

CONTENTS

Foreword xi

Gail McClure

Preface xiii

The Editors xix

The Contributors xxiii

PART ONE: GLOBALIZATION AND THE MARKET ECONOMY 1

1. Adult Education and Social Transformation 5

Zelda Groener

2. Adult Education and the Empowerment of the Individual in a Global Society 15

Cecilia Amaluisa Fiallos

3. Development of Educators in Relation to Globalization
in Latin America 30

Juan José Madrigal Goerne

4. Globalization and the Future of Critical Adult Education 41

John D. Holst

5. In the Belly of the Beast: Globalization and Adult Education in the United States 53

Fred M. Schied

6. Adult Education and the Mass Media in the Age of Globalization 64

Talmadge C. Guy

7. Framing a Critical Discourse on Globalization 78

Daniel V. Folkman

PART TWO: MARGINALIZED POPULATIONS 91

8. Is Adult Education an Agent for Change or Instrument of the Status Quo? 95

Vivian W. Mott

9. Race, Politics, and Economic Self-Sufficiency in a Culture of Welfare Reform 106

Mary V. Alfred

10. Women Facing Internal Armed Conflict: The Challenge for Adult Education 118

Mónica Arboleda Giraldo

11. Using Visual Methods to Bring People to the Center 129

Doria Daniels

12. Women's Learning and Development in the Workplace 143

Laura L. Bierema

13. Mainstreaming Marginalized Populations Through Adult Education Programs: The Herdboys in Lesotho 158

Mantina V. Mohasi

14. Disability as an Issue of Marginalization 169

Tonette S. Rocco

15. The Intersection of Education, Hegemony, and Marginalization
Within the Academy 182

Vanessa Sheared

16. Breaking Down Barriers: Challenging the Hegemony of Privileged Positionalities 193

Lisa M. Baumgartner

PART THREE: ENVIRONMENT AND HEALTH 205

17. The Role of the Church in Combating HIV/AIDS 209
Irene Ellen Chadibe
18. Western and Indigenous African Knowledge Systems Affecting Gender and HIV/AIDS Prevention in Botswana 219
Peggy Gabo Ntseane
19. Aligning Health Promotion and Adult Education for Healthier Communities 231
Barbara J. Daley
20. “He Hits Me and My World Shatters. . . .”: How Could Adult Education Possibly Make a Difference Here? 243
M. Carolyn Clark
21. The Greening of the Adult Education Academy 254
Edward W. Taylor
22. Environmental Adult Education: Producing Polychromatic Spaces for a Sustainable World 265
Robert J. Hill
23. Adult Education on the Environmental Margin: A Call for Action 278
Barbara McDonald

PART FOUR: COMMUNITY EMPOWERMENT 291

24. Adult Education and Social Capital: Supporting Communities in the Context of HIV/AIDS 295
Gillian Attwood
25. Transformative Learning: A Community Empowerment Conduit for African American Women 307
Juanita Johnson-Bailey
26. Adult Education for Community Empowerment: Toward the Possibility of Another World 319
Rita María Ceballos
27. Noninstrumental Objectives for Contemporary Popular Education 332
Julián Alberto González
28. Adult Literacy Education and Empowerment in Africa: Problems and Prospects 344
Tonic Maruatona

29. Literacy as a Human Right: Research and Policies 356

Vera Masagão Ribeiro

30. Improving the Effectiveness of Volunteers in Community-Based Adult Literacy Education 368

Alisa Belzer

PART FIVE: LIFELONG LEARNING AND EDUCATIONAL SYSTEMS 381

31. Radical Mutuality and Self-Other Relationship in Adult Education 387

Marsha Rossiter

32. Low-Income Adult Learners in Higher Education: Politics,
Policies, and Praxis 399

Catherine A. Hansman

33. Research in Popular and Adult Education in Latin America 412

Mercedes Ruiz

34. Ways of Organizing Knowledge for Teaching in Youth and Adult
Education 422

María del Carmen Lorenzatti

35. Building a Learning Community for Parents and Directors of Educational Establishments in Chile 433

Javier Corvalán

36. Popular Education and Lifelong Learning: An Integrative Approach to Poverty, Development, and Change 443

Peter G. Malvicini

37. Challenges in Setting up Systems for Assessing Prior Experiential
Learning in Higher Distance Education 455

Rita Kizito

38. The Role of “Learning-Committed Leaders” in Lifelong Learning 469

Andrea D. Ellinger

PART SIX: CONCLUSION 483

39. The Role of Adult Education in Addressing Global Issues 485

Sharan B. Merriam, Bradley C. Courtenay, Ronald M. Cervero

Name Index 497

Subject Index 507