

---

Index

- Account analysis, 255–256
- Accounting (simple) rate of return (ARR), 296–297
  - advantages of, 297
  - disadvantages of, 297
- Activity accounting, 341
- Activity-based budget, 8
- Activity budget, 30
- Activity units, 332–333
- Actual costs vs. budget costs, 13, 15
- Adaytum Planning, 285
- Add-on budget, 7
- Administering the budget, 35–44
  - budget audit, 41–42
  - budget calendar, 42–44
  - budget manual, 38–40
  - budget sheet, 40–41
  - performance reports, 41, 42
  - types of reports, 35–38
    - advance reports, 37
    - periodic reports, 36
    - special studies, 37–38
- Administration plan, 29
- Administrative expenses, variances in, 150
- Advance reports, 37
- Advantages of budgets, 18–20
- Advertising, 174–180
- Airlines, and budgeting, 361
- Audit, budget, 16

- Behavioral equations, 273–274
- Bottom-up approach, 10–12

- Bracket budget, 8
- Break-even and contribution margin analysis, 45–61
  - applications, 50–52
  - contribution margin analysis and nonprofit organizations, 58–59
  - contribution margin income statement, 46–49
    - break-even analysis, 47–48
    - contribution margin, 46–47
    - determination of target income volume, 49
    - graphical approach in spreadsheet format, 48–49
  - CVP analysis with step-function costs, 59–60
  - impact of income taxes, 49–50
    - margin of safety, 50
  - questions answered, 45
  - sales mix analysis, 52–58
  - underlying assumptions, 60
- Break-even point, 45
- Budget, 23
  - accuracy, 31
  - audit, 41–42
  - balance sheet, 90–92
  - calendar, 42–44
  - committee, 9
  - coordination, 12
  - defined, 1
  - income statement, 89–90
  - manual, 38–40
  - meetings, 183

- Budget (cont.)
  - process, 30
  - sheet, 40–41
  - reports, 36
  - revision, 15, 33
  - segments, 12, 13
  - weaknesses, 15–16
  - worksheet, 37
- Budgetary checklist, 26
- Budgetary control and audit, 16, 17, 18
- Budgetary process, 9–12
  - bottom-up vs. top-down, 10–12
- Budgeting, introduction to, 1–20, 23–26
  - actual costs vs. budget costs, 13, 15
  - advantages and disadvantages of budgets, 18–20
  - budgetary control and audit, 16, 17, 18
  - budgetary process, 9–12
    - bottom-up vs. top-down, 10–12
  - budget coordination, 12
  - budget revision, 15
  - budget weaknesses, 15–16
  - computer applications, 16–17
  - defined, 1
  - departmental budgeting, 12–13, 14
  - motivation, 17–18
  - planning, 3–4
  - types of budgets, 4–8
    - activity-based budget, 8
    - add-on budget, 7
    - bracket budget, 8
    - capital expenditure budget, 6–7
    - cash budget, 5
    - continuous budget, 8
    - flexible (expense) budget, 6
    - incremental budget, 7
    - master budget, 5
    - operating and financial budgets, 5
    - program budget, 5
    - static (fixed) budget, 5–6
    - strategic budget, 8
    - stretch budget, 8
    - supplemental budget, 7
    - target budget, 8
- Budgeting and planning (B&P) software, 288–289
- Budgeting for service organizations, 359–365
  - airlines, 361
  - hotels, 361–365
- Budget Maestro v5.8, 285–286
- Capital budget, 210–215
  - authorization of, 204–206
  - forms, 207–209
  - revisions, 217
  - see also* Capital expenditures
- Capital budgeting, 291–329
  - accounting (simple) rate of return (ARR), 296–297
    - advantages of, 297
    - disadvantages of, 297
  - capital budgeting process, 314–315
  - comparison of methods, 312–314
  - discounted payback period, 300
  - factors to consider in determining capital expenditures, 293 and inflation, 316–317
  - internal rate of return, 308–312
    - advantages of, 308
    - disadvantages of, 309
    - five guidelines, 309
    - use of spreadsheet programs, 311–312
  - net present value, 300–305
  - nondiscretionary projects, 312
  - and nonprofit organizations, 318
  - payback period, 297–299
    - advantages of payback, 298
    - disadvantages of payback, 298
  - payback reciprocal 299
  - postaudit project review, 317–318
  - profitability index, 305–308
  - risk and uncertainty, 318–319
    - certainty equivalent, 322–323
    - correlation of cash flows over time, 325–326
    - decision tree, 324–325
    - normal distribution and NPV analysis, 326–329
    - risk-adjusted discount rate, 319–321
    - semivariance, 323
    - sensitivity analysis, 323–324
    - simulation, 323
    - standard deviation and coefficient of variation, 321–322

