

SUBJECT INDEX

A

- ABC prevention campaign, 220, 296
 Ação Educativa (Brazil), 359, 361
 Accreditation issues, 424
 ACE ("Alliance for a Caring Economy")
 seminar, 102
 Activism: grassroots education and environmental, 272–273, 282; grassroots education leading to global protest, 270–271, 449–451
 ACT/SAT scores, 405
 ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) [1990], 176, 177
 Adult education: aligning health promotion and, 235–240; CEM (continuing medical education), 96; challenge of marketplace versus civil society, 112–115; challenges of low-income adults in, 403–406; cognitive development approach to, 86–88; in context of democracy, 126–127; environmental education in context of, 259–263, 267–274, 278–287; examining globalization impact on critical, 43–45, 352–353; global society role of, 78–81; grassroots movements as, 270–273, 449–451; HIV/AIDS crisis and, 138, 159–164, 202, 204–215, 215–217, 219–229, 295–305; Lesotho partnerships in, 163–166; mainstreaming marginalized populations through, 158–167; making a difference in domestic violence, 243–252; marginalized Lesotho herdboys and role of, 162–163; mass media as system of informal, 64–65, 73; non-instrumental objectives of popular, 332–342; opening ways to life through, 321; participation in continuing and, 96–97; positivism and privilege in, 97–99; as reflecting economic/philosophical values, 101–102; responses to globalization by, 59–61, 487–489; role/responsibilities in global society, 24–27, 42–43, 49–50, 489–495; social justice promoted by, 193–200; South African social transformation impact on, 5–14; welfare reform in context of, 108–109; for women living in context of internal armed conflict, 118–127. See also Continuing education; Curriculum; EDJA (education of youth and adults); Educational system; Higher education
Adult Education Quarterly (AEQ), 59
 Adult education relationships: radical mutuality, 382–383, 388–391; self-other, 391–396
 Adult education research. See Research
 Adult educators: authenticity of, 392–393, 397; challenging hegemony of patriarchal culture, 193–194; contextualization of social, political, economic realities by, 425; health promotion teaching by, 237–239; pedagogical

508 SUBJECT INDEX

- Adult educators: (continued) intervention implications for training of, 430; proposed pedagogical intervention by,
 424–431; radical mutuality between learner and, 382–383, 388–391; respect for lived experience of students by, 387–388, 455–466; responses to globalization by academic, 59–61; role/responsibilities in globalization era, 24–27, 42–43, 49–50, 489–495;
 social justice responsibilities of, 201–202;
 training EPJA (education of young persons and adults), 37–39. See also Teaching
- Adult learners: financial funding barriers faced by, 405–406; history of higher education, 400–401; low-income, 399–408; marginalization of, 99–100; radical mutuality between educator and, 382–383, 388–391; research on higher education, 401–402; respect for life experience of, 387–388, 455–466;
 rethinking concept of, 425; welfare reform
 as punishing, 404–405
- Adult Learning* (Bélanger), 381
- Adult literacy education: African context of, 344–348; Brazilian experience with,
 356–365; empowerment through, 348–349;
 establishment of library services as part of,
 351–353; participatory approaches used in,
 349–351. See also Literacy
- Adult-centered society, 320–323
- AEE (adult environmental education), 266.
See also Environmental education
- AFDC (Aid to Families with Dependent Children), 106
- AFL-CIO, 143
- Africa: adult literacy education empowerment in, 344–353; boom-and-bust period (1975–1984), 346–347; FGM (female genital mutilation) practice in, 246–247; learning for development, 451–452; postindependence euphoria period, 345–346; renaissance era
 (2001 to date), 348; structural adjustment era
 (1985–2000), 347. See also HIV/AIDS crisis
- African American women: consciousness shaped by oppositional living, 307–308; empowerment through transformative learning, 307–316; impact of stress on, 313; “myth of the strong black woman” and, 314; portrayal of poor, 110; wage gap of, 195–196; “welfare racism” against, 111–112. See also
 Women of color
- African Americans: difficulties in American schools by, 183; multiple experiences of black identities by, 182; as percentage of low-income adult learners, 403
- Agenda 21, 269
- Agenda for the Future* (CONFINTEA), 1, 205
- AIDS. See HIV/AIDS crisis
- Alienation: disability and, 175, 177; Marx’s notion of, 173
- American Association for Adult and Continuing Education, 286
- American Cancer Society, 238
- “American Dream,” 55
- American hip-hop culture, 70–71, 72
- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) [1990], 176, 177
- Analytical examination of adult education:
 analytical tools used in, 414–415;
 challenges involved in, 420; described,
 412–413; final considerations in, 420–421;
 problems encountered during, 416–419;
 UPREZ on elements of, 413–414,
 415–416, 421
- Anatomy of Human Destructivity* (Fromm), 20
- Anglican Communion, 209, 212
- Angola civil war, 119
- ANTA (Australian National Training Authority), 457
- Apartheid South Africa, 6–8
- APEL (accreditation of prior experiential learning) [United Kingdom], 460
- Appreciative inquiry, 444
- Argentine educational institutions, 426
- Asian society, 447
- Association for the Development of Education in Africa, 164
- ASTD (American Society for Training and Development), 470
- Atlanta Declaration Aids National Interfaith Network, 212
- Australian National Framework for the Recognition of Training, 461
- Authenticity, 392–393, 397
- B
- Banco Mundial, 15
- “Banking approach” to learning, 375, 452
- Basotho population. See Lesotho
- Behind Enemy Lines* (film), 69–70
- Belief systems: attitude toward disability and, 175, 176; indigenous reproductive, 227. See also Culture
- “Big Five” (media organizations), 65
- Black and Blue* (Quindlen), 244–246
- Black Women’s Liberation Group, 200
- Bonding social capital, 298
- Bosnia civil war, 121
- Bostwana “ABC” prevention, 220, 296

