

INDEX

A

Abrahamson, Tom, 65
Accenture Development Partnerships (ADP), 6, 125
Accountability, 113, 123, 197
ACFRE (advanced certified fundraising executive), 206
Action-Aid International, 123
Advertising, 62, 64, 202
Aesthetics, value in nonprofit consulting, 152
AFP. See Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP)
Africa, 123, 124, 126
Alford, Jimmy, 176
Alford Group, 176–177
Alliance for Nonprofit Management, 14, 78, 95, 210
Allied Irish Bank, 176
American Association of Fundraising Counsel (AAFRC), 59. See also Giving Institute
American Cancer Society, 62, 167
American City Bureau, 169–170, 171*f*–172*f*
American Express, 66
American Marketing Association (AMA), 63, 64
American Red Cross, 2, 54, 157, 168
Amnesty International, 117, 123
Anand, Narasimhan, 192
Appreciative Inquiry (AI), 106, 127
Apprenticeship model, 159, 175, 179, 181, 190
Arnoult, Leo, 199, 204

Arts Council of Britain, 116
Asbestos Removal Association of America, 82–84
Association for Philanthropic Counsel (APC), 59–60, 200
Association of Executive Search Consultants, 80
Association of Fundraising Consultants (AFC), 60, 120, 200
Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP), 50, 60; code of ethics, 202–203, 204, 205, 207; International Conference, 163; member standards, 202; online consultant directory, 209–210
Association of Management Consultant Firms (AMCF), 95–96
AT&T, 139–140
Audits, 53, 86, 166
Australia, 16, 119, 123, 157

B

Bain & Company, 2, 9, 13, 93, 157, 167, 197
Balanced scorecard, 4, 5, 11
Ballet companies merger, 20–25; board view of, 24–25; consultant view of, 20–21; staff view of, 21–24
Bates v. State Bar of Arizona, 201–202
B corporation, 7, 86, 93, 148, 156
Beatty, Jack, 2
Bell, Jeanne, 98, 102, 207
Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, 117
Blanchard, John A. “Gus” III, 139
Block, Peter, 33, 44, 45, 196
Blogs, 108

Boards: compensation for members, 71–72; cultural competence of, 77–79; expertise sources for, 4; gender inequity of members, 13; governance consulting, 75–82; influence of, 12; and mergers, 24–25, 28–29; technology affect on, 85

BoardSource, 13, 74, 77, 82–85, 163

Bono, 67–68

Booz Allen, 132, 153, 156

Booz Allen Hamilton, 165, 166

Boston Consulting Group, 167, 182*t*

Bower, Marvin, 43, 206

Bozzo, Sandra L., 11

Bradach, Tom, 162

Brakeley, George A., Jr., 169, 176

Brakeley, George A., Sr., 167, 169

Brakeley, George A. III, 169, 176

Brakeley Briscoe, 169, 176

Brakeley International, 176

Brakeley, 201

Bridgespan Group: choice of nonprofits, 136–137, 157; on consultant education, 162; creation of, 93; management consulting study, 100; merger study, 20; as model for for-profit consulting, 156; on process, 16; on time issues, 32

