

Index

• Number •

360-degree assessments, use of, 24–25, 74

• A •

ABCDE theory of emotions

activating event, 77

beliefs, 77

consequence, 78 dispute, 78

effect, 78

abilities, EQ testing of, 54

activating (A) event

recording in notebook, 81

role in ABCDE theory of emotions, 77

acupressure, practicing, 86–87

adaptability, considering in EQ-i test, 50–51

ADHD (attention deficit hyperactivity disorder), 272–274, 294

adolescents. See also children; parenting

being flexible with, 257

dealing with, 257

discussing emotions with, 280–281

encouraging discovery of EI in, 283

encouraging emotional intelligence in, 282–283

encouraging to read books, 281–282

gauging interpersonal skills of, 261

getting push back from, 279

having positive conversations with,
282–283

relating to, 283

social responsibility, 261–262

spending quality time with, 282

strengths and weaknesses associated with, 260

stress management techniques, 258–259

using self-regard with, 259–260

age, relating to emotional intelligence, 57–58

aggressive behaviors

dealing with in children, 276–277

reasons for, 274–276 aggressive children, behaviors of, 277 aggressive expression, defined, 161

agreeableness trait, explained, 56

Air Force recruiters study, 160

alexithymia, defined, 61

aloofness, encountering in relationships, 243

American Society for Training and Development (ASTD), 314

analytical abilities, measurement of, 44

Anderson, Chip, 211

anger

body language associated with, 71–72

consequences of, 269

dissolving, 37

grouping, 79

as hot emotion, 47

impact on others, 14

therapies for, 13

antisocial behavior, avoiding in children, 274–276

anxiety

applying cognitive restructuring to, 80–83

body language associated with, 72

reading in eyes, 102

reducing, 84–85

statistics related to, 270

aptitude tests, taking, 147

Asperger's syndrome, explained, 243

assertiveness

applying to work, 161–162

considering in EQ-i test, 49

considering in work choices, 148

exhibiting as leader, 181

measurement of, 52

assertiveness (continued)
 practicing, 288
 of workplace leaders, 175
 assessments, types of, 24
 ASTD (American Society for Training and Development), 314 attention, addressing problems with, 294 attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), 272–274, 294 attentiveness, reading body language for, 100 authentic happiness, defined, 39 avoidance, reading in eyes, 102

• B •

(B) beliefs, role in ABCDE theory of emotions, 77
 bad feelings
 dealing with, 13
 grouping, 79
 bad situations
 coping with, 83–84, 92
 long-term solutions, 91
 short-term approaches, 89–90
 Bar-On model, applying as leader, 49–51, 171
 Beck, Aaron, 80
 behavior change. See also habits
 applying empathy to desire for, 115
 attempting in other people, 115
 benefits of, 304
 checking progress in difficult people, 301–302
 consequences of resistance to, 294–295
 difficulty of making, 113–114
 gauging intentions related to, 300
 motivating in others, 70, 113, 118–119
 overcoming obstacles to, 114
 projecting and recording, 91
 providing strategies, 301
 wanting in others, 112–113
 behavioral contracting versus communications training, 233 behaviors. See also difficult people; EQ tests

 associating with EI (emotional intelligence), 12 callousness in children, 277
 changing, 70
 dealing with feelings about, 117–118
 difficulty of changing, 113–114
 direct versus indirect influences on, 298 discussing with others, 118–119 of emotionally intelligent people, 26 establishing alternatives for, 117–118 exploring negative effects of, 302–303
 extreme examples of, 69
 impact of moods on, 13
 impact on intimate relationships, 232
 influencing in difficult people, 298 interpreting, 67–68
 lack of control over, 13
 lack of emotion in children, 277 relationship to emotions, 69
 self-destructive, 68–69 understanding in others, 116 beliefs (B)
 expressing, 288–289
 role in ABCDE theory of emotions, 77
 belly breathing, practicing, 85–86
 Benson, Robert, 84
 “Big Five” personality theory, 56
 Block, Jack and Jeanne, 56 body language. See also facial expressions decoding, 71, 104
 identifying anger, 71–72
 knowing happiness, 73
 paying attention to, 101
 recognizing fear and anxiety, 72
 seeing embarrassment, 73 sensing sadness, 72–73
 spotting surprise, 73
 BOEI (Benchmark of Organizational Emotional Intelligence), 185 boredom, posture associated with, 100 bosses. See managers; supervisors brain, studying areas of, 48 breathing exercises, practicing, 85–86, 88 business settings, applying emotional intelligence in, 20