- types of capital budgeting decisions, 293
- Capital expenditure budget, 6–7
- Capital expenditures, 150, 201–225, 293
  - analysis of capital projects, 218
  - authorization of capital budget, 204–206
  - budget process, 202–204
  - budget revisions, 217
  - capital budget, 210–215
  - capital budget forms, 207–209
  - capital expenditure reports, 215–217, 218, 219–224
  - control over capital expenditures, 218, 225
  - factors to consider in determining, 293
  - special projects, 218
- Capital projects, analysis of, 218
- Cash budget, 5, 87–89, 260–261, 262, 263
- Cash budgeting and forecasting cash flow, 255–266
  - account analysis, 255–256
  - cash budget, 260–261, 262, 263
  - cash flow software, 262, 264–265
  - cash variance analysis, 261–262, 264
  - regression approach, 256–260
- Cash collections, 255–256
- Cash flow
  - correlation of, over time, 325–326
  - see also* Cash budgeting and forecasting cash flow
- Cash flow software, 262, 254–265
- Cash variance analysis, 261–262, 264
- Certainty equivalent, 322–323
- Chief executive officer (CEO), 24
- Coefficient of determination ( $R^2$ ), 248
- Coefficient of variation, 321–322
- Compaq, 74, 75
- Comprehensive budget, 77
- Comprehensive sales planning, 78–81
- Computer applications, 16–17
- Consumer surveys, 233
- Contingency budget, 8
- Contingency planning, 30
- Contingent proposals, 308
- Continuous budget, 8
- Contribution margin (CM), 47–47
  - CM ratio, 47
  - unit CM, 47
- Contribution margin income statement, 46–49, 347, 348
  - break-even analysis, 47–48
  - contribution margin, 46–47
  - determination of target income volume, 49
  - graphical approach in spreadsheet format, 48–49
- Control and analysis, 33
- Control reports, 35
- Correlation coefficient (r), 248
- Cost behavior, 95–104
  - analysis of mixed costs, 96
  - fixed budgets vs. flexible budgets and performance reports, 100–104
  - high-low method, 97–99
  - regression analysis, 99–100
  - types of costs, 95–96
    - fixed, 96
    - mixed (semivariable), 96
    - variable, 95
- Cost center, 344–346
- Cost control, 199
- Costs, actual vs. budget, 13, 15
- Cost variances, 111
- Cost-volume-profit (CVP) analysis, 45
- Credit manager, 68
- Decentralization
  - advantages of, 340
  - disadvantages of, 340
- Decision packages, 333–334
- Decision rules, 275–276
- Decision tree, 324–325
  - advantages of, 324
  - disadvantages of, 324
- Definitional equations, 273
- Dell Computer, 74, 75
- Delphi method, 232
- Departmental budgets, 25, 31
- Departmental budgeting, 12–13, 14
- Development plan, 30
- Direct labor, planning and control of, 164
- Direct labor budget, 84–85, 158
- Direct material budget, 83, 157–158
- Disadvantages of budgets, 18–20
- Discounted payback period, 300

