

Index

A

- Additional consultant work: Learning Journal on partnerships and, 298–299*e*; setting expectations regarding, 296; your role in case of, 296–298
- Additional consultant work lessons: National Specialty Retailer, 295; Organization Development Consultant, 298
- Administrative support staff, helping consultants connect with, 123
- Adult learning theory, 18
- Advisory board, 121
- Anderson, M., 8, 235
- Assessment of need. See Needs assessment
- ASTD: 2005 State of the Industry Report, 3; annual outsourcing conference, 307; competency model, 27–28*fig*; described, 49
- Auditioning trainers/speakers, 86

B

- Bell, C., 16
- Bill Payment Tracking worksheet, 171*e*
- Blame avoidance, 270
- Block, P., 17, 128
- Bottom-Line Organization Development: Implementing & Evaluating Strategic Change for Lasting Value* (Anderson), 235
- Budgets. See Project budgets

C

- Capability expansion: project wrap-up reflections on, 252–253, 256*e*–257*e*; strategies for, 18–19
- Celebrating the Partnership worksheet, 255*e*
- Celebration: following program implementation, 229; function of positive feedback and, 174; during project wrap-up, 253–254, 255*e*

- Checking references: process for, 90–91; worksheets for, 92*e*, 289*e*
- Collaboration expectations, 288. See also Multiple consultants
- Communication: conflict management and nonverbal, 271; conflict regarding, 265–266; of Needs Assessment Findings, 186*e*; partnership update, 148–156, 175; planning project, 147; project management of, 172–175; transforming partnerships and role of, 17
- Communication management: celebration or positive feedback, 174, 229; dealing with conflict, 173–174; during design and development phase, 199–200; progress checks as part of, 172–173. See also Partnership updates
- Confidentiality: kick-off meeting and issue of, 130; RFP statement of, 62
- Conflict: addressing, 269–272; causes of, 263–267; competition between multiple consultants, 292; as opportunity to learn, 270; seeking mutually beneficial solutions to, 271–272; value of, 262–263; ways to minimize partnership, 267–269; when to dissolve partnership due to, 272–273
- Conflict causes: conflict regarding communications, 265–266; conflict regarding how to work together, 264–265; conflict regarding roles/responsibilities, 263–264; conflict when friendship is at stake, 266–267
- Conflict management: communication role in, 173–174; strategies for, 269–272; ways to minimize conflict, 267–269
- Conflict management lessons: Change Management Expert, 265–266; Fortune 100 Company, 261–262; Independent Consultant, 263, 264–265; Process Improvement Expert, 268
- Consultant Evaluation worksheet, 76, 77*e*–78*e*
- Consultant identification: establishing partnerships before needed, 48–49; where to look for potential consultants, 49–52
- Consultant selection: auditioning trainers or speakers, 86–90; avoiding pitfalls of, 96–97; checking references, 90–91, 92*e*; Consultant Evaluation worksheet used for, 76, 77*e*–78*e*; establishing selection criteria, 75–82; final selection process, 91, 93–95*e*; meeting with potential consultants, 83–86; rehiring consultants, 82–83; Trainer Audition Evaluation worksheet for, 88*e*; when there are multiple consultants, 287–288; worksheet facilitating final decision, 94*e*–95*e*
- Consultant selection lessons: International Telecommunications Company, 90; Large Energy Corporation, 83; Manufacturing Company, 86; North American Transportation Company, 73–74
- Consultants: additional work for, 295–300; definition of, 11; identifying potential, 47–52; inheriting, 275–284; involving in project design/development, 196–198; lack of chemistry with, 282–283; left out of needs assessment, 185; personal friendship with, 266–267; positioning in your organization, 113–126; selecting, 73–98, 287–288; for technology-based projects, 51; working with multiple, 285–293. See also Partnerships
- Consulting firms, 11
- Content: design/development of, 203; RFP (request for proposal), 60; worksheet for setting, 139*e*–140*e*
- Context Setting worksheet, 139*e*–140*e*
- Contracts: advantages of securing, 100–102; importance of, 100; Learning Journal on, 107, 108*e*; letters of agreement instead of, 106–107; provisions of, 102–106
- Contracts lessons: Independent Consultant, 106; International Consumer Products Firm, 99–100; Manufacturing Company, 101–102
- Costs issues: needs assessment, 180; project budgets, 169–172, 171*e*
- Covey, S., 184
- Craft knowledge, 18–19
- Cultural issues, 202
- ## D
- Dance Lessons: Six Steps to Great Partnerships in Business & Life* (Bell and Shea), 16
- Davis, B. L., 307
- Davis, P., 27
- Design/development. See Project design/development
- Development plan. See Outsourcing development plan
- DeViney, N., 11
- Dissolving partnerships, 272–273
- Dolezalek, H., 4
- ## E
- Eichinger, R., 307
- Employees: establishing IT expertise of, 141; explaining consultant project to, 118–119, 120*e*; how to introduce consultants to, 119, 121. See also Organizations