• C •

(C) consequence, role in ABCDE theory of emotions, 78
 calmness, maintaining in conflicts with strangers, 120, 122
 Campbell™ Interest and Skill Survey (CISS) test, described, 145 Career Assessment Inventory™ test, described, 145 career counselors, working with, 144, 150 career-interest tests, taking, 145 careers. See work
 caring about others
   cultivating, 40, 305–306
   measurement of, 52
   significance of, 48
 CASEL (Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning), 314
 CCL (Center for Creative Leadership), 174
 CHADD (Children and Adults with Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder), 294 change in behavior. See also habits
   applying empathy to desire for, 115
   attempting in other people, 115
   benefits of, 304
   checking progress in difficult people, 301–302
   consequences of resistance to, 294–295
   difficulty of making, 113–114
   gauging intentions related to, 300
   motivating in others, 70, 113, 118–119
   overcoming obstacles to, 114
   projecting and recording, 91
   providing strategies, 301
   wanting in others, 112–113
 checking in, 105
 child-rearing
   agreeing on, 249–250
   applying emotional skills to, 254–256

children. See also adolescents; parenting ADHD (attention deficit hyperactivity disorder), 272–274
 aggressive behaviors, 272–273, 277
 attracting attention of, 253 avoiding antisocial behavior, 274–276 avoiding violent behavior, 274–276
 communicating with, 264
 connecting emotions and consequences, 268–269 cultivating patience with, 255 diagnosing ADHD (attention deficit hyperactivity disorder) in, 272–274 empathizing, 255–256 encouraging communication in, 268 encouraging confidence in, 271 encouraging cooperative behavior in, 278–279
 engaging, 265–266
 evaluating aggressiveness in, 276–277 impact on parents' IQs, 246 increasing self-awareness, 267–269 managing behavior of, 247 managing impulse control, 254–255
 managing impulse control with, 252–253 managing withdrawn behaviors, 270–271 modeling empathy for, 264–265 nurturing EQ of, 263
 overactive behaviors, 272 problem-solving issues related to, 256 reading moods of, 265–266
 reasons for shyness, 270 reducing defiance in, 278–279 reducing oppositional tendencies, 278–279 studying personalities of, 56–57 understanding, 264
 understanding emotions of, 267
 Children and Adults with Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (CHADD), 294
 CISS (Campbell™ Interest and Skill Survey) test, described, 145
 Clinton, Bill, 98
 coaches, working with, 144, 150 cognitive distortions, disputing and refuting, 80

- cognitive intelligence
    - explained, 44
    - tests, 146–147
  - cognitive reappraisal, defined, 36
  - cognitive restructuring, using, 79–83
  - cold versus hot feelings, 76
  - Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning (CASEL), 314
  - college
    - achieving long-term goals, 222
    - cataloging strengths, 219–220
    - class structure, 213
    - dealing with change, 220
    - dealing with stress, 220
    - determining long-term objectives, 218–222
    - developing emotional skills, 216–217
    - differences from high school, 209–210
    - dropout problem, 208
    - emotional and social issues, 211–212
    - evaluating first year, 214
    - getting back on track, 214–215
    - getting help from counselors, 218
    - guidance, 213
    - identifying possible problems, 215–216
    - identifying strengths and weaknesses, 220–221
    - independence, 214
    - knowing self, 219
    - managing moods, 220
    - managing others, 219–220
    - problems in first year, 210–211
    - school grades and SATs, 208–209
    - setting long-term goals, 221–222
    - social changes, 214
    - statistics related to, 208
    - surveys related to, 208
    - teaching style, 213
    - warning signs of derailment, 212–213
  - communication
    - direct versus indirect, 298
    - encouraging in children, 268
    - importance to leaders, 176
    - improving, 290–291
    - verbal with difficult people, 299
  - communications training versus behavioral contracting, 233
  - community, giving back to, 308
  - companies, applying emotional intelligence to, 20
  - compensation
    - in emotionally intelligent workplace, 188
    - in typical workplace, 186
  - concern versus depression, 28
  - confidence, encouraging in children, 271
  - confirmation, getting from others, 105–106
  - Conners, Keith, 273
  - conscientiousness trait, explained, 56
  - consequence (C), role in ABCDE theory of emotions, 78
  - The Consortium for Research on Emotional Intelligence in Organizations, 315
  - cooperative behavior, eliciting from others, 170–171
  - coping strategy
    - applying to bad situations, 83–84, 92
    - applying to impulse control, 294
  - Cote, Stephen, 19
  - country, taking up cause for, 310
  - co-workers. See also workers
    - dealing with effectively, 156
    - in emotionally intelligent workplace, 188
    - encouraging contributions of, 173
    - getting attention of, 169–170
    - getting involved, 176
    - having problems with, 192
    - influencing, 159–162
    - motivating, 20
    - noticing as leader, 181
    - in typical workplace, 187
  - CRS-3 (Conners' Rating Scales), 273
- D •
- (D) dispute, role in ABCDE theory of emotions, 78
  - Darwin, Charles, 48
  - decision-making
    - from gut, 290

parts of brain engaged in, 48
 taking action, 175

depression versus concern, 28

Diagnostic and Statistical Manual – IV (DSM-IV), 273

Diana, Princess, 98

diaphragmatic breathing, practicing, 85–86

diary, keeping at work, 138–140. See also notebook topics

Diener, Ed, 34

difficult friends and relatives. See also friends; relatives getting to desired relationships with, 125
 starting with endgame, 123–124

difficult people. See also behaviors; people assessing effectiveness of communication, 299–300 checking progress, 301–302
 explaining desired changes differently, 303 exploring effects of poor behavior, 302–303 gauging intention to change, 300 giving feedback, 300
 providing strategies, 301
 selling on benefits, 303–304 taking indirect approach, 298 talking with, 299

disappointment, impact on behavior, 14

discoveries, scientific process of, 43

disinterest, posture associated with, 100 dispute (D), role in ABCDE theory of emotions, 78 distraction techniques

 applying to impulse control, 293
 methods of, 83–84
 practicing, 92–93
 purposeful, 87