- Discounting cash flow methods
  - compared, 312–314
- Distribution costs, 180–181, 182
  - analysis and evaluation of, 181, 183
  - control over, 183
- Divisional manager, 339–340
- Electronic spreadsheet, 93
- Employees, 199
- Ending finished goods inventory budget, 86
- Engineering manager, 67
- Entenmann's, 72, 74
- Entertainment, 183
- Excel, 264, 279
- Excel regression output, 252–253
- Executive opinions, 231–232
- Exponential smoothing, 238–244
  - computer and, 241–244
  - model, 239–241
- Factory overhead, planning and control, 164
- Factory overhead budget, 85, 158–159
- Financial budget, 5, 78
- Financial modeling, 267–278
  - budgeting and financial modeling, 268, 270
  - developing financial models, 271–278
    - definition of variables, 271–272
    - input parameter values, 272
    - model specification, 271–278
  - financial model, 267–268, 269
  - use of, in practice, 270–271
- Financial ratio calculations, 92
- Fixed (static) budgets, 5–6
  - vs. flexible budgets, 100–104
- Fixed costs, 96
- Fixed overhead variances, 121–122
- Flexible (expense) budget, 6
  - vs. fixed (static) budget, 100–104
- Forecaster software package, 286
- Forecasting, 3, 20
  - compared with sales planning, 78–79
- Forecasting and planning, 227–234
  - forecasting methods, 229–230
  - forecast users, 227–229
  - qualitative approach, 231–233
    - common features and assumptions, 233
    - consumer surveys, 233
    - Delphi method, 232
    - executive opinions, 231–232
    - sales force polling, 232–233
    - selection of forecasting method, 231
    - steps in forecasting process, 233–234
- Gantt, 9
- General and administrative costs, 197–199
  - analysis and evaluation, 198–199
  - budget process, 197–198
  - cost control, 199
  - employees, 199
- Goal congruence, 65
- Graphical approach, 48–49
- High-low method, 97–99
- Home Depot, 72
- Host Budget v3.2, 286–287
- Hotels, and budgeting, 361–365
- IBM, 74
- IKEA, 75, 76
- Income statement, projecting, 279–284
- Income taxes, impact of, 49–50
- Incremental budget, 7
- Inflation, capital budgeting and, 316–317
- Information reports, 36
- Input parameter values, 272
- Internal controls, 72
- Internal rate of return (IRR), 299, 308–312
  - advantages of, 308
  - disadvantages of, 309
  - five guidelines, 309
  - use of spreadsheet programs, 311–312
- Interrelationship of variances, 128–129
- Inventory purchases, merchandising firm, 83
- Investment center, 349–357
  - residual income, 354–357
    - advantages of, 356
    - disadvantages of, 356
  - return on investment (ROI), 351–354
    - advantages of, 352
    - disadvantages of, 352–353

- Labor variances, 117–120
- Lagged model structure, 276
- Least-squares method, 245–247
- Long-term plans, 27–28
- Long-term report, 35
- Lotus® 1-2-3, 264
- Lower-level management reports, 36

- Management by exception, 341
- Management information system (MIS), 71
- Manager's performance, 339–357
  - appraising manager performance, 339–340
    - advantages of decentralization, 340
    - disadvantages of decentralization, 340
    - importance of measuring performance of divisional manager, 340
  - cost center, 344–346
  - investment center, 349–357
  - profit center, 347–349
  - responsibility center, 341–344
  - revenue center, 344
- Manufacturing cost analysis, 32
- Manufacturing costs, 155–165
  - illustration, 155–159
    - direct labor budget, 158
    - direct material budget, 157–158
    - factory overhead budget, 158–159
    - production budget, 157
    - sales budget, 156
  - materials budgets, 159–161
    - budget based on production factors, 161
    - budgeting individual items of material, 160
  - materials purchase budget illustrated, 161–163
  - planning and control of direct labor, 164
  - planning and control of factory overhead, 164
  - planning and control of material purchases and usage, 159
- Margin of safety, 50

- Marketing, 167–184
  - advertising and sales promotion, 174–180
    - objective task method, 175–180
    - percentage of sales or profit, 175
    - unit sales method, 175
  - budget meetings, 183
  - distribution costs, 180–181, 182
    - analysis and evaluation of, 181, 183
    - control over, 183
  - marketing budgets, 168–169
  - packaging, 183
  - selling expenses, 169–174
  - travel and entertainment, 183
- Marketing department, appraisal of, 152
- Marketing manager, 66–67
- Marketing performance report, 146–149
- Master budget, 5, 77–93
  - budgeted balance sheet, 90–92
  - budgeted income statement, 89–90
  - cash budget, 87–89
  - comprehensive sales planning, 78–81
    - sales planning compared with forecasting, 78–79
    - testing the top line, 79–81
  - direct labor budget, 84–85
  - direct material budget, 83
  - ending finished goods inventory budget, 86
  - factory overhead budget, 85
  - financial ratio calculations, 92
  - inventory purchases, merchandising firm, 83
  - monthly cash collections from customers, 82
  - production budget, 82–83
  - sales budget, 81
  - selling and administrative expense budget, 86–87
    - using an electronic spreadsheet, 93
- Material and labor mix variances, 129
  - formulas, 129
- Materiality, 106
- Material purchases and usage, planning and control of, 159