End-of-Course Evaluation worksheet, 234e

Evaluating Existing Programs and Consultants worksheet, 278e

Evaluation. See Project evaluation

Expertise: establishing employee IT, 141; needs assessment, 179; as outsourcing driver, 6

F

Feedback: celebration or positive, 174, 229, 253–254, 255e; given to inherited consultant, 279–282; program review, 204–208; solicited on the consultant, 123–124; 360-degree, 138, 235

Flawless Consulting (Block), 17, 128

For Your Improvement (Lombardo and Eichinger), 307

Fort Hill Company, 235

Fort Hill's Friday5's program, 235

G

Galford, R. M., 308

Gebelein, S. H., 307

Green, C. H., 308

H

Hall, B., 7

Harris, P., 4

Hellervik, L. W., 307

How to Measure Training Results (Phillips and Stone), 233

Hughes, J., 262

I

Identifying and Selecting Outsourcing Partners How Can You Improve Your Outsourcing Capabilities?, 108e

Implementation. See Project implementation

Inheriting consultants: evaluating existing projects, 276–278e; getting to know the consultant, 279; providing feedback to consultant, 279–282; when there is no chemistry with consultant, 282–283

Inheriting consultants lessons: Banking Institution, 280–281; Telecommunications Company, 275–276

Insourcing, 12

Interviewing multiple consultants worksheet, 289e

IT (Information Technology): establishing employee expertise with, 141; kick-off meeting role of, 134; positioning consultant role of, 116

J

Jennifer's story: background information on, 31–32; competency project, 39*t*; knockout factor assessment used in, 37–38; presentation skills program, 41*t*; strategic impact assessment used in, 36; tradeoff assessment used in, 39–40

K

Kick-off meeting: conducting the, 134–150; confidentiality issues of, 130; Consumer Electronics Company case study on, 131; described, 128; inviting the appropriate people to attend, 133–134; logistical arrangements for, 132–133; planning the agenda, 132; planning the, 128–129e; selecting location of, 130–131. See also Project launching lessons

Kick-off meeting (conducting): clarifying the objectives, 136–137; context setting, 138–142; on evaluation plan, 137–138; getting started with, 135–136; outlining project plan, 143–144; on partnership update, 148–156; on plans for communications, 147; on project sponsorship, 142–143; on roles and responsibilities, 145–147; setting expectations regarding collaboration, 288; Technology Company case study on, 137; on timing considerations, 144–145

Kick-Off Meeting Plan worksheet, 129e

Kirkpatrick, D., 232

Kirkpatrick evaluation model: behavior level of, 233, 235; four levels of, 232–233, 235; learning level of, 233; reaction level of, 233; results level of, 235

