

A

ADEs (adverse drug events): data availability to reduce, 40; Kaiser Permanente reengineering pilot to reduce, 46–48

African Americans: disparities in cancer incidence/care, 269e; disparities in care for asthma patients, 266–267; disparities in chronic conditions, 270e–271e; health care disparities studies on, 267, 268e

Alzheimer's disease, 113

America on the Move, 117

American Association of Health Insurance Plans, 68

American Diabetes Association, 97, 116

American Lung Association, 110b

Asian Americans, 267, 268e

Asian/Pacific Islanders, 268e

Asthma: buyer-driven improvements in care of, 103–109; changing market incentives related to, 17; costs related to, 3–4, 10–11; creating the best treatment program for, 107–108; depression suffered by patients with, 123; early interventions for, 105–106; human cost of, 103–105; Internet-driven care for, 110–111; opportunities for improved care of, 111–112; racial and ethnic disparities in care of, 266; rapid growth and distribution of, 102–103fig; Six Sigma care for, 106–107

Ayanian, J. Z., 268

B

Baker, D. W., 268

Behavior change: creating incentives for patient, 313; diabetes control through, 97–98; raising awareness of obesity and, 117–118; supported by infrastructure vendors, 206–211. See also Change

“The Bell Curve” (Gawande), 129b

Benefit designs: as continuing IV goal, 247–249; as health care reform element, 190–191; recommendations and examples of, 191–206; Universal Coverage Now (UCN) Health-Prime, 307–317

Berwick, D., 86, 90

Best Buy, 168, 233

Bismarck, O. von, 276

Blue Cross Federation, 68

British National Health Service program, 275, 278

British National Institute for Clinical Excellence (NICE) system, 278–279, 280

- Budget control approach, 276–278
- BUPA (British United Provident Association), 275
- BUPA Ireland, 275
- Buyer risk pool, 183–184
- Buyers: consumers as, 165; critical health care market role of, 159–163; improved asthma care driven by, 108–109; IV bidding/specifications put into place by, 180–184, 211; issuing real requests for proposal (RFPs), 215; new health care market services defined by, 174–176; potential infrastructure vendors from coalitions of, 220, 224–227; proposed database on risk pool of, 183–184; ready for health care reform, 147–149; reform leadership taken up by, 165–167; setting standards for population health, 241–243
- C
- Canada: budget control approach used in, 276–278; employer health care costs in, 166; health care systems of Germany, the United Kingdom, and, 273*t*; MRI use in, 159–160; per capita health care spending in, 253
- Cancer: costs related to, 3–4, 10–11; racial/ethnic health disparities in incidence/care of, 269*e*; RAND study on health care for, 127–128; variations in care given for, 127–132
- Care linkage deficiencies (CLDs): Berwick's description of, 86; care silos contributing to, 12–13; communication between hospital floors and, 87–88; description of, 11–12; disincentive to change, 13–14; impact on CHF patients, 100–102; problem with paper records and, 12; role of infrastructure vendors in preventing, 204; systems-based care preventing, 108–109. See also Health care
- Care silos, 12–13
- Caregivers: IV provided connectivity between, 182; unique provider numbers for, 63–64. See also Physicians
- Change: CLDs problem and disincentive to, 13–14; of health care market incentives, 17–21. See also Behavior change
- Chronic disease care: biggest cost savings of, 97; racial/ethnic disparities in, 266–271; significant problems with, 7–9, 10
- Chronic disease patients: asthma and, 3–4, 10–11, 17, 102–112, 123; cancer and, 3–4, 10–11, 127–132; congestive heart failure (CHF) and, 3–4, 10–11, 98–102; coronary artery disease and, 3–4, 10–11, 119–123; depression and, 3–4, 10–11, 123–126; diabetes and, 3–4, 10–11, 97, 113–118; patient deductibles impact on care of, 132–139; racial/ethnic disparities in care of, 266–271
- Chronic diseases: asthma, 3–4, 10–11, 17, 102–112, 123; cancer, 3–4, 10–11, 127–132; congestive heart failure (CHF), 3–4, 10–11, 98–102; costing the most, 3–4, 10–11, 96–97; depression, 3–4, 10–11, 123–126; diabetes, 3–4, 10–11, 97, 113–118; ethnic/racial disparities in, 266–271, 270*e*; impact of comorbidities on, 5–7*fig*; progressive nature of, 4–5; solving the problem of, 139–140
- Claims-based medical data: benefits of electronic, 60–62; data transferability and, 68–71; patient confidentiality issue of, 66–68; siloed, 62–63; as untapped treasure of information, 65–66
- Clark, L. T., 270