diversity
 in emotionally intelligent workplace, 188
 in typical workplace, 187

Dotto, Stephanie, 311

DSM-IV (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual – IV), 273

• E •

effect (E), role in ABCDE theory of emotions, 78

EI (emotional intelligence). See also intelligence types achieving in workplace, 20–21 age considerations, 57–58
 applying to anger, 14 applying to family interactions, 22 applying to organizations, 20
 applying to work, 143–144
 Bar-On model of, 50–51
 behaviors associated with, 12 benefits at work, 19–21
 benefits of, 230
 changing, 57–59
 defined, 44
 “discovery” of, 45
 empathetic aspect of, 17 encouraging in teenagers, 282–283
 evaluating, 25
 importance to relationships, 226–227
 improving, 15, 287
 increasing with age, 283 versus IQ (intelligence quotient), 44
 low rate of, 30
 measuring, 24
 versus social intelligence, 49–50
 in U.K., 143

EI contributions to world
 caring about others, 305–306
 changing world, 310 focusing on others, 306–307 giving back to community, 308 helping family, 307–308
 improving workplace, 308–309
 taking up cause for country, 310 working on self, 307

EI field, growth of, 43

EI improvements being happy, 295–296
 being socially responsible, 292–293
 discovering inner passions, 289

- El improvements (continued)
- expressing thoughts, feelings, beliefs, 288–289
  - increasing flexibility, 294–295
  - knowing strengths and weaknesses, 289–290
  - making, 15
  - managing emotions of others, 291–292
  - managing impulses, 293–294
  - self-awareness, 287–288
  - “walking in other person’s moccasins,” 290–291
- El Skills Group, 314
- Ellis, Albert, 80
- embarrassment, body language associated with, 73
- emotional coping. See coping strategy
- emotional intelligence (EI). See EI (emotional intelligence)
- Emotional Intelligence Information, 314
- emotional management, example of, 291
- emotional muscle, building, 15
- emotional quotient (EQ)
- applying to work, 147–150
  - versus IQ (intelligence quotient), 305–306
  - measurement of, 44
- emotional self-awareness, considering in work choices, 148
- emotional skills
- balancing social skills with, 243–244
  - increasing, 59
  - using in social relationships, 242–243
- emotional temperature
- taking for partner, 235
  - taking for self, 238–239
- emotional triggers, examining, 68
- emotionally intelligent people
- behaving like, 29
  - characteristics of, 26, 307
  - feeling like, 26–27
  - qualities of, 38
  - recognizing, 29–31
  - thinking like, 27–29
- emotionally unintelligent people, characteristics, 30–31
- emotions. See also feelings; negative emotions; positive emotions
- ABCDE theory of, 77–78
  - associating with thoughts, 36
  - avoiding excess of, 244
  - balancing, 63
  - changes in, 92
  - changing, 36–37, 76
  - connecting to consequences, 268–269
  - cycles of, 92
  - defined, 62
  - discussing with teenagers, 280–281
  - evaluating, 28
  - expressing, 64
  - versus feelings and moods, 62
  - as glue of relationships, 231
  - growing apart, 233–234
  - identifying negative feelings, 14
  - impact on decisions, 48
  - impact on growth of relationships, 232–233
  - impact on intimate relationships, 230–234
  - influencing in other people, 17–18
  - list of, 64–65
  - listing definitions for, 77
  - listing synonyms for, 77
  - managing in MSCEIT test, 53
  - managing in self, 123
  - managing successfully, 280
  - negative, 64
  - neutral, 64
  - noticing intensity of, 288
  - observing expression of, 67
  - paying attention to, 15, 63
  - perception in MSCEIT test, 53
  - positive, 64
  - range of, 47–48
  - rating from 1 to 10, 288
  - rating intensity of, 66–67
  - reading in other people, 99–104
  - reading through other people, 74–75
  - recording daily, 63
  - recording in notebook, 65–66
  - relationship to behaviors, 69
  - as signaling systems, 48