- Botswana: adult education in context of HIV/AIDS in, 220–222; boom-and-bust period (1975–1984), 346; capitalism system adopted by, 346; HIV/AIDS crisis context in, 219–220; HIV/AIDS crisis and use of indigenous epistemology, 224–229; indigenous knowledge and adult education in, 222–224
- Brazil: educational reforms in, 436; evolution of literacy standards in, 357–359; illiteracy in, 357–358, 361, 363; illiteracy rates in, 358; research on adult literacy policies in, 362–365
- Brazilian Network for Human Development, 92
- Brazilian Statistics Institute, 358
- Bridging social capital, 298
- Bristol-Myers Squibb (BMS), 166
- Brundtland Report (1983), 19, 20
- “Bully Broads” training program, 147–148
- C
- CACE (Centre for Adult and Continuing Education) [South Africa], 11
- CAEL (Council for Adult and Experiential Learning), 460
- Cambodian civil war, 119
- Campbell Soup, 198
- Canada: PLA implementation in adult education of, 460; workplace learning in, 11
- Cape Town (South Africa), 5
- Capital: cultural, 399, 406; migration loss of Mexican human, 31–32; organic composition of, 47; social, 297–298, 301–304
- Capitalism: “casino,” 49; global network, 67; technological developments, globalization, and crisis of, 48–49. See also Economic growth
- Caring relationship, 390–391
- “Casino capitalism,” 49
- CBPAR (community-based, participatory action research), Hmong refugee community and use of, 86–88
- CEM (continuing medical education), 96
- Center for Partnership Studies (California), 102
- Center for the Study of Liberal Education, 60
- Centers for pedagogical support (Argentina), 426
- Century Foundation, 55
- Change: development through, 448–449; post-modern perspectives on, 446–447
- Chile: educational reform in, 433–435; National System of Educational Quality Measurement (SIMCE) used in, 436; parent participation in adult education, 436–438
- Christian Council of Namibia, 211
- Churches: community-based support and structure of, 210–211; environmental activism role by, 282; responses to HIV/AIDS crisis by, 209–210, 212–214; role in combating HIV/AIDS stigma, 214–215
- CIDE, 438, 439
- Citizenship: public interest in facilitating well educated, 408; radical democratic environmental, 273; reeducating for life ethic and, 322–324. See also Democracy
- Citizenship Schools, 196–197
- Civil Rights Act (1964), 195
- Civil Rights Model, 267
- Civil society: adult literacy education to strengthen, 351–352; CONFINTEA V on learning to build, 44; described, 351. See also NGOs (nongovernmental organizations)
- Civil wars. See Internal armed conflict
- Class: inequalities associated with, 195; as political economy basis, 176
- Classic civil war, 119
- College Board, 399
- Colombia: imposed or partial civil war in, 119; lack of statistics on sexual violence/displacement in, 123–124; regulation/control of women during armed conflict in, 120
- “Coloquio” (Mexico), 36
- Community: development agendas of, 323–326; exposure of structural diversity of, 340; learning, 433–441
- Community empowerment: adult literacy education as, 344–353, 356–365, 368–377; African American women’s transformative learning and, 307–316; challenges for adult education addressing, 321; definition of, 327–328; examining history of, 291–293; group consciousness, group self-efficacy, and, 309; HIV/AIDS education and social capital support for, 295–305; noninstrumental objectives of popular education for, 332–342; participatory approaches to reinvigorate, 349–351; through possibility of another world, 319–329; World Bank on keys to, 327. See also Empowerment; Society
- Community Environmental Health Program, 270
- Community of learning. See Learning communities (Latin America)
- Competencies: identifying work, 459–460; previous training, 456–457. See also RPL (the recognition of prior learning)
- Competency-based RPL assessment, 456–457
- Comprehensive theory of disability oppression, 174–176

510 SUBJECT INDEX

- Conceptual nuclei organization, 428
 CONFINTEA Agenda for the Future, 1, 205
 CONFINTEA V Midterm Review, 268
 Confirmation concept, 390
 CONFITEA V: on adult learning promoting civil society, 44; "education for youth and adults" legitimized at, 35–36, 422; environmental education promoted by, 205, 255, 259, 273; learning topics raised during, 381–383, 385; on lifelong learning strategy, 488; on marginalized groups warranting adult education, 91, 99
 Continuing education: HIV/AIDS crisis and implications for, 215–217; participation in, 96–97; positivism and privilege in, 97–99. See also Adult education
 Convention on Forest Principles, 269
 Corporate/Bureaucratic Model, 267
 COSATU (Congress of South African Trade Unions), 461
 CRAN (Council of Religious AIDS Networks), 212, 214
 Credit-exchange RPL model, 456, 457, 460, 466
 Critical theory: on adult education in context of globalization, 43–45; Frankfurt School on social integration/control, 67, 71; globalization perspectives of, 45–47; popular education associated with, 443; validity of integrating into workplace questioned, 444–445
 Cultural capital, 399, 406
 Cultural imperialism, 174
 Cultural studies: on adult education reflection of economic/philosophical values, 101–102; media studies approach using, 65, 66
 Cultural theory of learning, 222–223
 Culture: attitude toward disability and, 175, 176; educators challenging hegemony of patriarchal, 193–194; potential for globalization absorption of, 486; power, identity, and context of, 447–448; women's labor force participation and, 143. See also Belief systems; Norms
 "Culture industries," 67–68
 Curriculum: adult literacy, 344–365; conceptual nuclei organization of, 428; environmental activism, 272–273, 282; exploring environment-health relationship, 205–208; NEP (new ecological paradigm) used in, 259; pedagogical proposed organization of, 428–429; RPL (the recognition of prior learning) and constraints of, 464–465. See also Adult education
 Cyril O. House Scholar Program of Continuing and Adult Education, 37, 102
- D
Daily Times (Pakistan), 248
 Data: qualitative approach to literacy quantitative, 361–362; visuals as, 134–138
 Data analysis: analytical examination of adult education, 412–421; two analyses of the same photograph, 136/fig–138, 137t
 "Declaration of Sentiments" (Stanton), 199
 Democracy: education within context of, 126–127; to level effects of globalization, 44; mass media as threat to, 75; workplace, 60–61. See also Citizenship
 Development: change leading to, 448–449; freedom through, 18–20, 24–27; positive outcomes of learning for, 451–452. See also Economic development
 Development as freedom: adult education in context of, 24–27; viewpoint of, 18–20
 Disability: categories and definitions of, 169; considering cultural and sociopolitical context of, 170; power of naming or defining, 170–171; research on adult education and, 176–178
 Disability studies: on adult education and disability, 176–178; from personal-tragedy theory to, 171–174; using theory of disability oppression, 174–176; value and outcomes of, 172–173
 Disability theories: economic model, 172; medical model of disability, 171–172; personal-tragedy, 171; sociopolitical model, 172–174
 Disabled people, 171
 Discrimination: gender wage gap as, 144, 145t; "welfare racism" as racial, 111–112; workplace racial, 112
 Distance learning education, 384
 Diversity: exposure of community structural, 340; of indigenous knowledge, 229; mass media as threat to, 74; organizational support/training on, 150–151. See also Homogeneity
 Domestic violence: call to action against, 249–252; dowry murders as, 247–248; female genital mutilation (FGM) as, 246–247; honor killings as, 248–249; one view on, 243–246
 "Domestic Violence Against Women and Girls" (Innocent Digest), 249–251
 "Double consciousness," 308
 "Dowry murders," 247–248

