

INDEX

A

AAR. See After action reviews.
 ABC. See Activity-based costing.
 Activity-based costing, 109, 110
 Adaptive Capacity Model, 250–254
 Aesthetics
   and value proposition, 153–154
 After action reviews, 22, 322–325
 Airline competition
   and pricing, 216–219
 Airlines
   and Adaptive Capacity Model, 250–253 Albrecht, Karl
   on customer labels, 173
   on Moment of Truth strategy, 147, 148, 150
   on Total Quality Management, 159, 160, 162
   on Total Quality Service, 147, 148, 150–152
 Alchian-Allen effect, 84
 Allen, Paul
   and rise of Microsoft, 15
 American Girl dolls
   and competitive differentiation, 239, 240
 Antitrust law, 283–306
   and the consumer, 284–287
   criticisms of, 298–302, 304–306
   landmark cases pertaining to, 284
   and price discrimination, 295–298
 Apple Computer
   and price-led costing, 100
   and skim pricing of iPods, 229, 230 Armentano, Dominick T.
   on antitrust laws, 289, 296, 298, 299, 304
   on Borden Company v. Federal Trade Commission, 296 Arrow, Kenneth
   on function of trust in society, 157

Automobiles

pricing of, 89–91, 221, 222
 and toll pricing, 222, 223
 Avoiding arbitrage
   and price discrimination, 192

B

Bad customers, 31, 32, 261–263
 Banking
   and value proposition, 146
 Barter economy, 83, 84
 Bastiat, Frederic
   on protectionism, 68, 69
 Becker, Gary S.
   on antitrust laws, 299, 300
 Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream
   and subjective theory of value, 96, 97
 Benchmarking
   perils of, 243, 244
 Bernstein, Peter L.
   on risk, 38
 Berra, Yogi
   on wrong mistakes, 113
 Billable hours
   and cost-plus pricing, 106–109, 313, 314
   versus Pricing On Purpose, 313–315
 Böhm-Bawerk's Law, 38, 39
 Books
   and pricing of hardcovers versus paperbacks, 220
Borden Company v. Federal Trade Commission, 295–297 Boudreaux, Donald
   on assumption of rationality, 45
 Brandenburger, Adam
   on the eight hidden costs of bidding, 265, 266
   on requests for proposals, 264

- Bravo, Rose Marie
on uniqueness as customer draw, 155
- Brinig, Margaret
on breach of promise, 46
- British pubs
pricing at, 224, 225
- Business equations
new, 31–40
old (Industrial Era), 25–29
- Buyer identification
and customer segmentation, 199
- C
- Callahan, Gene
on supply and demand, 81
- Caller-Kefauver Antimerger Act of 1950, 292
- Canon
and price-led costing, 99, 100
- Capacity
in old business equation, 26, 27
- Capitalism versus consumerism, 8
- Carlzon, Jan
on Moment of Truth strategy, 148
- Cash registers
and 99-cent pricing, 41, 42
- Chevrolet Corvette
and cost-plus pricing, 89, 90
- Chief purchasing officers, 308
- Chief value officers, 308–332
and attitude, 325–327
and commitment, 327, 328
desirable traits of, 316–332
and experimentation, 328, 329
framework for, 315–319
Harrex, Brendon, 311
and key performance indicators, 314
and leadership, 316–319
Schneider, Jayme, 313
and value cartels, 315–328
world's first, 310–315
and youth, 329–332
- Children's prices, 221
- Christensen, Clayton M. on benchmarking, 243, 244
- Churn rate
and customer segmentation, 261–263
- Cialdini, Robert
on social risk, 206, 207
- Clayton Act of 1914, 292, 293
- Coca-Cola
and failure of New Coke, 9
- Cognitive dissonance, 34–37
- Cohen, Ben
on subjective theory of value, 96, 97
- College tuition
pricing of, 225
- The commodity trap
avoiding, 235–247
- Competitive differentiation, 235–247
- Competitive responses, 244–246
- Concierge medical practices, 258
- Concierge Service Model, 256–261
- Consultants
as obstacles to diffusion, 337, 338
- Consumer surplus, 187–189
- Convenience buyers, 255, 256
- Cosmetics
pricing of, 223, 224
- Cost accounting, 103–119
versus profitability, 122
replaced by price-led costing, 121–127
- Cost of production theory of value, 65, 70, 74, 78, 80
- Cost-plus pricing
antiquity of, 87–101
and billable hours, 106–109, 313, 314
and hourly rate, 106–109
and labor theory of value, 89
- Creative destruction, 10, 11
- Credence products
and customer segmentation, 202
- Cross, Robert G.
on airline pricing, 216, 217
- Curad bandages
and competitive differentiation, 237
- Customer attrition, 162–164
- Customer complaints, 164–167
responding to, 166, 167
- Customer expectations, 132–136
- Customer labels, 172–174
- Customer loyalty programs
and pricing, 226
- Customer retention, 158–164
- Customer risk
seven types of, 205–208
- Customer segmentation, 197–211, 249–267
- Customer service
resuscitation of, 171–174
- Customers
grading of, 254–256
- CVO. See Chief value officers.
- D
- Daly, John
on pricing as an art, 118

