

CONTENTS

Foreword	xiii
Robert Egger
Introduction	xxi
Preface	xxxii
Kris Prendergast
PART ONE Start-Up and Structure	1
ONE Aligning Mission and a Social Venture	3
Keith B. Artin
Case Study: From $18,000 to $10 Million in Fifteen Years	4
Criteria for Aligning Mission with Business Ideas	12
Conclusion	14
TWO Doing Good Versus Doing Well	17
Kevin Lynch and Julius Walls, Jr.
Guiding Principles	19
Practicalities Beyond Principles	22
Mission Leverage	23

THREE Business Planning for Enduring Social Impact	27
Andrew Wolk
ITNAmerica—Using Business Planning to Help Replicate a Flagship Program	29
The Process of Business Planning	30
Conclusion: Business Planning Accelerates Social Impact	44
FOUR Aligning Staff and Board Around a Venture	47
Wendy K. Baumann and Julann Jatzczak
Running with an Idea	48
Lessons Learned	50
Have Fun	63
FIVE The Life Cycle of Social Enterprise Financing	67
Jeannine Jacokes and Jennifer Pryce
Conclusion	83
PART TWO Methods	85
SIX Product or Service Development	87
Mark J. Loranger
What’s Different About Planning a Social Enterprise?	88
Case Study: Growing a Green Business	89
Lesson Learned: Follow a Structured Process	91
Let Mission Drive Enterprise	97
SEVEN Image, Advertising, and Communications	99
Martin Schwartz
An Image Must Be Grounded in Reality	100

Lessons Learned: Learn Advertising by Trial and Error	101
Image Building Never Stops	108
EIGHT Generating Sales Through Great Customer Service	111
Martin Schwartz
Building a Business on Exemplary Service	112
Two Customer Service Lessons	118
Sales Make the World Go Round	120
NINE Advocacy and Social Enterprise	123
Charles King
Social Enterprise Advocacy: More Than a Funding Stream	132
TEN Innovation and Technology Strategies	135
Sean Milliken, Clam Lorenz, Oktay Dogramaci, and Nancy Chen
Lesson 1: Don't Go It Alone	136
Lesson 2: Make Your Service Convenient and Relevant	139
Lesson 3: Focus on "What," Not "How"	140
Lesson 4: Ask Your Customers What They Want	142
Lesson 5: Trust the Data—And Make the Change!	144
Conclusion	146
ELEVEN Building a Performance Measurement System: Using Data to Accelerate Social Impact	149
Andrew Wolk
Case Study: How Performance Measurement Increased Social Impact	151
The Role of the Performance Measurement System	152
Making a Commitment: What to Consider Before Starting to Measure	153
Five-Step Process to Build a Performance Measurement System	154

Report Cards: Making an External Commitment to Self-Improvement	167
Conclusion: Performance Measurement as an Essential Tool for Accelerating Social Impact	167
TWELVE Value Versus Waste	169
Kevin Lynch and Julius Walls, Jr.
Enter Lean	171
The Lean Tool Belt	175
The Lean Social Enterprise	180
PART THREE Leadership	185
THIRTEEN Good Board Governance Is a Good Business Practice	187
Sonia Pouyat
A Cautionary Tale	189
A Tale of Recovery and Success	193
Board Effectiveness Adds Value	195
Good Governance and Social Enterprise	197
FOURTEEN Leading Change	201
Deborah Alvarez-Rodriguez
Case Study: Converting Costs to Profits	202
Lessons Learned	205
Leading Change from the Inside Out	210
FIFTEEN Leadership Succession	213
Jim Schorr
Case Study: Leadership Succession at Juma Ventures	214

Lessons Learned	218
Conclusion	224
SIXTEEN Scaling Back or Shutting Down the Venture	227
Gerry Higgins and James Finnie
Case Study: Closing a Respected Social Enterprise	228
Conclusion	240
Index	243