- E
- EAE (environmental adult education), 266.
See also environmental education
- Earth Summit (Rio + 5), 20, 269
- Ecology: definition of, 260; as environmental learning model, 283–285; political, 271
- Economic crisis/unemployment rates, 54–56
- Economic development: adult education roles/responsibilities in, 24–27; alternative focus on globalization and, 21–24; freedom concept of, 18–20, 24–27; globalization and north-south, 31–35. See also Development
- Economic growth: conceptual bases of global, 16–21; impact of neoliberal globalization on, 17–18. See also Capitalism
- Economic model of disability, 172
- Economy (Oikonomie) fulfillment, 18–19
- Ecuador, 15–16
- Ecumenical Partners, 213
- EDJA (education of youth and adults): analytical dimensions for proposed pedagogical intervention, 424–425; challenges confronting, 423–424; characteristics of educational centers for, 426–429; educational reform in Chile/Latin America for, 433–435; educational role of parents in, 435–438; implications for research and teaching, 429–431; Latin America field of, 35–39; learning community expansion of, 440–441; proposed and legitimized in Hamburg (1997), 35–36, 422; school directors as educators/community agents in, 438–439. See also Adult education
- Education and HIV/AIDS*: report (World Bank), 215–216
- “Education for Local Development” project, 292–293
- Educational system: African Americans, hegemony, and the, 182–190; globalization impact on elite access to, 487; homogeneity sentiment in, 33–34; impact of globalization on, 33–35; Latin American, 35–39; reform in Chile and Latin America, 433–435; social justice promoted by, 193–200. See also Adult education; Environmental education; Higher education
- EDUCO (El Salvador), 435
- Elderhostel program, 96–97
- Emergent property principle, 283–284
- Empathy: distinction between inclusion and, 389–390; self-other relationship and, 393–395
- Employment: challenge of education for civil society or, 112–115; welfare reform studies on low-wage, 108. See also Unemployment rates
- Empowerment: of adult literacy, 344–353, 356–365, 368–377; relational asymmetry and, 395–396. See also Community empowerment
- The End of Global Capitalism* (Dieterich and others), 21
- Environment: exploring relationship between health and, 205–208; global protest movements regarding, 270–271; hierarchy theory on, 283–285; increasing concerns about the, 254–255; NEP (new ecological paradigm) of, 259; polls on public concerns with, 278–279; promoting sustainability of, 286–287; in relationship to intelligence, 260; as social justice issue, 265–266
- Environmental activism: as environmental education, 272–273; religious communities involved in, 282
- Environmental citizenship, 273
- Environmental education: community development, sustainable, and self-help projects, 270; CONFITEA V promotion of, 205, 255, 259, 273; in context of adult education, 259–263, 285–286; ecology as model for, 283–285; environmental activism as practice of, 272–273, 282; global and local forms of, 267–269; “graying” of, 256–259; implications for globalization, 261–262; literature review of, 255–256, 279–281; mass media role in, 281–282; popular research activities in non-formal, 270; social dimensions, political change, and, 282–283; types of, 266. See also Educational system
- Environmental hierarchy theory, 283–285
- EP (popular education) [Latin America], 36
- EPA (Education for All), 268
- Ethics: educational researcher and, 132–134; research pedagogy relationship to, 139
- “An Evaluation: Wisconsin Works (W-2) Program,” 108
- Evening schools, 426
- “Exceptional Women” program, 148
- Experiential learning model, 457–458.
See also RPL (the recognition of prior learning)
- Exploitation of labor, 174
- F
- False consciousness, 175, 177
- “Fast-Forwarding technology in the Service of Human Development” (PUND report, 2001), 32–33