- Cleveland Clinic, 44, 223
- Clinical trials: challenge for physicians to keep up with, 83–85; published (1975–2005), 84*fig*
- Community clinics, 290–293
- Community-based fee approach, 191–193
- Comorbidities: diabetes and associated, 97; health care spending increased by, 6*fig*; impact on chronic diseases, 5–7; increased physician visits related to, 7*fig*
- Computerized databases. See Health care databases
- Confidentiality issue, 66–68
- Congestive heart failure (CHF): care linkage deficiencies impact on, 100–101; costs related to, 3–4, 10–11; developing expert specifications for follow-up to, 102; preventive patient behavior, 98–102, 311; systemness and, 100–102; treatment for, 99–100; U.S. statistics on, 98
- Consumer competition: benefit design to create, 188–189; calculating health premiums for, 195; care as driving cost and, 196–197; community competition fee alignment for, 191–193; as cutting costs, 197–199; disease registries to encourage, 203–204; example of laser surgery, 199–200; flat deductible to encourage, 189; flat percentage to encourage, 190; importance of price competition for, 195–196; 204; opportunities to reengineer, 200; PHRs creating virtual integration and, 202; pricing in vertically integrated plans for, 194; procedure-based pricing to encourage, 193–194; using infrastructure vendors to improve, 201
- Consumer Reports*, 169
- Consumers: as buyers in health care market, 165; retail sales and individual informed choices by, 169–170; retail/wholesale market forces affecting, 167–169. See also Patients
- Coronary artery disease: author's personal story about having, 121–122; continuously improving quality for care of, 122–123; costs related to, 3–4, 10–11, 120; described, 119–120; preventing heart attacks, 120–121
- Cost competition approach, 191–193, 248–294
- Cost sharing approach, 138–139
- Cost shifting: funding sources paying for, 255–258; as necessary evil, 258–260; universal care funding by, 264–266. See also Health care costs
- CQI (continuous quality improvement): coronary heart disease care using, 122–123; health data as critical to, 38, 51; Kaiser's approach to treating heart patients, 122–123; as new to health care, 49, 87, 88
- Crossing the Quality Chasm* (IOM), 8
- Crosson, F. J., 61*b*, 288, 316, 317
- Crum, R. M., 271
- Culture of care: changing diabetes, 117–118; need to evolve new, 85–86
- Cydulka, R. K., 268
- Cystic fibrosis outcomes, 129*b*
- D
- Dartmouth Medical School study, 8, 9*fig*, 20
- Data. See Health care data
- Databases. See Health care databases
- Deductibles: benefit design recommended flat, 191; health insurance plans with high, 132–134; health savings account to pay, 133–134; hospital choices related to, 134–135; increased awareness of data consequence of, 146–147; preventive/maintenance care related to, 135–138; UCN HealthPrime

