

Index

A

Accountability: board control and, 43–44; of board Policy Governance decisions, 39–40; Board-Management Delegation policy establishing organizational, 149; of CEOs, 32, 57, 97, 137–138, 143; of CGOs, 33; governing board, 17–18; role played by monitoring in, 180–182

Agendas: making a starter set of, 221; recommendations for board meeting, 51, 52–53

“Approval syndrome,” 37

Articles of Incorporation, 201, 202

Asset protection, 80–81, 92–94

Authority: CEO interpretation, 29, 41; CEO and nature of their, 181; CGOs (chief governance officers), 29, 57, 58, 105–106; Executive committee, 59–60. See also Executive Limitations policies

B

Benefits and compensation policies, 81, 94–96

BMD#1 level: described, 134–136; topics covered by, 141. See also Board-Management Delegation policy

BMD#2 level: a: unity of control, 137, 141–142; b: accountability of the CEO, 137–138, 143; c: delegation to the CEO, 138–139, 144; d: monitoring CEO performance, 139–140, 145–146; topics covered by, 136–137, 141. See also Board-Management Delegation policy

BMD#3 level: a: unity of control, 142; b: accountability of the CEO, 143; c: delegation to the CEO, 144–145; d: monitoring CEO performance, 146–148. See also Board-Management Delegation policy

BMD#4 level: c: delegation to the CEO, 144–145; d: monitoring CEO performance, 146–148. See also Board-Management Delegation policy

Board attendance, 206–207

Board committee principles: GP#2 level on, 112, 125–126; GP#3 level on, 126–128

Board committees: board expectations of, 19–20; bylaws on, 209–210; executive, 59–60; Policy Governance and role of, 60–61; responsibilities of the, 32–33

Board documents: Articles of Incorporation, Letters Patent, 201, 202–203; board’s policies (or Policy Manual), 202, 213–217; bylaws, 201–202, 204–211, 217, 221; hierarchy of, 200–203; integrity of,

- 122; minutes, 202, 211–213, 217; Policy Governance versus traditional, 199–200; using Internet resources for maintenance of, 217
- Board education, 224, 228
- Board meetings: agendas for, 51, 52–53, 221; Policy Governance model on conducting, 50–53
- Board members: bylaws regarding, 206–211; code of conduct for, 111–112, 123–125; discipline of, 57–58; orientation of, 58, 223; recruitment and appointment of, 54–57, 223; role in maintaining new governance system, 223–224
- The Board Member's Playbook* (Carver and Charney), 224
- Board officers: bylaws identification of, 207–208; secretary, 111, 122–123, 208; treasurer, 208. See also CGOs (chief governance officers)
- Board Policy Form (header section), 214, 216
- Board quorum, 207
- Board secretary: bylaws regarding, 208; GP#2 level on role of, 111, 122; GP#3 level on role of, 122–123
- Board size, 206
- Board-Management Delegation policy: completed quadrant of, 148–149; components of accountable organization established by, 149; Policy Manual completed for, 214–215; quadrant of, 133, 134. See also BMD#1 level; BMD#2 level; BMD#3 level; BMD#4 level; Delegation
- Boards of directors: accountability of, 17–18, 43–44; board expectations of all parties by, 17–20; bylaws regarding, 206–211; categories of Policy Governance decisions by, 39–40; CEO communication and support of, 81–82, 96–98; continuing education of, 224, 228; defining expectations of all parties by, 18–20; delegation to CEO from, 22–23, 45–46, 138–139, 144–145; discipline issues of, 57–58; officer positions of, 59–61; policy circle used by, 28; policy to monitoring cycle domain of, 188; receipt of monitoring reports by, 187–189; regarding Executive Limitations and Ends policies, 29–30, 55; responsibilities of the, 32; role in monitoring not fixing CEO, 191–192; securing externally required approval role of, 48–50; self-evaluation by, 223–224; separating nonboard from board responsible issues, 41–42; tailoring of Policy Governance by, 38–39; traditional operations of, 37–38; trust issue and, 44–45
- Boards of directors jobs: governance process quadrant on, 103–104; GP#2 level defining, 109–110, 117; GP#3 level defining, 117–118; GP#4 level defining, 118; GP#5 level defining, 119–120; process of defining, 33–36, 50–51
- Budgeting policies, 76–77, 89–90
- Bylaws: on board attendance, 206–207; on board committees, 209–210; on board officers, 207–208; on board size, 206; changing to accommodate new policies, 221; described, 201–202, 204–205; keeping copies in Policy Manual, 217; on passing vote, 207; on quorum requirements, 207; recommendations for board review of, 210–211