Knockout factor assessment, 36–38

L

Learning Journals: addressing challenges of partnerships, 298–299e; on contracts, 107, 108e; development planning and review of your, 304, 305e; Identifying and Selecting Outsourcing Partners How Can You Improve Your Outsourcing Capabilities?, 108e; Lessons From a Current Project, 21, 22e–23e; Lessons From Past Outsourcing Experiences, 20e–21e; Navigating Projects While Strengthening Partnerships How Can You Improve Your Outsourcing Capabilities?,

Learning Journals: addressing challenges of partnerships (continued)
 256e–257e; project wrap-up reflections in, 254, 256e–257e; Sourcing Decisions What Are Your Current Outsourcing Capabilities?, 42e; on strategic sourcing, 41–42e; What Are Your Current Outsourcing Capabilities?, 21, 24e–26e.
See also Worksheets

Lee, D. G., 307

Lessons From a Current Project, 21, 22e–23e

Lessons From Past Outsourcing Experiences, 20e–21e

Letters of agreement, 106–107

LMSs (learning management systems), 5, 51

Lombardo, M., 307

M

Maister, D. H., 308

Management. See Project management

Managers. See Project managers; Training managers

Meetings: to introduce consultants, 121; kick-off, 128–157, 288; to plan implementation with consultants, 219–221, 220e; with potential consultants, 83–86; project wrap-up/partnership update, 248–252; Team Members in a Final Partnership Update, 243. See also Partnership updates

Methodology (needs assessment), 184–185

Monitoring project budgets, 170–172

Multiple consultants: interviewing and checking references of, 289e; managing projects with, 290–292; partnership updates with, 292–293; reasons for hiring, 286–287; selection considerations in case of, 287–288; setting expectations regarding collaboration by, 288

Multiple consultants lessons: competition between, 292; Hospital, 285; Insurance Industry, 290, 291–292

N

Naughton, J., 27

Navigating Projects While Strengthening Partnerships
 How Can You Improve Your Outsourcing Capabilities?, 256e–257e

Needs assessment: accomplished without consultant, 185; deciding to outsource, 179–182; issues of, 182–185; partnership update on, 185, 187–188e; questions to ask as part of, 178

Needs Assessment Findings worksheet, 186e

Needs assessment issues: access, 183; buy-in, 183–184; methodology, 184–185

Needs assessment lessons: Aerospace Industry, 177; Banking and Finance Institution, 182

Nelson-Neuhaus, K. J., 307

Networking groups, 50

Nonverbal communication, 271

O

Organization Development Network, 49

Organizations: consulting firms, 11; knowing your, 19; positioning consultants in your, 113–126; senior leaders of, 122–123, 133–134, 183–184.
See also Employees; Project managers; Training managers

Out-tasking, 11

Outsourcing: benefits as outweighing the risks, 7–8; definition of, 11; development plan for, 303–308; expanding capability for, 18–19, 252–253, 256e–257e; growth of, 3–4; identifying potential consultants for, 47–52; needs assessment, 179–182; reasons behind increase of, 4–7; terminology related to, 11–12

Outsourcing development plan: some final words on your, 307–308; step 1: review your Learning Journal, 304, 305e; step 2: identifying strengths and areas for improvement, 304; step 3: identifying ways to leverage strengths, 304, 306; step 4: identifying ways to improve performance, 306–307

Outsourcing drivers: advances in technology, 5; cost savings, 6–7; increased demand due to organizational change, 5; listed, 4–5; need for expertise, 6; need for external perspective, 6

Outsourcing guiding principles: expanding capability, 18–19; strategic sourcing, 14–15; transforming partnerships, 15–18; your Learning Journal, 19–26e

P

Partnership Scorecard, 151e–153e

Partnership Update: Implementation worksheet, 228e

Partnership Update Assessment of Need worksheet, 188e

Partnership Update Design and Development worksheet, 213e

Partnership Update Evaluation worksheet, 241e

Partnership updates: during design and development phase, 212–214, 213e; during evaluation,