- transformation of, 92
- unawareness of, 13
- understanding effects of, 45–47
- understanding in MSCEIT test, 53
- understanding in self, 112
- using appropriately, 17
- emotions of others. See also people
  - changing reactions to, 112–114
  - establishing alternative behaviors, 117–118
  - focusing on, 111
  - identifying different perspectives, 116
  - inspiring desire to change, 118–119
  - managing, 114
- empathy
  - applying to changes desired in others, 115
  - applying to family members, 22
  - applying to management style, 176
  - applying to others, 116–117
  - applying to tense situations with strangers, 109–110
  - applying to work, 160–161, 170
  - considering in EQ-i test, 50
  - considering in work choices, 148
  - developing, 95
  - enhancing relationships with, 241–242
  - example of, 96
  - exhibiting as leader, 181
  - expressing, 97
  - importance of, 95
  - increasing, 290–291
  - modeling for children, 264–265
  - power of, 97
  - practicing, 102
  - significance of, 48
  - versus sympathy, 48, 96–97
  - using in friendships, 108–109
  - using in intimate relationships, 107–108
  - using to disarm others, 98–99
  - using with children, 255–256
  - using with relatives, 108–109
  - using with teenagers, 260
  - “walking in the other person’s moccasins,” 101
- empathy skills
  - checking in, 105
  - getting confirmation, 105–106
  - practicing, 104, 110
- empathy training, benefits of, 93
- employees
  - motivating, 21
  - observing boredom in, 186
  - study at Hawthorne Plant, 142
- employment. See also workplace
  - applying assertiveness to, 161–162
  - applying emotional intelligence to, 19–21, 143–144
  - applying empathy to, 160–161, 170
  - assessing strengths and weaknesses, 153
  - dealing with people at, 156
  - in emotionally intelligent workplace, 188
  - experiencing problems with, 191–192
  - finding satisfaction in, 144
  - influencing people at, 159–162
  - lacking resources for, 192
  - people-oriented, 154
  - in typical workplace, 186
- EQ (emotional quotient)
  - applying to work, 147–150
  - versus IQ (intelligence quotient), 305–306
  - measurement of, 44
- EQ testing, performing, 25
- EQ tests. See also behaviors; tests
  - ability-based, 54
  - EQ-360, 51–52
  - EQ-i, 49–51
  - MSCEIT, 52–53
  - versus personality tests, 54–55
- EQ-i test
  - adaptability area, 50
  - general mood area, 50
  - inter-personal area, 50
  - intra-personal area, 49
  - stress management area, 50
  - use by CCL (Center for Creative Leadership), 174
  - use by U.S. Air Force, 160
- executives, 360 degree assessments of, 74
- exercise, positive impact on moods, 36
- experimental method, explained, 43

expert review, using in EQ tests, 55 expressiveness about feelings,
   measurement of, 51
 extraversion trait, explained, 56 eye contact, interpreting, 100 eye movements, reading, 67, 69, 71–73, 99–100, 102
 eyebrows, observing in others, 103

● F ●

facial expressions. See also body language
   paying attention to, 101–103
   questioning, 103
   reading, 99–100, 103
 family, helping, 307–308
 family interactions applying EI to, 22
   applying empathy to, 107–108
   improving, 266
 fear, body language associated with, 72 feelings. See also emotions; trigger feelings;
   workplace feelings
   defined, 62
   determining, 103
   versus emotions and moods, 62
   expressing, 288–289
   grouping, 79
   hot versus cold, 76 impact of ignoring, 14
   lack of, 61
   negative, 13
   of other people, 16
   recognizing in children, 267
   recording in notebook, 81
   relaxing relative to others, 117 Five Factor Model, applying to personality, 56
 flexibility
   considering in EQ-i test, 50
   considering in work choices, 149
   exhibiting as leader, 173
   increasing, 294–295
 “flight or fight” response, 48

foreheads, observing in others, 103 friendliness (perceived), measurement of, 52
 friends, using empathy with, 108–109. See also difficult friends and relatives;
   relationships

● G ●

Giuliani, Rudy, 291
 Golden Rule, following, 18
 good life, experiencing, 39
 Goodman, Robert, 246 GPA (grade point average), combining with SAT score, 208–209
 grief, validity of, 75
 gut check, making, 91
 gut reaction, being aware of, 112–113

● H ●

habits. See also behavior change difficulties in breaking, 115
   extreme examples of, 69
 happiness
   applying to management style, 177
   authentic, 39
   benefits of, 35
   body language associated with, 73
   consequences of, 268
   considering in EQ-i test, 50
   considering in work choices, 149
   creating, 34
   dictionary definition, 33
   exhibiting as leader, 171
   expressing with eyes, 100
   finding long-term, 40 importance in relationships, 227
   importance of, 34
   as long-term goal, 39 maintaining in intimate relationships, 232 versus money, 34
   rating from 1 to 10, 295
   relationship to success, 35
   research related to, 35

- striving for, 33
  - types of, 39
  - happy versus sad people, 295
  - Hart, Gary, 45
  - hassles at work, tackling, 134–136
  - Hawthorne Plant, study of workers at, 142
  - heart rate, raising, 85–86
  - helping people, 40
  - high blood pressure, reducing, 84–85
  - high school
    - becoming independent in, 212
    - differences from college, 209
    - preparing for college in, 212
  - hippocampus of brain, significance of, 48
  - hot buttons
    - dealing with, 122
    - recognizing in self, 122
  - hot emotional states, magnifying, 85–86
  - hot versus cold feelings, 76
  - Human Capital Institute's Emotional Intelligence and Human Capital page, 314
- 1 ●
- I versus you, 96
  - ICF (International Coach Federation), 314
  - imagery, applying to presentations, 137
  - impulse control
    - applying to management style, 177
    - applying to tough-minded leadership, 177
    - considering in EQ-i test, 50
    - considering in work choices, 149
    - practicing, 293–294
    - of workplace leaders, 175
  - impulsiveness, applying cognitive restructuring to, 80–83
  - independence
    - considering in EQ-i test, 49
    - considering in work choices, 148
    - measurement of, 52
    - of workplace leaders, 175
  - influence, exerting through emotions, 17–18
  - intelligence quotient (IQ)
    - versus EI (emotional intelligence), 44
    - versus EQ (emotional quotient), 305–306
    - tests, 146–147
  - intelligence types. See also EI (emotional intelligence)
    - academic, 24
    - being book smart, 12
    - cognitive versus emotional, 44
    - differences between, 46
    - emotional versus social, 49–50
    - social, 15
  - interest, reading body language for, 100
  - International Coach Federation (ICF), 314
  - International Coach Federation Web site, 182
  - International Society for Performance Improvement (ISPI), 315
  - Internet, exposure to violence on, 275
  - inter-personal factors, considering in EQ-i test, 50–51
  - interpersonal relationships
    - considering in work choices, 148
    - cultivating in management style, 177–179
  - interpersonal skills
    - developing, 242–243
    - of teenagers, 261
    - theoretical versus practical, 244
  - intimate relationships. See also relationships
    - applying empathy to, 107–108
    - avoiding conflicts in, 237
    - choosing battles in, 239–240
    - dealing with negative emotions, 236
    - doing good deeds in, 233
    - encouraging positive feelings in, 239
    - enhancing by using empathy, 241–242
    - feeling overwhelmed in, 239
    - female and male behaviors in, 237
    - growing apart, 233–234
    - healthy examples of, 222
    - holding one's tongue in, 240–241
    - impact of behaviors on, 232
    - impact of emotional intelligence on, 226–227