British Red Cross, 154

Brown, Alan S., 37

Bulloch, Gib, 6, 93, 151

C

Campbell, Kelly, 13

Campbell and Campbell, 177

Canada, 102, 119, 158, 176

Career development, 190

Carver, John, 74

Cause marketing, 66–67

Centre for Professional Service Firm Management, 158

CEOs, 3

Certification, 56, 61, 121, 206

CFRE (certified fundraising executive), 56, 61, 206

Charity, 10, 84–85

Charity Navigator, 10

Chicago Foundation for Women, 99

Chicago Symphony Orchestra, 198

Child welfare nonprofits, 56

Chile, 128

China, 117, 122, 128, 157

Chugging (charity mugging), 128

Church merger, 28

CIVICUS World Alliance for Citizen Participation, 123, 124

Clinton, Bill, 146

Cloninger, Kathy, 111

CMC (certified management consultant), 121, 206

Code of Ethical Principles and Standards, of AFR, 207

Codes of ethics, 59, 200, 202–203, 204, 205, 207

Collaborative communication, 13

Collegiality, 60, 191, 199

Collins, Jim, 3, 37, 38

Common Body of Knowledge, 205

Community Counselling Service (CCS), 170, 176

Community-Engagement Governance™, 74–75, 90

Community Kitchen, 27

CompassPoint Nonprofit Services, 98, 102, 183*t*–188*t*, 207

Confidentiality, 81, 197–198

Consultant, choosing: for long vs. short run, 134; matching consultant to job, 131; matching consultant to size of job, 133–134; matching nonprofit-consultant cultures, 132–133; questions for consultant, 135–136

Consultant, finding, 209–212; consultant website, 210–211; interviews, 212; online directory, 209–210; traditional way, 209

Consultants: costs of hiring, 11; gender inequity in, 13; increasing number of, 153, 155–156; trends in, 152–157; working across sectors, 154–155

Consulting, trends in, 145–152

Consulting process, engagement stage, 32–36; clarifying consultant needs, 33–34; ensuring nonprofit readiness, 34–35; hidden agendas, 36; identifying client, 35

Consulting process, getting down to business stage, 36–44; change/resistance to change, 40–41; data issues, 39–40; finding balance, 42–43; gaining trust, 43–44; measurement issues, 36–39; overcoming tensions, 42–43

Consulting process, implementation stage, 44–48; consultant role in, 45–46; outcomes, 47–48; staff role in, 46

Consulting services, areas of demand, 14

Content management systems, 108

Corporate philanthropy, 84–85, 99–100, 117, 130, 133, 209

Corporate planning models, 104–105

Council on Foundations, 99

Courtenay, Frederick, 169

Covey, Stephen, 174

Creative Direct Response, 177

Cresap, McCormick, and Paget, 129, 166

Crossover leader, 8

Crutchfield, Leslie R., 3, 100

Cultural competence, 12, 78, 126–127

Cultural Competency Initiative (CCI), 78

D

Daigneault, Michael, 74

David and Lucille Packard Foundation, 99

Decentralization, 4, 47, 166

Delong, Thomas J., 181

Deming, W. Edwards, 15

Development audits, 53

Dewey and Kaye, 30

Diasporan fundraising, 127–128, 146

Direct mail, 55, 58, 68, 169

Direct response consulting: other uses for, 56; support organizations for, 60–61; technologies for, 55–56; types of firms, 56

Diversity: within board, 77; multi-generational/cultural, 150–151; within nonprofit, 12

Doctor-patient consultant-client model, 19

Doctors Without Borders, 117

Dresham and Ward, 177

Dress code, 201

Drucker, Peter, 2, 7, 104, 107

Dunlap, Dennis, 63

E

Earned media, 64
 Economic downturn, 101, 191–192
 Economies of knowledge, 3–4
 Education, INGO management, 127
 Education, of nonprofit consultants, 157–164; by consulting firms, 159, 162–163; by nonprofits, 163–164; by professional organizations, 163; training program at =mc, 159–162; by universities/other institutions, 157–158
 Efficiency-based firm, 178, 179
 Egypt, 127
 Employee-owned firm, ownership/succession in, 177
 Ennis, Bill, 26
 Entertain the Children, 62
 Environmental nonprofits, 147
 Epsilon, 176
 Erie Community Foundation, 99
 Ethics: accountability, 197; behavior with clients, 195–196; behavior with competitors, 198–199; codes of ethics, 59, 200, 202–203, 204, 205, 207; confidentiality, 81, 197–198; evolution of standards, 200–202; fundraising consulting, 199–205; new services development, 197; percentage-based compensation, 202–203; personal relationships, 204; professional, 206–207; transparency, 26, 84, 86, 113, 123, 204
 EuConsults, 200
 Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation, 99
 Executive search, 100–101; coaching, 103; interim management, 102; strategic planning, 103–104; support organizations for, 102
 Experience-based firm, 178, 179
 Expert, changing role of, 151–152
 Expertise-based firm, 178, 179

