

Contents at a Glance

Introduction	1
Part I: The Nitty-Gritty of U.S. Military History	7
Chapter 1: Why This Stuff Is Important	9
Chapter 2: Why America Goes to War and Who We Fight	17
Chapter 3: Meeting the Players	29
Chapter 4: Lining Up the Armed Services	41
Chapter 5: The Changing Experience of Warfare	53
Part II: Born in War	65
Chapter 6: When the English Were Our Friends: Battling the Indians and the French	67
Chapter 7: So You Want to Start a Revolution: The War for Independence	79
Chapter 8: War and Peace: Battling Indians, Old Friends, Tax Delinquents, and Pirates	97
Chapter 9: We Have Met the Enemy: The War of 1812	107
Part III: Forged in War	121
Chapter 10: To the Halls of Montezuma: Fighting Mexico	123
Chapter 11: The Civil War	137
Chapter 12: The “Indian Wars”: The Army Secures the Frontier	159
Chapter 13: “Remember the Maine!” Fighting Spain and the Filipinos	171
Part IV Going Global: The World Wars	185
Chapter 14: Over There: The First World War	187
Chapter 15: The Looming Crisis: World War II before American Involvement	205
Chapter 16: The Greatest War: World War II	221
Part V: Bearing Any Burden: The Cold War and the Unpaid Peace Dividend	243
Chapter 17: Toying with Nuclear Armageddon: The Cold War Years	245
Chapter 18: Hot War in Asia: The Korean War	261
Chapter 19: The Very Long War: Vietnam	277
Chapter 20: A War with Allies: The Persian Gulf War	297
Chapter 21: The Long War Ahead: Terrorism, Afghanistan, and Iraq	313

Part VI: The Part of Tens	329
Chapter 22: The Ten Best Generals in U.S. Military History	331
Chapter 23: The Ten Worst Generals in U.S. Military History	337
Chapter 24: The Ten Best Movies on U.S. Military History	343
Index	349

Table of Contents

.....

Introduction	1
About This Book.....	2
Conventions Used in This Book	2
What Not to Read.....	3
Foolish Assumptions	3
How This Book Is Organized.....	3
Part I: The Nitty-Gritty of U.S. Military History	4
Part II: Born in War	4
Part III: Forged in War	4
Part IV: Going Global: The World Wars	4
Part V: Bearing Any Burden: The Cold War and the Unpaid Peace Dividend.....	5
Part VI: The Part of Tens	5
Icons Used in This Book.....	5
Where to Go from Here.....	6

Part I: The Nitty-Gritty of U.S. Military History 7

Chapter 1: Why This Stuff Is Important 9

Shaping a Country through War.....	10
Reaping the sociological and political rewards of war.....	10
Reaping the innovations of war	11
Seeing the Value of Understanding the Past.....	13
Listening to American Military Historians Tell the Story	14
Reporting tomorrow's history today	14
Working the military history beat	14

Chapter 2: Why America Goes to War and Who We Fight 17

Why Do We Fight?	17
When words fail: Politics	18
Economics: The root of all evil	19
Territory: Really major land grabs	20
The thinking person's reason: Ideology	22
Who Do We Fight?	24
Continental enemies: Battling on our turf.....	24
Overseas enemies: Fighting on foreign soil	26
Ideological enemies: Standing up for what we believe.....	26

Chapter 3: Meeting the Players 29

Leading the Charge 29
 Keeping tabs on the generals: Politicians 30
 Setting policies for the forces: Generals 30
Doing the Grunt Work 32
 Who are these people called soldiers? 32
 Ranking the soldiers 35
 Supporting the front line 36
 Fighting on the front line 36
Living on the Home Front 37
 Politicking in the homeland 38
 Keeping the home fires burning 39

Chapter 4: Lining Up the Armed Services 41

The Army 42
 You're in the Army now 42
 Armies within the Army 43
The Navy 44
 Important roles through history 44
 The big Navy 45
 Navy SEALs: Elite units 45
The Marine Corps 46
 What it takes to be a Marine 46
 From obscurity to prestige 47
The Coast Guard 49
The Air Force 49
 High-flying airmen and aces 50
 Air Force outfits (No, not their shirts and shoes) 50
 A formidable opponent through history 51