de la Calle, Luis Saravia
 and labor theory of value, 64

Delta Air Lines
 and pricing, 216, 217

Demand elasticities
 and price discrimination, 191

Diamond engagement rings
 and breach of promise, 46

Diamond-water paradox, 63, 64, 77, 190

Difficult comparison effect
 and price sensitivity, 182, 186

Diffusion of an idea, 333–338
 obstacles to, 335–338

Disney
 and customer expectations, 135, 136
 and enhancing value, 239
 and Moment of Truth strategy, 148, 149
 and price-led costing, 126

Disney, Walt
 and the physical fallacy, 16, 17

Division of labor, 16

Drucker, Peter
 on activity-based costing, 109, 110
 on antitrust laws, 302
 on efficiency, 27
 on failure of traditional management science, 35
 on learning from other people's successes, 18
 on marketing concept, 8
 on price-led costing, 98, 99
 on risk, 38, 39
 on theory, 25

E

Effectiveness
 versus efficiency, 121, 122
 in new business equation, 33, 34, 36

Efficiency
 in old business equation, 27, 28

End-benefit effect
 and price sensitivity, 183, 186

Engels, Friedrich
 on price fluctuations, 57

Expenditure effect
 and price sensitivity, 183, 186

Experience products
 and customer segmentation, 201, 202

F

Fairness effect
 and price sensitivity, 184, 185, 187

Federal Trade Commission Act of 1914, 291, 292

Firing customers, 261–263

Fleming, Shawn
 and Napster, 10

Ford, Henry
 on complete ownership experience, 152, 153
 on price-led costing, 93, 94

Ford, William Clay, Jr.
 on complete ownership experience, 152, 153

Ford Motor Company
 and complete ownership experience, 152, 153
 and installment credit, 95, 96

Ford Mustang
 and price-led costing, 90, 91

Four Ps of marketing, 10–13, 33, 93, 309

Franklin, Benjamin
 and “Time is money,” 82, 83

Free extras
 and pricing, 223

Friedman, David
 on antitrust law, 290, 291
 on assumption of rationality, 44, 45

Friedman, Milton and Rose on four categories of spending, 139–141
 on role of prices in society, 56

G

GAAP. See Generally accepted accounting principles.

Gates, Bill
 and rise of Microsoft, 15

General Motors
 and installment credit, 95, 96

Generally accepted accounting principles
 and intellectual capital, 15, 16

Gilder, George
 on perfect competition model, 306
 on windfall profits, 272

Gilmore, James H.
 on value proposition, 151, 152, 155

Gossen's Law, 77

Greenfield, Jerry
 on subjective theory of value, 96, 97

Greenspan, Alan
 on antitrust laws, 301

Gregory, John Milton
 on the seven laws of teaching, 5

H

Harper, Michael V.
 on after action reviews, 324, 325

Harrex, Brendon
 as first chief value officer, 310, 311

Hayek, Friedrich A.
 on use of knowledge in society, 194, 195

Hill, Rowland
 and postage stamps, 14

Hiltzik, Michael
 on Xerox's lack of vision, 13

Holden, Reed K.
 on cost-plus pricing, 88
 on the five Cs of value, 309
 on the four Ps of marketing, 11, 12
 on price negotiation, 114
 on price sensitivity, 179, 181–187
 on pricing as an art, 117
 on seven segmentation strategies, 199, 200
 on winner's curse, 263, 264

Home Bakery
 and price-led costing, 100

Hotels and resorts
 minimum stays at, 225

Hourly rate
 and cost accounting, 106–109

H&R block
 and perceived risk, 208

Human accomplishment
 and youth, 329–332

I

Iacocca, Lee
 and government bailout of Chrysler, 94
 on pricing of Ford Mustang, 90, 91

Installment credit, 95, 96

Intellectual capital, 15–24, 32
 and generally accepted accounting principles, 15, 16
 negative, 22–24
 in new business equation, 32
 three types of, 19–22, 32

