

Index

A

Abramoff, J., 242
Accenture, 114, 205
Achille, J., 82
ACLU, 231, 263
Acxiom, 21, 28, 113, 117, 118, 191, 198
Adams, J., 213
Adoption curve, 142–143
Advertising: measuring effectiveness, 196–199; narrow-casting approach to, 189, 204, 208; outdoor/billboard, 205; technology and ubiquity of, 200–206. See also Marketing
AIM (America Online's Instant Messenger), 73, 94, 207
Airport security measures, 21–22, 45, 219–222, 243, 244
Al-Qaeda, 231, 243
Albertson's, 116
Alien and Sedition Acts, 213
AlphaWorld (Active Worlds), 73
Amazon.com, 44, 202
American Idol (TV show), 98
Ameritrade, 118
Anonymity: authentication versus, 127–129; browsing and need for, 129; urban privacy as valuing, 139–140; virtual identity and role of, 125–127. See also Pseudonymity
Anti-Phishing Working Group (APWG), 134
AOL, 15, 64, 65, 66, 212, 262
AOL Instant Messenger (AIM), 73, 94, 207
Applied Digital Solutions, 8
Appropriation tort, 96–99
Armstrong, G., 158

Ashcroft, J., 57, 78, 86
ATM machines, 141
Atta, M., 195
Avatar abuse, 72–75
Aventis, 116
The avoiders, 255–256

B

Baby boomers, 4, 121, 136, 144
Balanced privacy: economic damage of eroded privacy, 269–272; moderation solution to reach, 277; national security/privacy needs considered in, 232–236, 268–269; privacy commandments for ethical approach to, 37–39; rattling the cage to protect, 276–278; striking a, 267–272
Bank of America, 118
Barber, D., 106
Barber v. Time, 106
Bartnicki v. Vopper, 99–100
Bell, D., 112
Benetton, 177
Bentham, J., 276
Berger, Hanlon v., 102
Berry, M., 26
Best Buy, 18
Bill of Rights, 108, 109
Billboard advertising, 205
Black boxes (vehicle), 8
Blogs: described, 31–32; false-light claims against, 107; identity lawsuit over protection of, 250
“Bluesnarking,” 27
Bork, R., 241
Bowles, W. M., 33
Boyer, A. L., 103

- Brandeis, L., 93, 95, 97, 120, 247, 248
 Brando, M., 3, 78
 Breyer, S., 100
 Brickstream Corporation, 204
 Brin, D., 239
 Bristol-Myers Squibb, 116
 Bush, G., 231, 245
Business Week, 24
- C
- Camera surveillance, 6, 155–159
 Canter, L., 201
 Cantrell, M., 107–108
 CardSystems Solutions, 118
 Carnegie, A., 271
 Carnivore software, 164–165
 Carson, J., 98
 CBS, Inc., Green v., 104
 CCDs (charge-coupled device), 155–156
 Cell phone privacy, 160–163
 Center for Constitutional Rights, 231
 Centrino chip set, 173
 Chase, B., 82
 Cheap information legacy, 266
 Chekhov, A., 169
Chic magazine, 107
 Child porn, 77–78
 Child Pornography Prevention Act (1996), 78
 Children: GPS-tagged, 182; label of “attracted to,” 196; market monitoring of, 193; pornography using, 77–78; protecting from Internet predators, 31–33, 260
 ChoicePoint, 15, 21, 26, 28, 113, 118, 191, 192, 198
 Chronicle Publishing, 104
 Church Senate Committee on Intelligence, 214–215, 243
 CIA, 214
 Citibank, 51
 Citigroup, 118
 Civil law: appropriation tort in, 96–99; false-light tort in, 106–108; intrusion tort in, 99–104; privacy in the, 94–96; private facts tort in, 104–106. See also Crimes; Federal legislation
 Civil liberties. See Individual rights
 Claire, W. F., 137
 Cleveland, G., 89
Cleveland Plain Dealer, 107
 Clinton, B., 32
 Clinton, H., 245, 247
 Clipper Chip, 272
 Coca-Cola billboard, 205
 Cockerham, R., 261
 COINTELPRO, 214
Colbert Report, 120
 Colbert, S., 120
 Communication: content of, 235; narrow-casting email, 189, 204, 208; privacy of telephone, 159–163, 231, 235; spamming email, 25, 201–202, 261
 Communications Assistance for Law Enforcement Act (1994), 162
 Company policies: disclosure of information, 16–17; regarding third party sales of consumer data, 13–14, 15–17
 CompuServe, 64
 Computer Assisted Passenger Pre-screening System, 21
 Computer Matching and Privacy Protection Act, 114
 Computer technology: contrived security of, 65–66; development of thinking machines, 151–154; as double-edged sword, 69; interoperability of, 171–172; privacy loss through, 45–47. See also Digital documents; Networked computers; Software; Technology
 Conformity, 50–53
Connecticut, Griswold v., 108, 247
 Connectivity. See Networked computers
 Constitution. See U.S. Constitution
 Consumer data: balanced use of, 272–273; deceptive use of, 14–17; failure of legislative efforts to protect, 241–245; FICO scores as part of, 19–21; Google search history as, 12–13; identity theft using stolen, 23–28; marketing driven by, 190–194; medical information included as, 106, 190, 242; profiling to derive, 17–23; requiring notification of compromised, 118–119; RFID tagging to collect, 175–180, 182–183; scrutiny of companies holding, 11–12; surveillance to gather, 150–154; third party sales of, 10–11, 13–14, 15–17, 116–118. See also Customer segmentation; Data mining; Databases; Personal information; Private-sector
 Consumer discrimination, 43–44
 Consumer Federation of America survey (2003), 20
 Contractual privacy protections, 115–119
 Cookies (data files), 206
The Coors (Irish singing group), 79
Cops (TV show), 102
 Corporate world. See Private-sector
 Counterfeit Access Device Law, 162
Cox Broadcasting Corporation v. Cohn, 105
 Credit risk label, 84–85
 Credit scores, 19–21, 274