Chapter 5: The Changing Experience of Warfare 53

Shifting Battlefields 54
 The changing landscape of war 54
 Fighting on the water 55
 Covering from the air 56
Evolving Ever Deadlier Weaponry 56
 Guns on the ground 57
 Weaponry at sea 59
 Flying into war 60
Improving Combat Medical Care 61
Why American Soldiers Endure Combat 62
 Love of country 62
 Love of comrades 62
 Hatred for the enemy 63
 Peer pressure 63

Part II: Born in War65Chapter 6: When the English Were Our Friends:*Battling the Indians and the French67

The First Fur Flies, 1754–1757	68
Washington surrenders	68
Braddock’s traditional tactics fail	70
Montcalm marches on	70
The Brits Regroup, 1758–1763	72
Going on the offensive	73
The French surrender	75
What the War Meant to Americans	76
Security and growing independence.....	77
Expansion beyond the Appalachians	77
Unwelcome supervision from London.....	77

Chapter 7: So You Want to Start a Revolution:The War for Independence79

Taxing Independence to Pay War Debt.....	80
The Sugar Act goes sour.....	80
The Stamp Act of 1765 gets licked	81
The Townshend Duties incite a tea party	81
The Coercive Acts are intolerable.....	82
Fighting for Freedom from Taxation	82
Spilling blood at Lexington and Concord	83
Declaring independence: Enough is enough.....	84
From Bunker Hill to Saratoga, 1775–1777.....	85
Bunker Hill: Who really won?.....	86
New York: A Continental rout	87
Trenton and Princeton: Jersey goes to Washington	87
Philadelphia and Saratoga: A devastating loss, a resounding victory	89
Refocusing on the South, 1778–1783	89
Yorktown: Cornwallis gets queasy	90
Muddling to the end.....	91
The People of the Revolution	91
Patriots from all walks of life	92
Loyalists (or Tories) kept the faith	92
Women backed boycotts, patriot ideals.....	93
African Americans fought on both sides.....	94
What Did It All Mean? How Historians View the Revolution	94
Covered in glory — the first historians	95
It was all about economics — the determinists	95
The Revolution was conservative — the Neo-Whigs.....	96
No, it was radical and ideological — the debate today.....	96

Chapter 8: War and Peace: Battling Indians, Old Friends, Tax Delinquents, and Pirates	.97
New Americans versus Native Americans	98
Rising tension with Indian tribes	99
Little battles with big consequences	99
New Americans versus the Government	100
Shays says nay to taxes	100
The Whiskey Rebellion	102
New Americans versus French “Friends”	103
Pirates of the Mediterranean	104
Pirate pasha demands payment	105
Jefferson sends in a coalition navy	106
An intriguing victory in Tripoli	106
Chapter 9: We Have Met the Enemy: The War of 1812	.107
Overture to the War of 1812	108
Britain or France — pick a side!	108
Don’t try to impress us: Problems at sea	109
Passing useless laws to punish Britain	110
Madison declares war	110
The Main Movement: The Battles	111
The American offensive, 1812–1813	112
The British counteroffensive, 1814–1815	115
The Finale: The Treaty of Ghent	119
Part III: Forged in War	121
Chapter 10: To the Halls of Montezuma: Fighting Mexico	.123
Clashing Over Expansion	124
The Republic of Texas emerges	124
Polk’s plan to expand	125
Annexing Texas and flirting with war	125
Trying diplomacy, then baiting for war	126
Favoring the eventual loser	126
Gen. Zachary Taylor’s Campaign	127
Battles at Palo Alto and Resaca de la Palma	128
The siege of Fort Brown	128
Invading northern Mexico	129
Seizing the Southwest	131
Invading New Mexico	131
Bearing down on California	131
Gen. Winfield Scott’s Incredible Campaign	132
Invading at Veracruz	133
Battling at Cerro Gordo	134
On to Mexico City	135

