

INDEX

A

Administrative or program staff, for family foundations and donors, 169–170
Advisors: and big-picture questions, 221; compatibility assessment exercise for, 226; complaints about, 223–224; criteria for choosing, 221–223; and family foundation advice, 164, 165, 166; as good communicator, 223; and legacy planning, 221–225; paid professionals as, 171, 253–254, 265; philanthropic and legacy, 92, 156; types of, 220–221; underuse of, 221; for wealthy donors, 170, 253–254, 265. See also Financial advisors
Affinity groups, advantages of belonging to, 262
Age-wealth disparities, U.S. statistics on, 75*tab*
Amazon.com, nonprofit links with, 141
American Institute of Philanthropy, as donor information site, 91
Animal Health Foundation, 70
Annual financial summary, 203
Annual report, as source of agency information, 92, 93
Anonymity of donor, ways to ensure, 190, 204

Appreciated stock as gift, beneficial tax advantages of, 83
Ashoka (global association), social entrepreneurship in, 273
Asset-based options for giving, 260–261.
See also Giving from principal
Association of Small Foundations, 164, 172

B

Barlow, Harriet, philanthropy of, 37–38, 133
Beldon Fund, 256
Bequests: defined, 138; and charitable trusts, 138; giving through, 22, 23; for next generation heirs, 229–234
Better Business Bureau's Wise Giving Alliance, 91
Bishop, Orland, 272
Blumenstock, Josh, 145
Bolder Giving initiative, 78
Brainerd, Paul, 159
Brown, Lester, 282, 284
Buffet, Warren, 254
Butler, Frank and Ruth, 38

C

Cannon, Thomas, 24
Capacity investments, call for, 100

- Capacity-building philanthropy: and infrastructure strengthening activities, 275; interventions and impacts of, 277*tab*; overview of, 99*tab*
- Capitalism, philanthropy's contribution to success of, 79
- Carnegie, Andrew, 237
- Carrie Kilgore Scholarship at the College of Charleston, 28
- Cash gifts, beneficial tax advantages of, 83
- Change making, integrated aspects of, 58*fig3.1*
- Changemakers (foundation): and community-based philanthropy, 161; curriculum for donors, 195
- Chao, Lin, giving story of, 244
- Charitable annuities, 28
- Charitable estate planning, 217–220; benefits of, 217; and designation of charitable advisor after your death, 219; donor's role in, 218–219; and estate tax savings, 218; specificity in, 219; vehicles for, 217–218; workshops for, 219
- Charitable lead trusts: defined, 138; non-profit as beneficiary of, 218
- Charitable remainder trusts: defined, 138; and transfer of highly appreciated assets, 217–218
- Charity versus change philanthropy: characteristics of, 6*tab*; examples of, 7*tab*
- Chief Seattle, on giving, 211
- Choice in Giving, partnering with, 139
- Choosing where to give, 87–103; and alternative holiday giving, 101–102; exercises for, 89–90; gathering information for, 92–96; and giving abroad opportunities, 100–101; and international giving, 100–101; and online resources for, 90, 91; and philanthropic investment practices, 97–100; resources for, 88–92; risk and trust factors in, 102–103. See also Nonprofit group evaluation
- Civic responsibilities, donations for, 88
- Classified: How to Stop Hiding Your Privilege and Use It for Social Change* (Pittleman), 168
- Clinton, Bill, Global Initiative of, 20–21
- Collins, Chuck, 6, 7, 203
- Committee to Encourage Corporate Philanthropy, 177
- Communities of color: funding for businesses and farmers in, 28; giving traditions and institutions of, 6
- Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI), defined, 138
- Community foundations: defined, 138–139; as nexus for networking and community organizing, 162; traditional, creation of, 160; types of, 162
- Community-based philanthropy: defining values of, 161; democratic governance in, 139, 161; and establishment of public foundations for societal change, 160–161; evolution of, 160–162
- Community-based public foundations: democratic governance and distinctive practices of, 161; establishment of, 160–161
- Community-based workplace funds: employee contributions to, 147–148; member agencies or grantees of, 147; resources for, 148
- Consumption, and alternatives to holiday spending, 101–102
- Copen, Peter, 280
- Corporate foundations: and cause-related marketing, 139; community members on boards of, 272; defined, 139; and workplace giving option, 139
- Corporate philanthropy, 23*fig1.1*, 24, 176–181; alternatives to cash gifts in, 177;