F

Face-to-face (f2f) fundraising, 128
 Facilitation, 16, 27–28, 90, 91, 93, 107, 152
 Family-owned firm, ownership/succession in, 175–177
 Feasibility/planning studies, 52–53
 Felix, Peter, 80
 Fiduciary thinking, 76
 Fieldstone Alliance, 158
 Filstrup, Scott H., 139
 501(c)(3), 7, 99, 116, 147, 157
 Flanders, Vincent, 210
 Fletcher, Kathleen, 16, 19, 45–46
 Flintridge Foundation, 99
 Fogel, Elaine, 64–65
 Food bank alliance merger, 25–29; benefits of, 26–27; board role in, 28–29; facilitator role in, 27–28; new organization, 29; preparation and planning for, 26
 Ford Foundation, 117
 For-profit consulting firms, 156–157
 For-profit firms, nonprofit consulting in, 91–94; how it works, 92–94; pro bono work, 94; reason for, 91–92
 For-profit thinking, dominance of, 3–5
 Foster, Mark, 146
 Foundations, 84–85, 99–100, 117, 130, 133, 209
 FranklinCovey, 174

Frederick Courtenay Barber & Associates, 169
 Freiwirth, Judy, 74–75
 FSG–Social Impact Advisors, 2
 Funding: competition for, 10; underfunding, 9
 Fundraising: governance consulting, 75–76. See also fundraising consulting Fundraising consulting, 50–61; advancement planning, 53–54; campaign management and direction, 50–52; certification, 206; development audits, 53; direct response consultation, 55–56, 60–61; establishing connections with business, 67–68; feasibility and planning studies, 52–53; personalization in, 68; planned giving, 54–55; prospect research, 57–59; support organizations for, 59–60; technologies, 68

G

Gabarro, John J., 181
 Galler Group (GG), 137–139
 Gardner, Heidi, 192
 Gardner, John, 163–164
 General Electric, 4
 Generative thinking, 76
 George Fry and Associates, 165–166
 Germany, 119, 157
 Gibson, E. Burr, 176, 177, 201
 Girl Scouts of America, 2, 90, 111–114
 Giving Institute: code of ethics, 59, 200, 202, 207; collegiality among members of, 199; Consultants School, 163; and legal requirements for fundraising, 205; online consultant directory, 210; and percentage-based commissions, 202, 203; on solicitations, 204; standards of practice, 59; website, 205
 Giving Institute Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics, 207
 Global Fund to Fight Debt, AIDS, Tuberculosis, and Malaria (DATA), 67–68
 Globalization, 47, 146
 Going Green Foundation, 84–85
 Governance consulting, 75–82; board composition and diversity, 77; board cultural competence, 77–79; board performance improvement, 75–82; board roles and responsibilities, 79; Community-Engagement Governance™, 74–75, 90; executive search, 79–82; fundraising, 75–76; leadership models, 73–75; and new legislation, 86; and new types of nonprofits, 86; Policy Governance, 73, 74; sample studies, 82–85; strategic planning in, 76; technology influence on, 85
 Grantmakers for Effective Organizations (GEO), 99
 Great Britain: consultant education in, 158; INGOs in, 118; NGOs in, 116
 Greater London Authority (GLA), 154–155
 Greenpeace International, 124, 128
 Grizzard Communications Group, 169–170
 Groh, Michael, 27
 Grove Consulting International, 107
 Growth, failure to manage, 175

H

Habitat for Humanity, 9, 66
 Haiti, 128
 Harvard Business School, 151, 158

Hidden agendas, 36
 Hybrid legal models: B corporation, 7, 86, 93, 148, 156;
 L3C, 7, 86, 148