C

- Carver, M., 224
- CEO interpretations: benefits of monitoring of, 181–182; empowered by board to make, 29, 41; included in monitoring report, 193; reasonable, 29, 41, 181–189; sequencing of, 185–186; timing of, 186–187; transforming policies into operations, 182–183; unuseful and useful

- examples of, 183–185. See also Monitoring
- CEOs (chief executive officers):
 accountability of, 32, 57, 97, 137–138, 143; attractiveness of Policy Governance mode to, 5; board delegation to, 22–23, 45–46, 138–139, 144–145; board expectations of, 19; board trust of, 45; board use of the, 45–46; communication to the board by, 81–82, 96–98; emergency succession of, 79–80, 92; Ends policies addressed to, 65–66, 184–185; formal evaluation following monitoring of, 197–198; limiting authority of, 66–68; nature of authority given to, 181; organizations with no, 47; securing externally required approval role of, 49. See also Executive Limitations policies
- CGOs (chief governance officers):
 accountability of, 33; board discipline responsibility of, 57, 58; board meeting agenda prepared by, 51; bylaws identifying role of, 208; delegation to, 26; empowered to interpret board policy, 29, 105–106; GP#2 level on role of, 110–111, 120; GP#3 and GP#4 levels on role of, 120–122; issues properly delegated to, 42. See also Board officers
- Chair: board expectations of, 19; responsibilities of the, 32
- Charney, B., 224
- City Government Ends statement, 16
- Code of conduct (Board): GP#2 level on, 111–112, 123; GP#3 and GP#4 levels on, 123–125
- Committees. See Board committees
- Compensation and benefits policies, 81, 94–96
- Consumer treatment policies, 74–75, 86–87
- Contracting policies, 82–83, 98–100
- Cost of governance: GP#2 level on, 112–113, 128; GP#3 and GP#4 levels on, 128–129
- ## D
- Delegation: to the CEO from board, 22–23, 45–46, 138–139, 144–145; policies regarding, 22–23; Staff Means Quadrant on, 65, 66. See also Board-Management Delegation policy
- Documents. See Board documents
- Don't-do-it list, 22
- ## E
- E#1 level: comparing E#2 level to, 169–173; example of brainstorming issues to include in, 159–166; rational and practical grounding used in, 158–159; statement of fact examples for, 166–169. See also Ends policies
- E#2 level: a: independent living, 171; b: public policy, 171; c: work and family, 171; d: school readiness, 171; E#1 level compared to, 169–173; E#3 level compared to, 174. See also Ends policies
- E#3 level: a: independent living, 173–175; comparing E#2 level and, 174. See also Ends policies
- Education (governance), 224, 228
- EL#1 level: global nature of, 71, 73, 85; organization of topics, 71–72; statement of policy, 68–71. See also Executive Limitations policies
- EL#2 level: a: treatment of consumers, 74–75, 86–87; b: treatment of staff, 75–76, 88–89; c: financial planning and budgeting, 76–77, 89–90; d: financial condition and activities, 77–79, 90–92; e: emergency CEO succession, 79–80, 92; f: asset protection, 80–81, 92–94; g: compensation and benefits, 81, 94–96; h: CEO communication and support to the board, 81–82, 96; i: ends

- focus of grants or contracts, 82–83, 98–100; language narrowed down in, 73, 86; looking at effects of, 83–85; organization of topics, 71, 72–74. See also Executive Limitations policies
- EL#3 level: asset protection details in, 92–94; CEO communication and support to the board, 96–98; compensation and benefits details in, 94–96; described, 85–86; emergency CEO succession details in, 92; ends focus of grants or contracts details in, 98–100; financial condition and activities details in, 90–92; financial planning and budgeting details in, 89–90; treatment of consumers details in, 86–88; treatment of staff details in, 88–89. See also Executive Limitations policies
- Emergency CEO succession, 79–80, 92
- Employees. See Staff
- Ends policies: adopting global or tentative holding policy as part of, 220; board decisions regarding, 29–30, 55; CEOs addressed in, 65–66, 184–185; compared to other types of policies, 153–155; concepts included in, 151–152; described, 20; establishing ambitious but realistic goals for, 48; issues included in quadrant of, 152–153; nature of completed, 174–175; as package of means, 152; perspectives used to approach creation of, 155–158; Policy Governance model framework on, 20–21; Policy Manual completed for, 214–215; statements of value in, 23–25. See also E#1 level; E#2 level; E#3 level
- Ends policy perspectives: 1: don't assume mission statement is Ends policy, 155; 2: expect it to be difficult, 155; 3: be rigorous about Ends attributes, 155–156; 4: never assume strategic plan to be Ends policy, 156; 5: develop Ends policies with long-term perspective, 156; 6: make sure Ends are doable, 156–157; 7: ignore current organizational divisions or departments, 157; 8: never allow problem of measurement in Ends policy decisions, 157; 9: expect to find that needed information is missing, 157–158
- Executive committee authority, 59–60
- Executive Limitations policies: benefits of completed, 100–101; board decisions regarding, 29–30; cautions regarding, 42–43; CEOs addressed in, 65–68, 183; issues to consider in completing, 100–101; Monitoring Policy prior to set, 7–8; recommendations on setting, 6; staff means prescribed through, 41. See also Authority; CEOs (chief executive officers); EL#1 level; EL#2 level; EL#3 level
- Externally required approvals, 48–50
- ## F
- Financial policies: asset protection, 80–81; compensation and benefits, 81; on cost of governance, 112–113, 128–129; on financial condition and activities, 77–79, 90–92; pension plans, 95; on planning and budgeting, 76–77, 89–90
- ## G
- “Governance cops,” 229
- Governance documentation. See Board documents
- Governance education, 224, 228
- Governance Process policy: additional issues of, 130; Policy Manual completed for, 214–215; quadrant of, 103–104; quadrant representing completed, 131, 132. See also GP#1 level; GP#2 level; GP#3 level; PG#4
- Governance structure: designing, 31–33; GP#2 level on costs of,