- citizen reactions to, 177; contributions as percent of pretax profits, 176; and corporate engagement activities, 177–178; and creation of foundations/programs to address social needs, 178–181; defined, 176; new attention to corporate citizenship in, 177; re-sources for, 180, 181; steps to strengthen, 179
- Council of Michigan Foundations' K–12 curriculums for teachers and parents, 239
- Council on Foundations, and family foundation assistance, 164, 172
- Couple giving plan, sample of, 119
- Cousins, Norman, 278
- Craigslist Foundation, 158
- Creating Change Through Family Philanthropy: The Next Generation* (Goldberg, Pittleman, and Resource Generation), 168
- Crisis-healing philanthropy, 5
- Cubeta, Phil, 211, 217
- D
- Davern, Michael E., 82
- De Bary, Patricia Murrill, 73
- Dean, Julie, 246
- Deciding how much to give: and balance between personal wants/needs and the greater good, 77; and consumption versus giving, 79; and desire to give, 76; and determination of giving potential, 78–81; exercise for, 80–81, 85; experiment for wealthy donors on, 259–261; from family foundations or donor-advised funds, 81–82; lifestyle guides for, 77; and lifetime giving exercise, 85; and major giving practices, 76–77; and personal attitudes toward money, 74; and personal values and beliefs, 77–78; from principal, 82–84; stewardship and, 77
- Democratization of philanthropy: and community-based funds, 139; and creation of new forms for giving, 8
- Development staff, major donor meetings with, 189–190
- Dickinson, May, 29
- Donations to public charities, tax deductibility of, 83
- Donor circles, 138; creation of, 153; defined, 139; donor education in, 153; institutional affiliations of, 148; minimum donation to, 138
- Donor decision making, new strategies and structures for, 137
- Donor education: industry, expansion of, 262–263; for philanthropic estate planning, 219; sources of, 198
- Donor engagement with groups, 185–209; and communications with groups, 191–193; continuum of, 195, 196*fig10.3*; and donor anonymity, 190; and donor feedback, 193; effective communication in, 188–190; finding satisfactory level of, 194; and founder syndrome, 193; and interaction with senior staff, 189; levels of, 185–187; of major donors, 189–190, 191–192; and positive transition out of group, 192–193; questions to ask group, 188, 191; and setting boundaries for giving, 204; standard forms of communication in, 188; through written communication, 191
- Donor legacy statement: creation and purpose of, 172–173; formal approval of, 174; as guide to donor's wishes, 174; sample, 174–176
- Donor motivation, 132
- Donor networks: access to, 262; advantages of belonging to, 262; contacts