Inventory effect
 and price sensitivity, 185, 187

Isolation effect, 238, 239

J

Jevons, William Stanley
 on labor theory of value, 72, 73
 on marginalism, 72, 73

Jobs, Steve
 on design as competitive differentiation, 238
 and iTunes, 10

Johnson, H. Thomas
 on return on investment, 104, 105
 on Toyota's price-led costing, 123–125

Jones, Benjamin
 on age and human accomplishment, 330, 331

K

Kahneman, Daniel
 and prospect theory, 279

Kant, Immanuel
 on just prices, 276

Kaplan, Robert S.
 on return on investment, 104, 105

Kasparov, Garry
 on judgment and intuition, 209

Kessler, Sheila
 on admirable companies, 338, 339
 on customer satisfaction, 133

Key performance indicators, 314

Keynes, John Maynard
 on labor theory of value, 67

Knowledge
 importance of sharing, 20–22
 and use in society, 194–196

Knowledge companies, 20–22, 40, 121, 122

L

Labor theory of value, 64–75, 88, 89

Lafley, A.G.
 on design as competitive differentiation, 238

Landsburg, Steven
 on assumption of rationality, 43, 44
 on first-degree price discrimination, 193
 on 99-cent pricing, 41, 42
 on predatory pricing, 290
 on the Robinson-Patman Act, 294, 295
 on two-part tariff, 2

Lanning, Michael J
 on value, 143, 144

Law of comparative advantage, 66

Law of diminishing returns, 66

LeBoeuf, Michael
 on motivating factors for consumers, 131, 132

Levitt, Theodore
 on customer attrition, 163, 164

Local resident discounts
 and pricing, 225

Lott, John R., Jr.
 on predatory pricing, 289, 290

Luxury market, 256–261

M

Maital, Shlomo
 on 13 forces that shape what people buy, 130

Management of people, 21

Marcus, Stanley
 on profit, 129
 on salesmanship, 137, 138

on "the market," 8, 136–138

Marginalism
rise of, 70–77

Market power
and price discrimination, 191

Market share, 28, 29

Marketing concept, 8, 309, 310

Maron, Howard
on concierge medical practices, 257, 258

Marriot
and customer complaints, 165

Marshall, Alfred
and marginalism, 80, 81
on price elasticity, 180
on supply and demand, 79–82, 177

Marx, Karl
and labor theory of value, 67–70
on socially necessary labor, 69

McCain, Jeff
on price-led costing at Disney, 126

McCloskey, Dierdre
on assumption of rationality, 47
on role of prices in society, 59

McCloskey, Donald
on price theory, 3

Menger, Carl
on labor theory of value, 72
on marginalism, 71, 72

Men's versus women's shirts
pricing of, 226, 227

Mercedes-Benz
and loss of market share, 144, 145

Micklethwait, John
on management theory, 4

Microsoft
and intellectual capital, 15, 18
and violation of antitrust laws, 302–304

Mission statements
of value cartels, 320

Moment of Truth strategy, 147–150

Money-back guarantee, 167–171

Monopoly
and antitrust laws, 283–306

Monroe, Kent
on pricing as an adaptive process, 117

Morita, Akio
on subjective theory of value, 97, 98, 310

MOT. See Moment of Truth strategy.

Movie theater popcorn
pricing of, 1–3, 46

Murray, Charles
on human accomplishment, 330

N

Nagle, Thomas T.
on cost-plus pricing, 88
on the five Cs of value, 309
on the four Ps of marketing, 11, 12
on price negotiation, 114
on price sensitivity, 179, 181–187
on pricing as an art, 117
on seven segmentation strategies, 199, 200
on winner's curse, 263, 264

Nalebuff, Barry
on the eight hidden costs of bidding, 265, 266
on requests for proposals, 264

Napster, 10

Negative intellectual capital, 22–24

Neiman-Marcus
and aesthetics, 154
and isolation effect, 238, 239
and salesmanship, 137, 138
and "the market," 8, 136–138

