

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Preface
Lesley Saunders	xi
1 Educational Research and the Practical Judgement of Policy-Makers David Bridges, Paul Smeyers and Richard Smith	1
2 The Importance of Being Thorough: On Systematic Accumulations of ‘What Works’ in Education Research Alis Oancea and Richard Pring	11
3 Educational Research and Policy: Epistemological Considerations David Bridges and Michael Watts	36
4 On the Epistemological Basis of Large-Scale Population Studies and their Educational Use Paul Smeyers	58
5 Epistemology as Ethics in Research and Policy: The Use of Case Studies John Elliott and Dominik Lukeš	82
6 Personal Narratives and Policy: Never the Twain? Morwenna Griffiths and Gale Macleod	115
7 Action Research and Policy Lorraine Foreman-Peck and Jane Murray	138
8 Philosophy as a Basis for Policy and Practice: What Confidence Can We Have in Philosophical Analysis and Argument? James C. Conroy, Robert A. Davis and Penny Enslin	157
9 Proteus Rising: Re-Imagining Educational Research Richard Smith	175
Index	191