- proposed, 310–312; Universal Coverage Now (UCN) proposal on, 285–286. See also Health insurance
- Dental decay improvement, 27–28
- Dental plans, 28
- Depression: consistent follow-up care for, 125–126; costs related to, 3–4, 10–11; health effects of, 123–124; systematic approach to care of, 124–125; U.S. statistics on, 123–124
- Diabetes: care as team effort, 118–119; changing care culture of, 117–118; comorbidity with, 97; costs related to, 3–4, 10–11; kidney failure associated with, 97; Pima Indians study on, 114–115; preventing, 113–117; U.S. statistics on, 112–113
- Diabetes PhD web site, 97
- Diabetes Prevention Program, 115–116
- Diabetes Type II: behavior change to prevent, 97; obesity related to, 113–114
- Diagnostic imaging units, 160–161 fig
- Dignam, J. J., 271
- Direct costs, 333n.24
- Disease registries, 76–78, 204–206, 294
- Dual payment approach, 291
- E
- Electronic claims-based medical data: benefits of, 60–62; health care reform and portability of, 143–144
- Electronic health care data: as critical for process thinking, 49–53; improving care through use of, 43–45; measuring performance using, 41–43
- Electronic medical records (EMRs): as caregiver support tool, 45–49; comparing PHR to, 73–76; as critical for process thinking, 49; evolution of automated record availability, 61b; follow-up care tracked through, 125; as gold standard, 56–57; patient confidentiality issue of, 66–68; solutions during transition to, 59–94; trend toward, 44–45. See also Health care data; Medical records
- Emergency room (ER) visits, 104–105
- Employer-based universal coverage model, 274–276
- Enthoven, A., 340n.8
- Epidemic of Care* (Isham and Halvorson), 324
- Escape Fire: Designs for the Future of Health Care* (Berwick), 86
- F
- Federal poverty guidelines (2006), 296t
- Fee-for-service: community clinic use of, 291, 292; fraudulent link between quality and, 19–20
- First visit benefits (UNC proposal), 310
- Flat deductible approach, 189
- Flat percentage approach, 190
- 401(k) health care model clone, 187–189, 217
- French, R., 258
- G
- Galvin, R. S., 273
- Gawande, A., 129b
- Geisinger Clinic, 224
- Geisinger Health Systems, 44–45
- Geisinger Medical Systems, 223
- General Electric (GE), 34, 35, 37, 38
- General Motors (GM), 148, 182, 257
- Germany: health care systems of Canada, United Kingdom, and, 273t; origins of health care system in, 274; per capita health care spending in, 253
- Goals. See IVs (infrastructure vendors) goals
- Government: as health care funding source, 255, 257 fig; health care

market barriers for, 163–164; as possible infrastructure vendors (IVs), 220, 222–223; readiness for health care reform by, 152–153; state health insurance/universal coverage initiatives by, 153e

Government legislation/regulations: HIPAA, 70, 142, 143, 144; Illinois' All Kids Health Insurance Program, 153e; Maine's Dirigo Health Reform Act, 153e; Massachusetts' Chapter 58 of the Acts of 2006, 153e; transparency about payment data, 145; Vermont's Health Care Affordability Act, 153e

Great Britain. See United Kingdom

H

Halvorson, G., 314, 315, 322

Health Affairs (magazine), 286, 288, 291, 310, 311, 312–313

Health care: Crossing the Quality Chasm report on state of, 8b; cultural beliefs/practices influencing, 86–92; culture of care as part of, 85–86; Dartmouth Medical School study on, 8, 9fig; economic incentives influencing, 15–21; IOM on adoption of new approaches to, 78–79, 151; need for new market model for, 85; racial and ethnic disparities in, 266–271; uninsured Americans receiving, 254. See also Care linkage deficiencies (CLDs); Health care system; Preventive care

Health care costs: competition in area of, 246–247; cost sharing that works, 138–139; direct, 333n.24; four truths of, 1–31; hidden in the price of a $15,000 car, 258fig; ICSI experience with lowering, 25–26; patient deductibles and, 132–138, 146–147; uneven distribution of, 1–4. See also Cost shifting; Health care pricing

Health care costs distribution: examples of the skewed, 1–2; five chronic diseases costing the most, 3–4; U.S. health care spending and, 3fig

