A New Kind of Christian A Tale of Two Friends on a Spiritual Journey Cloth

ISBN: 978-0-7879-5599-1

Winner of the Christianity Today Award of Merit for Best Christian Living title, 2002

“This is a book that heightens the depths and deepens the peaks. Like all the best things in life, it is not to be entered into lightly, but reverently and in the fear of a God who is waiting for the church to stop asking WWJD, ‘What would Jesus do?’ and start asking WIJD, ‘What is Jesus doing?’”

—Dr. Leonard Sweet, E. Stanley Jones Chair of Evangelism at Drew University, founder and president of SpiritVenture Ministries, and bestselling author

The Story We Find Ourselves In Further Adventures of a New Kind of Christian Cloth

ISBN: 978-0-7879-6387-3

“As with A New Kind of Christian, once I started reading this book I could not possibly put it down. Be prepared once again to go on the adventure of having your heart and mind feeling both comforted and uncomfortable, stimulated and stirred, challenged and changed, agreeing and disagreeing. . .”

—Dan Kimball, author, The Emerging Church: Vintage Christianity for New Generations, and pastor, Graceland/Santa Cruz Bible Church

The Last Word and the Word After That A Tale of Faith, Doubt, and a New Kind of Christianity Cloth

ISBN: 978-0-7879-7592-0

“Brian McLaren has written a remarkable book on hell and the grace of God. And it is one hell of a book! . . . It evidences yet again why McLaren is an emerging voice to be taken seriously concerning new modes of church and new practices of faith.”

—Walter Brueggemann, minister, United Church of Christ; professor, Old Testament, Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, Georgia

So Much More
An Invitation to Christian Spirituality

Debra Rienstra

Hardcover

ISBN: 978-0-7879-6887-8

“So Much More is a radiant manifesto for the fully realized Christian life. Rienstra speaks to the heart without mawkishness, speaks to the mind without logic-chopping, and speaks to the doubtful without patronizing. With good humor, and with erudition worn lightly, Rienstra provides a compelling Christian account of sin and grace, reason and revelation, the longing for God, the mystery of suffering, and the pathways of love and service.”

—Carol Zaleski, professor of religion, Smith College

“So Much More is indeed so much more—more than your typical book on apologetics or theology or spirituality. Debra Rienstra is a gifted writer who imparts much wisdom in all of these areas—and more. This is a fine book for a person who is beginning a Christian pilgrimage. But it also gives much guidance and encouragement to those of us who are well along in the journey.”

—Richard J. Mouw, president and professor of Christian philosophy, Fuller Theological Seminary

What does it truly mean to live as a Christian? This intimate, engaging, and beautifully written book speaks to the heart of Christian faith and experience rather than to any one branch or theological position. Debra Rienstra weaves her own experiences as a Christian into chapters on central topics such as transcendence, prayer, churchgoing, the Bible, sin and salvation, and suffering. This is a book for people who don't have all the answers, those who are still thoughtfully considering the depth and breadth of their faith and would like an evocative and sympathetic companion to accompany them on their journey.

Debra Rienstra is a professor of English at Calvin College and the author of Great with Child: Reflections on Faith, Fullness, and Becoming a Mother. She lives in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Soul Graffiti:
Making a Life in the Way of Jesus

Mark Scandrette

Hardcover

ISBN: 978-0-7879-8437-3

“Soul Graffiti is not so much a book as it is an encounter—a deadly serious encounter—with a Christianity that is urban, American, un-institutionalized, and now. If you truly like your own Christian walk just the way it is, you definitely should not read this book.”

—Phyllis Tickle, religion analyst and compiler, The Divine Hours

“Mark Scandrette guides us in this beautifully written and brilliantly illustrated book along a path towards actualized spirituality in a postmodern world. The book provides new avenues to ancient truths.”

—Tony Campolo, professor of sociology, Eastern University

“Through Mark’s rich insights and reflections, and especially through his stories about Jack, Richard, Gary, Caroline, Emperor Arcadia (you’ll never forget him!), Michelle, Beryl, and many others, you’ll get an honest and inspiring view of what ‘the emergent conversation’ is really about, and what it’s for.”

—Brian McLaren, author/activist (brianmclaren.net)

With a profoundly postmodern sensibility, Soul Graffiti is a heartfelt and personal book that makes a meaningful and practical connection between the message proclaimed by Jesus and the daily life of those who seek to follow his path. Using graffiti as a metaphor for the paradoxical grittiness of modern life and our transcendent yearning to be seen and known, Mark Scandrette—a prominent leader in the emergent church movement—offers readers inspiration, motivation, and direction, along with fresh new resources that help them transcend the messiness of their all-too-human lives and show them how to connect more fully and intimately with Jesus, his life, and his teachings.

Mark Scandrette (San Francisco, CA) is a senior fellow with Emergent and is president and cofounder of the San Francisco-based organization ReIMAGINE! He has an extensive background providing leadership in church and community-based organizations. To learn more about Mark Scandrette, visit www.markscandrette.com or www.soulgraffiti.com.

*What We Were Made For:
Christian Reflections on Love*

Sondra Wheeler

Hardcover

ISBN: 978-0-7879-7738-2

“With unflinching and lucid honesty, this meditation on the nature of varied forms of love wrestles with a central enigma of the Christian faith: how can flawed and sinful humans find the wherewithal to love others as God does? While human love is not sufficient to meet the challenges of human relationships, Wheeler argues that if it is disciplined by Christian practice, informed by God’s grace, and modeled on God’s love revealed in Jesus Christ, it can be a powerful instrument for healing.”

—Publishers Weekly, starred review

“Shelves are full of shallow self-help books that promise to unravel the secrets of love. That’s why we can give thanks to God that Sondra Wheeler has produced this volume that goes deep and true to the divine sources of the love we need in our lives. Her book will inspire each student, parent, child, and spouse who is looking for love in all the right places.”

—Mike McCurry, former White House Press Secretary

Not a devotional or inspirational book, What We Were Made For is a wide-ranging and wise exploration of love in Christian life that will give readers greater depth and understanding of one of Jesus’ most challenging teachings. Sondra Wheeler draws on a wealth of historic and contemporary sources to pose provocative questions, drawing readers into new insights and considerations of what love means as a central part of Christian faith. She addresses the nature of the distortions and corruptions of love, and provides needed resources for living daily life—from romances and marriages to friendships and relationships with coworkers to love as applied to strangers and enemies.

Sondra Wheeler is Martha Ashby Carr Professor of Christian Ethics and teaches bioethics, the history of theological ethics, and the virtue tradition as well as biblical ethics at Wesley Theological Seminary. She is a respected scholar and speaker.
