

Index

• A •

“About the Author” section, 65 administrative tasks, 12
Adobe eBook Reader format, 183
Adobe InDesign CS2, 123 advantages of self-publishing, 19–24 advertising consultant, 27
Advertising For Dummies (Dahl), 291 Amazon.com
    overview, 204
    promotional opportunities with, 208–209
American Booksellers Association (ABA), 218, 348
American Society of Journalists and Authors, 52
Angel Falls (Dick), 138, 139 appearance while promoting book, 282–284 appendixes, 64
artwork
    incorporating into page design, 119–121
    offset printing, 157
The Associated Press Guide to Punctuation
    (Basic Books), 47
The Associated Press Stylebook (Basic Books), 47 attention from traditional book publishing industry, difficulty in getting, 18 attention-grabbing titles, 133–134 audience catering to your, 29 content for, choosing appropriate, 51–52 incorrectly targeting your, 341 for manuscript, 49–52
    overview, 49
    targeting readers, 50
audio books, 330–332
author back cover, information and photo on, 143 editing by, 70–71 front cover, highlighting name and credentials on, 137 information in press release, 258–259

author acknowledgments, 62 author appearances and book signings, 285–287
author bio
    Barnes & Noble.com, submitting to, 205–206
    body in, 262–263
    heading in, 260, 262
    overview, 64, 260
    sample author bio, 261

• B •

*The Bachelor’s Guide To Life: Answers To Common and Not-So-Common Questions
Every Single Guy Often Asks* (Rich), 139–141, 145, 200, 256, 258
back cover author information and photo, 143
    barcode, 143–144
    BISAC Audience Code, 144
    BISAC Subject Code, 144
    description of book, 142 elements of, 142–144
    ISBN, 143–144 overall design, 145
    overview, 141
    page design, 113–114
    price, 143–144 publisher imprint information, 144 quotes, 144 reviews, 144
    white space, 145
Baker & Taylor, 214
barcode, 100–101, 143–144
Barnes & Noble.com
    application for listing with, 205 bibliographic information, submitting, 205–206
    cover image, submitting, 205–206
    overview, 204–205
    promotional opportunities with, 209

- Barnes & Noble Retail Bookstores, distribution through, 224
  - Basic Books
    - The Associated Press Guide to Punctuation*, 47
    - The Associated Press Stylebook*, 47
  - Bayan, Richard (Words That Sell, Revised and Fully Updated Edition), 134
  - bibliographic information. See author bio
  - billboard and outdoor advertising, 297
  - binding types in offset printing, 155–156
  - BISAC Audience Code, 101, 144
  - BISAC Subject Code, 101, 144
  - Blogging For Dummies* (Hill), 325
  - body language, 284–285
  - book clubs, 246
  - book displays, 310–311
  - Book Expo America, 222
  - Book Industry Study Group, 101
  - Book Marketing Update*, 346
  - Book Sense, 218
  - book signings and author appearances, 285–287
  - book tours, 287
  - Booklist*, 346
  - bookmarks, 306–307
  - books for writers, 345–346
  - book's spine, information on, 146
  - BooksInPrint Professional Web site, 347
  - bookstore chains used for distribution (traditional), 222–224
  - BookWire*, 347–348
  - Borders Group, distribution through, 224
  - Bowker Bar Code Service, 100
  - Bowker's Books In Print*, 99–100, 101–102
  - breaks, 41
  - budget
    - costs of establishing a publishing company, tracking and controlling, 89–93
    - for establishing a publishing company, 90–93
    - graphic designers, 128
    - hiring an editor, 74–75
    - local print shops, 187
    - media distribution of your press materials, 272–273
    - paid advertising, 293, 299–300
    - press kit folder, 254
    - Print-On-Demand (POD), 165–166, 173–175
    - publicists, 289
    - publicity photo, 264–266
  - business administration, expert advice on, 93–94
  - business plan, developing, 84
  - Business Plans For Dummies* (Tiffany & Peterson), 84
- C ●
- career, self-publishing as, 32–33
  - career-related goals, achieving, 22–23
  - cash payments, 232
  - Cataloging in Publication (CIP), 103
  - The Cell* (King), 137
  - cellular phones, 44
  - chapter title pages, 119
  - charts, 61
  - Chase's Calendar of Events*, 110
  - chat rooms used to mention your promotional Web site, 322
  - check payments, 232
  - The Chicago Manual of Style* (University of Chicago Press), 64, 345
  - clarity of titles, 132–133
  - color
    - front cover, 138
    - offset printing, 157
    - page design, 113
  - communicating your expectations to printer, 193
  - competition in traditional book publishing industry, 18
  - computer, 41–42
  - computer software, 87
  - concise listing with online bookseller, importance of, 203
  - conferences, 221–222
  - consultant, working as a, 337–338
  - contact information in press release, 257
  - content
    - ability to publish any type of, 20
    - audience, choosing appropriate content for, 51–52
  - control of your writing environment, 37–38
  - control over process, maintaining, 21
  - copyright page, 62