Health care costs truths: 1: care costs are unevenly distributed, 1–11; 2: care linkage deficiencies abound, 11–14; 3: economic incentives influence health care, 15–21; 4: systems thinking isn't used in health care, 21–31

Health care data: ADEs (adverse drug events) related to lack of, 40; comparing EMR and PHR, 73–76; disease registries, 76–78; evolution of automated record availability, 61b; infrastructure vendors (IVs) as improving flow of, 201, 237–238; medical care value of, 30–31; new information dissemination by payers, 81–83; problems with collecting, 38–41; systems thinking and required, 23–25; universal coverage required for complete, 78. See also Electronic medical records (EMRs); Medical information/techniques; PHR (personal health record) database

Health care databases: claims-based medical data as part of, 60–66; disease registries, 76–78, 203–204, 292; evolution of automated record availability, 61b; health care reform facilitated by, 143; proposed buyer risk pool, 183–184; unique provider numbers facilitating, 63–64. See also PHR (personal health record) database

Health care developments: 1. common provider number, 141–142; 2. computerized databases, 143; 3. electronic claims data portability, 143–144; 4. governmental transparency about payment data,

- 145; 5. universal awareness of quality issues, 146–147; 6. buyers ready for a change, 147–149; 7. Internet functionality used for care, 149–152; 8. lawmakers ready for reform, 152–153
- Health care disparities: in chronic conditions care, 270e; IOM's report on, 266; racial and ethnic differences in, 266–271
- Health care funding: employer share of, 256–257; government share of, 255, 257fig; illustrated diagram on sources of, 257fig; individual share of, 256. See also Health care spending
- Health care marketplace: barriers to government role in, 163–164; benefit designs to create consumer competition in, 190–206; buyer-defined services of new, 174–176; characteristics of ideal, 158–159, 217–220; critical role of buyer in, 159–163; lack of comparable model for ideal, 170–171; using multiple vendors and multiple, 179–180; reform leadership taken up by buyers, 165–167; retail sales involving individual informed choices, 169–170; retail and wholesale market forces of, 167–169; using “farmers’ market” type of, 178–179. See also IVs (infrastructure vendors); Market incentives
- Health care models: Canadian, 159–160, 166, 253, 273t, 276–278; characteristics of optimal, 154–155; comparing Germany, the United Kingdom, and Canadian, 273t; German, 253, 273t, 274; Irish, 275; lack of ideal marketplace for, 170–171; Medicare, 82, 145, 166, 279–282, 346n.21; need for new, 85; United Kingdom, 253, 261, 262, 273t, 275, 278–279; vertically integrated care, 196, 210–215. See also Health care reform; IVs (infrastructure vendors); Universal coverage models
- Health care performance: electronic data to measure, 41–43; governmental transparency about data on, 145; HEDIS measurements of, 35–36t; linking payment to, 249–250; pilot pay-for-performance programs, 326n.22; Six Sigma measurements of, 35, 35t, 37t, 38; Six Sigma used to improve, 49, 51
- Health care pricing: community competition fee alignment approach to, 191–193; example of laser surgery, 199–200; flat percentage approach to, 190; importance of competition in, 195; opportunities to reengineer, 200–201; procedure-based, 193–194; vertically integrated plans and, 194. See also Health care costs
- Health care quality: for chronic disease patients, 95–140; competition from overseas comparable, 245; CQI (continuous quality improvement), 38, 49, 51, 87, 88; creating market model for, 93–94; cultural beliefs/practices influencing, 86–92; faith in continuous improvement in, 92–93; fraudulent link between fee-for-service and, 19–20; health care reform and awareness of, 146–147; information required to provide, 78–81; less revenue and higher, 25–27; measuring performance and, 35–38; setting targets for, 93; Six Sigma standard as legitimate goal of, 53–55. See also Quality
- Health care reform: adoption of new over old technology, 81–82; applying systems thinking to create, 21–31; benefit designs approach to, 188–189; changing market

