 236, 266

Empty-nesters, 134, 136–137, 152, 165

Erikson, E., 135

Erskine, W., 2

Exemplar model of tenure, 242–244, 268

Expectations, ill-defined, 19–24

Experience, as an enabler, 176–177

F

Faculty, advice to, 258–260

Faculty clubs, 233

Families, advice for faculty considering, 258–260

Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), 38, 40, 43, 139

Family members, as enablers, 177–178

Family policies, redesigned, 238–239

Fatigue, 32, 85, 144

Female faculty: conclusions on, 261–271; early-career, 19–80; evolution of study on, 6–11; late-career, 127–190; mid-career, 81–126; numbers of, 1; prospects for, 1–2; recommendations for, 232–260; in tenured positions, 1

Finkel, S. K., 263

Flexibility: as an enabler, 168–174; paradox of, 22–23

Folbre, N., 139

Friends, as enablers, 119–120, 178–180

G

Gen X scholars, 24

Gender-based reform in higher education, 2–3

Generations, comparisons across, 206–228

Glazer-Raymo, J., 3, 154, 159, 261

Gornick, J. C., 88

Goulden, M., 26, 33, 39, 46, 48, 262

Graduate school, having kids in, 98–102

Graduate students, advice to, 256–258

Guilt: feeling torn, 145–149; in late-career period, 148–149; mothering and, 32, 91, 97–98; over work expectations, 19–24

H

Hiring household help, 259–260

Hiring issue, spousal, 52–58, 236–237, 263

Homosexual faculty, 102–105, 265

Horizontal violence, 221

Hostile institutions, 91–98

Husbands: division of labor and, 26–28, 72, 200–204, 211–212; stay-at-home, 89–91, 264; suitable mates, 254; supportive, 86–89

I

Identity, defining your, 102–109

Immigrant scholars, 58–69, 80, 236, 263–264

Imposter syndrome, 73

Integration, 79

Interviews, job, 246–248

Interviews with study participants, 6–11

Irish universities, 56

Isolation, sense of, 23, 59, 62–63, 68, 83, 236

J

Jaggar, A., 206

Job interviews, 246–248

Jones, K. B., 85, 86

K

Kammerman, S. B., 79, 91
 Kegan, R., 270
 Kelly-Gadol, J., 191

L

Lammi-Taskula, J., 260
 Late-career faculty: coping strategies for, 168–190; elder care and, 136–139, 236, 266; regrets and sacrifices of, 140–161; retirement issues for, 162–167; self-actualization for, 127–136
 Lesbian professors, 102–105, 265
 Lesko, N., 224
 Letherby, G., 25
 Levinson, D., 135
 Lists and calendars, 75
 Litwak, B. A., 270
 Liu, M., 243
 Lizotte, L., 270
 Loevinger, J., 135

M

Madden, M., 3
 Male privilege, 192–206, 267
 Mallon, W., 243
 Marchbank, J., 25
 Marcus, J., 1, 241, 242
 Mason, M. A., 26, 33, 39, 46, 48, 262
 Maternity leave policies, 38–46, 210, 211, 238, 263, 268
 Menopause, 51, 180
 Mentors, 112, 178–179, 205, 221, 233, 250
 Methods, study, 6–11
 Meyers, M. K., 88
 Mid-career: coping strategies during, 109–126; defining your identity during, 102–109; inability to say no and, 81; mothering in, 85–102; workload during, 82–85
 Miller, K. L., 3, 230
 Miller, S. M., 3, 230
 Misogyny, 195–198, 267

Money: cost of reform, 268; as an enabler, 178; maternity leave and, 41, 43; salary inequities, 101, 195, 214
 Mothering in mid-career: benefits and pressures of, 98–102; caretaking role and, 85–86; guilt and, 97–98; hostile institutions and, 91–98; stay-at-home dads and, 89–91, 264; supportive husbands and, 86–89.
See also Parents on tenure-track,
 Multitasking, 35, 77, 115

N

No, ability to say, 21, 81, 94, 184, 213, 249, 251
 Noddings, N., 271
 Nonlinear career paths, 168–170