intimate relationships (continued)
 impact of emotions on, 230–234
 improving, 232–233
 keeping steady, 234–235
 maintaining, 234
 maintaining happiness in, 232
 making changes in, 229
 managing disagreements in, 238
 managing partner's emotions in, 235–238
 rating, 227–230
 reading partner's emotions, 234
 rewarding partner in, 240
 taking emotional temperature of self, 238–239
 taking partner's emotional temperature, 235

intra-personal factors, considering in EQ-i test, 49, 51

IQ (intelligence quotient)
 versus EI (emotional intelligence), 44
 versus EQ (emotional quotient), 305–306
 tests, 146–147

irritable bowel syndrome, reducing, 84–85

ISPI (International Society for Performance Improvement), 315

• J •

Jacobson, Edmund, 84

job coaches, working with, 150

job equation. See also work
 assertiveness, 148
 emotional self-awareness, 148
 empathy, 148
 flexibility, 149
 happiness, 149
 impulse control, 149
 independence, 148
 interpersonal relationships, 148
 optimism, 149
 problem-solving, 149
 reality testing, 149
 self-actualization, 148
 self-regard, 147
 social responsibility, 148
 stress tolerance, 148

job satisfaction, encouraging, 21 job skills, getting feel for, 152–153

jobs. See also workplace
 applying assertiveness to, 161–162
 applying emotional intelligence to,
 19–21, 143–144
 applying empathy to, 160–161, 170
 assessing strengths and weaknesses, 153
 dealing with people at, 156
 in emotionally intelligent workplace, 188
 experiencing problems with, 191–192
 finding satisfaction in, 144
 influencing people at, 159–162
 lacking resources for, 192
 people-oriented, 154
 in typical workplace, 186

journaling. See notebook topics

• K •

Kabat-Zinn, Jon, 88

kids. See adolescents; children kindness, measurement of, 52

Kinsey Institute study, 246

Kouzes, James, 172

• L •

leaders 360 degree assessments of, 74 credibility of, 170

leadership best practices, 180–182
 defined, 167
 eliciting cooperative behavior, 170–171
 getting coach for, 182
 Kouzes and Posner's theory of, 172–173
 providing, 21
 self-evaluation of potential for, 179–180 skills, 177–178
 weaknesses, 178–179

leadership qualities
 assertiveness, 181
 being centered and grounded, 174–175
 being tough-minded, 177

empathy, 181
 integrity, 181
 optimism, 181
 participative management style, 176–177
 taking action, 175

Lee, Hosung, 246

Lewinsky, Monica, 98

life
   perceiving as adventure, 34–35
   pleasant, good, and meaningful, 39

life time, looking at, 197–198

limbic system of brain, significance of, 48

listening during communication, 290–291
   to family members, 22 getting attention of co-workers, 169–170 importance to empathy, 102
   importance to leaders, 176
   with third ear, 102

logical abilities, measurement of, 44

low self-regard, applying cognitive restructuring to, 80–83

• M •

mad feelings
   body language associated with, 71–72
   consequences of, 269
   dissolving, 37
   grouping, 79
   as hot emotion, 47
   impact on others, 14
   therapies for, 13

management
   deciding about career in, 168–169
   in emotionally intelligent workplace, 189
   participative style, 176
   in typical workplace, 187

managers behaviors of, 140–141
   managing, 204–205
   sensitivity to hassles, 135–136
   training, 21

marital relationships. See intimate relationships

maturity, defined, 58

Mayer, John (Jack), 45, 52

MBTI® (Myers-Briggs Type Indicator) test, described, 146

meaningful life, experiencing, 39

Mensa convention documentary, 306

METT (Micro Expression Training Tool),
   315

Miami Herald, 45

Micro Expression Training Tool (METT), 315

mindfulness, practicing, 88–89

moment, thinking of, 88

money, importance relative to happiness, 34

moods
   considering in EQ-i test, 50
   considering in job equation, 149
   defined, 62
   versus emotions and feelings, 62 impact on behaviors, 13
   improving through exercise, 36 mouths, observing in others, 103

MSCEIT test
   components of, 52–53
   Web site, 54

Multi-Health Systems, 315
   leadership testing, 180
   U.S. Air Force study, 160