- copyrights
    - including copyright notice in your book, 104–105
    - manuscript, 67
    - overview, 104
    - registering your, 105
  - corporation, establishing a, 86
  - costs. See budget
  - cover coating, 155
  - cover design, implementing poor, 343
  - cover image, submitting, 205–206
  - cover price
    - demand, predicting, 107
    - discounted pricing, 108
    - mass-market audience, pricing for, 107
    - niche-oriented audience, pricing for, 107
    - overview, 106
    - perceived value, determining your book's, 108
    - publication costs, calculating, 106–107
    - sales tax reflected in, 110
    - setting, 106–110
    - shipping and handling reflected in, 110
    - total cost per book, determining, 109
    - wholesale pricing, 108
  - cover stock, 155
  - creativity and personality in work, injecting, 29–30
  - creativity enhancing tools, 45–47
  - credibility as benefit of establishing a publishing company, 82
  - credit-card companies, advice from, 93
  - criteria for self-publishing, 18–19
  - customized message in your press materials, 251–253
- D •
- Dahl, Gary (Advertising For Dummies), 291
  - Dames, Jamise L. (Momma's Baby Daddy's Maybe), 136, 316
  - DBA (doing business as), registering company name as a, 83
  - deadline worries, 40–41
  - description of book on back cover, 142
  - design of book
    - back cover, 145
    - front cover, 139–141
    - overview, 12
  - desktop publishing software, 121–124
  - detail, lack of attention to, 342
  - Dick, Oliver (Angel Falls), 138, 139
  - dictionary, 47
  - digital recorders, 45
  - direct mail used for distribution, 220–221
  - direct sales
    - to international market, 244–245
    - royalties, 175
  - disadvantages of self-publishing, 24–28
  - discounted pricing, 108
  - distractions
    - breaks, 41
    - deadline worries, 40–41
    - e-mail, 39
    - IM (instant messaging), 39
    - Internet surfing, 39
    - minimizing, 38–41
    - noise, 39–40
    - overview, 38
    - telephone calls, incoming, 40
    - time management, 40–41
    - unavailable resources, 39
    - uncomfortable work environment, 38
    - visitors, 40
    - workspace layout, impractical, 38–39
  - distribution
    - bookstore chains, 222–224
    - challenges of, 212–213
    - conferences, 221–222
    - direct mail, 220–221
    - of eBooks, 184–186
    - independent booksellers, 216–219
    - lack of comprehensive, 343
    - marketing plan for increasing, 26–27
    - mass-market retailers, 13, 222–224
    - online booksellers, 13
    - overview, 13–14
    - special interest groups, 221–222
    - specialty retailers, 219–220
    - trade associations, 221–222
    - wholesalers and distributors, 213–216
  - documenting sources in manuscript, 67
  - drafts, reviewing, 51
  - Drake, Susan M. (Freelancing For Dummies), 338
  - DVDs, 331, 332–333