- Credit-card companies: data-profiling technologies used by, 19; transaction data collected by, 14
- CREEP (Committee to Reelect the President), 87
- Crimes: avatar abuse, 72–75; digital Watergate, 87–90; Golem porn, 76–79; identity hijacker's fraudulent financial transactions, 132–133; profiling discrimination, 83–87; puppetry, 75–76; simulated pornography, 76–79; spreading disinformation, 79–83. See also Civil law; Legal issues
- Culture: adoption curve determined by, 142–143; generational ideas about privacy, 140–146; privacy norms based on, 137–139; urban versus rural ideas about privacy, 139–140
- The curmudgeons, 258–260
- Customer segmentation: consumer discrimination and, 43–44; described, 18, 188; marketing role of, 188–189; narrow-casting and, 189, 204, 208; profiling resulting in, 18, 194–196; psychographic, 189. See also Consumer data; Marketing; Profiling
- Customer-relationship management, 199–200
- Cyber Knight, 164
- Cyber-stalking prohibition, 31
- D
- Daily Kos, 250
- Daily Mail Publishing Co., Smith v.*, 105
- Daily Show*, 120
- D'Amelio, J., 132
- Data mining, 188, 199–200, 209. See also Consumer data
- Databases: FBI, 111, 113; marketing driven by, 190–194; medical information, 195; oversight of personal information, 274–276; privacy violated by usage of, 272–273. See also Consumer data; Personal information
- Davis v. Temple*, 100
- Debt disclosure, 100
- The deceivers, 256–258
- Deception: as privacy protection, 256–258; temptation to misuse personal information as, 14–17
- Defamation, 107
- Delta Airlines, 31
- Dennis, B., 194
- Department of Homeland Security. See U.S. Department of Homeland Security
- DHS. See U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS)
- Diana, Princess, 37
- “Dictionary attacks,” 133
- Dietemann, A. A., 102
- Dietemann v. Time Inc.*, 102
- Digital cameras, 156–157
- Digital DNA models, 63
- Digital documents: debate over privacy laws applied to, 78–79; how technology changes the medium, 58–63; impossibility of “purging,” 63, 266; manipulation of photo, 78–79, 157; permanent nature of, 63–64; public information recorded in, 266–267; simulated pornographic, 76–79. See also Computer technology; Photographs
- Digital Future Project, 89
- Digital Space, 74
- Digital Watergate, 87–90
- Dignity loss, 34–37
- Disinformation, 79–83
- DMV (Department of Motor Vehicles), 110
- DNA mapping, 109
- DNA sensors, 167
- DNS (Domain Name System), 124
- Docusearch, 103
- Domestic surveillance: Bush administration's defense of, 245–246; camera, 6, 155–159; Church Committee investigation of, 214–215, 243; new approaches since 9/11, 231–232; telephone scanners, 160–161; voyeurism techniques used in, 164–165; of welfare recipients, 35–36; wiretapping, 159–160, 161, 162–163, 231. See also National security measures; Surveillance; Terrorism prevention; U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS); U.S. government; Voyeurism technology
- “Don't Call” registry (FTC), 111
- DOOM (shooter game), 74
- Dorothy Lane Market (Ohio), 44
- DOS (denial-of-service) attacks, 261–262
- Douglas, W. O., 108, 149, 248
- Driver's license information, 259
- Driver's Privacy Protection Act (1994), 110
- Drudge, M., 120, 250
- Drug Enforcement Agency, 195–196
- Dumpster diving, 25
- E
- Eavesdropping surveillance, 159–165
- eBay, 131–133
- Eckerd, 116
- Economic issues: consequences of privacy violations, 269–272; financial