- incentives to create, 17–21; examining marketplace forces driving, 157–172; new market model needed for, 85; recent developments facilitating, 141–155; time for, 319–322. See also Health care models; IVs (infrastructure vendors); Universal Coverage Now (UCN)
- Health care solidarity, 262–264, 280–281
- Health care spending: comparison of international, 253; entities paying cost shift of, 255–258; per capita in various countries, 253. See also Health care funding
- Health care system: cultural beliefs/practices influencing, 86–92; developing culture of care for, 85–86; economic incentives influencing, 15–21; need for new market model for, 85; recent developments in, 141–155. See also Health care
- Health insurance: British National Health Insurance program, 275; BUPA (British United Provident Association), 275; buyers readiness for reforms in, 147–149; health care spending share paid for by, 256–258; high-deductible plans, 132–134; high-deductibles of, 132–138, 146–147; as potential infrastructure vendors, 221, 228–230; proposed IVs payment methods, 184–188, 231–237; racial and ethnic disparities in coverage, 266–271; state initiatives regarding, 153e. See also Deductibles; Uninsured uncompensated care
- Health insurance premiums: calculating, 195–196, 344n.6; linking personal health behavior to, 204–208; UCN CalPrime proposed, 314t–315t
- Health savings account, 133–134
- HealthAffairs.org, 286
- HealthPartners Medical Group, 24, 25, 184
- HealthPrime (UCN proposal): on community clinics as providers, 290–293; deductible of, 310–312; estimated premiums/subsidies for CalPrime options, 314t–315t; first visit benefits of, 310; flexibility of, 312–313, 316–317; on private health plans as providers, 295–296; on uninsured coverage by, 288–290
- Heart attack prevention, 120–121
- HEDIS: described, 34–35, 328n.1; health care performance measured by, 35–36t; mammography rates reported through, 50
- High-deductible health plans: awareness regarding health data consequence of, 146–147; described, 132–134; impact on hospital choices, 134–135; influence on preventive/maintenance care, 135–138; Universal Coverage Now (UCN) proposal on, 285–286
- Hinze, S. W., 268
- HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act), 70, 142, 143, 144
- Hispanics: disparities in cancer incidence/care, 269e; disparities in chronic conditions, 270e–271e; health care disparities studies on, 267, 269e
- Hospitals: care given to uninsured by, 254; CHF care coordinating role by, 101; competition from JCAHO-accredited foreign, 245; independent surgical groups using, 89; Medicare and Medicaid reimbursements to, 346n.21; The 100,000 Lives Campaign impact on, 90; patient deductibles related to choice of, 134–135; safety net, 290