• E •

- eating breaks, 41
- eBook publishing
  - Adobe eBook Reader format, 183
  - advantages of, 181
  - disadvantages of, 181–182
  - distribution, 184–186
  - formatting eBooks, 182–184
  - free downloads, distribution as, 186
  - Killer Mini Site, 186
  - Microsoft Reader eBook format, 183
  - online eBook sellers, selling through, 185
  - overview, 13, 179–180
  - Palm eBook Reader format, 183–184
  - pricing eBooks, 184
  - reading eBooks, 180
  - Web site marketing, 185–186
- eCommerce Web site for order taking and fulfillment, 230
- editing
  - by author, 70–71
  - hiring an editor, 73–78
  - lack of attention to, 342
  - logical sequence, making sure all information is provided in a, 72
  - overview, 11–12, 69–70
  - responsibilities of editor, 71–73
  - symbols, 73
  - terms, 73
  - Track Changes feature, 73
- editor
  - hiring, 73–78
  - overview, 27
  - responsibilities of, 71–73
- eFax, 43
- Elance, 52, 75, 348
- electronic press kit (EPK), 268
- elements in book, 62–65
- e-mail, 39
- environment for writing, 35–41
- establishing a publishing company
  - advantages of, 81–82
  - budget, formulating, 90–93
  - business administration, expert advice on, 93–94
  - business plan, developing, 84
  - corporation, 86
  - costs, tracking and controlling, 89–93
  - credibility as benefit of, 82
  - credit-card companies, advice from, 93
  - DBA (doing business as), registering company name as a, 83
  - expenses, listing your, 89–90
  - financing, 85
  - image, 83
  - Limited Liability Corporation (LLC), 86
  - loans, obtaining, 82
  - location, 82
  - logo, creating a, 83–84
  - name for company, 83
  - office, organizing your, 86–89
  - overview, 81–82
  - partnership, 85–86
  - professional trade associations, advice from, 94
  - S corporation, 86
  - Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE), advice from, 94
  - sole proprietorship, 85
  - steps for, 82–89
  - tax deductions, 82
  - trademark for company name and logo, obtaining, 84
  - Web site domain name, registering your name as, 83
- excerpts from your book as promotional materials, 310

• F •

- failure, reasons for, 33
- fair use, 66–67
- fax capability, 43
- fiction book, 53, 63
- final review of printed copies, 196
- financial investment in spin-off products/services, 328
- financing a publishing company, 85
- first serial rights, 246
- font
  - page design, 113, 114–116
  - sans serif font, 116
  - serif font, 116
  - title, 135–137
- foreword, 63, 66

formatting eBooks, 182–184
 outlines, 54–58
 page design, 116–119
 forums used to mention your promotional Web site, 322
 free downloads, distribution of eBooks as, 186 freelance professionals, 27–28, 33 Freelance Work Exchange, 75
 freelancing, 337–338
Freelancing For Dummies (Drake), 338 front cover
 author's name and credentials, highlighting, 137
 colors for, choosing, 138 design, implementing poor, 343 font for title, 135–137 graphic designer, working with, 146–148 images, using attractive, 137–138
 overall design, 139–141
 overview, 134–135
 text on, showcasing, 135–137 front matter, 113
 fulfillment. See order taking and fulfillment full-time job, self-publishing as, 32–33 furniture for writing environment, 38

• G •

galleys, reviewing, 75
 geography and audience, media categorized by, 252 ghostwriter, 27, 52 glossary, 64
 graphic design, 12
 graphic designers cost of hiring, 128 described, 27
 evaluating work of, 127
 finding, 126–128
 front cover work done with a, 146–148
 hiring, 125–129
 layout preferences, supplying your, 128–129
 overview, 125–126
 graphic elements, 60–62 graphic icons, 61 graphics, 61

graphs, 61
 Gropen Associates, Inc., 107 group of country identifier, 96
Guidelines for the Implementation of 13-Digit ISBNs (The International ISBN Agency), 97
 Guru.com, 348

• H •

hard work, willingness for, 28 hardcover books, offset printing for, 154–155
 Help Publish, 112
 Herman, Jeff (literary agent), 243
 Hiam, Alexander (Marketing For Dummies), 328 hidden costs in Print-On-Demand (POD), 174
 Hill, Brad (Blogging For Dummies), 325 hiring. See also hiring an editor an advertising agency, 301
 graphic designers, 125–129
 offset printers, 158–162 professional proofreaders, 195
 hiring an editor
 cost of, 74–75
 editing, 73–78
 finding experienced editors, 75–76
 galleys, reviewing, 75
 overview, 73
 technical editors, 76, 78 timeframe for editing, 73–74 when to hire an editor, 73–74