Neuhaus, Father Richard John
on just prices, 269, 273

Neutral pricing, 234

New business equation, 31–40

New products
pricing of, 228–234

Newspapers
pricing of, 221

Nightclubs
pricing at, 221

99-cent pricing, 41–47
and cash registers, 41, 42

O

Occam's razor, 37, 132

O'Rourke, P.J. on prosperity, 19

P

Pareto Principle, 197

Patek Philippe
and isolation effect, 239

Paton, William
on cost accounting, 104

Payment resistance, 204, 205

Peetz, John
knowledge mission of, 21

Pencils
making of, 51–55

Penetration pricing, 232, 233

Perceived substitutes effect
and price sensitivity, 181, 185

- Perfect competition model flaws of, 304, 305
- Peters, Tom
 on competitive differentiation, 235–236
- Pettengill, Samuel Barrett
 on profit, 129
- The physical fallacy, 16–19
- Pine, Joseph B. II
 on value proposition, 151, 152, 155
- Planned obsolescence
 and pricing, 227
- Pope John Paul II
 on economic freedom, 273–275
- Postage stamps
 as radical letter pricing, 14
- Postmortem analysis. See After action reviews.
- Predatory pricing
 and antitrust law, 289, 290
- Price
 in new business equation, 33
- Price anxiety, 205
- Price bundling, 204
- Price buyers, 255
- Price controls, 56, 57, 60, 61
- Price discrimination, 175–196, 213–234
 four requirements of, 190–192
 morality of, 275–278
 nonmarket, 227, 228
 principles of, 189–194
 and progressive taxes, 277, 278
 as prohibited by antitrust laws, 295–298
 three degrees of, 192–194
- Price elasticity, 177–180. See also Price sensitivity.
- Price fixing, 291, 292
- Price-led costing, 121–127. See also Pricing On Purpose.
- Price leverage, 203
- Price psychology
 and risk, 202–205
- Price quality effect
 and price sensitivity, 182, 183, 186
- Price resistance, 203, 204
- Price sensitivity
 ten factors of, 180–187
- Price wars
 avoiding, 244–246
- Prices
 just, 269, 270
 questions to consider when establishing, 321
 relative, 83, 84, 175–196
 and role in society, 55–61
- Pricing
 and airline competition, 216–219
 as an art, 117–119, 208–211
 of automobile tolls, 222, 223
 of automobiles, 89–91, 221, 222
 at British pubs, 224, 225
 of college tuition, 225
 and the competition, 208–211
 of cosmetics, 223, 224
 cost-plus, 87–101
 and customer loyalty programs, 226
 ethics and, 269–281
 and free extras, 223
 of hardcover versus paperback books, 220
 and local resident discounts, 225
 of men's versus women's shirts, 226, 227
 and minimum stays at hotels and resorts, 226 neutral, 234
 of new products, 228–234
 of newspapers, 221
 and nightclubs, 221
 penetration, 232, 233
 and planned obsolescence, 227
 predatory, 289, 290
 of satellite service, 224
 and senior discounts, 220, 221
 skim, 229–232
 of theater admission, 225, 226
 of 3M tape, 220
 and trade-in discounts, 223
 and United States Postal Service, 220 and weight change of products, 225
- Pricing emotions, 203–205
- Pricing function
 and net income effect, 12
- Pricing On Purpose, 89–101
 and subjective theory of value, 89, 92
- Producer surplus, 188
- Product bundling
 and customer segmentation, 200
- Product design
 and customer segmentation, 200
- Profit forecasting, 106
- Profitability
 in new business equation, 31, 32
- Profits, 129–141
 morality of, 272–275
 and risk, 37–40
 windfall, 271, 272
- Progressive taxes
 and price discrimination, 277, 278

- Proposals
  - requests for, 263–267
- Prospect theory, 278–281
- Protectionism
  - fallacies of, 68, 69
- Purchase location
  - and customer segmentation, 199
- Purchase quantity
  - and customer segmentation, 199, 200

- R
- Rational ignorance, 45
- Rationality
  - assumption of, 41–47
- Reichheld, Frederick
  - on airline pricing, 217, 218
- Relationship buyers, 256
- Relative prices, 83, 84, 175–196
- Requests for proposals, 263–267
  - and the eight hidden costs of bidding, 265, 266
- Return on investment, 104, 105
- Revenue
  - in old business equation, 28
- Reverse risk premium, 112
- Revlon
  - and competitive differentiation, 242
  - and customer expectations, 134, 135
- RFPs. See Requests for proposals.
- Ricardo, David
  - and cost of production theory of value, 66
  - on labor theory of value, 66
- Risk
  - customer, 205–208
  - and price psychology, 202–205
  - and profits, 37–40
  - three categories of, 39
- Ritz-Carlton
  - and customer complaints, 167
- Robinson-Patman Act of 1936, 293–295
- Rock concert tickets
  - pricing of, 46
- Rogaine
  - skim pricing of, 230, 231
- ROI. See Return on investment.
- Rosenbluth, Hal
  - on customer complaints, 166

