
CONTENTS

Introduction	xv
1 The World of Fraud	1
Who Commits Fraud and Why?	3
Fraud Prevention and Detection	5
Notes	8
2 Fraud Combatants	9
Fraud Company Profile (1987–1997)	10
Auditor Responsibilities to Detect Fraud	11
Financial Statement Audit versus Fraud Investigation	12
Fraud Guidance	14
Audit Deficiencies and Audit Failures	15
The New World	16
Recommended Reading	20
Notes	21
3 Sarbanes-Oxley and Its Influence on Fraud Prevention	23
Audit Committee	24
Code of Ethics	26
Internal Controls	27
Internal Audit	29
Common Problems	30
Note	32
4 Proactive Fraud Investigations: An Introduction	33
Fraud Investigations Defined	33
Three Objectives of Fraud Investigations	36
Proactive Fraud Investigations	38

Advice for Inexperienced Fraud Investigators	45
Notes	53
5 Proactive Fraud Investigations: Conducting the Investigation	55
Art of Fishing	57
How Proactive Fraud Investigators Think and Work	59
Beginning the Investigation	61
Selecting a Fraud Type	63
Fraud Investigation Procedure	63
Summary	69
Notes	70
6 Elementary Fraud Types	71
Three Elementary Fraud Types: Definitions	71
Duplicate Payment Fraud	73
Multiple Payee Fraud	76
Shell Fraud	79
Notes	86
7 Fraud Defectives	89
Defective Delivery Fraud	89
Defective Shipment Fraud	105
Defective Pricing Fraud	107
Summary	111
Notes	111
8 Contract Rigging Fraud	113
Definition	113
Obtaining the Contract	113
Contract Change Orders	118
Unbalanced Bidding	130
Detection Recommendations	134
Rotation Fraud	136
Note	137
9 Ethical Behavior	139
Accounting Ethical Standards	139
Consequences of Unethical Behavior	142

CONTENTS	xiii
Codes of Conduct	142
Notes	151
10 Evidence	153
Indicative Evidence	154
Validating Evidence	156
Notes	162
11 Symptomatic Fraud Investigation	163
Symptoms of Fraud	165
Variations in Actual versus Planned Cost	167
“Should Cost” Approach	171
Employee Lifestyle Changes	172
Notes	174
12 Fraud Investigation Alternatives	177
Monitoring Known or Suspected Fraud	177
Monitoring Operational Areas at Risk of Fraud	181
Fraud Investigations and Internal Control	182
Note	185
APPENDIX A Anatomy of a Corporate Fraud	187
APPENDIX B Symptomatic Fraud Investigation Case Study	197
APPENDIX C Fraud-Specific Contract Review Case Study	209
APPENDIX D World Top Corporation Case Study	215
Glossary	223
Index	229