- transaction privacy, 128–129, 131–133, 164, 194–196
  - Edison, T., 151, 271
  - Eick v. Perk Dog Food Co.*, 97
  - Electronic Communications Privacy Act, 101, 161
  - Electronic Freedom of Information Act Amendments (1996), 109–110
  - Electronic health cards, 8
  - Electronic identification cards, 8–9
  - Electronic Privacy Information Center (EPIC), 116, 193
  - Eli Lilly, 195
  - Ellsberg, D., 87
  - Email campaigns: customized birthday messages, 192–193; encrypting, 109, 164, 165, 259; narrow-casting, 189, 204, 208; spamming, 25, 201–202, 261
  - Employee tracking, 181–182
  - Encryption, 109, 164, 165, 259, 271–272
  - Equifax, 19
  - Essential.com Inc., 116
  - Eszterhas, J., 107–108
  - eTour, 116
  - European Union: Safe Harbor agreement with, 271; tagged currency of, 177
  - Executive branch failure, 245–247
  - Executive Order (wiretap authorization), 231
  - Expectations of privacy, 101–102
  - Experian, 19, 28, 64, 192, 194, 198
- F
- Facebook web site, 31, 121
  - Facial recognition technology, 6
  - Fair Credit Reporting Act, 16, 84, 251
  - Fair Isaac Corporation, 19
  - Fairchild, P., 26
  - Fairport Central School District (New York), 260–261
  - False-light tort, 106–108
  - FaudWatch International, 134
  - FBI: Church Committee investigation of, 214, 243; information database of, 111, 113; Project Lookout of, 85; voyeurism techniques used by, 164–165
  - FCC (Federal Communications Commission), 161, 162
  - Federal Information Security Management Act (2002), 114
  - Federal legislation: Alien and Sedition Acts, 213; Communications Assistance for Law Enforcement Act (1994), 162; Computer Matching and Privacy Protection Act, 114; Counterfeit Access Device Law, 162; Driver's Privacy Protection Act (1994), 110; Electronic Communications Privacy Act, 101, 161; Electronic Freedom of Information Act Amendments (1996), 109–110; Fair Credit Reporting Act, 16, 84, 251; Federal Information Security Management Act (2002), 114; Federal Wiretap Act (1968, 1986), 160; FOIA (Freedom of Information Act), 109–110; Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act, 160; HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act), 242; need for updating privacy, 119–120; No Child Left Behind Act, 15, 260–261; Patriot Act, 49, 109, 113, 160, 163, 165, 222–231, 240, 243, 245; Privacy Act (1974), 109–110, 113; Privacy Act Amendments (1988, 1990), 114; privacy protection failures by, 241–245; proposed Privacy Bill of Rights, 245, 247; providing privacy protections, 108–111; Telephone Consumer Protection Act (1991), 253; VPAA (Video Privacy Protection Act) [1988], 241. See also Civil law; Judiciary branch protections; Legal issues; Privacy protections; State legislation; U.S. government
  - Federal Trade Commission (FTC), 23, 24, 115, 117, 192
  - Federal Wiretap Act (1968, 1986), 160
  - FICO scores, 19–21, 274
  - Fifth Amendment, 109
  - Financial transactions: authentication requirement of, 128–129; customer segmentation based on, 194–196; identity hijackers and fraudulent, 132–133; SWIFT tracking of, 164; trust required for, 131–132
  - First Amendment: Child Pornography Prevention Act struck down using, 78; Internet news-reporting media protected by, 250; invasion-of-privacy claims and, 105; newsworthy information protected under, 99–100; right of association protection under, 108; right to privacy as superseding, 102; rights guaranteed under, 105
  - First Amendment Center, 102
  - FISC, 231
  - Flash technology, 202–203
  - Flickr, 94
  - FOIA (Freedom of Information Act), 109–110
  - Food Lion, 199
  - Ford, G., 104

- Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act, 160
- Fourteenth Amendment: due-process clause of, 108–109; invasion-of-privacy claims and, 105; rights guaranteed under, 105; state laws protected under, 214
- Fourth Amendment: civil liberties based on, 54, 108, 109; “reasonable expectations of privacy” in, 159–160
- Foxwoods Resort Casino, 199
- Freedom of speech, 54
- French, L., 30
- Frost, R., 41
- FTC (Federal Trade Commission), 23, 24, 115, 117, 192
- FTC v. Toysmart.com*, 116
- FTC’s “Don’t Call” registry, 111
- Fudge, J. D., 24
- “Fuzzy logic,” 84
- G
- Galella, R., 102
- Galella v. Onassis*, 102
- Gallup Poll (1999), 93
- Garbo, G., 211
- Garner v. Triangle Publications, Inc.*, 105–106
- Gartner Research study (2003), 24
- Gartner survey (2005), 135
- Gates, B., 135, 271
- GenXers, 4, 121, 144–145
- General Motors, 7
- Generational differences: of baby boomers and GenXers, 4, 121, 136, 144–145; on ideas about privacy and technology, 140–146; impacting judiciary protections, 248
- GeoCities, 15
- Geofencing software, 181–182
- Gilmore, J., 256
- Glasberg, V. M., 86
- GMS (Global Systems for Mobile Communication), 61
- Golem porn, 76–79
- Google: advertising profiling by, 202; consumer and personal data collected by, 12–13, 60, 136; employee blogs discussing, 31; outing by, 126; personal information available on, 60, 62; subpoena of search records kept by, 212. See also Search engines
- “Google bombing,” 83
- Google Desktop, 13
- Google Earth, 12
- Government. See U.S. government
- GPS (Geographic Positioning System), 6–7, 8, 180–183, 203
- Green Card Lottery, 201
- Green v. CBS, Inc.*, 104
- Grid computing, 172
- Griswold v. Connecticut*, 108, 247
- Group W. Publications, Shulman v.*, 101
- H
- Hacking, 118–119, 261
- Hamilton, A., 213
- Hanlon v. Berger*, 102
- Happy Birthday emails, 192–193
- Harding, T., 98
- Harris Interactive study (2003), 24
- Harrison, G., 37
- Harrison, J., 26
- Harvard Law Review*, 95
- Hatfill, S., 86
- Hilton, P., 27, 80
- HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act), 242
- Hoffman, D., 98
- Holmes, O. W., 214, 248
- Hoover, J. E., 214
- HTTP (Hypertext Transfer Protocol), 171
- HUMINT, 232
- Hurricane Katrina, 36–37
- I
- iBeam Broadcasting, 33
- IBM, 64, 134, 179
- Identity: loss of dignity through violation of, 34–37; privacy through control over, 122–125. See also Virtual identity
- Identity hijackers, 132
- Identity theft: avatar abuse form of, 72–75; described, 23; hacking leading to, 118–119; hijacking of virtual, 132; increasing prevalence and costs of, 23–25; loss of pseudonymity leading to, 133–136; methods/examples of, 25–28; phishing attacks used for, 25, 134–135; puppetry form of, 75–76; SSNs (Social Security numbers) and, 23–28, 135–136
- IEEE (Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers), 171
- IETF (Internet Engineering Task Force), 171
- The ignorers, 254–255
- Individual rights: balancing national security against, 215–232, 268; Civil War as fight over, 214–215; eroded since 9/11, 211; Fourth Amendment basis of, 54, 108, 109, 159–160; how privacy rights protect other, 53–54;