• I •

illustrator, 27
 IM (instant messaging), 39
 image when establishing a publishing company, 83 images for front cover, 137–138 inaccurate information, using, 342
 independent booksellers
 American Booksellers Association (ABA), 218
 Book Sense, 218
 contacting, 218–219

independent booksellers (continued)
 distribution (traditional), 216–219
 Independent Publishers Group (IPG), 219
 overview, 216
 PMA (Independent Book Publishers Association), 94, 213, 219, 349
 sell sheet, creating, 216–217
 index, 64–65
 industry-standard credit terms, 212 information about book and author, providing, 170–171
 Ingram Book Company, 214
 inserts, 158
 insurance, obtaining adequate, 89 international market, 244–245 International Standard Book Number.
   See ISBN
 Internet access, 42–43
 Internet surfing, 39
 interviews answers, practicing your, 278–279 media training for, 282 mistakes in, avoiding common, 280–281
   overview, 276–277
   permissions, 66
   PR message, focusing on your, 279–280 preparation for, 277 research, 60 sample interview questions, 277–278 sound bites, developing, 278 title of book, mentioning, 280 introduction, 63 inventory, managing your, 227
 IPG (Independent Publishers Group), 219
 ISBN
   back cover, 143–144
   check digit, 96
   group of country identifier, 96
   overview, 96–97
   prefix, new, 96 processing fees, 98–99
   publisher identifier, 96
   registering for, 97–100 13-digit format, 97
   title identifier, 96
ISBN-13 For Dummies (Wiley), 97
 iUniverse, 176–177

• J •

Jeff Herman Agency, 243

• K •

keyword marketing, 321
 Killer Mini Site, 186
 King, Stephen (The Cell), 137 knowledge about subject, 33
 Kranz, Jonathan (Writing Copy For Dummies), 221, 304

• L •

laser printer, 43 layout preferences, supplying your graphic designers with, 128–129
   Print-On-Demand (POD), 167 lead times and media distribution of your press materials, 273–274, 293–294 lecturing at colleges and universities, 335–336 length of titles, 132–133
 Library of Congress Control Number (LCCN), 103–104
 Library of Congress Copyright Office, 105 licensing arrangement with foreign publishers, 244
 Limited Liability Corporation (LLC), 86 listing with online bookseller concise listing, importance of, 203 creating, 200–203 elements to include in, 200–202
   overview, 200
   types of readers and Web surfers, listing that appeals to many, 202 literary agent, 24, 239
 loans, obtaining, 82
 local print shops
   cost of, 187
   overview, 186
   professional look, maintaining, 187–188 when to use, 186–187 location for establishing a publishing company, 82 logical sequence, making sure all information is provided in a, 72 logo, 83–84 long titles, 147

• M •

mail orders, 228–229
major publishers contacting, 238–241
deals with, 241–242
overview, 237–238
proposals for, creating, 240–241 rejection by, 242, 244 researching potential publishers, 239–240 using literary agent to contact, 239
manuscript audience for, 49–52 computers not used in creation of, 43 copyright issues, 67 creating a, 11 documenting sources in, 67 elements in book, 62–65
outline created for, 52–58 permissions, 65–67
plagiarism issues, 67 research for, 58–60 visual interest, 60–62
Manuscript Editing, 75 margins, 116–117
marketing campaign, improper planning of, 344 described, 15
failure due to poor, 33 plan for increasing distribution, 26–27 marketing consultant, 27
Marketing For Dummies (Hiam), 328 mass-market audience, pricing for, 107
mass-market retailers, 222–224 media directories, 270–272
media distribution of your press materials
cost of, 272–273
lead times, 273–274, 293–294 media directories, using, 270–272
overview, 268–269
targeted press list, 269–270
media kits, 299
media training for interviews, 282 merchant account for credit card payments, opening, 230–231 message boards used to mention your promotional Web site, 322

methods for research, 59
Microsoft Publisher 2003, 122
Microsoft Reader eBook format, 183 mistakes to avoid (common) audience, incorrectly targeting your, 341 cover design, implementing poor, 343
detail, lack of attention to, 342
distribution, a lack of comprehensive, 343 editing, lack of attention to, 342 in interviews, 280–281
inaccurate information, using, 342 marketing campaign, improper planning of, 344
money, inefficient use of, 342 online distribution, wasting potential of, 343–344
organization, lack of, 342 printing method, choosing the wrong, 343 publicity, improper planning of, 344 resources, inefficient use of, 342 timing, not paying attention to importance of, 344
title, using a poor, 343
writing, poor, 342
Momma's Baby Daddy's Maybe (Dames), 136, 316
money, inefficient use of, 342
Morris, Tee (Podcasting For Dummies), 325 movie theater advertising, 297–298