- 240–241*e*; informal approach to, 154–156; with multiple consultants, 292–293; on needs assessment, 185, 187–188*e*; overview of, 148; as part of communication management, 175; during project wrap-up phase, 243, 245, 246*e*–247*e*, 248–252; scorecard format for formal, 150, 151*e*–154; Team Members in a Final Partnership Update Meeting, 243; worksheet on, 149*e*. See also Communication management; Meetings
- Partnerships: celebration as part of successful, 174; conflict when friendship is part of, 266–267; definition of, 16; demonstrating that you value, 84–85; established prior to needing them, 48–49; established in the RFP (request for proposal) process, 68–71; expanding capability of, 18–19; Learning Journals addressing challenges of, 298–299*e*; maintaining during project design/development, 199–211; maintaining throughout the program, 224–225; as preparation for implementation, 218; transforming, 15–18; ways to minimize conflict, 267–269; when to dissolve, 272–273. See also Consultants
- Phillips, J., 233, 235
- Pilot Plan worksheet, 210*e*
- Pilot program, 209, 211
- Pitfalls: avoiding consultant selection, 96–97; avoiding design and development, 211; avoiding project design/development, 211–214
- Plan for Training Evaluation worksheet, 237*e*
- Planning. See Project plans/planning
- Positioning consultants: explaining project to employees, 118–119, 120*e*; helping consultants connect with administrative support staff, 123; helping consultants connect with senior leaders, 122–123; how to introduce consultants, 119–121; positioning yourself as part of, 124–126; soliciting feedback on consultants, 123–124; when consultants are seen as threats, 114–115; Who Needs to Be Involved to Ensure Project Success? worksheet, 117*e*; who to involve in, 115–117*e*
- Positioning consultants lessons: Corporate University, Paper Products Company, 122; Energy Corporation, 113; Pharmaceutical Company, 118
- Positioning program, 223–224
- Positioning the Project and the Consultant worksheet, 120*e*
- Positioning yourself, 124–125
- Post-implementation activities, 226–229, 228*e*
- Potential consultant identification, 47–52
- Professional development, 19
- Professional organizations, 49–50
- Program Design worksheet, 195*e*
- Program Review worksheet, 207*e*
- Project budgets: Bill Payment Tracking worksheet, 171*e*; building, 169–170; monitoring, 170–172
- Project design/development: benefits of outsourcing, 192; ensuring cultural fit during, 202; involving consultants in, 196–198; maintaining partnerships with consultants during, 199–211; managing scope creep, 208; outputs of, 193–196; partnership updates during, 212–214, 213*e*; piloting the program, 209–211, 210*e*; pitfalls during, 211–214; pitfalls of, 211; review schedule during, 204–208
- Project design/development lessons: Financial Services, 200; Health Care Agency, 208; Independent Consultant, 201; Insurance Company, 191–192
- Project design/development outputs: design phase outputs, 193–194; development phase outputs, 194, 196; Program Design template worksheet for, 195*e*
- Project evaluation: End-of-Course Evaluation worksheet, 234*e*; of existing projects and consultants, 276–278*e*; importance of, 232; kick-off meeting planning on, 137–138; Kirkpatrick evaluation model for, 232–235; partnership update during, 240–241*e*; planning, 137–138, 235–237*e*; roles and responsibilities in, 238–240. See also Project review
- Project evaluation lessons: Fortune 100 Company, 239–240; Large Paper Manufacturing Company, 231–232
- Project implementation: celebration following, 229; post-implementation activities, 226–229; preparation for, 218–221; process of, 221–226; Walk-Through Agenda worksheet for, 220*e*
- Project implementation lessons: Financial Services, 226; Independent Training Consultant, 219; International Consumer Products Firm, 217–218
- Project implementation process: establishing realistic expectations, 222–223; issues to consider during, 221–222; maintaining partnership throughout the program, 224–225; positioning the program effectively, 223–224
- Project launching lessons: Consumer Electronics Company, 131; Financial Services Firm, 156; Organization Development Consultant, 138; Pharmaceutical Firm, 142; Specialty Store Retailer, 127–128; Technology Company, 137. See also Kick-off meeting