right to privacy, 94–96. See also Privacy protections; Privacy rights

Instant Messaging, 72, 73

Interconnectivity. See Networked computers

Internet: avatar virtual worlds on the,
72–75; blogs on the, 31–32, 107, 250;
cheap information legacy of the, 266;
child predators using the, 31–33; generational differences in comfort with, 142–146; generational differences in perception of, 121–122; Golem porn on the, 76–79; googling the, 60; new crimes development due to, 71–90;
news reporting media of the, 249–250;
outing of virtual identities used on the,
28–34; phishing on the, 25, 134–135;
political information to voters using,
89; privacy mores of the, 137–138, 140;
protocols used on the, 163, 171, 259;
reputation currency of the, 122, 130;
spreading disinformation using the,
79–83; spyware used on the, 206–207,
259. See also Virtual identity; Web sites

Internet Crimes Against Children Task
Force, 33

Internet service providers (ISPs), 9, 66,
163, 164, 165

Interoperability, 171–172

Intrusion: definition of, 5; expectation of privacy issue of, 101–102; impact of technology on potential, 5–9; torts on,
99–104

Invasion-of-privacy claims, 104–106

IRC (Internet Relay Chat), 171

IRS (Internal Revenue Service), 21

IRS Reveal System, 21

ISPs (Internet service providers), 9, 66,
163, 164, 165

Itext Corp., 30

J

Jacobs, J., 73

James, Wyman v., 35

Jarrett, K., 133

Jefferson, T., 213

Jen, M., 31

JetBlue Airways, 116–117

Jones, A., 26

Joyce, B., 253

Judiciary branch protections, 247–248.
See also Federal legislation

K

“K Street,” 242

Kaczynski, T., 233

Kennedy, E., 22, 244

Kennedy, J. F., 82, 112, 214

Kennedy, R. F., 82

Kentucky Treatise (Jefferson), 213

Kerry, J., 81

Kestenbaum, Rabbi I., 33

Kibo, 131

Kidman, N., 5

King, M. L., Jr., 214

L

Labeling: computer surveillance as voyeurism, 240; damage caused by, 49–50; danger of false, 83–87; financial transactions used for consumer, 194–196; “person of interest,” 86. See also Profiling

Lake v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 103–104

Lambda-MOO, 76

Latency, described, 9–10

Lawsuits: appropriation torts, 96–99; over digital documents/content, 78–79;
between Google and U.S. government, 13; intrusion torts, 99–104; over prison labor access to personal information, 194; protecting privacy of welfare recipients, 35; over third-party data sales, 15, 16; over third-party sales of personal information, 116–117. See also U.S. Supreme Court

Layne, Wilson v., 102

Legal issues: Constitutional/federal laws protecting privacy, 108–111; contractual protections and web site privacy policies, 115–119; four privacy torts in civil law, 96–108; government outsourcing to private-sector data collection, 111–115; inadequate legal protection of privacy, 94; need for privacy law updating, 119–120; privacy in civil law, 94–108. See also Crimes; Federal legislation