O

O'Donovan, K. F., 262
 Ogbu, J., 69
 Olsen, D., 19
 Olswang, S., 263
 Outsiders and pioneers, 154–161, 266

P

Pain tolerance, 174–176
 Parents: forum for, 238; policies supporting, 239
 Parents on tenure-track: divided attention of, 25–26; division of labor for, 26–28, 72, 200–204, 211–212; maternity leave policies and, 38–46, 210, 211, 238, 263, 268; sacrifices of, 29–34; single parenting, 34–38. See also Mothering in mid-career,
 Participants, study, 4–5
 Paternal leave, 260
 Philipsen, M., 15, 270, 273, 274
 Pioneers and outsiders, 154–161, 266
 Places used for this study, 5–6
 Policies, maternity leave, 38–46, 210, 211, 238, 263, 268

340 INDEX

Policies on mutual dependency of professional and personal lives, 244–249
 Positive affirmations, 182
 Prayer, 73, 118–119
 Pressures, increase in, 219–220, 227
 Prestigious universities, women faculty at, 154
 Professional aspirations, scaled-down, 140–145

Q

Qualitative interview study: conclusion, 261–271; early-career women, 19–80; evolution of, 6–11; late-career women, 127–190; mid-career women, 81–126; recommendations, 232–260
 Quantitative assessment: conclusion, 285–286; constructs measured, 275–276; of early-career women: 279–281; limitations of, 277–278; of mid-career women, 282–284; recruitment for, 276–277; results, 278; starting point for, 273; survey construction, 274

R

Ramsay, K., 25
 Raymond, J., 139
 Recommendations: advice for interim, 249–260; reform of academe, 232–249
 Reform of academe: general recommendations, 232–235; specific recommendations, 235–249
 Regrets and sacrifices: feeling torn, 145–149; of pioneers and outsiders, 154–161; scaled-down aspirations, 140–145; unbearable costs, 149–154
 Retirement, 162–167
 Rice, R. E., 24
 Rimer, S., 139
 Rønnig, H., 194
 Rosser, S., 3, 193

S

Sabbaticals, 113, 162, 239, 268
 Sacrifices: of immigrant scholars, 58–69; of parents on tenure-track, 29–34. See also Regrets and sacrifices,
 Salary inequities, 101, 195, 214
 Sandwich generation, 136, 137, 266
 Scaled-down aspirations, 140–145
 Seidman, I., 9
 Self-acceptance, 135, 186
 Self-actualization, 127–136
 Self-monitoring, 186
 Self-talk, 73, 115
 Sexism, 216
 Sexual harassment, 196–198
 She, N., 263
 Shiel, J., 25
 Simeone, A., 214
 Simmons, S., 262
 Single parenting, 34–38
 Single women: ability to focus and, 46–48; biological clock and, 48–52
 Sister circles, 178–180
 Sorcinelli, M. D., 19, 24
 Spalter-Roth, R., 2
 Sports facilities, university, 234
 Spousal hiring issue, 52–58, 236–237, 263
 Stanley, T., 98
 Stay-at-home dads, 89–91, 264
 Stress, 24, 85, 97, 214, 227, 228, 268. See also Regrets and sacrifices,
 Success, defined, 231, 252–253
 Support groups, 160, 178–180, 255–256. See also Mentors,
 Supportive husbands, 86–89

T

Tenure, exemplar model of, 242–244, 268
 Tenure process, redesign of, 240–242
 Travel, 76, 182, 185
 Trower, C., 24

Trubeck, A., 58

Two-body problem, 52–58, 236–237,
263

Tyack, D., 45

U

Unbearable costs, 149–154

Unhelpful female faculty, 221

Universities used for this study,
5–6

V

Voluntary minorities, 58–69

Vygotsky, L., 9

W

Ward, K., 263, 267, 277

Warner, J., 97, 98

Wergin, J., 269

West, M. S., 2

Williams, J., 98, 126

Wilson, R., 2

Wolfinger, N., 26, 33, 39, 46,
48, 262

Wolf-Wendel, L., 263, 267

Work expectations, ill-defined,
19–24

Workload during mid-career,
82–85