- for, 264; exemplary leadership of, 264; exploring giving options through, 91; global, 263; grantmaking of, 264; informal types of, 262–265; strategy sharing among, 264; types of gatherings in, 264–265
- Donor organizer, as mentor and advocate, 199
- Donor partnerships: examples of, 200; and next-level transition, 196*fig10.3*; skills and roles in, 198
- Donor priorities, development of, 132
- Donor-advised funds: aid for decision making on, 156; as alternative to private foundation, 153; benefits of, 154–157; defined, 139–140; estimated investments in, 154; legal requirements for, 81; minimum donation to, 138; potential challenges in, 155–157; reasons for establishing, 164; structure of, 138, 153–154
- Donors of color, motivations of, 134
- Durán, Lisa, 6
- E
- Elgin, Duane, 278
- Ellinger, Anne and Christopher, 81, 259
- Empowerment philanthropy: interventions and impacts of, 276*tab*; overview of, 98*tab*; push for, 100
- E-philanthropy, defined, 140
- Estate plan, integrated with giving and financial plan, 105–106
- Estate planning, benefits of, 220
- Executive director, major donor's communications with, 189–190, 191–192
- F
- Family foundation(s): boards, makeup of, 173–174, 272; community representatives in, 167, 272; and consultations with advisors, 164; decision making in, 167–170; defined, 163; and donor legacy statement, 172–176; donor-advised funds as alternative to, 140, 164; and family bonds, 163, 166; family member as professional administrator for, 171; and giving inequities, 165; and grant allocation decisions, 168; learning opportunities for, 172; minimum gift requirement for, 81; options for assistance in, 164–165; partnering in, 169; resources for, 165; rules for, 140, 165; sharing values and goals through, 166–167; and site visits, 172; staffing considerations, 169–170, 171; startup considerations for, 164–166; tax advantages of, 163; transfer of wealth in, 170; and truly meaningful giving, 81–82; younger generation's participation in, 167–168
- Family giving plan, samples of, 116–120
- Feinberg, Sarah, giving circle of, 151–152
- 50% League, 78, 256
- Financial advisers: and asset giving, 82, 83–84; and creation of financial giving plan, 105, 107
- Financial plan, integrated with giving and estate plan, 105–106
- Fisher, Patricia J., 82
- Flow Funding, 284
- For-profit corporations: defined, 140; examples of, 140
- For-profit business, as method of giving back, 28
- Frank, Anne, 267
- Frumkin, Peter, 194
- Funding Exchange, support for grassroots organizations, 160
- Funding networks, types of, 278
- Funding strategies. See Giving practices and strategies

Fundraising appeals, and outside solicitations, 208–209
Fundraising campaign, online posting sites for, 145
Future of Money: Creating New Wealth, Work, and a Wiser World, The (Lietaer), 283

G

Gage, John, 30
Garner, Joan, P., 6, 7, 203
Garvan, Greg, 28
Gates Foundation, Bill and Melinda, 254
Gaudiani, Claire, 25, 79
Gillette, Dana, 192
Giustina, Sylvia, philanthropy of, 36
Giving Book: A Young Person's Guide to Giving and Volunteering, The, 239
Giving circles: advantages and impact of, 149; defined, 139; common elements of, 149–150; emergence of, 148; examples of, 150–152; giving options in, 91; shared goals of, 149
Giving Family: Teaching Our Children to Help Others, The (Price), 239
Giving to one's greatest potential, trend toward, 108
Giving from principal, 107, 108; considerations for, 82–83; exercise for, 258; inspiration derived from, 83; involvement of financial adviser in, 82, 83–84
Giving intention worksheet, 122–123
Giving plan: couple, 119; family, sample of, 116–118, 120; as tool for greater impact, 132. See also Personal giving plan
Giving portfolio, constructing, 62
Giving practices and strategies: for effecting systemic change, 278–279; emphasizing personal talents and networking skills, 279; exercises to uncover patterns in, 47–50; for greater engagement with groups, 186–188; for promoting collaborative giving, 272–273

Giving USA 2005 (yearbook), 22
Giving and Volunteering in the United States (INDEPENDENT SECTOR), 24
Giving at Work 2003 (National Committee on Responsive Philanthropy), 147–148
Global communications change, impacts on philanthropy, 8
Global economy, wealth disparities in, 74–75
Global Fund for Women, 153
Global Greengrants, values and mission of, 70
Global Initiative, 20
Global sustainability, transformative collaboration model for, 283–285
Goldberg, Alison, 168, 251
Gonzales, Pilar, evolving philanthropy of, 133–134
Google Foundation, 158
Gottesman, Sally, 32–36
Government budget cuts, and social sector impacts, 25
Grants Management Associates, 174
Grassroots Fundraising Journal, 6
Gratitude: exercise for thinking about, 34–35; expressed through giving, 32–36
Greater Good: How Philanthropy Drives the American Economy and Can Save Capitalism (Gaudiani), 25, 79

H

Hawken, Paul, 268
Heifer Project, 102
Hewat, Tracy, 262
High-end donors, 253–266; average giving of, 78; failure to respond to requests,