LexisNexis, 21, 113, 118

Libby, I. L. “Scooter,” 88

LocatePLUS, 113

Location technology (GPS), 6–7, 8,
180–182, 203

Lost dignity, 34–37

Loyalty cards, 208

Lucid Marketing, 192

Ludd, N., 150

M

McCai, J., 89

McCain, B., 89

McGovern, G., 87

Macromedia’s Flash, 202–203

- McVeigh, T., 32, 233
 Macy, 16
 Magic Lantern, 164
 Manalapan surveillance camera, 6
 Marketing: best and worse aspects of, 187–188; databases as driving, 190–194; future of, 207–209; Internet spyware role in, 206–207; managing customer-relationship through, 199–200; segmentation role in, 188–189; technological measuring effective, 196–199. See also Advertising; Customer segmentation
 MarketsOnDemand, 191
 Max Headroom (TV show), 74
 Media: newsworthy information rationale used by, 99–100; privacy violations versus protection by, 248–250; public record issue and, 104–105; stake in privacy protections by, 240–241; television, 66–67, 197–198, 248–249
 Medical information, 106, 190, 242, 257
 Medical Information Bureau, 195
 Mery, D., 86–87
 MessageLabs, 134
 Metromail, 194
 Michelle Malkin web site, 250
 Microsoft, 212
 Midler, B., 98
Minority Report (film), 204
 Mirroring, 204
 Montgomery, R. V., 25–26
 Moore, G., 62
 Moore's Law, 62, 153, 156, 173, 181, 200
 Moss, K., 5–6
 Myers-Briggs archetypes, 196
 MySpace web site, 31, 65, 94, 121
- N
- Narrow-casting, 189, 204, 208
 NASA, 74
 National Conference of State Legislatures, 162–163
 National Reconnaissance Office, 157–158
 National security: balancing privacy rights with, 232–236, 268–269; historic tension between privacy and, 212–215; increasing importance of, 211–212; 9/11 impact on, 215–232; too much privacy as threat to, 268–269. See also Security
 National Security Agency (NSA), 160, 165, 211, 212, 215, 231
 National security measures: airport/no-fly list, 21–22, 45, 219–222, 243, 244; bureaucratic and technical changes as, 217–219; Patriot Act, 49, 109, 160, 163, 165, 222–231, 240, 243, 245. See also Domestic surveillance; Terrorism prevention; U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS)
 Naughton, P., 33
 Network Solutions, 124
 Networked computers: connectivity capabilities and, 64–65; GPS (Geographic Positioning System), 6–7, 8, 180–183, 203; privacy violations possible through, 169–175, 266; RFID tags using, 6, 7–9, 36, 38, 175–180, 182–183. See also Computer technology
New England Life, Pavesich v., 97
New York Times, 231
 9/11: counterterrorism measures since, 68, 268; erosion of civil liberties since, 211; increasing governmental voyeurism after, 165, 166; national security importance since, 211; national security measures after, 215–232; new domestic surveillance efforts since, 231–232; photograph hoax following, 157; profiling/labeling increase since, 85–86; terrorist profile developed after, 195
 Ninth Amendment, 108
 Nixon, R., 87, 90, 214
 Nixon's "enemy list," 214
 No Child Left Behind Act, 15, 260–261
 No-fly list, 22, 219–222, 243, 244
 Norris, C., 158
 Norton Security Suite, 207
 NSA (National Security Agency), 160, 165, 211, 212, 215, 231
- O
- Observing Surveillance Project, 256
 Oklahoma City bombing, 233
 Oluwatosin, O., 26
Onassis, Galella v., 102
 Onassis, J. K., 102
 Online community privacy mores, 140
 OnStar security system, 7
 Organic sensing technology, 165–167
 Orwell, G., 144
 Outdoor advertising, 205
 Outing: described, 28–29; Google capacity for, 126
 Outkast (rap group), 98
 Outsourcing, 253
- P
- "Packet sniffer" software, 27, 163, 164–165
 Palm Beach County School District, 7
 Parks, R., 98

- Parry, J. "Kibo," 131
- Patriot Act, 49, 109, 160, 163, 165, 222–231, 240, 243, 245
- Paulson, K., 102
- Pavesich, P., 97
- Pavesich v. New England Life*, 97
- Perk Dog Food Co, Eick v.*, 97
- Perle, R., 187
- "Person of interest" label, 86
- Personal information: balanced use of, 272–273; driver's license, 259; failure of legislative efforts to protect, 241–245; false-light tort over publicizing, 106–108; FICO scores, 19–21; Google exposure of, 60, 62, 134–136; government collection of, 15; identity theft using stolen, 23–28; lawsuit over prison labor access to, 194; medical category of, 106, 190, 242, 257; oversight of databases of, 274–276; posted by online surfers, 256–257; pretexting used to obtain, 103; private facts tort over publication of, 104–106; private-sector surveillance of, 111–115; social web sites containing, 31–32; surveillance used to gather, 150–154; temptation of deceptive use of, 14–17. See also Consumer data; Databases; SSNs (Social Security numbers)
- Perverved Justice, 33, 260
- The Pew Internet & American Life Project, 31
- Pfizer, 116
- Phishing, 25, 134–135
- Photographs: digital manipulation of, 78–79, 157; false-flight torts over published, 107; invasion of privacy and publication of, 106; 9/11 hoax using manipulated, 157; third-party custodian of personal, 103–104; video and camera surveillance, 6, 155–159. See also Digital documents
- Photoshop software, 78–79, 157, 159
- Plame, V., 88
- Plan 9 from Outer Space* (film), 239
- Polar Express* (film), 78
- POP (Post Office Protocol), 171
- Pornography, 76–79
- President's Commission on the Postal Service, 7
- Pretexting, 103
- Pretty Good Privacy technology, 164
- Prime Performance Modeling, 191–192
- Print journalism, 249
- Privacy: balancing national security and, 232–236; being about striking a balance, 267–272; cultural perceptions of, 137–146; expectations of, 101–102; historical developments affecting, 57–58; how technology affects, 57–69; lack of consensus on meaning of, 3–5; new reality of, 272–276; rattling the cage to ensure, 276–278; technology as eroding, 265–267; tension between national security and, 212–215; three basic meanings for, 4; through control over identity, 122–125. See also Privacy protections
- Privacy & American Business, 115
- Privacy Act (1974), 109–110, 113
- Privacy Act Amendments (1988, 1990), 114
- Privacy Bill of Rights (proposed), 245, 247
- Privacy commandments: don't humiliate me with my private information, 37; don't judge me by your data, 23; don't spy on me just because you can, 9; as foundation of ethical approach to privacy, 37–39; I am who I say I am, 34; keep my information to myself, 17; protect my data as if it were thine own, 28; thou shall erase my data, 14
- Privacy invasion, 3–4
- Privacy law. See Federal legislation
- Privacy loss: balancing transparency against, 47–48; how it harms society, 48–53; impact of computer technology on, 45–47; impact on society, 42–45; usage of data resulting in, 272–273. See also Privacy sins
- Privacy loss harms: conformity, 50–53; economic issues of, 128–129, 131–133, 164, 194–196, 269–272; labeling, 49–50, 83–87, 194–196, 240; to reputations, 75–76, 79–83, 122, 130–133, 140. See also Profiling
- Privacy mores: cultural impact on, 137–146; online community, 137–138, 140; urban versus rural, 139–140
- Privacy protection attitudes: by the avoiders, 255–256; by the curmudgeons, 258–260; by the deceivers, 256–258; by the ignorers, 254–255; by the vigilantes, 260–262
- Privacy protections: deception strategies used as, 256–258; developing ethical approach to, 37–39; executive branch failures in, 245–247; failure of legislative, 241–245; importance of, 41–42; inadequacy of legal, 94; institutional stake in, 240–241; judiciary, 247–248;