512 SUBJECT INDEX

- FCC (Federal Communications Commission), 65
The Fear of Freedom (Fromm), 20
 Federal Reserve, 68
The Feminine Mystique (Freidan), 199
 Feminism: challenging the hegemony of the patriarchy, 199–200; development as freedom in context of, 26; indigenous knowledge and pedagogical theory of, 223–224
 FGM (female genital mutilation), 246–247
 Fifth International Conference of Adult Education. See CONFITEA V
Financial Times, 58
 FLOC (Farm Labor Organizing Committee), 197–199
 FNTI (First Nations Technical Institute), 460
 “For Colombia’s Angry Youth, Hip Hop Helps Keep It Real” (Ferrero), 70
 “For We Are Neighbors” (Interfaith AIDS Conference), 212
 Frankfurt School critical theorists, 67, 71
 Freedom/development concept, 18–19, 24–27
Frontline (Indian magazine), 247
 Functional illiterate, 361, 362
- G
- Gender differences: in marginalization of adult learners, 100; research on education, welfare reform and, 108–109; wage gap and, 144, 145*t*, 195–196. See also Women
 Genocidal civil war, 119
 Glass Ceiling Commission, 153
 Global Ecumenical Team, 213
 Global inequality. See Marginalized populations
 Global Issues Salzburg Seminar, 92, 385, 485, 487
 Global society: adult education role/responsibilities in, 24–27, 42–43, 49–50, 489–495; conceptual bases supporting, 16–21; increasing influence of market, 20–21; inequality of, 57–58; role of adult education in, 78–81. See also Marginalized populations; Society
Globalifilico (embracing globalization), 30
Globalifóbico (afraid of globalization), 30
 Globalization: adult education and grassroots level of, 352–353, 449–451; adult environmental education implications for, 261–262; alternative focus on development and, 21–24; assessing critical perspectives on, 45–47; definitions of, 30, 42, 53–54, 485–486; designation of, 17; economic impact of neoliberal, 17–18; examining impact on critical adult education, 43–45; framing critical discourse on, 78–89; impact on educational systems, 33–35; lifelong learning in the workplace shaped by, 470–471; mass media and, 65–71; as north-south economic problem, 35, 344–345; reach of, 485–487; responses of academic adult education to, 59–61, 487–489; role/responsibilities of adult educators in era of, 24–27, 42–43, 49–50, 489–495
 Gobierno de Chile, 436
 Grassroots education: environmental activism as, 272–273, 282; global protest movements and, 270–271, 449–451
 Green Belt Movement, 193
 Group consciousness, 309
 Group self-efficacy, 309
 GROW (Gardening for Rural and Organization Well-Being), 163, 165
 GWIA (Grassroots Women’s International Academy), 101–102
- H
- Hamburg Declaration on Adult Learning, 73–74, 273, 351, 419
 Handicapped, 171. See also Disability
 Health: exploring relationship between environment and, 205–208; prevention model and, 233–234; UNESCO definition of, 232; World Health Organization’s definition of, 206, 231–232
 Health literacy, 238
 Health promotion: adult education research on, 239–240; aligning adult education and, 235–240; described, 232–235; illustrated model of, 233*fig*
 Healthy Boston, 235
 Healthy People 2010, 235, 239
 Hegemony: African Americans, education, and, 182–190; described, 41; educational context of defining, 185; educators challenging patriarchal, 193–194, 196–200; power and, 188; women’s rights challenging patriarchy, 199–200
 Herzegovina, 121
 Hierarchy theory: emergent property principle and, 283–284; environmental learning and, 284–285
 Higher education: African Americans on the margins of, 186–187; challenges of low-income adults in, 403–406; changing dynamics of, 187–190; definition of, 184; footnoted adult learners in, 405; funding barriers to, 405–406; research concerning adults in,

- 401–402; struggling to become part of the center of, 184–185. See also Adult education; Educational system
- Highlander Folk School (Tennessee), 196–197
- Hip-hop culture, 70–71, 72
- Hispanics, 195, 403
- Historical materialism, 173–174
- HIV/AIDS crisis: in Africa, 210, 296; art exhibition (New York) on, 138; church structure ideally suited to combat, 210–211; community empowerment during, 295–305; growing epidemic of, 295; implications for adult/continuing education, 215–217; use of indigenous African knowledge system to combat, 219–229; Lesotho rates of, 159–160, 161, 163, 164; REFLECT community empowerment during, 292, 293, 299–301; role of church in combating stigma of, 214–215; role of religious organizations in combating, 209–215; social capital and, 297–298, 301–304; variety of responses to, 296–297; women and rate of infection, 202. See also Africa
- Hmong refugee community (Milwaukee), 86–88, 490
- Homogeneity: domestication of hip-hop culture, 70–71, 72; globalization role in unifying worldview and, 83–86; globalization and sentiment of, 33–34; media expression of unexpected cultural, 69–70; through standardization of mass culture, 70–72. See also Diversity
- Honor killings, 248–249
- Houle Scholars, 267
- HRD (human resource development): leadership contributions by, 473; life-long learning and challenges for, 473–475; women's workplace development priority by, 152–154. See also Workplace
- HRD Quarterly*, 60
- HRD Trends Worldwide* (Phillips), 153
- Huairou Commission, 101
- Human capital loss (Mexico), 31–32
- I
- I and Thou* (Buber), 388
- I-It relationship, 388–389
- I-Thou relationship, 388–389
- IALS (International Adult Literacy Survey), 368
- IBGE, 358
- IBM, 341
- Identity, 447–448
- Ideology: hierarchy of power and, 177; neoliberalism's negative, 320; RPL interpretations/practices based on, 458, 459t
- Illiteracy, 357–358, 361, 363. See also Literacy
- ILO (International Labour Organization), 145, 150, 153
- IMF (International Monetary Fund), 347
- Imposed (or partial) civil war, 119
- In Defense of the Lifeworld* (Welton), 98
- Inclusion, 389–390
- Indigenous knowledge: Botswana HIV/AIDS crisis and epistemology of, 224–229; cultural theory of learning and, 222–224; definition of, 222; diversity of, 229; leadership structure of, 229
- INEP, 358
- Inequality: class, 195; economic model of disability, 172; educational social justice challenging, 194; gender wage gap as, 144, 145t, 195–196; process of globalization and resulting, 57–58; South African apartheid impact on workplace, 6–8. See also Marginalized populations; Racial discrimination
- Innocent Digest* (UNICEF publication), 249–251
- Institute of Development Management (Lesotho), 165–166
- Institute of Distance and Continuing Studies (Lesotho), 163, 164
- Institute of Extramural Studies (Lesotho), 165
- Inter-American Bank, 1
- Interfaith AIDS Conference, 213
- Internal armed conflict: challenges of adult education for Colombian women, 125–127; characterization of educational processes during, 124–125; effect on female population, 120–123; forced displacement of women during, 122–123; forced recruitment of women during, 122; how civilian population is affected by, 119; persecution and murder of female leaders during, 121–122; regulation/control over women during, 120; role of nonformal education with women during, 123–124; sexual violence/reproductive health control during, 121; three classifications of, 119
- International Conference on Adult Education, 489
- International Labour Organization (ILO), 145, 150, 153
- J
- Jim Crow laws, 194–195
- Jiménez Ortiz, M., 33
- Joint United Nations Programme, 210, 211