I

- ICSI (Institute for Clinical Systems Improvement), 25–26
- Illinois' All Kids Health Insurance Program, 153e
- Indian Health Services, 259
- Individual mandate approach: power of the, 294–297; UCN proposal using, 284–297
- Infant mortality rank, 126
- Information. See Health care data; Medical information/techniques
- Informed choices: IV goal for patients making, 243–245; retail sales and consumer, 169–170
- Institute for Healthcare Improvement (IHI), 90
- Institute of Medicine (IOM): on adoption of new care approaches, 78–79, 151; Crossing the Quality Chasm by, 8; increasing awareness of quality issue through, 146; origins and organizations of, 325n.7; Unequal Treatment: by, 266
- Intermountain Healthcare, 24, 44, 184
- Internet-driven care: ALA's NexProfiler Treatment Option Tool, 110b; for asthma patients, 110–111; health care reform facilitated by, 149–152. See also Web sites
- Ireland's health care model, 275
- Isham, G., 322
- IVs (infrastructure vendors): ability to computer-linked virtual systems, 211–214; buyer-defined services implemented by, 174–176; care linkage deficiencies prevention by, 202; description of, 174; functions of, 174, 230–231; health care data use by, 180, 201–205, 238–338; limiting number of, 250–251; marketplace need for, 171–172; new health care package sold by, 176–178; personal health practices supported by, 204–208; potential, 220–230; proposed bidding process for, 180–184, 209; proposed payment model for, 184–188, 231–237; putting into place a bidding/specifications for, 180–184; setting goals for, 240–250; specific quantifiable goals for, 240–241; using “farmers’ market” instead of, 178–179; using multiple markets and multiple, 179–180. See also Health care marketplace; Health care models; Health care reform
- IV's (infrastructure vendors) bid specifications: connectivity between caregivers, 182; fully resourced web sites, 180; hypothetical RFP points for, 181b
- IV's (infrastructure vendors) goals: for benefit design use, 247–249; for cost competition, 246–247; for data-supported and informed choices, 243–245; for linking payments to performance, 249–250; setting quantifiable, 240–241; for standards for population health, 241–243
- IV's (infrastructure vendors) payment options: cash flow issue of, 185–186; exploring different, 184; linking performance to payment, 249–250; prepaid and self-insurance mix, 233–235; prepayment, 232–233; pure self-insurance, 235–237
- IV's (infrastructure vendors) potentials: 1. government as, 220, 222–223; 2. provider systems or associates as, 220, 223–224; 3. buyer coalitions as, 220, 224–227; 4. existing plans, insurers, and administrators as, 221, 228–230; 4. new entities as, 220–221, 227–228

J

JCPenney, 167, 168, 233

K

- Kaiser Permanente: commitment to electronic health record system by, 76; health care data used by, 24; “Make the right thing easy to do” motto of, 45; as vertically integrated multispecialty provider group, 183, 184, 216
- Kaiser Permanente Archimedes System, 97, 121
- Kaiser Permanente pilot programs: on prescription drug coverage, 136–137; to prevent heart attacks, 120–121; to reduce ADVs, 46–48; using computer-supported care to reduce kidney failure, 49–50
- Keiretsu* (Japanese production process), 237
- Kidney failure: diabetes and development of, 97; Kaiser’s program to reduce, 49–50
- Klap, R., 271
- Koike, A., 271
- Koop, C. E., 117

L

- Lantz, P. M., 269
- Laser surgery costs, 201–202
- Legislation. See Government legislation/regulations
- Liu, J. H., 269
- Lopez-Quintero, C., 271

M

- MAIC improvement process, 37–38
- Maine’s Dirigo Health Reform Act, 153e
- Maintenance care deductibles, 135–138
- Mammography rates, 50–51
- Market incentives: changing the, 17–21; effectiveness of, 15–17; for healthy personal behaviors, 207; retail and wholesale market forces driving, 167–169; for sealing teeth treatment, 27–28; for specialty

- practices, 161–162*fig.* See also Health care marketplace
- Massachusetts’ Chapter 58 of the Acts of 2006, 153e
- Maternity care, 126–127
- Mayo Clinic: culture of improving best care by, 90–91; data-supported process improvement work by, 24; EMRs (electronic medical records) commitment by, 44–45; McGlynn, B., 146
- McKesson, 35
- McLean, A., 271
- Minnesota’s ICSI role by, 25; as vertically integrated care system, 183, 184, 213, 223
- Medicaid: cost shifting disallowed by, 259; data transferability between private care and, 69; governmental transparency about data from, 145; included in reform agenda, 168; rationed care approach of, 280; UCN proposal for lowest-income uninsured coverage by, 286–288
- Medicaid Disproportionate Share Program, 346n.21
- Medical information/techniques: claims-based medical data as source for, 65–66; dissemination by payers, 81–83; keeping up challenge for physicians, 83–85; to provide high level of quality care, 78–81. See also Health care data
- Medical records: care linkage deficiencies related to paper, 12; evolution of automated record availability, 61*b*; problems with data collection using, 38–41; solutions during transition to electronic, 59–94. See also Electronic medical records (EMRs); Health care data
- Medicare: behavior change by payers like, 82; governmental transparency about data from, 145; included in reform agenda, 166;

rationed care approach of, 279–282
Medicare Disproportionate Share Program, 346n.21
MEDPAC Commission (Washington, D.C.), 26
MinnesotaCare, 293, 299
Motorola, 35
MRI machines, 159–160

