

Contents

PREFACE	vii
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	ix
CHAPTER 1
Fraud Definitions, Models, and Taxonomies	1
Introduction	1
Classic Fraud Research	6
Fraud Triangle	8
Scope of Fraud	12
Profile of Fraudsters	14
Who Is Victimized by Fraud Most Often?	18
Fraud Taxonomies	19
Evolution of a Typical Fraud	28
Chapter 2
Fundamentals of Fraud Auditing and Forensic Accounting	33
Introduction	33
Brief History of Fraud and the Antifraud Profession	35
Review of Technical Literature	40
Auditor's Mind-Set	42
What Is Forensic Accounting?	43
Steps in Fraud Investigation	52
What Is Fraud Auditing?	55
Antifraud Professional Organizations and Certifications	71
Summary	72
CHAPTER 3
Auditor Liability for Detecting Fraud	75
Introduction	75
Recent Developments in Auditor Liability	91
Summary	96

CHAPTER 4
Fraud Schemes	99
Introduction	99
ACFE Fraud Tree	101
Financial Statement Schemes	108
Corruption Schemes	111
Asset Misappropriation Schemes	113
Summary	122
CHAPTER 5
Red Flags and Fraud Detection	125
Introduction	125
Professional Standards	126
Common Red Flags	127
Common Detection Methods	129
Specific Red Flags and Detection Methods	131
Corruption Schemes	134
Asset Misappropriation Schemes	135
Fraud Detection Model	147
Summary	153
CHAPTER 6
Fraud and CAATs	155
Introduction	155
Benefits of CAATs	156
Fraud and CAAT Issues	158
Need for Computer Tools	159
Sample Tools/CAATs	161
CAAT Methodology	164
Summary	173
CHAPTER 7
Fraud Prevention and Control	175
Introduction	175
Perception of Detection	175
Classic Approaches	178
Prevention Environment	180
Prevention Measures	183
Accounting Cycles	187
Summary	190

CHAPTER 8
Fraud Risk Assessment	191
Introduction	191
Risk Assessment Process and Documentation	196
Risk Management Checklists and Documentation	198
Special Cases	207
Summary	209
CHAPTER 9
Fraud and the Accounting Information System	211
Introduction	211
Accounting Concepts	212
Expenditures Cycle (Purchases and Disbursements)	213
Bank Reconciliation	214
General Ledger	215
Cash Path	218
Segregation of Duties	218
Computerized Accounting Systems	218
Key Personnel	219
Computer Hardware	224
Computer Software	226
Media Storage	227
New Forms of Media	228
Paper and Microfilm	229
Audit Trail Concept	229
CHAPTER 10
Computer-Related Fraud	231
Introduction	231
History and Evolution of Computer-Related Crimes	233
Computer-Related Fraud Theories and Principles	236
Characteristics of the Computer Environment	240
Information Security (InfoSec)	242
Profiling Internet Fraudsters	245
Summary	252
CHAPTER 11
Forensic Accountant as an Expert Witness	255
Introduction	255
Role of a Forensic Accountant as a Witness in Court	255
Forensic Accountant as an Expert Witness	262

Qualification and Admissibility of Accounting Evidence	265
Expert's Role in the Litigation Team	267
Pretestimony Activities	267
Trial and Testimony	269
Summary	279
Appendix 11A	279
CHAPTER 12
General Criteria and Standards for Evaluating an Expert's Qualifications	283
Introduction	283
Credentials	283
Personal Qualities of the Expert	290
Sources for Locating Expert Witnesses	294
Distinguishing the Actual Area of Competence	296
Summary	297
CHAPTER 13
Gathering Evidence	299
Introduction	299
Rules of Evidence	299
Hearsay Exceptions	303
Other Rules of Evidence	304
Index	315