• N •

name for company you are establishing, 83 newspaper column, writing a, 337
niche-oriented audience, pricing for, 107
noise, 39–40 nonfiction book, 53, 63 notebooks, 45

• O •

office equipment
cellular phones, 44
computer, 41–42

- office equipment (continued)
    - fax capability, 43
    - Internet access, 42–43
    - overview, 41
    - printer, 43
    - telephone service, 44
    - Voice-Over-IP, 44
  - office organization
    - computer software, 87
    - insurance, obtaining adequate, 89
    - overview, 86–87
    - publishing trade magazines, subscribing to, 88–89
    - shipping companies, setting up accounts with, 88
    - supplies, 87–88
  - offset printers
    - choosing, 158–159
    - customer service, 159
    - hiring, 158–162
    - pricing considerations, 160–162
    - quotes from, reviewing, 161–162
    - working with, 162
  - offset printing
    - advantages of, 152
    - artwork, 157
    - binding types, 155–156
    - color used in interior design, 157
    - cover coating, 155
    - cover stock, 155
    - disadvantages of, 152
    - features of book, choosing, 153–158
    - finding offset printers, 152–153
    - hardcover books, 154–155
    - hiring offset printer, 158–162
    - inserts, 158
    - overview, 151–152
    - paper weight, 156–157
    - paperback (softcover) books, 154–155
    - trim size, 154
  - online advertising, 297
  - online booksellers
    - Amazon.com, 204
    - asking others to post reviews on, 207–208
    - Barnes & Noble.com, 204–206
    - described, 13
    - listing, creating an effective, 200–203
    - resources from, 208–209
    - reviewer, becoming a, 208
    - reviews, generating excellent, 207–208
    - submitting your listing to, 203–207
  - online chat, hosting, 326
  - online distribution, wasting potential of, 343–344
  - online eBooksellers, selling eBooks through, 185
  - online resources, 347–348
  - order taking and fulfillment
    - with eCommerce Web site, 230
    - mail orders, 228–229
    - options for, 228–230
    - overview, 225–228
    - paperwork for, 233–234
    - payments, accepting, 230–232
    - in person, taking orders, 228
    - toll-free phone numbers, 229
  - organization of book, 342
  - organizational skills, 30–31
  - outlines
    - details in, 55–58
    - fiction books, 53
    - formatting, 54–58
    - importance of, 53
    - nonfiction books, 53
    - overview, 52–53
    - polishing, 58
    - topics, ordering, 54
- p ●
- package, submitting, 215–216
  - page conversion, 124–125
  - page design
    - artwork, incorporating, 119–121
    - back matter, 113–114
    - for body of book, 114–121
    - chapter title pages, 119
    - color, 113
    - content, 113
    - fonts, 113, 114–116
    - formatting, 116–119
    - front matter, 113
    - margins, 116–117
    - overview, 112
    - page numbers, 118
    - running head, 117
    - target audience considerations, 112–114