N

National Institute for Clinical Excellence (NICE) system [United Kingdom], 278–279, 280
Neumark, Y. D., 271
New England Journal of Medicine, 137
NexProfiler Treatment Option Tool, 110b

O

Obesity: diabetes Type II related to, 113–114; Pima Indians study on diabetes and, 114–115; prevalence in the United States (1985), 114fig; prevalence in the United States (1995), 115fig; prevalence in the United States (2005), 116fig; raising public awareness as health issue, 117–118
Olopade, O. I., 269
The 100,000 Lives Campaign, 90

P

Park Nicollet Health Services, 25
Patient confidentiality issue, 66–68
Patients: asthma, 3–4, 10–11, 17, 102–112, 123; behavior change/best health practices by, 204–210; cancer, 3–4, 10–11, 127–132; confidentiality protections for, 66–68; coronary artery disease, 3–4, 10–11, 119–123; creating preventive behavior incentives for, 313; deductibles impact on care of, 132–139; depression, 3–4, 10–11, 123–126;

diabetes, 3–4, 10–11, 97, 113–118; making data-supported informed choices, 243–245; PHR benefits to, 71–72, 80–81. See also Consumers
Pay-for-performance programs, 326n.22
Payers: behavior change by, 81–82; new information dissemination by, 81–83
Personal health practices: buyer specifications for IV support of, 209; diabetes control through, 97–98; financial penalties incentives for good, 205; pure provider prepayment for good, 208–209; raising awareness of obesity and, 117–118; rewarding healthy, 206–208; supported by infrastructure vendors, 204–210
PHR (personal health record) database: asthma care facilitated by, 112; comparing EMRs to, 73–76; evolution of, 61; follow-up care tracked through, 125; as giving patients more control, 80–81; information included in an ideal, 68–69; Internet availability to patients, 150; IV care information using, 180, 182–183, 237–238; IV goal for new standardized, 241; patient benefits directly from, 71–72; virtual integration created through, 202. See also Health care data; Health care databases
Physician visits: related to comorbidities, 7fig; UNC proposal on first visit benefits, 310
Physicians: CHF patients treatment by, 99–100, 101; difficulty of keeping up with new information by, 83–85; financial incentives for specializing, 161–162fig; private practices within universal coverage systems, 262; systems thinking, data, and autonomy of, 28–31;

unique provider numbers for, 63–64. See also Caregivers

Pima Indians, 114–115

Polite, B. N., 269

Poverty guidelines (2006), 296t

Prepayment: IV's payment mixing self-insurance and, 233–235; as IV's payment option, 232–233

Prescription drug coverage, 136–137

Preventive care: congestive health failure, 98–102, 313; creating incentives for patient, 311; deductibles and impact on, 135–138; diabetes, 97–98, 113–117; heart attacks, 120–121; Six Sigma and education approaches to asthma, 106–108. See also Health care

Price competition approach, 191–193, 246–292

Price, J. H., 270

Pricing. See Health care pricing

Primary care (UCN proposal), 308–310

Procedure-based pricing, 193–194

Provider numbers: data breakthrough of unique, 63–64; health care reform facilitated by, 141–142

Providers: health care data required for best care by, 78–81; measuring performance by, 72–73; as potential infrastructure vendors (IVs), 220, 223–224; UCN proposal on HealthPrime, 290–294

Public trust issue, 147

Pure provider prepayment approach, 208–209

Q

Quality: CQI (continuous quality improvement), 38; HEDIS measuring, 35–36t; how other industries create, 34–38; MAIC process to improve, 37–38; Six Sigma methodology measuring, 34, 35t, 37t, 38. See also Health care quality