- media role in, 248–250; by private-sector commerce, 251–253; rattling the cage to ensure, 276–278; web site privacy policies and contractual, 115–119. See also Federal legislation; Individual rights; Privacy
- Privacy rights: balancing national security against, 232–236, 268–269; economic damage of eroded, 269–272; other rights protected by, 53–54. See also Individual rights
- Privacy sins: deception, 14–17; ethical approach to preventing, 37–39; identity theft, 23–28; intrusion as classic, 5–9; latency, 9–14; lost dignity, 34–37; outing, 28–34; profiling, 17–23. See also Privacy loss
- Private facts tort, 104–106
- Private-sector: data surveillance by, 111–115; privacy policies by, 13–17; security policies of, 251–253; stake in private preventions by, 240–241; third-party data sales by, 10–11, 13–14, 15–17, 18–19, 116–118. See also Consumer data
- Procter & Gamble, 116, 193
- Prodigy, 64
- Profiling: behavioral-targeted advertising using, 202–205; customer segmentation result of, 18, 194–196; dangers of psychological, 234–235; described, 17–18; discrimination as result of, 83–87; examples of, 18–22; labeling harm from, 49–50; public exposure of rules governing, 273–274; smart-search programs used in, 67–69; terrorism prevention measures using, 21–22, 195; transparency threatened by, 22–23. See also Consumer segmentation; Labeling; Privacy loss harms
- Project Entropria, 72–73
- Prosser, D. W., 96
- Pseudonymity: authentication issue and, 127–129; as cyberspace necessity, 129–130; identity theft due to loss of, 133–136; outing and, 28–34; reputation ties to, 130–133. See also Anonymity
- Psychographic categorization, 189
- Public records/information, 104–105, 266–267
- Puppetry, 75–76
- PVR (TiVo Personal Video Recorder) system, 197–198
- Q
- Al-Qaeda, 231, 243
- R
- Rand, A., 265
- Raza, G., 83
- Reactrix Systems, 203
- Reality television, 66–67
- Reilly, T., 116
- Reporters Committee for Freedom of the Press, 162
- Republican Party, 213
- Reputations: disinformation to ruin, 79–83; as Internet currency, 122, 130; pseudonymity ties to, 130–133; puppetry used to ruin, 75–76; rural privacy as valuing, 140. See also Trust
- Return Exchange, 44–45
- RFID (Radio Frequency Identification Device): origins and development of, 6, 7–9, 36, 38; real/virtual universes merged through, 267; tagging application of, 175–180, 182–183
- Rice, C., 79
- “The Right to Privacy” (Warren and Brandeis), 95
- Roberson v. Rochester Folding Box Co.*, 96–97
- Robertson, J., 231
- Roe v. Wade*, 108
- Rogers, R., 15
- Roosevelt, F. D., 89
- Root-kit software, 206–207
- Rove, K., 89
- Rural privacy, 139–140
- S
- Scanners (telephone), 160–161
- Schaefer, R., 110
- Schneier, B., 254
- Scofield, S., 242
- Scripps-Howard Broadcasting Co., Zacchini v.*, 98–99
- Search engines: consumer and personal data collected by, 12–13, 60; personal information available through, 60, 62, 136; rankings of, 83. See also Google
- SEC (Securities and Exchange Commission), 135, 251
- Second Amendment, 53–54
- Security: airport, 21–22, 45, 219–222, 243, 244; contrived computer technology, 65–66; private-sector policies on, 251–253; too much privacy as threat to, 268–269. See also National security
- Segmentation. See Customer segmentation
- Segretti, D., 88
- Seigenthaler, J., 82