- trim size, 113
- word processor, setting your type in a, 112
- page numbers, 118
- paid advertising
  - advantages of, 292
  - billboard and outdoor advertising, 297
  - cost of, 293, 299–300
  - creating your ad, 301–305
  - disadvantages of, 292–294
  - electronic media, 296–297
  - hiring an advertising agency, 301
  - long lead time of media outlets, 293–294
  - media kits, 299
  - movie theater advertising, 297–298
  - online advertising, 297
  - overview, 14, 292
  - planning a successful ad campaign, 300–306
  - potential readers matched to specific media outlets, 298
  - print media, 295–296
  - questions about book answered in advertisement, 302–303
  - reviewing your advertisement, 305
  - target audience, reaching your, 294–300
  - text and graphics, combining, 303–304
  - timing of your campaign, 305
  - tracking results of your advertisements, 305–306
  - urgency, generating a sense of, 302–303
- Palm eBook Reader format, 183–184
- paperback (softcover) books, offset printing, 154–155
- paperwork for order taking and fulfillment, 233–234
- partnership as option for establishing a publishing company, 85–86
- payments
  - accepting, 230–232
  - with cash, 232
  - with checks, 232
  - merchant account for credit card payments, opening, 230–231
  - overview, 230
- PayPal, payments with, 232
- PCIP (Publisher's Cataloging in Publication), 103
- PDF files, 124–125
- pens, 45
- perceived value, determining your book's, 108
- permissions
  - fair use, 66–67
  - foreword, 66
  - interviews, 66
  - manuscript, 65–67
  - overview, 65
  - photographs, 66
- personal digital assistant (PDA), 47
- personal planner, 47
- Peterson, Steven D. (Business Plans For Dummies), 84
- photographer, 27
- photographs
  - overview, 61–62
  - permissions, 66
  - stockphoto libraries, 61
- physical comfort, 37–38
- pitch letter, 266–267
- plagiarism issues, 67
- PMA (Independent Book Publishers Association), 94, 213, 219, 349
- POD. See Print-On-Demand (POD)
- podcast, producing a, 325
- Podcasting For Dummies* (Morris & Terra), 325
- postcards, 307–310
- PostScript PRN files, 125
- potential readers matched to specific media outlets, 298
- PR message focused on during your interviews, 279–280
- preface, 63
- prefix for ISBN, new, 96
- preparation for interviews, 277
- press materials
  - author bio, 260–263
  - customized message in your, 251–253
  - electronic media, 252–253
  - electronic press kit (EPK), 268
  - elements in press kit, 251
  - geography and audience, media categorized by, 252
  - media, distributing your press materials to the, 268–274
  - overview, 250
  - pitch letter, 266–267
  - press kit folder, 253–254
  - press kit, need for, 250–251

- press materials (continued)
  - press release, 254–260
  - print media, 252
  - publicity photo, 263–266
- press release
  - author information in, 258–259
  - body in, 258
  - contact information in, 257
  - dateline in, 257
  - ending in, 259
  - headline in, 255
  - lead paragraph in, 258
  - overview, 254–255
  - release date in, 257
  - sample press release, 256
  - tips for, 259–260
- price listed on back cover, 143–144
- print media
  - paid advertising, 295–296
  - press kit customized for, 252
- print publications, 346–347
- printing
  - communicating your expectations to
    - printer, 193
  - eBooks, 13
  - final review of printed copies, 196
  - method, choosing the wrong, 343
  - overview, 13, 190–191
  - proofing stage, 193–195
  - questions for printer, 191–192
  - terminology, 192
  - traditional printing, 13
- Print-On-Demand (POD)
  - advantages of, 164–166
  - companies to use for, 176–178
  - cost of, 165–166
  - design, 167
  - disadvantages of, 166–167
  - ease of, 165
  - financial considerations, 173–175
  - finding POD publisher, 171–175
  - hidden costs, 174
  - information about book and author,
    - providing, 170–171
  - iUniverse, 176–177
  - layout, 167
  - materials for layout and cover design,
    - providing, 169–170
  - overview, 13, 164
  - pricing your book, 174
  - process for, 167–171
  - researching companies, 171–173
  - returns, rejection of, 166
  - royalties, calculating, 174–175
  - speed of, 166
  - standard credit, lack of, 166–167
  - traditional offset printing compared, 164
  - Trafford, 177
  - versatility of, 166
  - Wheatmark, 178
- processing fees, 98–99
- productivity, 37–38
- promoting an event, 286
- promotion, failure due to poor, 33
- promotional materials
  - book displays, 310–311
  - bookmarks, 306–307
  - excerpts from your book as, 310
  - overview, 306
  - postcards, 307–310
- promotional opportunities
  - with Amazon.com, 208–209
  - with Barnes & Noble.com, 209
- promotional Web site
  - address, choosing easy-to-remember, 319
  - affiliate marketing, using, 321–322
  - author's blog, creating an, 323–325
  - chat rooms used to mention your, 322
  - creating, 317–318
  - displaying name of site in all promotional and marketing materials, 320
  - domain name, registering, 319
  - electronic newsletters, including, 323
  - elements of, 315–317
  - forums used to mention your, 322
  - keyword marketing, using, 321
  - message boards used to mention your, 322
  - online chat, hosting, 326
  - opt-in mailing list, including, 323
  - overview, 314
  - podcast, producing a, 325
  - professional Web site designer used to create, 318
  - search engines, registering with, 320
  - traffic, increasing, 319–322
  - turnkey solution used to create, 317
  - Web directories, registering with, 320