- Materials budgets, 159–161
  - budget based on production factors, 161
  - budgeting individual items of materials, 160
- Materials purchase budget, 161–163
- Materials variances, 105, 111–116
- Minitab, 257
- Minitab regression output, 254
- Mix, 129
  - variances, 130
- Mix and yield variances, 129
  - formulas, 129
- Mix and yield variances for material and labor, 129–137
  - unfavorable mix variances, 130
  - unfavorable yield variances, 130
- Mixed costs, 96
  - analysis of, 96
- Model structure, 274–275
- Monthly cash collections from customers, 82
- Motivation, 17–18
- Moving average and smoothing
  - techniques, 235–244
  - naive models, 235–236
  - smoothing techniques, 237–244
    - advantages and disadvantages, 238
    - computer and exponential smoothing, 241–244
    - exponential smoothing, 238
    - model, 239–241
    - moving averages, 237–238
- Naive forecasting models, 235–236
- Net present value, 300–305
- Nondiscretionary projects, 312
- Nonfinancial managers, and profit planning, 66–68
- Nonmanufacturing activities, 144
- Nonprofit organizations
  - capital budgeting and, 318
  - and contribution margin analysis, 58–59
- Normal distribution and net present value analysis, 326–329
- Objective-task method, 175–180
- Olive Garden, 74
- Operating budget, 5, 77
- Operational plan, 29
- Overhead variances, 120–128
  - fixed, 121–122
  - variable, 120–121
  - variances for total overhead, 122–128
- Packaging, 183
- Payback, 297–299
  - advantages of, 298
  - disadvantages of, 298
- Payback period, 297–299
- Payback reciprocal, 299
- Percentage of sales or profit, 175
- Performance levels, 30
- Performance reports, 31, 37, 41, 42, 102–104
- Performance-to-budget report, 38
- Periodic reports, 36
- Personnel manager, 67, 69
- Planning, 21–23
  - budgets and, 3–4
- Planning variance, 109
- Postaudit project review, 317–318
- Prediction confidence interval, 249
- Preference decisions, 291
- Present value method, 300
- Production budget, 82–83, 157
- Production manager, 67, 69
- Profitability accounting, 341
- Profitability index, 305–308
  - contingent proposals, 308
- Profit center, 347–349
- Profit plan, 4, 29, 63–65
- Profit planning, 63–76
  - alternatives, 68–69
  - assumptions, 68
  - control, evaluation, and analysis, 71–72, 73
  - coordination, 70–71
  - goal congruence, 65
  - internal controls, 72
  - objectives in profit plan, 66
  - participation, 70
  - problems, 71
  - profit targets, 65–66
  - real-life illustrations, 72, 74–76
  - responsibility, 69–70
  - role of nonfinancial managers, 66–68
  - scheduling, 71

- subordinates, 70
- Profit variance analysis, 137–13
  - causes of profit variance, 137–138
- Program budget, 7, 336–337
- Program Evaluation and Review (PERT), 9
- Project budgets, 336–337
- Purchasing manager, 67, 69

- Quattro Pro, 264

- Ranking of proposals, 334–335
- Regression analysis, 99–100, 245–254, 256–260
  - least-squares method, 245–247
  - Minitab regression output, 254
  - regression statistics, 248–251
  - scattergraph construction, 247–248
  - using regression on Excel, 252–253
- Regression of Excel, 257
- Reports, 31–32
- Research and Development (R&D), 185–195
  - analysis and evaluation, 191–192, 193, 194
  - budget, 187–191
  - control over, 192
  - coordination, 191
  - costs, 186
  - funding level, 186–187
  - planning, 186
  - risk, 194
- Research director, 67
- Residual income, 354–357
  - advantages of, 356
  - disadvantages, 356
- Responsibility accounting, 341
  - advantages, 341
- Responsibility center, 341–344
- Return on investment (ROI), 351–354
  - advantages of, 352
  - disadvantages of, 352
- Revenue center, 344
- Risk-adjusted discount rate, 319–321
- Risk analysis, 318–319
  - certainty equivalent, 322–323
  - risk-adjusted discount rate, 319–321
  - standard deviation and coefficient of variation, 321–322
- Sales budget, 81, 156
- Sales division, 167
- Sales force polling, 232–233
- Sales manager, 68, 168
- Sales mix analysis, 52–58
  - for service organizations, 55–58
- Sales mix variance, 142–143
- Sales personnel performance, 146
- Salesperson variances, 147–149
- Sales promotion, 174–180
- Sales quantity variance, 142–143
- Sales variances, 109–110
- Scattergraph construction, 247–248
- Screening decisions, 291
- Selling and administrative expense budget, 86–87
- Selling expenses, 169–174
  - variances in, 145
- Semivariable costs, 95, 96
- Semivariance, 323
- Sensitivity analysis, 323–324
- Service manager, 67–68
- Service organizations. See Budgeting for service organizations
- Short-term planning reports, 35
- Short-term plans, 27
- Simulation, 323
- Smoothing techniques, 237–244
  - advantages and disadvantages, 238
  - exponential smoothing, 238
    - computer and, 241–244
    - model, 239–241
  - moving averages, 237–238
- Software packages, 279–290
  - budgeting software packages, 285–288
    - Adaytum Planning, 285
    - Budget Maestro, 285–286
    - Forecaster, 286
    - Host Budget, 286–287
    - SRC Systems, 287–288
  - new budgeting and planning (B&P) software, 288–289
  - spreadsheet program use, 279
    - projecting an income statement, 279–284
- Sources-of-revenue statement (SRS), 80
- Special projects, 218
- Special studies, 37–38
- Spreadsheet program, use of, 279