- 265; formula for, 255; giving experiments for, 259–260; and giving from net worth, 255–258; and giving as percentage of wealth, 255; giving threshold relative to wealth of, 165; and meaning making through giving, 253; and million-dollar gifts campaign, 258–259; networking with other major donors, 261–265; and new level of consciousness about giving, 108; paid professional advisors and staff of, 170, 253–254, 265; as percentage of net worth, 255; pledges and endowments of, 22–23; rate of giving and ability to give more, 254; and the real cost of giving, 255–256; Web sites for, 145–146
- Higher-order system of funding, strategies for creating, 279
- Hong, James, 145
- Honored obligations, donations for, 88
- Hoof, Mila Visser't, giving circle of, 150–151
- Household giving: compared by income, 24; and religious notions of giving, 29
- Hundt, Reed, 163
- Hunt, Swanee, 258–259
- Hunting, John, giving plan of, 256–257
- I
- Identity-based donor groups/networks, donor grounding in, 197
- iEarn initiative, 280
- “Imagining a better world” exercise, 53–56
- Immigrant communities, giving traditions and institutions of, 6
- Impacts of giving, 21; tools and worksheets for evaluating, 60, 125–126
- Income inequality gap, and social responsibility of more affluent citizens, 25
- Income-based options for giving, 259–260
- Independent Charities of America, 148
- INDEPENDENT SECTOR, 24
- Independent sector: budget requirements of, 189; contributions to U.S. economy, 22; critical role and power of, 25–27; current investment practice in, 97; functions and missions of, 21–22; growth of, 275; impact of government budget cuts on, 25; innovation funding in, 26–27; intergenerational transfer of leadership in, 282
- Individual giving: and comparative perspectives on income, 74–76; and giving vision, 56; increasing importance of, 25; predominance of, 22, 23; and tangibility of impact, 97. See also Personal giving plan
- Inspired Legacies (organization), 78; donor assistance of, 256; legacy and philanthropic planning advice of, 220; Web site reports on transformative and worthy projects of, 284–285
- Inspired philanthropist: characteristics of, 199–200; checklist for, 201
- Inspired philanthropy: beliefs about, 11; model, 273, 274 fig 14.1; paradigm, 2 fig 1.1; in planning, 15
- Institute of Southern Studies, 28
- Intentions for giving, worksheet for clarifying, 122–123
- International giving: advantages of, 100; as emerging opportunity for private philanthropy, 100; and onsite intermediary organizations, 101; as percent of U.S. giving, 100; resources for, 101
- Internet and new media, uses of, 275
- Internet groups: and donor-recipient matchmaking, 278–279; key resources in, 279
- Investment income, as charitable contribution, 260
- IRAs, nonprofits as beneficiaries of, 83

J

- Jacobs Family Foundation, values and mission/vision of, 68–69
- Jamie Erickson Foundation, values and mission of, 71
- Jordon, Clarence, 38

K

- Karma Tube (organization), 285
- Karoff, H. Peter, 131
- Kent, Peter, 200–203
- King, Martin Luther, Jr., 87
- KINS method (Key Initiator Network Strategy), 283
- Koinonia, 38
- Korten, Fran, 279

L

- Lam, Mary, 38
- Lasker, Mary, 26
- Leave a Legacy program, 219
- Legacy & Innovation: A Guidebook for Families on Social Change Philanthropy* (Changemakers), 161–162
- Legacy partner, steps to becoming, 225, 227–228
- Legacy planning, 211–235; advisors' help with, 221–225, 233; beneficial impacts of, 212, 215; communications in, 223–224, 229–234; elements of prudent planning in, 215–216; exercises for, 34–35, 228, 230–231, 232, 233; formal presentation of, 234; inspired planning in, 29, 214, 215, 216–217; intergenerational aspects of, 212–213, 229–234; involving beneficiaries in, 215; making provisions for heirs in, 229; as moral responsibility, 213; questions to raise and questions advisor should ask, 221–222; review of legal situation in, 229; and trustee selection,