Project management: of communications, 172–175; of conflict, 173–174, 261–274; importance of, 160; with multiple consultants, 290–292; of partnership throughout the program, 224–225; of resources, 164–172; of risk, 163–164, 165*e*; role of project manager in, 161–163; of scope creep, 208–209; on small projects, 175

Project management lessons: Evaluation Expert, 162–163; Government Agency, 174; Home Products Retailer, 159; Hospitality Industry, 161–162; Technology Company, 173–174

Project managers: communication management by, 172–175; management role of, 161–163; resource management by, 164–172; risk management by, 163–164; small project management by, 175. See also Organizations; Senior leaders; Training managers

Project plans/planning: building, 164, 168; evaluation, 137–138, 235–237*e*; implementation with consultants, 219–221, 220*e*; kick-off meeting agenda, 132; Kick-Off Meeting Plan worksheet, 129*e*; outlining project, 143–144; Pilot Plan worksheet, 210*e*; project communication, 147; sample, 166*e*–167*e*; technology-based, 168–169

Project review: criteria used for, 206; maintaining regular, 204–205; Program Review worksheet for, 207*e*; structure of process, 205–206; timing for feedback and, 206; version control during, 206, 208. See also Project evaluation

Project wrap-up: benefits of taking the time for, 244; celebration as part of, 253–254, 255*e*; examining your expanded personal capability during, 252–253; learning as goal of, 244–245; Learning Journal reflections during, 254, 256*e*–257*e*; partnership update during, 243, 245–252

Project wrap-up lessons: Energy Firm, 153; Team Members in a Final Partnership Update Meeting, 243

Projects: building plan for, 164, 166*e*–168; evaluating existing consultants and, 276–278*e*; explained to employees, 118–119, 120*e*; launching the, 127–157; sponsorship of, 142–143; technology-based, 168–169, 196–197

R

Reference checking, 90–91, 92*e*

Rehiring consultants, 82–83

Resource management, building the project plan, 164, 166*e*–168

Respect, 17–18

Reversing auctioning, 68

RFP (request for proposal): additional legal guidelines included in, 64; Boutique Consulting Firm's, 52–53; consultant selection following, 75; description on how to make inquiries regarding, 64; description of your organization in, 62; drafting the, 65*e*–67*e*; establishing partnership in process of, 68–71; expectations for, 63; project overview included in, 62–63; purpose of, 54–55; reverse auctioning trend for, 68; sample and elements of, 56–64; statement of confidentiality included in, 62; timetable and submission requirements for, 64; word of caution about, 55

RFP (request for proposal) components: 1: introduction, 57; 2: company overview, 57–58; 3: project overview, 58–59; 4: target audience, 60; 5: project timeline, 60; 6: proposal contents, 60; 7: proposal format, 61; 8: RFP timetable and submission requirements, 61

Risk: benefits of outsourcing as outweighing the, 7–8; design/development phase and calculated, 200–202; management of, 163–164; worksheet for assessing, 165*e*

Risk Assessment worksheet, 165*e*

Rivera, R., 3

Roles/responsibilities: conflict regarding, 263–264; early clarification of, 267–268; establishing stakeholder, 145–147; kick-off meeting on, 145–147; during project evaluation, 238–240

Rothwell, W., 27

S

Scope creep management, 208–209

Senior leaders: buy-in by, 183–184; helping consultants connect with, 122–123; invited to kick-off meeting, 133–134. See also Project managers; Training managers