- Seisint, 113
 Self-respect, 34
 Sender-identification requirements, 7
 Seniors, 143–144
 September 11th. See 9/11
 Sex tapes, 80
 Sexual abuse: of children by Internet predators, 31–33, 260; Golem porn, 76–79; “voodoo-doll” command for virtual, 76
 Shamir, A., 178
 Shulman, R., 101
Shulman v. Group W. Publications, 101
 Siegel, M., 201
 The Sims Online, 73
 Simulated pornography, 76–79
 Sipple, O., 104
Sky Captain and the World of Tomorrow (film), 78
 Skype, 164
 Smart cards, 8–9
 Smart dust, 153–154
 Smart-search programs, 67–69
 SmartDM, 191
 Smelling-device surveillance, 165–167
Smith v. Daily Mail Publishing Co., 105
 SMTP (Simple Mail Transfer Protocol), 171
 Smurfing, 261
 Snooping software, 6
Snowcrash (Stephenson), 73
 Society: developing ethical approach to privacy by, 37–39; entertainment linked to morality of, 66–67; how loss of privacy affects, 42–45; how privacy loss harms, 48–53; transparency as part of free, 22–23; the “Transparent,” 239
 Socrates, 217
 Software: “dictionary attack” using automated, 133; encryption, 164; geofencing, 181–182; “packet sniffer,” 27, 163, 164–165; Photoshop, 78–79, 157, 159; privacy laws applied to digital modification, 78–79; privacy loss through business use of, 45–47; profiling systems, 83–87, 273–274; root-kit, 206–207; smart-search, 67–69; snooping, 6; spyware, 206–207, 259. See also Computer technology
 Sony-BMG, 206–207, 261
 Spamming, 25, 201–202, 261
 Spreading disinformation, 79–83
 Sprint, 182
 “Spy dust” powder, 153–154
 Spyware, 206–207, 259
 SSNs (Social Security numbers): deceptive use of consumer data and, 14, 15; hacking information on, 118; identity theft and, 23–28, 135–136; notification of compromised, 119; protecting your, 258, 259; sale of consumers’, 10; tracking welfare recipients through, 36. See also Personal information
 State legislation: Fourteenth Amendment protection of, 214; Kentucky Treatise (Jefferson) on function of, 2134; on wiretapping, 162–163. See also Federal legislation
 Steganography, 165
 Steiner, P., 121
 Stephenson, N., 73
 Stewart, J., 120
 Stewart, P., 77
 Stollenwerk, M., 255
 Student blogs, 31–32
 Sun Tzu, 212
 Super Bowl (Tampa, 2001), 6
 Surveillance: Church Committee investigation of domestic, 214–215, 243; conformity harm through constant, 50–53; development of optical, 155–159; domestic, 231–232; eavesdropping form of, 159–165; future technological developments for, 167–168; information gathering through, 150–154; labeled as voyeurism, 240; organic sensing technology used for, 165–167; private-sector data, 111–115; “spy dust” powder/smart dust used for, 153–154; video, 6, 155–159; wiretapping, 159–160, 161, 162–163, 231. See also Domestic surveillance; Voyeurism technology
 “Swift boat” campaign, 81
 SWIFT (Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunications), 164
 Symantec, 207
- T
- Tax return information, 15
 TCP/IP protocol, 163, 259
 Technology: advertising, 200–206; as double-edged sword, 69; facial recognition, 6; generational differences in comfort with, 140–146; GPS (Geographic Positioning System), 6–7, 8, 180–183, 203; historic development of surveillance, 150–154; how it affects privacy, 57–69; identity theft using,

- 25, 27; new crimes development due to, 71–90; Pretty Good Privacy encryption, 164; privacy as being eroded by, 265–267; RFID (Radio Frequency Identification Device), 6, 7–9, 36, 38, 175–180, 182–183, 267; voyeurism, 6, 35–36, 150–168, 231. See also Computer technology
- Telemarketing “Don’t Call” registry, 111, 253
- Telephone Consumer Protection Act (1991), 253
- Telephone privacy: national security balanced against, 235; telemarketing violations of, 111, 253, 257–258; violations of cell phone, 160–163; wire-tapping violation of, 159–160, 161, 162–163, 231
- Television: PVR system used with, 197–198; society reflected by entertainment on, 66–67; “sound byte” importance to, 248–249
- Temple, Davis v.*, 100
- Terrorism prevention: balancing individual rights and, 232–236, 268; British methods employed against IRA, 158; Patriot Act passage to facilitate, 49, 109, 160, 163, 165, 222–231, 240, 243, 245; profiling used as part of, 21–22, 195; smart-search programs used in, 67–69; TIA (Terrorist Information Awareness) program for, 21. See also Domestic surveillance; National security measures
- Theresa, Mother, 89
- Third-party data sales: of aggregated consumer information, 18–19; company policies regarding, 13–14, 15–17; increasing practice of, 10–11; lawsuits over, 116–118
- TIA (Terrorist Information Awareness) program, 21
- Time, Barber v.*, 106
- Time Inc., Dietemann v.*, 102
- Time Warner, 15
- TiVo Personal Video Recorder (PVR) system, 197–198
- Tootsie* (film), 98
- Torch Concepts, 116, 117
- Torts. See Civil law
- Toysmart.com, FTC v.*, 116
- Transparency: balancing privacy loss against, 47–48; of profiling rules, 273–274; profiling as threat to, 22–23
- Transparent Society, 239
- Transportation Security Administration’s no-fly list, 22, 219–222, 243, 244
- TransUnion, 19, 191, 198
- Triangle Publications, Inc., Garner v.*, 105–106
- Trojan spyware, 206, 207
- Trust: eBay and role of, 131–132; phishing impacting level of, 25, 134–135. See also Reputations