514 SUBJECT INDEX

K

- Kellogg Foundation, 332
 Kellogg Foundation Association of German Adult Education, 166
 Kenyan out-of-school programme, 165
 Knowing: cognitive development approach to, 86–88; collective ways of, 225–226; development of research that permits, 430–431; distinction of knowing about/knowing directly type of, 394; framing discourse on, 82–83; indigenous ways of, 225–228
 Knowledge: accreditation issues of, 424; adult/continuing education and struggle for, 98–99; “banking approach” to learning and, 375, 452; Botswana HIV/AIDS and use of indigenous, 222–229; cultural capital, 399, 406; decisions on what to teach/organize, 426–429; marginalized population and sense of, 186–187. See also Learning
 Korn/Ferry International, 152
 Ku Klux Klan, 197

L

- L-forms (or learning organizations), 472–473
 LA21 (Local Agenda 21), 268–269
 Labor force: culture and women’s participation in, 143; exploitation of, 47–48; gender wage gap and, 144, 145*t*, 195–196; leading occupations of women in the, 146*t*; Wal-Mart’s management of, 56–58; welfare reform studies on low-wage, 108
 Labor sector: Marxism perspective on globalization and, 47–48; skills debate and, 58–59; technology, capitalist crisis, and, 48–49. See also Workplace
 Labor theory of value, 47–48
 LANFE (Lesotho Association of Nonformal Education), 163, 164
 Language: as backdrop of visual clues, 130–131; research challenge of multiple, 129–130
 Latin America: adult education for community empowerment in, 319–329; analytical examination of adult education in, 412–416; building learning community in, 433–441; current issues in lifelong learning in, 383–384; EDJA (education of young persons and adults) in, 35–37, 422–441; educational reform in, 433–435; impact of globalization on, 33–35; learning communities in, 433–441; resistance to sweatshops and maquiladoras in, 271; training educators in, 37–39; See also specific countries
 Latin American Encounter on the Training of Men and Women Educators of Young Persons and Adults, 37, 38
 Latinos/latinas: as percentage of low-income adult learners, 403; wage gap of females, 195
 LDTC (Lesotho Distance Teaching Center), 163, 165
 “Leadership for the New Commons” initiative (Whidbey Institute), 285
 Leaderships: HRD (human resource development) contributions to, 473; learning-committed, 475–477; role in lifelong learning, 472–473; workplace learning referred to as, 11
 Learning: African American women and transformative, 307–316; “banking approach” to, 375, 452; CONFINTEA V on civil society built by, 44; cultural theory of, 222–223; development through, 451–452; Hamburg Declaration on Adult Learning, 73–74; integrating critical methods into workplace, 444–446; “leaderships” opportunities for workplace, 11; model of experiential, 457–458; RPL (the recognition of prior learning) concept of, 455–466; South African social transformation and workplace, 10–14; strategies for health promotion, 237–239; theory of transformative, 238; Western positivist modes of institutionalized, 98; women’s workplace development and, 143–154. See also Knowledge; Lifelong learning
 Learning assessment: competency-based RPL, 456–457; three main purposes of, 459–460
 Learning communities (Latin America): definition of, 440; educational reform leading to, 433–435; parents of children in, 435–438; school directors as adult educators/community agents in, 438–439; school as point of departure for, 440–441
 Learning organizations (or L-forms), 472–473
 Learning-committed leaders, 475–477
 Lesotho: background information on, 158–159; herdboys of, 159–162, 493–494; REFLECT learning circle in, 292, 293, 299–301, 349–351
 Lesotho Council of nongovernmental Organizations, 166
 Lesotho herdboys: access to education by, 160–161; challenges and opportunities faced by, 161–162; description of, 159–160; marginalization concept applied to, 160; partnership approach to empowerment of, 163–166, 493–494