- writing reviews of other people's books where you mention your, 322
- proofing stage
checklist for, 193–195 hiring professional proofreaders, 195
overview, 193
- proposals for major publishers, creating, 240–241
- public relations appearance, 282–284 author appearances and book signings, 285–287
body language, 284–285
book reviews, generating, 285
interviews, 276–282
overview, 275–276
publicists, 287–289
- public relations consultant, 27
- public speaking opportunities lecturing at colleges and universities, 335–336
overview, 333
seminars, hosting your own, 335 speaker's bureau, working with a, 336 teaching through adult education programs, 334–335
tips for, 334
trade shows and conferences, speaking at, 336
- publication costs, calculating, 106–107
- publication date, selecting your, 110
- publicists
cost of, 289
duties of, 288 finding, 288–289
overview, 287–288
- publicity
described, 14
improper planning of, 344
press materials, 250–253
- publicity photo
cost of, 264–266
overview, 263–264
size of, 265
tips for, 264
- publisher identifier, 96
- publisher imprint information on back cover, 144
- Publisher's Cataloging in Publication (PCIP), 103
- Publisher's Weekly*, 75
- publishing company, establishing. See establishing a publishing company
- publishing trade magazines, subscribing to, 88–89
- Q •
- QuarkXPress, 123
- quotes on back cover, 144
- R •
- radio program, hosting, 337
- rates for shipping, 234–235
- reading eBooks, 180
- reasons for self-publishing, 17–19
- reference books, 47, 345–346
- reference materials and resources, master list of, 59
- registering for ISBN, 97–100
- registering your copyrights, 105
- rejection by major publishers, 242, 244
- release date, 110, 257
- repackaging your content in creative ways, 329–333
- research for manuscript interviews, 60
materials, 46–47 methods for, 59
overview, 58–60
reference materials and resources, master list of, 59
tips for, 59
- researching potential publishers, 239–240
- resources
American Booksellers Association (ABA), 348
Book Marketing Update, 346
Booklist, 346
books for writers, 345–346
BooksInPrint Professional Web site, 347
BookWire, 347–348
Chicago Manual of Style, 345
Elance, 348
Guru.com, 348

resources (continued)

- Independent Book Publishers Association (PMA), 94, 213, 219, 349
- inefficient use of, 342
- from online booksellers, 208–209
- online resources, 347–348
- print publications, 346–347
- professional associations, 348–349
- reference books, 345–346
- responsibilities of editor, 71–73
- retail booksellers, 175
- retail distribution, 13
- returns
  - Print-On-Demand (POD) rejection of, 166
  - traditional distribution accepting, 212
- reviewer, becoming a, 208
- reviewing
  - drafts, 51
  - your advertisement, 305
- reviews
  - on back cover, 144
  - generating, 285
  - generating excellent, 207–208
- Rich, Jason R. (The Bachelor's Guide To Life: Answers To Common and Not-So-Common Questions Every Single Guy Often Asks), 139–141, 145, 200, 256, 258, 261
- royalties
  - with author sales, 175
  - calculating, 174–175
  - with direct sales, 175
  - earning more, 23–24
  - with retail booksellers, 175
- running head, 117

• S •

- S corporation, 86
- sales representative, 27
- sales tax reflected in cover price, 110
- sales team used in traditional distribution, 212
- sales tool, title of book as, 133
- samples
  - author bio, 261
  - interview questions, 277–278
  - pitch letter, 267
  - press release, 256

- sans serif font, 116
- schedule, ability to set your own, 18
- search engines, registering your promotional Web site with, 320
- second serial rights, 246
- self-motivation, 31–32
- self-publishing
  - administrative tasks, 12
  - design of book, 12
  - distribution methods, 13–14
  - editing your work, 11–12
  - manuscript, creating a, 11
  - marketing, 15
  - overview, 10
  - paid advertising, 14
  - printing options, 13
  - publicity, 14
  - timeline of task for, 15–16
  - tools for, 10–11
- sell sheet, creating, 216–217
- seminars, hosting your own, 335
- serial rights, 245–246
- serif font, 116
- Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE), advice from, 94
- shipping
  - accounts setup with shipping companies, 88
  - cover price, reflected in, 110
  - major shipping companies, 235
  - process, 225–226
  - rates, 234–235
  - setting up your shipping department, 235–236
  - with United States Postal Service (USPS), 234–235
- sidebars, 60
- single title, 212
- skills needed for self-published authors, 28–32
- Small Publishers, Artists, and Writers Network (SPAWN), 94
- Small Publishers Association of North America (SPAN), 94
- sole proprietorship, 85
- sound bites for interviews, developing, 278
- speaker's bureau, working with a, 336
- special interest groups and distribution (traditional), 221–222