- 234–235. See also Charitable estate planning
- LensCrafters Foundation, Give the Gift of Sight program of, 180
- Leonard, Jennifer, 245
- Levels of philanthropic intervention, 98–99*tab*
- Leverage Alliance, 281
- Lew, Peter, 84
- Liebman, Becky, giving commitment and practice of, 257
- Lietaer, Bernard, 283
- Lifestyle guides, 77
- Living the Legacy: The Values of a Family's Philanthropy Across Generations* (journal), 172–173
- Loans to organizations, consideration of, 207–208
- Loh, Jessica, giving story of, 166–167
- Low-income donors, generosity of, 24

M

- Major donors: discontinuity of gift, 193; as volunteer, 207. See also High-end donors
- Major gifts: guide for giving, 201; of low-income donors, 24; planning worksheet for, 205–206
- Marie Stewart Foundation, values and mission of, 70
- Marin Independent Donors network, program topics covered in, 263
- McCarty, Oseola, giving story of, 24
- McDonough, Mark, 96
- McInnis, Palmer, giving projects of, 243–244
- Mead, Margaret, 36
- Methods of giving: asset- and income-based, 259–261; choices in, 169; donations as percent of income as, 78; exercises for thinking about, 142–144;

and giving as percentage of income, 259; of next generation donors, 168–169; and wealthy donors' pledges, 22–23. See also Giving from principle; International giving; Online giving

Million-dollar visioning exercise, 57

Minkin, Tracey, 8–10

Mission matches: examples of, 68–71; exercise for, 72; ways to find, 71–72

Mission statements: action steps and, 63; examples of, 66–68; exercise and guidelines for writing, 64, 65; as tool for mission matching, 68

Mogil, Christopher, 77

More Than Money (magazine), 77–78

Ms. Foundation for Women, 153; Gulf Coast disaster role of, 102–103

Multiyear giving plan, worksheet for, 121

N

National Alliance for Choice in Giving, 148

National Center for Family Philanthropy, 171

National Charities Information Bureau, 91

National Committee on Responsive Philanthropy, 147

National Network of Consultants to Grantmakers, 171

Natural Capital Institute, 268

Needs philanthropy: as current philanthropic practice, 97; interventions and impacts of, 276*tab*; overview of, 98*tab*

Net worth (U.S.), comparative, 82

New Tithing Group, 77; Wealth and Generosity by State (paper) of, 254

New Ventures in Philanthropy, 263

Newman, Paul, 177

Next-generation donors, 237–252; and community-informed decision making, 168–169; early learning programs for, 239–240; and giving cards, 242; giving discussion and suggestions of, 248–252; global and multicultural perspective of, 238; as grantmakers, 244–246; guidance for, 242, 281–282; inspiring stories of, 243–244; managing transition to, 170; mentoring exercise for, 243; and messages of caring to counteract consumer messages, 242; methods of giving, 168–169; and models for partnering, 169; and online giving, 242; participation in family philanthropy, 167–168; practices for engaging, 170; and programs to develop financially literate youth (FLY), 240; provisions for, 229–234, 235; questions and answers for, 246–248; resources for, 170, 238, 239–240, 246, 248, 251; and service learning, 238; transition to, 281–282; ways to encourage, 245; youth advisory committees (YACs) model for, 244–246

Nonprofit group(s): budget, donor review of, 203–204; change strategies of, 46; effectiveness evaluation and review of, 92–95; examples of, 27; importance of healthy transitions in, 193. See also Independent sector; specific group

Nonprofit venture forums: and funding for small social change organizations, 158; as model for showcasing nonprofit groups, 158; venture fairs of, 158–160

O

Omidyar Network, 158

One Percent Club (Minnesota), giving formula of, 255

Online giving: of next generation, 242; new opportunities for, 141–146; through nonprofit and for-profit Web sites, 141–146; and philanthropic dialogue, 146–147; plan for, 45