- SRC systems, 287–288
  - Budgeting, 287–288
  - Forecasting, 288
  - Sales Planning, 288
- Standard cost, 105
- Standard deviation, 321–322
- Standard error of the estimate ( $S_e$ ), 249
- Standard error of the regression
  - coefficient ( $S_b$ ), 250
- Standards, 105–107
  - advantages of, 107
  - setting, 108–109
  - types of, 108–109
- Staples, 72
- State Farm, 74
- Static (fixed) budget, 5–6
- Step-function costs, 59–60
- Strategic budget, 8
- Strategic planning and budgeting, 21–33
  - activity budget, 30
  - administering the plan, 29
  - budget accuracy, 31
  - budgeting, 23–24, 25, 26
  - budget process, 30
  - budget revision, 33
  - contingency planning, 30
  - control and analysis, 33
  - departmental budgets, 31
  - development plans, 30
  - long-term plans, 27–28
  - operational plan, 29
  - performance measures, 33
  - profit plan, 29
  - reports, 31–32
  - short-term plans, 27
  - strategic planning, 24, 26–27
  - time period, 28–29
- Stretch budget, 8
- Supplemental budget, 7
- Target budget, 8
- Target income volume, determination of, 49
- Target profit, 65–66
- Time period for plan, 28–29
- Top-down approach, 10–12
- Top line, testing, 79–81
- Transportation manager, 67
- Travel, 183
- t-statistic, 250
- Unit sales method, 175
- Upper management reports, 36
- Up Your Cash Flow XT, 262, 264, 279, 280
- Variable costs, 95
- Variable overhead variances, 120–121
- Variables, definition of, 271–272
- Variance analysis, 105–153
  - capital expenditures, 150
  - cost variances, 111
  - illustrative marketing performance report, 147–149
    - analyzing salesperson variances, 147–149
    - variances in warehousing costs, 149
  - illustrative report for service business, 144
  - interrelationship of variances, 128–129
  - labor variances, 117–120
  - material variances, 111–116
  - mix and yield variances for material and
    - formulas, 129
    - labor, 129–137
    - material and labor mix variances, 129
    - mix and yield variances, 129
    - probable causes of unfavorable mix variances, 130
    - probable causes of unfavorable yield variances, 130
  - nonmanufacturing activities, 144
  - overhead variances, 120–128
    - fixed, 121–122
    - variable, 120–121
    - variances for total overhead, 122–128
  - planning variance, 109
  - profit variance analysis, 137–143
    - causes of profit variances, 137–138
  - sales variances, 109–110
  - standard setting, 108–109
  - usefulness of, 107

- advantages of standards and variances, 107
- variance analysis reports, 150–152
  - appraisal of marketing departments, 152
- variances in administrative expenses, 150
- variances to evaluate marketing effort, 145–146
  - sales personnel performance, 146
  - variances in selling expenses, 145
- Warehousing costs, variances in, 149
- “What-if” analysis, 50
- “What if” questions, 292
- Yield, 129
  - variances, 133
- Zero-base budgeting (ZBB), 331–337
  - activity units, 332–333
  - decision packages, 333–334
  - effects, 332
  - process, 332
  - project (program) budgets, 336–337
  - ranking proposals, 334–335