I

India, 116, 117, 128
 Industry Partners Council (AFP), 202
 Iniarra Iraegui, Marcelo, 110, 119–120
 Innovations, 109–110, 192–193
 Institute for Sustainable Communities (ISC), 122
 Institute of Management Consultants (IMC) USA, 95; Academy, 163; and certification, 121; Code of Ethics, 207; and consultant education, 163; management consulting competency framework, 96f; and multigenerational diversity, 151; online consultant directory, 209–210
 Interim management, 102
 International Code of Professional Conduct, 205
 International consulting, 115; certification program, 121; challenges, 122–125; and cross-cultural differences, 127; diasporan fundraising, 127–128; education in INGO management, 127; European support organizations for, 120–121; face-to-face (f2f) fundraising, 128; and geographically widespread organizations, 123; and global divide between “haves”/“have nots,” 122–123; and goods distribution, 124; lack of transparency/accountability in, 123; and multicultural competence, 126–127; qualities/skills of consultants, 125–127; role of U.S. in, 121–122; and scarcity of local leadership, 123–124; trends in, 127–128; and wealth distribution, 123. See also international nongovernmental organizations (INGOs)
 International Council of Management Consulting Institutes
 (ICMCI), 95, 121, 205, 206
 International Ethics Committee, of AFP, 204, 205
 International Fundraising Congress (IFC), 120
 International Fund Raising Group (IFRG), 120
 International nongovernmental organizations (INGOs): demand for consultants, 119–120; difference from nonprofits, 116; location of, 118; organizational structure of, 124; reasons for growth of, 116–117; technology influence on, 119. See also international consulting
 International Organisations Programme Office (IOPO), 118
 International Organization Development Code of Ethics, 207
 International relief organizations, 147
 International Resource Alliance, 120–121
 Isomorphic organization, 4

J

James Irvine Foundation, 99
 Joffe Foundation, 110
 Joffrey Ballet, 76
 John Price Jones, 167, 176, 189
 Jones, John P., 167–169
 Jossey-Bass, 158
 Juice, 190

K

Ketchum, 175, 176, 189–190
 Ketchum, Carlton, 169, 175
 Kids Café, 27

Knowledge management, 107–108
 Korea, 119, 128
 Krol, Jan, 121
 Kunin, Madeleine M., 122

L

L3C (low-profit limited liability), 7, 86, 148
 Landsberg, Bill E., 3
 La Piana, David, 104–105, 153, 158
 La Piana Associates, 158
 Large-scale consultation, 105, 106
 Large-scale planning: Girl Scout case study, 111–114; value of, 105–106
 Latin America, INGOs in, 119–120
 Law of nonprofit complexity, 8
 Lawrence, William, 2, 168–169
 LBW (leg behind wicket), 126
 Leadership: crossover leader, 8; gender inequity in, 13;
 governance consulting models, 73–75; scarcity of local,
 123–124
 Lee, Robert J., 181
 Lehman Brothers, 6
 Leverage, 178–180; efficiency-based firm and, 178, 179; experience-based firm and, 178, 179; expertise-based firm and, 178, 179; ownership and, 178; and rate of growth, 178–179; and self-knowledge, 179–180; and staffing and promotion, 179
 Light, Paul, 156–157
 Limited liability corporation (LLC), 86
 Lipman Hearne, 63, 64, 65
 Little, Arthur D., 165, 166
 Long-term consultants, 11
 Lukas, Carol, 16
 Lundy, George, 173–174, 189
 Lyric Opera, 198

M

Madison, Charles, 139–140
 Machara, Paulette V., 75–76
 Maister, David, 178, 179, 190–191
 Management audits, 166
 Management consulting: change agent role in, 107; coaching, 103; and corporate planning models, 104–105; executive search, 100–101; facilitator role in, 107; foundations, 99–100;
 Girl Scout case study, 111–114; innovation, 109–110; interim management, 102; knowledge management, 107–108; large-scale planning, 105–106, 111–114; management support organizations, 97–98, 156; needs of nonprofits, 100–101; nonprofit consulting in for-profit firms, 91–94; ownership/succession in firm, 177–178; standards, 205; strategic planning, 103–104; support organizations for, 95–96, 102; technology consulting, 108–109; traditional, 90; traditional planning models, alternatives to, 106
 Management support organizations (MSOs), 97–98, 156
 Marketing consulting, 61–67; budget issues, 62–63; cause marketing, 65–67; challenges, 64–65; connecting with businesses, 67–68; effectiveness, measuring, 63–64; staffing issues, 63
 Marts, Arnaud, 173–174, 195, 199–200