Oxfam, 101, 102

P

Packard, David and Lucile, 164

Partnering, models of, 169

Personal giving plan: alignment of practice and principles in, 51, 133; articulation of core values in, 39, 106; broader societal or cultural change goals in, 51; clarification of giving intent in, 122–123; database for nonprofit selection in, 107; development, 32, 105–135; as element of an integrated plan, 105–106; exercises and template for creating, 109, 110–114; financial advisor's help with, 105, 107; focus on results and evaluation in, 132; functions of, 106–107; and gifts of time or social connection, 42; goal of security through community in, 108–109; guide for, 13–14; and leveraging strategies, 108, 132; multipronged approach to, 96–97; and portfolio building for optimum balance, 97–100; review of activities and impacts, 125–131; samples of, 114–115; and timing of donations, 107; as tool for greater impact, 124. See also Choosing where to give; Deciding how much to give

Personal giving strategy: comprehensive, steps for building, 59–60; development of, 45–62; exercise for discerning patterns in, 48; for giving plan development, 132; ideas for effective change making in, 61; impact evaluation in, 61; and integrated change making, 58; review and reflections on recent giving in, 47–50; and social change research, 61; visioning exercises for developing, 53–57

Personal values, and behavior as givers, 39

Philanthropic and legacy advisors: and donor-advised funds, 156; nonprofit recommendations of, 92

Philanthropic practice: course of, 6–8; essential ingredients of, 31; and investment across levels, 97; learning curve in, 131–133; levels of intervention in, 96–97, 98–99*tab*; making choices in, 39; types of relationships in, 194, 195*fig10.2*. See also Independent sector; Nonprofit groups

Philanthropist(s): definition of, 31; motivations of, 132; role, learning levels and activities in, 131–133; stereotypes of, 32, 33; as volunteer, 39; vision and values exercises for, 40–42

Philanthropy: meaning of, 31; overarching goal of human security in, 108–109

Pittleman, Karen, 168

Plan B 2.0: Rescuing a Planet Under Stress and a Civilization in Trouble (Brown), 282, 284

Pledgebank Web site, 141

Pooled funds, 138, 139; defined, 140. See also specific type of fund

Portfolio of philanthropic investments, 97–100; donation of appreciation from, 260

Price, Susan, 239

Private foundations: community members on boards of, 272; defined, 140

Private monitoring groups, 91

Private philanthropy: critical roles and power of, 25–27; government partnering with and support for, 25

Property donation, 82, 107–108

Public figures as donors, 22–23

R

- Realized capital gains, as source of giving, 260
- Reasons for giving, 5–6
- Religious traditions of giving, 76–77
- Resource Generation, 168, 238, 246, 281; next generation conferences of, 172
- Rich, Adrienne, 31
- Risk and return, in philanthropic investment, 97
- Robin Hood Was Right: A Guide to Giving Your Money for Social Change* (Collins, Rogers, and Garner), 6–7*tab*, 203
- Rockwood Leadership Institute, 281
- Rogers, Pam, 6, 7, 203
- Rosenberg, Claude, 255

S

- Schervish, Paul, 219
- Second Life, as virtual world for philanthropy, 147
- Senior staff, donor interaction with, 189
- Setting giving boundaries: and giving anonymously, 204; giving plan as protection for, 208; and requests for loans to nonprofits, 207–208; and solicitation outside your giving sphere, 208–209
- Silber, Sarah, giving story of, 241–242
- Silicon Valley Community Foundation, Youth in Philanthropy committee of, 246
- Silvestre, Tesa, 96
- Site visits, 272; preparations for, 205–206; purpose of, 197, 202–204; value of, 172
- Skoll, Jeff, 158
- Slepian, Anne, 77
- Small organizations for minorities, funding for, 28
- Small social change organizations, and venture forums, 158