- Lesotho Radio News, 159
- Life-work balance, 150
- Lifelong learning: critical challenges of, 473–475; current issues in Latin America, 383–384; developing “learning-committed” leaders for, 475–477; emergence in the context of work, 470–471; factors shaping, 469–470; as response to globalization, 487–489; role of leaders in, 472–473. See also Learning
- Linux, 341
- Literacy: evolution of Brazilian standards on, 357–359; growing interest/promotion of global, 368–369; as human right, 356–357; theoretical/methodological issues in research on, 359–360. See also Adult literacy education; Illiteracy
- Literacy research: on Brazilian literacy policies, 362–365; new literacy studies approach to, 359–360; qualitative approach to quantitative data, 361–362; theoretical and methodological issues in, 359–360
- Literacy volunteerism: adult literacy education role by, 372–373; background on, 369–372; community-based program tutoring by, 373–374; increasing participation in, 368–369; rethinking training of, 374–376
- “Living on Earth” (public radio), 281
- Local Agenda 21 (LA21), 268–269
- Longing for a Homeplace* (hooks), 308
- Losotho, HIV/AIDS crisis in, 159–160, 161, 163, 164
- Low-income adult learners: cultural capital sought by, 399, 406; examining challenges/barriers faced by, 399–400; footnoted, 405; future public policies on, 406–408; higher education funding barrier and, 405–406; lessons of history and politics applied to, 400–401; poverty barrier and, 403–404; research on, 401–402; work-first/welfare reform politics punishing, 404–405. See also Working poor
- Lutheran World Federation in Africa, 209
- M
- Manpower Demonstration Research Corporation, 109
- Marginalized populations: adult learners as, 99–100; African Americans and education, hegemony, and, 182–190; concept of, 160, 174; disability as issue of, 169–178; empowerment objective by NGOs, 489; global inequality and, 57–58; importance of understanding, 91–94; mainstreaming through adult education programs, 158–167; sense of knowing by, 186–187; women in the workplace, 143–154. See also Global society; Inequality; Social justice
- Market mechanism, 22
- Marxism: critical adult education/globalization perspective of, 43–45; globalization perspective of critical theory and, 45–47; on labor theory of value, labor power, 47–48
- Mass culture standardization, 71–72
- Mass media: control of consciousness by global, 66–71; “culture industries” of, 67–68; environmental education through, 281–282; globalization and ownership concentration of, 65–66; as informal adult education system, 64–65, 73; as pedagogical tool, 73–74; as threat to democracy, 75; as threat to diversity, 74
- The Matrix* cult trilogy (film), 69
- Medical model of disability, 171–172
- “Mesa de Trabajo: Mujer y Conflicto Armado,” 120, 122, 124
- Mexico: gender gap in wages, 32; human capital loss through migration from, 31–32; UPREZ analytical examination of adult education in, 413–414, 415–416
- Mezirow’s theory of transformative learning, 238
- Microsoft, 341
- Mind-body connection, 313–314
- MNCs (multinational corporations): claims regarding globalization role of, 43; critical perspective on, 46
- Mpambo Afrikan Multiversity, 292
- Myanmar civil war, 119
- “Myth of the strong black woman,” 314
- “Mythical norm,” 193
- N
- National Black Feminist Organization, 200
- National Center for Policy Analysis, 54
- National Child Development Study (Britain), 239
- National Commission on Excellence in Education (1983 report), 58
- National Council for Vocational Qualification, 456
- National Environmental Education Training Foundation, 278, 281
- National Organization for Women, 199
- National Pedagogical University of Ajusco (Mexico), 36
- National System of Educational Quality Measurement (SIMCE) [Chile], 436

516 SUBJECT INDEX

- National Training Board (NTB), 456, 457
 Necessities, 19
 Neoliberalism: internal and external faces of, 41–42; negative ideological impact of, 320
 NEP (new ecological paradigm), 259
 NEPAD (New Economic Partnership for Africa's Development), 347, 348, 353
 New literacy studies, 359–360
 New Partnership for Africa's Development, 293
 New School (Colombia), 435
New York Times, 55, 70
 NFLI (National Functional Literacy Indicator), 361–362, 363, 364, 365
 NGOs (nongovernmental organizations): adult education partnership in Lesotho by, 163–166; adult literacy education role by, 368–377; deliberative decision making in, 446; empowering marginalized populations objective of, 489; interventions during internal armed conflicts by, 124; popular education initiatives coordinated by, 333–335. See also Civil society; Volunteerism
 “Ni una meurte más,” 320
 NLRA (National Labor Relations Act), 57
 Nonequivalent economy archetype, 16
 Norms: in context of Malealea REFLECT cooperation, 302–303; definition of, 302. See also Culture
 NPH (New Historical Project), 21
 NUL (National University of Lesotho), 163
- O
- OECD (Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development), 360, 363, 434
 OMB Watch, 55
 “On Democracy and the Workplace:” (Hatcher), 60
One Dimensional Man (Marcuse), 68
 Open system, 446
 Oppression: comprehensive theory of disability as social, 174–176; disability defined as social, 170–171; five faces of social, 174–175; key to reducing, 327–329; problematizing pedagogy as opposition to, 444–446
 Oprah Winfrey's Book Club, 244
 Organic composition of capital (c/v), 47
 Organizational culture, 149
 Organizations: learning, 472–473; power relations in, 448–449; supportive of women's workplace learning, 149–151. See also Systems; Workplace
 “Other” perspective types, 394–395
 Ottawa Charter for Health Promotion, 234
Our Common Future (Brundtland Report), 20
 “Outsider within perspective,” 308
- P
- Parents (Latin American schools), 435–438
 Paulo Montenegro Institute (Brazil), 359, 361
 Pedagogy: as approach to proposed adult education intervention, 424–431; need for “problematizing,” 443, 444–446
Pedagogy of the Oppressed (Freire), 311
 Personal-tragedy theory, 171
 Photo novella (or “photo-voice”), 132
 PLA (prior learning assessment), 456
 PLAR (prior learning assessment and recognition), 456, 460
 Political ecology, 271
 Political economy: class as core issue of, 175; media studies approach using, 65–66
 Polyrhythmic realities, 182, 187
 Popular education: antagonistic nature of, 333–335; challenging inherited forms of community objective of, 339–340; critical theory associated with, 443; cultivating gratuitous work and uncertainty objective of, 341–342; cultivating social consent objective of, 340–341; pedagogical redefinition of, 417–418; poetic dimension objective of, 335–337; symbolic deficit objective of, 337–338
 Portfolio-assisted PLA, 457
 Poveda Center, 327
 Poverty: community empowerment to reduce, 327–329; as low-income adult student challenge, 403–404; unemployment, skills deficit, and, 7–8; World Bank's benchmark for, 50
 Poverty rate: impact of translocation on, 16; official U.S., 55
 Power relations: adult/continuing education and struggle over, 98–99; as differentials within/between groups, 304; disability oppression and structure of, 175–176; hegemony and, 188; identity, cultural context, and, 447–448; ideology forming hierarchy of, 177; knowledge construction and unequal, 228; in organizations and workplaces, 448–449; postmodern perspectives on, 446–447; self-other relationship aspect of, 395–396
 Primary day schools (Argentina), 426
 Project on Devolution and Urban Change, 109
 PRWORA (Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act) [1996], 106, 112