112–113; Policy Governance tools of the, 33–36; Staff Means Quadrant on issues of, 65–66

Governing style: GP#2 level on, 109, 114–115; GP#3 level on, 115–117

GP#1 level: broad nature of, 113, 114; statement of fact, 105–107. See also Governance Process policy

GP#2 level: a: governing style, 109, 114–115; b: board job description, 109–110; c: CGO (chief governance officer) role, 110–111, 120; d: board secretary's role, 111, 122; e: board member's code of conduct, 111–112, 123; f: board committee principles, 112, 125–126; g: cost of governance, 112–113, 128; h: charge to the Medical Staff, 130–131; narrowing nature of, 113, 114; topic areas of, 107–108. See also Governance Process policy

GP#3 level: a: governing style, 115–117; b: board job description, 117–118; c: CGO (chief governance officer) role, 120–122; d: board secretary's role, 122–123; e: board member's code of conduct, 123–125; f: board committee principles, 126–128; g: cost of governance, 128–129; h: charge to the Medical Staff, 130–131; increasing detail of, 113–114. See also Governance Process policy

GP#4 level: b: board job description, 118; c: CGO (chief governance officer) role, 120–122; e: board member's code of conduct, 123–125; g: cost of governance, 128–129; h: charge to the Medical Staff, 130–131. See also Governance Process policy

GP#5 level, b: board job description, 119–120. See also Governance Process policy

Grant making policies, 82–83, 98–100. See also Governance Process policy

H

Hospital/Health Care System Ends statement, 168

I

Implementation: step 1: adopt global or tentative holding policy on Ends, 220; step 2: assess previous policies and decisions for inclusion, 220; step 3: conduct a legal check, 220–221; step 4: make a starter set of agendas, 221; step 5: prepare your stakeholders, 221; step 6: move in one fell swoop, 221–222; step 7: gain confidence through data, 222

Implementation challenges: example 1: monitoring report shows out-of-compliance financial situation, 225; example 2: your funding is cut, 225–226; example 3: board members have been approached by consumer with complaint, 226; example 4: board is worried about responsibility to raise funds, 226–227

Implementation maintenance: challenges involved in, 222–223; step 1: board member recruitment, 223; step 2: board member orientation, 223; step 3: board self-evaluation, 223–224; step 4: education, 224; step 5: practice to make perfect, 224

Implementation workload: task 1: education of board, 228; task 2: continuing Ends debate and reexamination, 228–229; task 3: keeping the faith, 229

Independent Living Ends policy, 171

Internet resources, 217

L

Legal checks, 220–221

Letters Patent, 201, 203

Lewin, K., 17

Liability coverage, 94

M

Management: differences between governance and, 192; policy to monitoring cycle domain of, 188

Means policies: described, 21; Policy Governance model framework on, 21–26; statements of value in, 25–26

Medical Staff, 130–131

Meetings: agendas for, 51, 52–53, 221; Policy Governance model on conducting, 50–53

Milton, J., 17

Minutes: described, 202, 211–212; keeping copies in Policy Manual, 217; recommendations for use of, 212–213