- Social change issues: foundation funding for, 279; innovative theory and case studies on, 61; and social and economic justice movements, 8. See also Transformational philanthropy
- Social entrepreneurial projects, and venture philanthropy, 158
- Social maintenance giving, 5
- Social services, declining government funding for, 25
- Social Venture Partners; and new donor advice, 281, 282; overview of, 159
- South Carolina Farming Association's Seeds of Hope project, 28
- Splendid Legacy: The Guide to Creating Your Family Foundation* (National Center for Family Philanthropy), 165–166
- Staff salaries and benefits, budget for, 189
- State giving and wealth, comparative, 254
- Stewardship, as basis for giving, 77
- Stewart, Wendy, giving strategy of, 242
- Stone, Tim, 255
- Stoneman Family Foundation, 174–176
- Stories of inspired givers: as expression of inner self, 37–38; first-person examples of, 8–10, 27–30, 32–38; and hands-on giving, 37; themes in, 38
- Strategic donors: description of, 197; key learning tools for, 197–198
- Strategic Giving: The Art and Science of Philanthropy* (Frumkin), 194
- Supporting foundation, as alternative to private foundation, 140
- Sustainability movement, international directory and networking tool for, 268
- Systemic philanthropy: interventions and impacts of, 277*tab*; overview of, 99*tab*. See also Transformative philanthropy

T

- Tax deductions: donation of, 260; for volunteering, 83
- Tax report, as source of agency information, 92
- 10over100.org (donor pledge site), 145
- Theory of change: defined, 51; exercise for developing, 52
- Tipping Point Network initiative: personalized giving in, 284; sustainable world project of, 283–284
- Tithing, contemporary view of, 77
- Traditional philanthropy model, 5
- Trageser, Miven Booth, 10
- Transformational philanthropy, 267–288; components in shaping of, 280–281; and democratization of philanthropy, 272; descriptions of, 280; and global sustainability movement, 268; and movement from charity to change, 270–275; new forms of collaboration in, 278–279; partnerships in, 268, 273; properties of, 279–281; questions to consider, 269–270; role of Internet and new technologies in, 269; societal change agenda of, 5–6; transpartisan-ship in, 268
- Transformational projects, sampling of, 285–286
- Triskeles Foundation, The, 241
- Trusted people networks, systemic change projects in, 278
- Trusts, defined, 36. See also Charitable lead trusts; Charitable remainder trusts
- Twenty-First Century Foundation, Gulf Coast disaster role of, 102–103

U

- U.N. Millennium Goals, 100–101
- United Way, 139, 147

V

- Vanguard Public Foundation, 271
- Vehicles for giving: cause-related marketing agreements as, 139; common forms of, 138–141; community-based workplace funds as, 147–148; corporate foundations/programs to address social needs as, 178–181; estate plans as, 217–218; Internet-based, 275, 278–279; property donation as, 82, 107–108. See also Family foundations; specific vehicle
- Venture philanthropy: characteristics and models of, 157–158; defined, 141; learning opportunities for, 159; and nonprofit infrastructure needs, 158; pooling of donations in, 138. See also Nonprofit venture forums
- Villa Franca, Graciella, giving project of, 243
- Volunteering: information gathering through, 96; as opportunity to learn, 271–272; tax deductible expenses in, 83; Web sites for, 146

W

- Washington Regional Association of Grantmakers, 180
- Ways to give. See Methods of giving; Vehicles for giving
- Wealth disparities, global perspective on, 74–75
- Wealthiest Americans, comparative wealth of, 82. See also High-end donors
- Wealthy and Wise: How You and America Can Get the Most Out of Your Giving* (Rosenberg), 255
- Weber, Marion, 284
- Wills: as blueprint for yearly giving plan, 10; charitable provisions in, 212
- Windfall income, donation of, 260
- WiserEarth directory, 268–269

Wolf, Edward N., 82
Women donors, and transformational philanthropy, 100
Women Donors Network, 281; members and activities of, 263–264
Women Moving Millions: Women Making History campaign, 258–259
Women’s Fund of Greater Milwaukee, values and mission of, 69
Women’s Funding Network, 259
Women’s global funds, methodology of, 273

Workplace giving, 139, 147. See also Community-based workplace funds

Y

YES! organization, 238; guidance for transformative donors in, 281; Leveraging Privilege for Social Change program of, 170
Youth Giving Circles, curriculum of, 242
Youth on Board, 246
YouthGive, 242, 240