

Contents

About the Author	xii
Introduction.....	xiii
I Franchising Basics	1
1 What's a Franchise, Anyway?	3
Reviewing a brief history of franchising	5
Understanding how franchises work	5
Determining whether you're a good fit for a franchise	6
Discovering the biggest misconceptions about franchises	9
Recognizing the differences between a franchise and a traditional business	12
Choosing the best franchise for you	15
Just the facts	19
2 Are You Franchisee Material?.....	21
Do you have what it takes to be a successful franchisee?	22
What to expect from the experience.....	31
Just the facts	38
3 Choosing the Right Franchise for You	39
Defining your short-term and long-term goals	40
Considering your interests	59
Researching franchise opportunities.....	61
Preparing for your new life as a franchisee....	67
Just the facts	68

4 Franchise Opportunities.....	69
The latest franchising trends	70
How to learn more	74
A sampling of twenty franchise opportunities	75
Entrepreneur magazine's top twenty-five franchises for 2006	95
Just the facts.....	97
 II Before You Open Your Doors	99
 5 Lining Up Your Finances	101
Analyzing whether you're creditworthy	101
Developing a detailed business plan	105
Calculating the total capital needed	106
Financing options for franchisees	111
Keeping the books.....	117
Just the facts	117
 6 Legal Issues Relating to Your Franchise	119
Why you need a franchise attorney	120
Preliminary questions to ask a franchise attorney	122
Understanding the UFOC.....	124
Making sense of your Franchise Agreement.....	127
Other legal matters you'll need to deal with.....	128
Just the facts	130
 7 Choosing Your Location	131
There are many types of locations.....	132
Analyze your customer base . . . again!.....	141
Determine whether your targeted customer base is large enough	142
Figuring out your real estate needs.....	142
Key points to consider when choosing a location	144
Strategies for negotiating your lease.....	147
The next step: construction	149
Just the facts	151

8 The Training You'll Need	153
Training basics.....	153
The training you can expect from your franchisor	155
Take advantage of all learning opportunities available.....	161
Rounding out your business education	163
Passing on your knowledge to employees.....	164
Just the facts	164
III Getting Ready for Opening Day	167
9 Hiring and Managing Your Employees.....	169
Defining your staffing needs.....	170
Create job titles and descriptions, and then set expectations.....	171
How and where to find the best employees.....	172
Having applicants complete a job application.....	176
The art of interviewing job applicants	177
Hiring employees you can trust.....	182
Managing your employees.....	183
Creating an employee manual	184
Rewarding your employees.....	184
Setting salaries, benefits, and bonuses.....	186
Dealing with common staffing problems	187
Firing bad employees.....	187
Just the facts	188
10 Seeking Business Help from Professionals	191
What constitutes an expert?	192
Determining what types of experts your business could benefit from	194
Steps for finding and hiring the best experts	204
Obtaining the additional training and education you need	206
Just the facts	207

11 Working with Suppliers and Vendors	209
Understanding the jargon	210
Following the rules and guidelines of your franchisor	211
Selecting vendors	213
Establishing credit with your vendors	216
Inventory-management techniques	217
Just the facts	218
12 Marketing Your Business Locally.....	221
Defining marketing, advertising, and PR.....	222
Promoting and advertising your business	224
Creating an overall plan that works.....	226
What is marketing?.....	231
What is public relations?	233
What is advertising?	240
Why becoming active in your community is important	244
Focus on always providing top-notch customer service.....	245
Planning your opening-day events	248
Just the facts	248
IV Gathering Expert Advice	251
13 Getting Insight from Franchising Experts	253
Lawrence J. "Doc" Cohen, CFE.....	254
Tom Buxton.....	265
William Killion	270
Just the facts	275
14 Successful Franchisors Reveal Their Secrets for Success	277
Lynette McKee	279
Stuart Mathis.....	287
Jeff Schenck.....	293
Joy Flora.....	297
Don Slifer	297

Ken Sully	305
Amy Nichols	312
Just the facts	319
15 Advice Directly from Franchisees	321
Joy Hofmeister	322
Tom Kilkelly.....	331
Just the facts	337
V Appendixes	339
A Franchising Glossary.....	341
B Franchise Directory.....	349
Top ten low-cost franchises	352
Top ten new franchises	353
C Recommended Reading and Other Resources	355
Web sites	355
Magazines	356
Trade journals and directories	357
Other.....	358
Index	359