U

- Ultima (PC game), 73
- Unabomber, 233
- The Unforgiving Eye: CCTV Surveillance in Public Spaces* (Norris and Armstrong), 158
- “Upskirting” practice, 156
- Urban privacy, 139–140
- Urine testing, 36
- U.S. Bancorp, 16
- U.S. Bank, 16
- U.S. Constitution: Fifth Amendment, 109; First Amendment, 78, 99–100, 102, 105, 108; Fourteenth Amendment, 105, 108–109, 214; Fourth Amendment, 54, 108, 109, 159–160; Ninth Amendment, 108; privacy protections of the, 108–111; as statement of principles, 246
- U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS): financial transactions tracked by, 128; origins and organization of, 217–219; privacy challenge facing, 68–69; probability standard used by, 217; profiling used by, 21–22; RFID technology used by, 7; “virtual” border project of, 114. See also Domestic surveillance; National security measures
- U.S. Food and Drug Administration, 8
- U.S. government: baby boomers’ mistrust of, 144; Church Committee investigation of surveillance by, 214–215, 243; domestic surveillance by, 231–232; executive branch failure to protect privacy, 245–247; Google sued by, 13; judiciary branch privacy protections, 247–248; outsourcing to private-sector data collection, 111–115; profiling used by, 21–22; stake in privacy protections by, 240–241; video-surveillance capabilities of, 157–158. See also Domestic surveillance; Federal legislation
- U.S. military, 32, 74
- U.S. Navy’s Homosexual Conduct Policy, 32

- U.S. Postal Service, 7
 U.S. Public Interest Research Group, 20
 U.S. Supreme Court, 247–248. See also Lawsuits
   USA Today, 79, 160
   Usenet, 131
   Usenet spamming, 201
- V
- Vehicle black boxes, 8
 Verichip, 8
 Video surveillance, 6, 155–159
 The vigilantes, 260–262
 Violence Against Women and Justice
   Department Reauthorization Act, 31
 Virtual identity: anonymity versus authentication, 127–129; avatar abuse of, 72–75; hijacking of, 132; lawsuit over protecting blogger, 250; outing of, 28–34; personality changes of, 123;
   privacy through control of, 122–125;
   pseudonymity role in, 129–136; puppetry of, 75–76; virtual privacy requirement of, 125–127. See also Identity; Internet
 VOIP (Voice Over Internet Protocol),
   162, 164
 “Voodoo-doll” command, 76
Vopper, Bartnicki v., 99–100
 Voyeurism label, 240
 Voyeurism technology: cameras, 6, 155–
   159; historic development of, 150–168; poor tracked through, 35–36; telephone scanners, 160–161; wiretapping, 159–160, 161, 162–163, 231. See also
   Domestic surveillance; Surveillance
 VPAA (Video Privacy Protection Act)
   [1988], 241
- W
- W3C (World Wide Web Consortium), 171
 WABC-TV (NYC television station), 181
 Wachovia, 118
Wade, Roe v., 108
 Wal-Mart, 103–104, 176–177
Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., Lake v., 103–104
 Walgreen, 195
 Warhol, A., 97, 98, 131
 “Warhols,” 131
 Warren, E., 71
 Warren, S., 95, 97
 Watergate scandal (1970s), 87–88, 144,
   214
 Web 2. 0, 80, 180
 Web sites: contractual protections/privacy policies of, 115–119; cookies (data files) picked up from, 206; Facebook, 31, 121; MySpace, 31, 65, 94, 121;
   news reporting, 249–250; Observing Surveillance Project, 256; personal information posted on, 256–257; Perverted Justice, 33, 260; simulated pornography, 76–79; slanderous, 100;
   on state wiretapping laws, 162–163;
   USA Today, 79. See also Internet
 Wells Fargo, 15
 White, V., 98
 Wi-Fi chips, 173, 182
 Wikipedia, 80, 81, 82
 Wilson, J., 88
Wilson v. Layne, 102
 Wiretapping, 159–160, 161, 162–163, 231
 Wonkette, 250
 World Wide Web Consortium (W3C), 171
 Worlds Chat, 73
Wyman v. James, 35
- X
- Xora, 181
- Y
- Yahoo!, 202, 205, 212
 Youens, L., 103
- Z
- Zacchini, H., 98–99
*Zacchini v. Scripps-Howard Broadcasting
 Co.*, 98–99
 Zimmerman, P., 164