Service Partnership Scorecard, 151*e*–153*e*

The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People (Covey), 184

Shea, C., 16

Skube, C. J., 307

Small project management, 175

Sourcing Decisions What Are Your Current Outsourcing Capabilities?, 42*e*

Speakers, auditioning, 86

Stakeholders: helping consultants connect with, 122–123; invited to kick-off meeting, 133–134; project roles and responsibilities of, 145–147

Statement of confidentiality (RFP), 62

Stevens, L. A., 307

Stone, R., 233, 235

Strategic impact assessment, 36

Strategic sourcing: decision model for, 33*fig*–41; described, 14; Learning Journal on, 41–42*e*; planning and aligning, 15; tactical and, 14–15, 32–33

Strategic Sourcing Decision Model: as evaluation aid, 238; illustrated diagram of, 33*fig*; Jennifer's story using, 31–32, 36, 37–38, 39*t*, 41*t*; knockout factor assessment using, 36–38; strategic impact assessment using, 36; tradeoff assessment using, 38–41*t*; worksheet on, 34*e*–35*e*

The Successful Manager's Handbook (Gebelein, Nelson-Neuhaus, Skube, Lee, Stevens, Hellervik, and Davis), 307

Sugrue, B., 3, 11

Sullivan, R., 99

T

Tactical outsourcing: balancing strategic and, 14–15; comparing strategic and, 32–33

Technology-based projects: plans for, 168–169; technological information required for, 196–197

360-degree feedback, 138, 235

Timing issues: of conflict management, 270; kick-off meeting on, 144–145; needs assessment, 179–180; project review, 206; RFP (request for proposal) timetable, 64

Tradeoff assessment, 38–41*t*

Trainer auditions, 86

Training magazine, 4

Training magazine's 2005 Industry Report, 4

Training managers: conflict regarding communications by, 265–266; definition of, 11; identifying potential consultants, 47–52; strategic sourcing by, 14–15; transforming partnerships, 15–18. See also Organizations; Project managers; Senior leaders

TrainingOutsourcing.com, 75

Transforming partnerships: benefits and process of, 15–16; knowing your partner required for,

16–17; maintaining communications for, 17; respect, trust, and be generous for, 17–18

The Trusted Advisor (Maister, Green, and Galford), 308

U

University outsourcing partnerships, 50

W

Walk-Through Agenda worksheet, 220*e*

Websites: ASTD annual outsourcing conference, 307; ASTD (formerly American Society for Training and Development), 49; Fort Hill Company, 235; Organization Development Network, 49

Weiss, J., 262

What Are Your Current Outsourcing Capabilities?, 21, 24*e*–26*e*

Who Needs to Be Involved to Ensure Project Success? worksheet, 117*e*

WIC (Williams International Company): description of, 57; sample RFP (request for proposal) issued by, 57–61

Worksheets: Bill Payment Tracking, 171*e*; Celebrating the Partnership, 255*e*; Checking References, 92*e*, 289*e*; Consultant Evaluation, 76, 77*e*–78*e*; Consultant Selection, 94*e*–95*e*; Context Setting, 139*e*–140*e*; End-of-Course Evaluation, 234*e*; Evaluating Existing Programs and Consultants, 278*e*; Interviewing and Checking References When Multiple Consultants, 289*e*; Kick-Off Meeting Plan, 129*e*; Needs Assessment Findings, 186*e*; Partnership Update: Implementation, 228*e*; Partnership Update Assessment of Need, 188*e*; Partnership Update Design and Development, 213*e*; Partnership Update Evaluation, 241*e*; Pilot Plan, 210*e*; Plan for Training Evaluation, 237*e*; Positioning the Project and the Consultant, 120*e*; Program Design, 195*e*; Program Review, 207*e*; Risk Assessment, 165*e*; Sample Service Partnership Scorecard, 151*e*–153*e*; Strategic Sourcing Decision Model, 34*e*–35*e*; Trainer Audit Evaluation, 88*e*; Walk-Through Agenda, 220*e*; Who Needs to Be Involved to Ensure Project Success?, 117*e*. See also Learning Journals