- Marts & Lundy, 170, 173–174, 177, 189, 200, 201
 Mass marketing, 55
 McBride, Barry, 25–26, 27–28, 29
 McKenna, Christopher, 3–4, 5, 6, 96, 166
 McKinsey, James O., 2, 165
 McKinsey & Company, 43, 94, 149, 165, 181, 182*a*, 206
 McLaughlin, Michael W., 151–152, 163, 210
 McLeod Grant, Heather, 3, 100
 McNaughton, Drumm, 95, 150–151
 Measurement issues, 36–39, 63–64
 Megacommunity, 153
 Mergers: ballet company, 20–25; churches, 28; endangered, 20–25; failure to practice what preach, 174; food bank alliance, 25–29; successful, 25–29; using process consulting, 19–30
 MerkleDomain, 176
 Metropolitan Opera, 36–37
 Mexico, 117, 119, 128
 Meyer Foundation, 130, 133, 209
 Middle East, 117, 127
 =mc: consultant training program, 159–162; cross-sector work by, 154–155; on inequity, 122–123; management training program, 124–125
 Mission, 6, 13, 173–174
 Monitor Group, 2, 93, 167, 178
 Monitor Institute, 8–9, 93, 94, 156, 178
 Monterey Institute of International Studies, 127
 Morris, Tim, 192
 Multi-generational/cultural diversity, 150–151
 Murphy, Julie, 113
 Murray, Colette M., 80–82, 101
 Musical Instrument Museum, 57–58
- N
- National Coach Federation, of ICF, 206
 National Network of Consultants to Grantmakers (NNCG), 99
 Netherlands, 157
 Network of Nonprofit Search Consultants (NNCS), 102
 New Profit, 94
 Nigeria Global Diaspora Committee (NGDC), 128
 Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 115; accountability of, 123; difference from nonprofits, 116; future of, 147; public trust in, 6. See also international nongovernmental organizations (INGOs)
 Nonprofit Organizational Model, 149–150
 Nonprofit organizations: business thinking influence on, 2–3; choosing, 136–139; difference from for-profit organizations, 7–13; evaluation challenges, 9; resources challenges, 8–9; strengths of, 5–7
 Norvell, James, 199
 Novak Druce Centre for Professional Firms, 158
 NTEN (Nonprofit Technology Network), 109
- O
- Obama, Barack, 153, 155
 ODnet, 205–206
 Omnicom, 176
 Online consultant directory, 209–210
 Online giving, 55
 Open Society Institute, 117
- OPERA America, 40
 Organizational development (OD), 16, 90–91, 126; consulting standards, 205–206
 Organizational model, 148
 O’Shea, James, 139–140
 Overhead challenges, 9–10
 Ownership/succession, 175–178; employee-owned firm, 177; family-owned firm, 175–177; management consulting firm, 177–178
 Oxfam International, 117, 123
- P
- Pallotta, Dan, 10
 Pascal Murray, 80–82
 Percentage-based compensation, 202–203
 Pierce, Lyman, 168
 Pink, Daniel, 148, 149, 152, 155
 Plan International, 124–125
 Planned giving, 54–55
 Planning/feasibility studies, 52–53
 Policy Governance model, 73, 74
 Porter, Michael E., 2
 Postal, David, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29
 Pribbenow, Paul, 204, 205
 Pro bono work, 92, 94, 96
 Process consulting: endangered merger example, 20–25; example of, 17–18; successful merger example, 25–29; value of, 15–17, 30; when not to use, 18; when to use, 18–19
 Product Red, 67–68
 Program on Non-Profit Organizations (PONPO), 157
 Prospect research, 57–59; rules and regulations for, 58–59; tools for, 58; types of needs, 57–58
 Public Management Program (PMP), Stanford, 158
 Public relations, 61, 64, 167
 Pursuant Group, 175
- R
- Red Cross, 2, 54, 154, 157, 168
 Relational databases, 108
 Relationship, consultant-nonprofit: conflicts of interest, 142; consultant, choosing, 131–136; consultant, finding, 209–212; consultant, involving in life of organization, 142; consultant, keeping out of public eye, 142; early involvement of consultants, 141–142; financial relationship, managing, 141; nonprofit, choosing, 136–139; scope creep, avoiding, 140; successful, 139–142; terms of relationship, 139–140
 Reputation, of firm, 132–133, 193, 205
 RFPs, 211
 Robert D. Herman and Associates, 147
 Ross, Bernard, 122–123, 124, 154–155
 Ross, Holly, 108
 RSI Holdings, 175
 Russia, 117
 Russ Reid, 176
 Ryan, Jane, 71
- S
- Salvation Army, 169
 Sanchez, Christine W., 111, 112–114