Myers-Briggs Type Indicator® (MBTI®) test,
   described, 146

• N •

negative emotions. See also emotions;
   positive emotions
   assessing, 14
   causes of, 13–14
   changing, 36
   grouping, 79
   versus positive emotions, 66–68, 267
   recognizing, 76–77
   reducing, 74–75

neocortex of brain, significance of, 48

NEO-PI® (NEO Personality Inventory-Revised) test, described, 146 nervousness

 body language associated with, 72
 consequences of, 269

neuroticism trait, explained, 56

niceness future rewards of, 18
 versus toughness, 18

norm group, using with EQ tests, 55

notebook topics. See also diary

bad situations, 91

child-rearing, 249

child-rearing as team, 250–251

cognitive restructuring, 80–83

college emotional skills development, 216–217 college problems in first year, 216

entering, 3

establishing realistic alternative behaviors, 117 hot buttons in self, 122

interpreting behaviors, 67

job skills, 152–153

leadership skills, 177

life values, 197

motivating others to change, 113

personal level of EI, 25

personal values, 194–195

personality versus emotional skills, 55

rating intimate relationships, 228

reading emotions of others, 99 recording emotions, 63, 65–66

self-awareness, 288

strengths and weaknesses, 38

work schedule, 196

workplace feelings, 190

Nowak, Martin, 18

obnoxious people determining best outcome with, 120 developing techniques for dealing with, 121–123 diffusing conflict with strangers, 121
 encountering, 119–120

OEI (organizational emotional intelligence), 185

openness trait, explained, 56

optimism
 applying to problems, 37–38
 considering in EQ-i test, 50
 considering in work choices, 149
 exhibiting as leader, 171, 181–182
 measurement of, 52
 of workplace leaders, 175

organizational intelligence, using benchmark of, 185

organizations, applying emotional intelligence to, 20

overactive behaviors, ADHD (attention deficit hyperactivity disorder), 272–273

overeaters, trigger feelings associated with, 69

parenting. See also adolescents; children agreeing on child-rearing, 249–250 expectations related to, 246 loss of impulse control, 246 managing each other's emotions, 251–252 managing emotions of self, 247–248 problems associated with, 245 problem-solving in, 256 working as team, 250–251

parent-management groups, availability of, 277

Parker, James, 209

partner relationships See also
 relationships
 applying empathy to, 107–108
 avoiding conflicts in, 237
 choosing battles in, 239–240
 dealing with negative emotions, 236
 doing good deeds in, 233
 encouraging positive feelings in, 239
 enhancing by using empathy, 241–242
 feeling overwhelmed in, 239
 female and male behaviors in, 237

- growing apart, 233–234
- healthy examples of, 222
- holding one's tongue in, 240–241
- impact of behaviors on, 232
- impact of emotional intelligence on, 226–227
- impact of emotions on, 230–234
- improving, 232–233
- keeping steady, 234–235
- maintaining, 234
- maintaining happiness in, 232
- making changes in, 229
- managing disagreements in, 238
- managing partner's emotions in, 235–238
- rating, 227–230
- reading partner's emotions, 234
- rewarding partner in, 240
- taking emotional temperature of self, 238–239
- taking partner's emotional temperature, 235
- passions, discovering, 289
- passive expression, defined, 161
- patterns of behavior. See behaviors
- people. See also difficult people; emotions of others
  - attempting changes in, 115
  - being aware of feelings of, 16
  - changing reactions to, 112–114
  - differences between, 47
  - empathizing with, 102
  - encouraging changes in, 113
  - focusing on, 306–307
  - helping, 40
  - identifying perspectives of, 116
  - influencing at work, 159–162
  - noticing interactions with, 26
  - observing, 67–68
  - understanding behaviors of, 116
- people at work, dealing with effectively, 156
- people person, qualities of, 154–156
- performance
  - assessments, 24
  - impact of EI on, 51
  - personal life, balancing with work life, 174, 193–198
  - personal values, knowing, 194–195
  - personalities
    - of children, 56–57
    - defined, 55
    - evaluating, 55–56
    - tracking across life span, 56–57
    - types of, 57
  - personality tests
    - versus EQ tests, 54–55
    - taking, 146
  - physical exercise, positive impact on moods, 36
  - pleasant life, experiencing, 39
  - poker players, interpretation of body language by, 71
  - positive emotions. See also emotions; negative emotions
    - cultivating, 47
    - increasing, 74–75
    - versus negative emotions, 66–68, 267
    - sustaining, 36
  - Positive Psychology movement, 39, 93–94
  - Posner, Barry, 172
  - posture, reading, 100
  - practice, importance of, 92–93
  - presentations
    - emotions associated with, 47
    - fears associated with, 136–137
  - Princess Diana, empathy of, 98
  - problems
    - applying optimism to, 37–38
    - reframing, 70
  - problem-solving
    - considering in EQ-i test, 50
    - considering in work choices, 149
  - procrastination, applying cognitive restructuring to, 80–83
  - progressive relaxation, practicing, 84–85
  - public speaking
    - emotions associated with, 47
    - fears associated with, 136–137
  - purposeful distraction, practicing, 87

• R •

rational abilities, measurement of, 44 reactions to others, changing, 112–114
 realism, importance in relationships, 227 realistic alternative behaviors, establishing, 117–118
 reality testing. See also tests
   considering in EQ-i test, 50
   considering in work choices, 149
   defined, 58
 reciprocity, significance of, 18 relationships. See also friends; intimate relationships; relatives; social relationships
   applying empathy to, 107–108
   improving with difficult people, 125 relatives, using empathy with, 108–109.
   See also difficult friends and relatives;
   relationships
 relaxation, progressive, 84–85
 Rice, Donna, 45 risks, taking, 20
 Rotman Business School, 19