- Public policy: developing low-income adult learners, 406–408; discourse framing knowledge/knowing, 82–83; on domestic violence as adult education, 251–252; symbolic deficit of, 337–338. See also Welfare reform
- PUND (Program of the United Nations for Development), 32
- R
- Racial differences: studies on stress impact and, 313; welfare reform politics and, 110–112
- Racial discrimination: history of, 194–195; “welfare racism” as, 111–112; workplace, 112. See also Inequality
- Racism: “welfare,” 111–112; within women’s movement, 200
- Radical mutuality theory: application to adult education, 389–391; described, 382–383, 388–389
- Rap music culture, 70–71, 72
- Recognition: of marginalized populations, 188; RPL (the recognition of prior learning), 387–388, 455–466, 459*t*
- REFLECT: described, 299; examining community mobilization by, 292, 293; literary education using participatory approach of, 349–351; narrative account of, 299–301
- Reflection-in-action theory, 458
- Relationships: adult education and self-other, 391–396; caring, 390–391; I-It and I-Thou, 388–389; radical mutuality and, 382–383, 388–391
- Relative surplus value, 47
- Religious organizations. See Churches
- Reproduction: control over health and, 121; indigenous knowledge on, 227–228
- Research: on adults in higher education, 401–402; analytical examination in, 412–421; in area of health promotion, 239–240; civil society strengthened by, 351–352; on disability and, 176–178; environmental, 270; examining potential of visual-oriented tools for, 130–131; implications of educational pedagogical intervention for, 429–431; on indigenous knowledge and theory, 224; linguistic challenges to, 129–130; literacy, 359–365; nonformal environmental education, 270; permitting knowing and exploring, 430–431; visual, 131–139
- Rio Conference, 269
- Rio Declaration, 269
- Road Scholars, 96
- Roman Catholic Church, 209
- Roper Starch Worldwide survey, 278
- RPL (the recognition of prior learning): academic challenges of, 464–465; adult educator respect for, 387–388; approaches to implementation of, 459–461; concerns and challenges of, 463; described, 455, 456–457; different versions/models of, 456–457; future strategies for implementing, 465–466; institutional constraints to application of, 464–465; interpretations of, 457–458; linking adult education traditions and, 459*t*; methodologies peculiar to, 456; UNISA (University of South Africa) application of, 455, 457, 461–462. See also Competencies; Workplace skills
- Rwanda: genocidal civil war in, 119; visuals used to describe, 138
- S
- St. Alban’s Cathedral (South Africa), 214
- SAIV (“Spiritual Alliance to Stop Intimate Violence”) seminar, 102
- Salvation Army in Africa, 210
- Salzburg Institute, 102
- Salzburg Seminar, 92, 385, 485, 487
- SAT/ACT scores, 405
- Schloss Leopoldskron, 102
- Schools of Faith and Happiness network, 435
- Self-other relationship: asymmetry and power in, 395–396; authenticity element of, 392–393; described, 391–392; empathy element of, 393–395
- Seneca Falls Convention, 199
- Sexual violence: forced recruitment of women and, 122; during internal armed conflict, 121; lack of statistics on armed conflict, 123–124. See also Violence
- “Simulation Games as an Educational Strategy for Youth and Adults in the Process of Literacy” project (Columbia), 332
- Skills debate, 58–59
- SMTP II, 219
- Social capital: benefits during HIV/AIDS crisis, 301–303; challenges during HIV/AIDS, 303–304; definition of, 297–298
- Social consent cultivation, 340–341
- Social justice: Citizenship Schools to promote, 196–197; environment issue of, 265–266; migrant farm workers’ efforts to promote, 197–199; objective of adult education, 194; responsibilities of adult educators’ for, 201–202; spectrum of adult education,

518 SUBJECT INDEX

- Social justice: (continued)
 200–201; women’s rights challenging patriarchy hegemony, 199–200. See also Marginalized populations
- Social movements: grassroots education and environmental, 272–273, 282; grassroots education leading to global protest, 270–271, 449–451
- Social oppression. See Oppression
- Social transformation (South African), 5–14
- Society: adult-centered, 320–323; Asian, 447;
 civil, 44, 351–352; collective other perspective of, 394–395. See also Community empowerment; Global society
- Sociopolitical model of disability, 172–174
- Solidarity, 324
- Some of Us Did Not Die* (Jordan), 313
- South Africa: birth of democracy in, 5–6;
 eleven official languages of, 129; inequality in society and workplace in, 6–8; new employment equity/skills development in,
 8–10; RPL implementation in adult education in, 461; transformative corporate workplace learning in, 10–14
- South African Employment Equality Act
 (55/98), 8, 9, 13
- South African Skills Development Act (97/98), 8, 9–10, 12, 13
- South African United Democratic Front, 13
- Spirituality, 314
- Standardization (homogeneity) process, 71–72
- Statistics Canada, 368
- Stress (black versus white women), 313
- Students. See Adult learners
- Sudan civil war, 119
- Symbolic deficit, 337–338
- Systems: open, 446; postmodern perspectives on, 446–447. See also Organizations
- T
- Tamer Institute for Community Education
 (Jerusalem), 382
- TANF (Temporary Assistance for Needy Families), 106, 109
- Teaching: decisions regarding knowledge used in, 426–429; implications of educational pedagogical intervention for, 429–431; rethinking concept of adult in, 425; social, political, economic context used in, 425. See also Adult educators
- Teaching Community: Pedagogy of Hope*
 (hooks), 308
- Technology: capitalist crisis today and, 48–49;
 organic composition of capital and, 47
- Telecommunications Act (1996), 65
- “Third wave feminism,” 200
- Third World Women’s Alliance, 200
- TNCs (transnational corporations): claims regarding globalization role of, 43; critical theory on, 46
- To Have or to Be* (Fromm), 20
- “Tongues of Fire” (hooks), 313
- Transformative learning: as community empowerment conduit, 311–315; lessons and recommendations for, 315–316; theories of, 238, 309–311
- Transformative learning theory, 238, 309–311
- Translocation, 15–16
- Treaty on Biodiversity, 269
- Treaty on Climate Change, 269
- Tsunamis disaster (2004), 138
- U
- Uganda, 350–351
- UN Commission on Human Rights (1994), 252
- UN Decade of Education for Sustainable Development (2005–2014), 268
- UN (United Nations): actions against domestic violence by, 252; environmental learning projects of, 268; socially constructed disability as defined by, 171
- UNCED (United Nations Conference on the Environment and Development), 269
- UNDP (United Nations Development Programme), 219, 220
- UNDP (United Nations Development Programme) report [2003], 6, 7, 8
- Unemployment rates: comparing U.S. and European, 54; economic crises and U.S.,
 54–56; poverty, skills deficit, and, 7–8.
See also Employment
- UNEP (United Nations Environment Programme), 268
- UNESCO, 232, 240, 255, 258, 262, 273, 351, 357, 358, 487, 488
- UNESCO Conference on Adult Education. See CONFITEA V (Fifth International Conference of Adult Education)
- UNESCO Institute of Education, 368
- UNESCO-BREDA, 350
- UNICEF, 163, 249, 368
- Unidad de Gestión Escolar, 439
- UNISA (University of South Africa): examining RPL program of, 455; RPL implementation by, 461–462; RPL model used by, 457
- United Church of Canada, 210, 211
- United Democratic Front (South Africa), 13
- United Kingdom APEL program, 460
- United Nations Literacy Decade
 2003–2012, 268