Mission statement, 155

Monitoring: “any reasonable interpretation” meaning in, 190–191; as appropriate for all policies, 194; of criteria as passive process versus setting of criteria, 190; cycle from policy to monitoring, 187, 188; formal CEO evaluation following, 197–198; gaining confidence through data from, 222; nature in Policy Governance, 179–180; policies as criteria for, 189–190; policy violation in context of, 191; relevant question must be answered by, 192–193; role of board in CEO, 191–192; setting schedule for, 194–196; two components of, 180–182. See also CEO interpretations; Reasonable interpretation

Monitoring Policy: BMD#2 level on, 139–140, 145–146; BMD#3 level and BMD#4 level on, 146–148; EL#3 level on, 96–98; function and purpose of, 30–31; when to use, 7–8

Monitoring reports: appropriate information included in, 193–194; board members’ receipt of, 187–189; CEO’s interpretation and relevant data included in, 193; Monitoring Report Format, 183

N

Negative policies, 42–43

O

Organizations: with no CEO or staff, 47; policy establishing accountability of, 149; with small staff, 47–48. See also Staff

P

Passing vote, 207

Pension plans, 95

Policies: assessing previous policies for inclusion in new, 220; avoiding negative, 42–43; as criteria for monitoring, 189–190; cycle to monitoring from, 187, 188; documents (or Policy Manual) on board, 202, 213–217; don’t-do-it list of, 22; monitoring as appropriate for all, 194; monitoring and context of violating, 191; Policy Governance model framework on Ends, 20–21; Policy Governance model framework on Means, 21–26; reflecting statements of value, 23–26; regarding delegation, 22–23; See also specific policies

Policy circles: diagrams of, 27, 28; establishing control using, 25–26; finding your way on the, 26–30

Policy Governance model: accountability principle of, 17–18; board education on, 224; board meetings conducted under, 50–53; common questions about, 3–16; comparing traditional board documents to those in, 199–200; externally required approvals in, 48–50; framework of, 20–26; governance tools provided by, 33–36; as “hands-off” model, 44; implementation of, 219–229; key points of theory on, 35–36; maintaining the system, 222–224; nature of monitoring in, 179–180; partial versus total implementation of, 38–39; resisting

- temptation to revert to traditional methods from, 225–228; three categories of organizational decisions under, 39–40
- Policy Governance model framework: described, 20; enabling both control and flexibility, 22; on organizational issues: ends policies, 20–21
- Policy Governance model questions: are there other models?, 4; on avoiding borrowing another organization's policies, 15; on current policies and what to do with them, 11–12; on decision-making conflicts, 13–14; on decision and policy making during transition, 8; on distinction between policy and procedure, 11; how does one implement the model?, 3–4; on how to begin moving toward new model, 6; on how to develop new policies, 7–8; on leadership during transition, 9–10; on making final decision to use new model, 13; on moving from old governance system, 5–6; on one-size-fits-all model benefits, 14–15; on “reasonable interpretations” decision making, 15–16; on recording policy changes, 10–11; on retreat for decision making, 12–13; on role of CEOs during transition, 10; when is it appropriate to apply?, 4–5; on whether to hire a consultant to help, 9; why is it attractive to CEOs?, 5; on wisdom of using only one governance model, 14
- Policy Manual: completed in all four categories, 214–215; described, 202, 213; header section of Board Policy Form, 214, 216; keeping by-laws and minutes in, 217; recommendations on organization of, 214–216; recording ongoing board decisions in, 213–214
- Professional Association Ends statement, 168
- Public Policy Ends policy, 171
- ## Q
- Quorum, 207
- ## R
- Reasonable interpretation: CEO (chief executive officer), 29, 41, 181–189; CGOs empowered to make, 29, 105–106; in context of monitoring, 190–191; criteria used for measuring, 31; Policy Governance model questions on, 15–16. See also Monitoring
- Research Institution Ends statement, 169
- ## S
- School Readiness Ends policy, 171
- Staff: organizations with CEO or, 47; organizations with small, 47–48. See also Organizations
- Staff Means policies: compensation and benefits, 81, 94–96; Executive Limitations on CEO treatment of, 183–184; Executive Limitations prescription for, 41; Governance Policy regarding Medical, 130–131; pension plans for, 95; quadrant on, 65–66; treatment of, 75–76, 88–89
- Stakeholder preparation, 221
- ## T
- Treasurers: bylaws identifying role of, 208; responsibilities of the, 32
- Treatment of consumers, 74–75, 86–87
- Treatment of staff, 75–76, 88–89
- Trust issue, 44–45
- ## U
- Unity of control: BMD#1 level on, 137, 141–142; BMD#2 level on, 142
- ## V
- Values-policies relationship, 23–26
- ## W
- Work and Family Ends policy, 171