specialty retailers, 219–220
speed of Print-On-Demand (POD), 166 spin-off products/services
  audio books, 330–332
  choosing, 329
  consultant, working as a, 337–338
  DVDs, 331, 332–333
  financial investment in, 328
  freelancing, 337–338
  multimedia applications, 331, 333 newspaper column, writing a, 337
  overview, 328–329
  public speaking opportunities, 333–336
  radio program, hosting, 337
  repackaging your content in creative ways, 329–333 time investment in, 328 videos, 331, 332–333
standard credit, lack of, 166–167
stock photo libraries, 61
storing your books safely, 226–227 street date, 110 stretching breaks, 41 submitting your listing to online booksellers, 203–207 subsidiary rights, 245–246
subtitles, 147
supplies needed for office organization, 87–88 symbols used in editing, 73

• T •

table of contents, 62–63 tape recorders, 45 target audience advertising to your, 294–300
  page design, 112–114
targeted press list, 269–270
targeting readers, 50 tax deductions when establishing a publishing company, 82
teaching through adult education programs, 334–335
technical editors, 76, 78
telephone calls, incoming, 40
telephone service, 44
templates, 123–124 terminology for printing process, 192

terms used in editing, 73
Terra, Evo (Podcasting For Dummies), 325 text and graphics in paid advertising, combining, 303–304 text on front cover, showcasing, 135–137 thesaurus, 47
13-digit format for ISBN, 97
Tiffany, Paul (Business Plans For Dummies), 84 time commitment
  overview, 24–25
  spin-off products/services, 328
time management, 40–41
timeframe for bringing book to print, 21–22 for editing, 73–74 of tasks for self-publishing, 15–16 timing, not paying attention to importance of, 344
timing of your advertising campaign, 305 title identifier in ISBN, 96 titles attention-grabbing titles, 133–134 clarity of, 132–133 interviews, mentioning title of book during, 280
  length of, 132–133
  long titles, 147
  overview, 132
  as sales tool, 133
  subtitles, 147
  using a poor, 343 toll-free phone numbers used for order taking and fulfillment, 229 tools for self-publishing, 10–11 topics in outlines, ordering, 54
total cost per book, determining, 109
Track Changes feature, 73
tracking results of your advertisements, 305–306
trade associations, 221–222
trade shows and conferences, speaking at, 336 trademark for company name and logo, obtaining, 84 traditional book publishing industry attention from, difficulty in getting, 18 competition in, 18
  Print-On-Demand (POD) compared, 164

traditional printing, 13 traffic to promotional Web site, increasing, 319–322
 trim size
   offset printing, 154
   page design, 113
 turnkey solution used to create promotional Web site, 317

• U •

unavailable resources, 39
 uncomfortable work environment, 38
 United States Postal Service (USPS), 234–235

• V •

videos, 331, 332–333
 visitors while working, 40 visual interest added to manuscript, 60–62

• W •

Wal-Mart, distribution through, 223–224 warehousing inventory, managing your, 227
   overview, 225–226
   storing your books safely, 226–227
 Web directories, registering your promotional Web site with, 320

Web site designer, 27
 Web site domain name, registering your name as, 83
 Web site marketing for eBooks, 185–186
 Wenger, Susan (Wheatmark), 147 white space on back cover, 145
 wholesale pricing, 108
 wholesalers and distributors
   Baker & Taylor, 214
   distribution (traditional), 213–216
   Ingram Book Company, 214
   list of, 215
   overview, 213
   package, submitting, 215–216
   PMA (Independent Book Publishers Association), 213
 wire binding, 156 wire-O binding, 156
 word processor, setting your type in a, 112 Words That Sell, Revised and Fully Updated Edition (Bayan), 134 work environment, 38–41
 workspace layout, impractical, 38–39
The Writer Magazine, 75 writer's block, 33
Writer's Digest, 75 writer's toolbox, 41–47 Writing Copy For Dummies (Kranz), 221, 304
 writing, poor, 342 writing environment, 35–41