• S •

sad feelings, grouping, 79 sad versus happy people, 295 sadness
   body language associated with, 72–73
   expressing with eyes, 100
 sales skills, applying to work, 159–161
 Salovey, Peter, 45, 52
 SAT Reasoning Test, requirement of, 208 school grades, using with SATs, 208 SDS (Self-Directed Search) test, described, 145
 self, working on, 307
 self-actualization
   considering in EQ-i test, 49
   considering in work choices, 148
   importance in relationships, 227

self-awareness
   considering in EQ-i test, 49
   encouraging in children, 267–269
   exercises for children, 267–268
   increasing, 287–288
 self-confidence, encouraging in children, 271 self-control, measurement of, 52
 self-destructive behaviors, examining, 68–69
 selflessness, empathy as, 101
 self-regard applying EQ to, 147
   applying to tough-minded leadership, 177
   considering in EQ-i test, 49
   exhibiting as leader, 171
   importance in relationships, 227
   level of workplace leaders, 174 practicing skill of, 38
   using with teenagers, 259–260
 self-report tests, use of, 24 Seligman, Martin, 39 senses, focusing on, 27
 sensitivity to feelings, measurement of, 51
 sexual relations, impact of emotional intelligence on, 230 SHRM (Society for Human Resource Management), 315
 shyness in children, reasons for, 270 significant other. See intimate relationships skills tests, taking, 147
 smoking, trigger feelings associated with, 68–69
 social anxiety
   applying cognitive restructuring to, 80–83
   body language associated with, 72
   reading in eyes, 102
   reducing, 84–85
   statistics related to, 270
 social intelligence
   defined, 15
   example of, 16–17
 social phobia
   statistic related to, 270
   Web site, 271

- social relationships. See also relationships
    - using emotional skills in, 242–243
  - social responsibility
    - applying to leadership, 181
    - applying to management style, 176
    - considering in EQ-i test, 50
    - considering in work choices, 148
    - engaging in, 40
    - layers of, 292–293
    - of teenagers, 261–262
    - of workplace leaders, 175
  - social skills, balancing with emotional skills, 243–244
  - social versus emotional intelligence, 49–50
  - Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), 315
  - Spector, Tim, 230
  - staff. See also workplace
    - dealing with, 20
    - motivating, 21
    - observing boredom in, 186
    - study at Hawthorne Plant, 142
  - strangers
    - diffusing conflict with, 121
    - managing difficulties with, 120
    - using empathy with, 109–110
  - strengths
    - college-related, 219–220
    - determining, 94
    - documenting relative to work, 190–191
    - identifying in work, 140, 153
    - knowing, 289–290
    - signature, 39
    - and weaknesses, 38
  - stress
    - applying cognitive restructuring to, 80–83
    - in emotionally intelligent workplace, 188
    - managing via belly breathing, 86
    - in typical workplace, 187
  - stress management skills
    - considering in EQ-i test, 50–51
    - impact of happiness on, 227
    - measuring, 52
    - practicing, 29
  - stress tolerance
    - applying to tough-minded leadership, 177
    - considering in work choices, 148
    - of workplace leaders, 175
  - Strong Interest® Inventory test, described, 145
  - Stubbe, J. H., 36
  - study skills, preparing for college, 212
  - substance abusers, trigger feelings associated with, 69
  - success, relationship to happiness, 35
  - supervisors
    - communicating with, 135–136
    - in emotionally intelligent workplace, 188
    - managing, 204–205
    - training, 21
    - in typical workplace, 187
  - surprise, body language associated with, 73
  - sympathy
    - versus empathy, 48, 96–97
    - example of, 96
    - expressing, 96–98
- T ●
- teams at work. See also workplace
    - being part of, 163
    - changing, 165
    - defining, 199–200
    - examples of, 199–200
    - expectations, 200
    - fitting in on, 163–164
    - helping teammates, 164
    - increasing emotional intelligence of, 201–202
    - members of, 162, 199
    - respect, 201
    - support, 201
    - trust, 201
  - teenagers. See also children
    - being flexible with, 257
    - dealing with, 257
    - discussing emotions with, 280–281
    - encouraging discovery of EI in, 283