San Diego Foundation, 99
 Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 6, 86, 142
 Save the Children Alliance, 62, 117, 123, 125
 Schein, Edgar, 15–16, 18–19
 Science-based approaches, 106
 Scope creep, 140
 Sectors: blending of, 146–148; case study, 149–150; working across, 154–155
 Seidel, Stephen, 9
 Services, new, 153, 192–193, 197
 Shannon, Terry, 25, 27, 29
 Shareholder value primacy business model, 151
 Sharpe Group, 54
 Shriver, Bobby, 67–68
 Singapore, INGOs in, 118
 Size and structure, 180–189; geography effect on, 181–189; staffing structures, 182; staffing structures, Compass Point, 183–188†
 Social Enterprise Club, 158
 Social media, 9, 55–56, 69, 109
 Social venture capitalists, 10
 SOFII, 110
 Soros Foundations Network, 117
 Staff-consultant team approach, 46
 Standards, 59, 200–202, 205–206
 St. Luke's Health Initiative Technical Assistance Providers (TAP) Program, 99
 St. Mary's Food Bank. See food bank alliance merger
 Strategic planning, 76, 103–104
 Strategic thinking, 76
 Styers, David, 77, 85, 86
 Support organizations: direct response consulting, 60–61; executive search firms, 102; fundraising consulting, 59–60; international consulting, 120–121; management consulting, 95–96, 102; management support organizations, 97–98, 156; technology consulting, 109
 SWOT (strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats), 104

T

Taylor, Frederick, 90, 148, 165
 Team structure, nonprofit, 14
 Technology: affect on boards, 85; affect on expertise, 151; affect on INGOs, 119; affect on nonprofits, 13; for direct response consulting, 55–56; and fundraising, 68, 120; and global media, 119; for internal communication, 108; and market consulting, 68; resource lack, 109; social media, 8, 9, 55–56, 69, 109
 Technology consulting, 108–109
 Telephone fundraising, 55
 Thomas, Steve, 121

Thompson, Carolyn T., 149–150
 Tigner, Robert S., 61
 Townsend, Robert, 129
 Transparency, 26, 84, 86, 113, 123, 204
 Transparency International, 123
 Treash, Harold T., 52
 Trends: consultant, 152–157; consulting, 145–152
 Triner, Sean, 68
 Trust, 6, 31, 42, 43–44, 84, 113, 132, 205

U

UJA Federation of New York, 99
 Understaffing, 9
 UNICEF, 125
 United States: annual nonprofit marketing expenditure in, 62; development of nonprofit consulting in, 165–172; early fundraising firms, 168–172; fundraising consulting in, 167–168; INGOs in, 118, 121–122, 124; international giving in, 117; management consulting in, 165–167; timeline of events in consulting, 170
 Upsall, Daryl, 119, 120, 121–122

V

Van Hengel, John, 25
 Virtual community, 108, 151
 Viscern, 175

W

Walt Disney Company, 62
 Ward, Charles, 168
 Ward, Hill, Pierce, and Wells, 51, 168
 Ward, Sumner, 169, 175
 Warwick, Mal, 55, 68, 121
 Watchdogs, 10, 11
 Website, consultant, 210–211
 Wells organization, 119
 Westside Food Bank. See food bank alliance merger
 Whirlpool Building Blocks initiative, 66
 Wikis, 108
 Wilson, Brady, 190
 W. K. Kellogg Foundation, 117
 Wolf Brown Associates, 37
 World Vision, 124
 Wright, Bruce M., 139

Y

YMCA, 50–51, 167, 168, 199