- United States: ABE (adult basic education) legislation in, 372; comparing unemployment rates of Europe and, 54; economic crises and unemployment rates of, 54–56; philosophical interpretations of volunteerism in, 370–371; RPL or PLA implementation in adult education of, 460
- Universal man concept, 33–34
- Universidad del Valle (Colombia), 332, 334
- UPREZ (Popular Revolutionary Union Emiliano Zapata), 413–414, 415–416, 421
- U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 55
- U.S. Census Bureau, 400, 403
- U.S. Conference of Mayors, 55
- U.S. Department of Education Division of Adult Education and Literacy, 372
- U.S. Department of Labor, 54, 145, 403
- U.S. Internal Revenue Department, 55
- USAID, 210
- V
- Vimochana (India), 251
- Violence: adult education making a difference in domestic, 243–252; against women, 202; as face of oppression, 174; honor killings, 248–249; structural, 319–320. See also Sexual violence
- Visual research: ethical issues of, 132–134; examining potential of, 130–131; as methodological tool, 134–138; overview of history of, 131–132; pedagogical value of, 138–139; two analyses of the same photograph, 136*fig*–138, 137*t*
- Voices: adult education to listen to, 490–491; development and framing of, 189–190
- Volunteerism: adult literacy education and, 372–373; community-based literacy program tutoring and, 373–374; defining, 369–371; philosophical interpretations of, 370–371; rethinking training for literacy, 374–376; structural and relational issues of, 371–372. See also NGOs (nongovernmental organizations)
- VSJ (Volunteers for Social Justice), 194
- W
- Wage gap (gender), 144, 145*t*, 195–196
- Wal-Mart: globalization in context of, 57–58; “new economy” management practices of, 56–57; success and revenues of, 56
- Wal-Martization resistance, 270–271
- Wealth transfer. See Translocation
- “Welfare racism,” 111–112
- Welfare reform: adult learners and “work first” policies of, 404; challenge of marketplace or civil society education, 112–115; education in context of, 108–109; legislation of, 106; as punishing adult learners, 404–405; race and the politics of, 110–112. See also Public policy
- Welfare reform studies: on education and welfare, 108–109; on low-wage labor market/employment practices, 108; on realities of caseload reduction, 107–108
- Whidbey Institute, 285
- WHO (World Health Organization): collaboration with church organizations, 210; on extent of domestic violence, 250; health as defined by, 206, 231–232
- Wisconsin State Department of Workforce Development, 87
- Wisconsin Works (W-2) system, 107, 108, 113
- Wisdom (Botswana context of), 226–227
- Woman’s Table and Armed Conflict (2003), 122
- Women: as booty of war, 122; dowry practice and violence against, 247–248; FGM (female genital mutilation) of, 246–247; gender wage gap and, 144, 145*t*, 195–196; globalization and positive health impact on, 486; living in context of internal armed conflict, 118–127; research on education, welfare reform and, 108–109; workplace learning and development of, 143–154. See also Gender differences
- Women of color: portrayal of poor, 110; rates of AIDS infection/treatment, 202; wage gap of, 195–196. See also African American women
- Women’s Forum, 101
- “Work first” policies, 404
- Working poor, 55–56. See also Low-income adult learners
- Workplace: continuous lifelong learning in context of, 470–471; democracy in the, 60–61; demographics of women in the, 144–146; power relations in, 448–449; racial discrimination in the, 112; women’s learning and development in the, 143–154. See also HRD (human resource development); Labor sector; Organizations
- Workplace learning: integrating critical methods into, 444–446; “leaderships” opportunities for, 11; learning organizations and, 472–473; South African social transformation and, 10–14; three system types of, 470
- Workplace skills: employment equity and development of, 8–10; identifying competencies and, 459–460; poverty, unemployment, and deficit in, 7–8. See also RPL (the recognition of prior learning)

520 SUBJECT INDEX

World Bank: African economic reforms established by, 347; Education and HIV/AIDS: report by, 215–216; global loans made by, 22; on increased adult literacy levels, 368; on keys to community empowerment, 327; poverty benchmark by, 50

World Commission on Environment and Development of the United Nations, 19
World Council of Churches, 214
World Council of Churches Plan of Action, 210, 211
World Vision, 163, 165