- teenagers (continued)
- encouraging emotional intelligence in, 282–283
  - encouraging to read books, 281–282
  - gauging interpersonal skills of, 261
  - getting push back from, 279
  - having positive conversations with, 282–283
  - relating to, 283
  - social responsibility, 261–262
  - spending quality time with, 282
  - strengths and weaknesses associated with, 260
  - stress management techniques, 258–259
  - using self-regard with, 259–260
- tells, interpreting in poker, 71
- tense situations with strangers, using empathy in, 109–110
- tests. See also EQ tests; reality testing
- 360-degree assessments, 24–25, 74
  - applying to work, 153
  - aptitude or skills, 147
  - Career Assessment Inventory™, 145
  - CISS (Campbell™ Interest and Skill Survey), 145
  - cognitive intelligence, 146–147
  - EQ, 25
  - IQ (intelligence quotient), 146–147
  - of leaders, 180
  - Myers-Briggs Type Indicator® (MBTI®), 146
  - NEO-PI® (NEO Personality Inventory-Revised), 146
  - performance assessments, 24–25
  - personality, 146
  - SDS (Self-Directed Search), 145
  - self-report, 24–25
  - Strong Interest® Inventory, 145
  - vocational interest, 145
- TGIM (Thank God It's Monday), 151, 187
- third ear, listening with, 102
- thoughts
- associating with emotions, 36
  - expressing, 288–289
  - facilitation in MSCEIT test, 53
  - ignoring in mindfulness, 88
  - recording in notebook, 81–82
- time, managing, 198
- time out, declaring at work, 132
- Tinsdale, Hilary, 38
- tone of voice, significance of, 102
- toughness versus niceness, 17–18
- Trent University studies, 209
- trigger feelings, examining, 68. See also feelings
- Type A and B personalities, explained, 57
- U •
- U.K. (United Kingdom), emotional intelligence in, 143
- university. See college
- U.S. Air Force recruiters study, 160
- V •
- vacational interest tests, taking, 145
- values, knowing, 194–195
- verbal communication, using with difficult people, 299
- video games, exposure to violence in, 275
- vigilance, reading body language for, 100
- violent behavior, avoiding in children, 274–276
- vision of future, inspiring as leader, 172
- visualization, applying to presentations, 137
- voice, interpreting tone of, 102
- W •
- “walking in other person's moccasins,” 101, 290–291
- weaknesses
- identifying in work, 153
  - knowing, 289–290
  - versus strengths, 38

Web sites

- ASTD (American Society for Training and Development), 314
- CASEL (Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning), 314
- CHADD (Children and Adults with Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder), 294
- The Consortium for Research on Emotional Intelligence in Organizations, 315
- Emotional Intelligence Information, 312
- Human Capital Institute's Emotional Intelligence and Human Capital page, 314
- ICF (International Coach Federation), 182, 314
- ISPI (International Society for Performance Improvement), 315
- METT (Micro Expression Training Tool), 315
- MSCEIT test, 54
- Multi-Health Systems, 315
- Myers-Briggs Type Indicator® (MBTI®) test, 146
- The National Resource Center for The First-Year Experience (FYE) and Students in Transition, 315
- NEO-PI® (NEO Personality Inventory-Revised) test, 146
- SHRM (Society for Human Resource Management), 315
- social phobias, 271
- vocational interest tests, 145
- WIIFM (what's in it for me?) attitude, 28
- WIIFY (what's in it for you?) attitude, 28
- wisdom, perception of, 58
- Wolpe, Joseph, 84
- women, optimism of, 38
- Women's Health Initiative study, 38
- work. See also job equation
  - applying assertiveness to, 161–162
  - applying emotional intelligence to, 19–21, 143–144
  - applying empathy to, 160–161, 170
  - assessing strengths and weaknesses, 153
  - dealing with people at, 156
  - in emotionally intelligent workplace, 188
  - experiencing problems with, 191–192
  - finding satisfaction in, 144
  - influencing people at, 159–162
  - lacking resources for, 192
  - people-oriented, 154
  - in typical workplace, 186
- work life assessment
  - evaluating whether job feels right, 151
  - getting feel for job skills, 152–153
  - you are what you feel, 150–151
- work life, balancing with personal life, 174, 193–198
- work style, knowing, 156
- work teams
  - being part of, 163
  - changing, 165
  - defining, 199–200
  - examples of, 199–200
  - expectations, 200
  - fitting in on, 163–164
  - helping teammates, 164
  - increasing emotional intelligence of, 201–202
  - members of, 162, 199
  - respect, 201
  - support, 201
  - trust, 201
  - understanding dynamics of, 200–201
- work testing
  - aptitude or skills, 147
  - cognitive intelligence, 146–147
  - IQ (intelligence quotient), 146–147
  - personality, 146
  - vocational interest, 145
- work time, looking at, 195–197
- workers. See also co-workers
  - motivating, 21
  - observing boredom in, 186
  - study at Hawthorne Plant, 142
- working alone
  - communicating well with others, 158–159
  - demonstrating preference for, 157–158

working alone (continued)
improving practice of, 158–159 motivating self, 159

workplace
cataloging areas for improvement, 191–192
compensation, 186, 188
co-workers, 187–188
determining emotional intelligence of, 189–190, 192–193
developing friendships in, 20
diversity, 187–188
documenting strengths of, 190–191
emotional intelligence of, 187–189, 192–193
improving, 308–309
making more emotionally intelligent, 202–206
management, 187, 189
nature or work done in, 186 role of self in, 202–203
stress, 187–188
suggesting improvements in, 205–206
supervisors, 187–188

workplace feelings. See also feelings acknowledging, 130–131
attempting effective communication, 133
being aware of, 134 calming down, 132–133
catalysts for, 133
coping with fears, 136–137 demonstrating to co-workers, 133 effects of, 132
evaluating duration of, 131–132 gaining control over, 131–133
listing, 189–190
managing emotions of others, 140–141
monitoring, 138–140
pinpointing, 131
tackling hassles, 134–136

workplace leaders. See leaders

world, changing, 310

worry breaks, taking, 87

you versus I, 96
Youth in Motion, 309–310