- S
- Satellite service
  - pricing of, 224
- Scandinavian Airlines
  - and Moment of Truth strategy, 148
- Schneider, Jayme, 313
- Schumpeter, Joseph
  - on creative destruction, 10, 11
  - on Menger, Carl, 334, 335
- Search products
  - and customer segmentation, 201
- Senior discounts
  - and pricing, 220, 221
- Seven laws of teaching, 5
- Shared-cost effect
  - and price sensitivity, 184, 186
- Sherman Antitrust Act of 1890, 287–291
- Skim pricing, 229–232
- Skousen, Mark
  - on price discrimination, 189, 190
- Smith, Adam
  - on acts of benevolence, 49, 50
  - on antitrust laws, 301
  - and cost of production theory of value, 65, 70, 74, 78
  - on division of labor, 16
  - and labor theory of value, 65
  - on mutually beneficial commerce, 9
  - on wealth of nations, 18
- Sony
  - and subjective theory of value, 97, 98, 310
- Southwest Airlines
  - and customer service, 132, 133, 151, 170, 171
  - and pricing, 217, 218
- Sowell, Thomas
  - on function of trust, 157
  - on price controls, 60
  - on role of prices in society, 59, 60
  - on subjective theory of value, 79
- Spending
  - four categories of, 139–141
- Starbucks
  - and competitive differentiation, 240–242
- Starwood Hotels
  - and money-back guarantee, 168
- Sticker shock, 203, 204
- Stigler, George J.
  - on antitrust laws, 300, 301
  - on monopoly, 305, 306
- Subjective theory of value, 79, 89–101
  - and Pricing On Purpose, 89, 92
- Sullivan, Gordon R.
  - on after action reviews, 324, 325
- Supply and demand, 79–82, 177–180, 187–189
- Switching cost effect
  - and price sensitivity, 182, 185, 186

T

- Taylor, Kenna C.
  - on price discrimination, 189, 190
- Technical Assistance Research Programs
  - and customer complaints, 164, 165
- Theater admission
  - pricing of, 225, 226
- 3M tape
  - pricing of, 220
- Tie-ins and metering
  - and customer segmentation, 200
- Time of purchase
  - and customer segmentation, 199
- TIP clause
  - and value pricing, 112, 115–117
- Total Quality Management, 159–161
- Total Quality Service, 147, 148, 150–152
- Toyota
  - and price-led costing, 123–125
- TQM. See Total Quality Management.
- TQS. See Total Quality Service.
- Trade-in discounts
  - and pricing, 223
- Tragedy of the commons, 307
- Transaction cost and potential profit
  - and price discrimination, 191, 192
- Trust
  - and value proposition, 156–158
- Tversky, Amos
  - and prospect theory, 279
- Two-part tariff, 2, 3

U

- Unique value effect
  - and price sensitivity, 181, 182, 185
- Uniqueness
  - and value proposition, 154–156
- United States Postal Service
  - and pricing, 220
- Upjohn
  - and skim pricing of Rogaine, 230, 231
- Utility
  - and value, 75, 78, 80

V

- Value
  - cost of production theory of, 65, 70, 74, 78, 80
  - labor theory of, 64–75
  - and marginalism, 70–77
  - subjective theory of, 79, 89
  - and utility, 75, 78, 80

Value buyers, 255

Value cartels, 315–328

- mission and functions of, 310–325

Value-driven price

- versus cost-driven price, 226

Value proposition, 143–174

- and aesthetics, 153–154

- and banking, 146

- and customer complaints, 164–167

- and customer service, 171–174

- and money-back guarantee, 167–171

- and SWOT analysis, 146

- and trust, 156–158

- and uniqueness, 154–156

Vance, Mike

- on Disney, Walt, 339, 340

Von Mises, Ludwig

- on assumption of rationality, 45

- on market economy, 57–59

- on utility, 75

W

Walras, Leon

- on labor theory of value, 72

Weber-Fechner Law, 280

Weight change of products

- and pricing, 225

Whately, Richard

- on labor theory of value, 73

Wicksteed, Philip

- on labor theory of value, 73

Williams, Roy H.

- on low prices, 246

Windfall profits, 271, 272

Winner's curse

- and requests for proposals, 263, 264

Wooldridge, Adrian

- on management theory, 4

Woolpert, Bruce

- on money-back guarantee at Graniterock, 170

Y

Yamaji, Keizo

- on price-led costing, 99

Yield management, 198, 199

Youth

- and human accomplishment, 329–332