The End of the War	135
The Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo.....	135
The war's legacies	136
Chapter 11: The Civil War	137
Deepening Roots of Conflict	138
Arguing over the fruits of the Mexican-American War	138
Testing popular sovereignty	139
Visiting Uncle Tom's Cabin.....	140
Raiding Harper's Ferry.....	140
Electing Abraham Lincoln	140
The Most Important Battles, 1861–1862.....	141
The Battle of Bull Run.....	142
Invading the York peninsula.....	144
Another battle at Bull Run.....	145
Surprise at Shiloh	145
Bloodshed at Antietam	146
A Violent Year, 1863.....	149
Fighting the war at sea.....	149
Lee's great win at Chancellorsville.....	149
Crushing Lee at Gettysburg.....	150
A surrender at Vicksburg	151
Finishing the War, 1864–1865.....	152
Bleeding in the East.....	152
Ravaging the South	153
The end at Appomattox.....	153
Experiencing the Civilian Side of the Civil War	154
Diverging economies.....	154
Resisting the draft	155
Rousing political rabble.....	156
Dancing around the race issue	156
What Did It All Mean?	157
Chapter 12: The "Indian Wars": The Army Secures the Frontier . . .	159
Clashing Cultures	160
Native American Tribes of the West	162
The Sioux.....	162
The Nez Perce	162
The Apaches	162
Expanding Relentlessly Westward	163
Developing reservations.....	164
Maintaining security	165
Policing with Warfare.....	165
Paying a stiff price for impulsiveness: Little Bighorn, 1876.....	166
The Battle of Big Hole, 1877	168
The end at Wounded Knee, 1890	169

Chapter 13: “Remember the Maine!” Fighting Spain and the Filipinos	171
Pressing for War	172
Quarreling over Cuba	172
Firing up public opinion	172
Sinking the Maine	173
Declaring war	173
The Caribbean Campaign	174
Invading Cuba	174
Hickory, dickory, landing at Daiquiri	175
Taking the hills of Santiago	176
Checkmate at Santiago	178
Grabbing Puerto Rico	179
The Philippines	179
Smashing the Spanish fleet	180
Getting rid of the Spanish	180
Ending the war and making a fateful decision	180
The Philippine-American War	181
The conventional war in 1899	181
The insurgency	182
Widening the war and provoking opposition at home	183
The fighting dies down	183
Really serious consequences	184

Part IV: Going Global: The World Wars 185

Chapter 14: Over There: The First World War	187
My Alliance Can Beat Up Your Alliance	188
The reasons for war	189
The strategies for war	189
The exploits of war	190
Reacting to German Sea Tactics, the U.S. Declares War	192
Fighting to support our allies	193
Fighting for free trade	193
Fighting for democracy and a better life	194
Fighting against tyranny	194
Wilson sums up America’s goals for the war	194
Preparing the Home Front for War	195
Drafting men for war	195
Expanding the federal government	196
Gaining from the war	196
Hiring women to do “man’s work”	197
Setting aside differences	197
Opposing the war	198

Joining the Fray in Phases199
 Clearing the seas of German submarines199
 Increasing the American presence in Europe199
 Engaging the enemy on the ground200
 The Imperfect Armistice203

Chapter 15: The Looming Crisis: World War II before American Involvement205

Reacting to Unrest, Fascism Emerges.....206
 Mussolini rises to power207
 Hitler slithers up the career ladder207
 Itching for War, Germany Rearms and Expands.....208
 The infamous Munich Agreement209
 The Nazi-Soviet Pact210
 Bringing the Axis to Bear, War Breaks Out.....210
 Overrunning Poland211
 The German conquest of Europe.....212
 Hitler invades the Soviet Union213
 Fighting an undeclared war in the Atlantic215
 Brewing Trouble in Asia and the Pacific216
 Japan starts its own war by invading China217
 The U.S. drifts steadily toward war218
 Failed negotiations219

Chapter 16: The Greatest War: World War II221

Bringing the War Home: Pearl Harbor222
 Early Battles in the Pacific223
 The Philippines223
 Coral Sea and Midway.....225
 New Guinea227
 Guadalcanal.....227
 Turning Attention to Europe.....228
 The Atlantic lifeline229
 Hitler’s misstep in Stalingrad229
 Invading North Africa230
 Taking Control of the War in Europe, 1943–1944231
 Invading “the soft underbelly”: Sicily and Italy232
 A great moment in history: The D-Day invasion at Normandy.....234
 Liberating France234
 Gambling in Holland.....235
 Kaput! The End for Hitler and His Cronies.....235
 The Battle of the Bulge236
 Invading Germany236
 Island Hopping in the Pacific237
 Invading the Marianas237
 Returning to the Philippines238

A Horrible Climax: The Close of the War.....	239
Destruction from above and at sea.....	239
The atomic end of the war.....	240
Life on the Home Front.....	240
Mobilizing for war.....	241
Changing the face of society.....	241

Part V: Bearing Any Burden: The Cold War and the Unpaid Peace Dividend.....243

Chapter 17: Toying with Nuclear Armageddon: The Cold War Years245

Igniting the Cold War: The 1940s.....	246
Trying tough love with the Soviets.....	246
Keeping the dominoes from falling in Greece.....	248
Marshalling a new plan to help Europe rebuild.....	249
Flying aid to locked-in West Berlin.....	250
Facing off with opposing alliances.....	250
Expanding the Cold War Globally: The 1950s and 1960s.....	252
Taking a “New Look” with Ike.....	252
Filling the SAC with nukes.....	253
Going to the brink: The Cuban Missile Crisis.....	253
Calming the Cold War with Détente: The 1970s.....	254
Globetrotting with Nixon.....	255
Limiting nukes with SALT.....	256
Invading Afghanistan deflates détente.....	256
Watching Communism Crumble: The 1980s and 1990s.....	257
Rebuilding the military — a martial renaissance.....	257
Hostile armies in Europe.....	258
Fighting proxy wars.....	258
Ending the Cold War.....	259

Chapter 18: Hot War in Asia: The Korean War261

Conspiring for Conquest in Korea.....	262
Contrasting Koreas.....	262
Slicing into the South.....	263
Getting U.S. and UN Political Ducks in a Row.....	264
Stemming the tide of Communism.....	264
Calling on the UN.....	265
Implementing NSC-68.....	265
Clashing with the Titans.....	266
Holding the Pusan Perimeter.....	266
Calling on MacArthur.....	267
Invading at Inchon.....	267
Crossing the line: The 38th parallel.....	268
Thinking wrong about China.....	268
Changing the face of the war.....	270

Gaining and losing ground	270
Replacing a rebellious MacArthur	271
Stalemate and Armistice	272
Enduring on the main line of resistance	272
Ending the war: Eisenhower finishes what Truman began	273
Lasting Legacies and Entrenched Contrasts	274

Chapter 19: The Very Long War: Vietnam 277

Conflicting Agendas Churn into War	278
Growing nationalism lifts Ho Chi Minh	278
Annoying the French and drawing in the U.S.	279
Dividing Vietnam	280
Creating the Viet Cong insurgency	281
South Vietnam's army falters	282
Torpedoing the U.S. in the Tonkin Gulf	283
Raising U.S. Stakes through Escalation	284
Bombing backfires	284
Using attrition as a tactic	285
Growing opposition at home	286
Contrasting experiences for grunts	288
Kicking off the new year with the Tet Offensive of 1968	289
Losing politically after winning militarily	290
Winding down the war	291
Floundering at the peace talks	292
Reinventing a strategy to secure South Vietnam	293
Stepping over the line into Cambodia	293
Ending with a bitter aftertaste	294
Viewing the Vietnam War Three Ways	295
Making a tragic mistake — the liberal realists	295
Seeing America as the real villain — the New Left	295
Losing a noble war that politicians screwed up — conservative revisionists	296

Chapter 20: A War with Allies: The Persian Gulf War 297

Operation Desert Shield	298
Putting together a broad anti-Saddam coalition	299
Reviewing the military buildup — Iraq versus the coalition	301
Winning political support at home	302
Diplomacy comes up short	303
Operation Desert Storm	303
Pounding Saddam from the air	304
Gen. Schwarzkopf's secret plan	306
Launching the ground war	307
Bush calls off the dogs	309
Saddam loses Kuwait and half of his army, but he stays in power	310
The Uneasy Aftermath	311
The happy homecoming — parades and plaudits	311
The unhappy legacy — unfinished business with Saddam	312

Chapter 21: The Long War Ahead: Terrorism, Afghanistan, and Iraq	313
A New War against an Old Enemy	314
Sleeping through terrorism's rise.....	315
Pushing the snooze button — more Islamic terrorism in the 1990s.....	315
Jarring awake to an ominous reality	316
Invading Afghanistan	317
Taking down the Taliban	317
Striking with Operation Anaconda.....	319
A new Afghanistan government and a counterinsurgency struggle	320
Resuming the fight with Saddam: The Iraq War	321
The controversial decision for war	322
“On to Baghdad!” The invasion of Iraq	323
A long, grim struggle: The counterinsurgency phase.....	325
Struggling for security	326
 Part VI: The Part of Tens	329
Chapter 22: The Ten Best Generals in U.S. Military History	331
Chapter 23: The Ten Worst Generals in U.S. Military History	337
Chapter 24: The Ten Best Movies on U.S. Military History	343
 Index	349