R

Racial/ethnic differences: in asthma care, 266; in cancer incidence and care, 269e; in chronic conditions care, 270e–271e; in coverage and care, 266–271; health disparities studies on, 267, 268e

RAND Corporation studies: on breast cancer patient care, 127–128; on inadequate care of diabetic patients, 113; on inadequate health care, 7–8; information gained through, 41

Rationed care approach: British use of, 278–279; Medicare use of, 279–282

Reyes-Gibby, C. C., 271

RFPs (requests for proposals): buyer-issued real, 216; IV goals as element of, 240; for potential infrastructure vendors, 220–221, 227–228

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, 39

S

Safety net hospitals, 290, 292

SCHIP, 287

Schneider, E. C., 268

School-based interventions, 106

Sears, 167, 168

Self-insurance approach: IV's payment mix of prepayment, 233–235; IV's payment using pure, 235–237

Shape Up America!, 117

Shavers, V. L., 271

Sherbourne, C., 271

Siloed claims data, 62–63

Siloed health care, 12–13

Six Sigma standard: applied to pregnancy care, 127; described, 34; electronic records to facilitate, 53; GE error rates according to, 35t, 37, 38; health care plan performance using, 35, 37t, 51; as legitimate care goal, 53–55;

re-engineering care delivery using, 49; for treating asthma patients, 106–107
Solidarity value, 262–264, 280–281
Spanyi, A., 35
Starbucks, 257
Surgical groups, 89
Systems thinking: disincentives for, 25–28; health care data needed to use, 23–25; lacking in current health care, 21–22; relationship between data, doctor autonomy and, 28–31

T

Tamayo-Sarver, J. H., 268
Target, 167, 232, 233
Tax proposals (UCN): health care sales tax, 299–300; in-lieu health tax, 300–302
Techniques. See Medical information/techniques
3M, 35
Trivedi, A. N., 268

U

Unequal Treatment: Confronting Racial and Ethnic Disparities in Health Care (IOM), 266
Uninsured people: UCN HealthPrime proposal for all other, 288–290; UCN Medicaid proposal for lowest-income, 286–288; UCN proposal for higher-income, 285–286
Uninsured uncompensated care: cost shifting to pay for, 258–260; health care received by, 254. See also Health insurance
Unique provider numbers, 63–64
United Kingdom: British National Health Service program, 275, 278; BUPA (British United Provident Association), 275; health care systems of Canada, Germany, and, 273t; National Institute for Clinical Excellence (NICE) system, 278–279, 280; per capita health care spending in, 253; physician private practice arrangement in, 262; rationed care approach used in, 278–279; universal coverage in, 261
United States: congestive heart failure statistics in the, 98; diabetes statistics in the, 112–113; distribution of health care spending in the, 3fig; employer health care costs in Canada versus, 166; federal poverty guidelines (2006) of, 296t; infant mortality rank of, 126; MRI use in Canada versus, 159–160; per capita health care spending in, 253; prevalence of obesity (1985) in the, 114fig; prevalence of obesity (1995) in the, 115fig; prevalence of obesity (2005) in the, 116fig; statistics on depression in the, 123–124
Universal coverage: complete health care data possible under, 78; cost shifting to pay for, 264–266; finding a model for, 271–274; health care solidarity as core value in, 262–264, 280–281; international systems of, 261–262; state health insurance and initiatives for, 153e; UCN (Universal Coverage Now) proposal for, 282–317
Universal coverage models: America's employer-based, 274–276; comparing Germany, the United Kingdom, and Canadian, 273t; examining different international, 271–272; Irish, 275; origins of German, 274; proposed employer-based, 274–276; United Kingdom, 253, 261, 273t, 275, 278–279, 280. See also Health care models
Universal Coverage Now (UCN): goal of, 282–283; Part A: individual coverage mandate, 284–297; Part B: the source of the money, 297–302; Part C: keeping score, 303–306; Part D: HealthPrime benefit designs, 307–317; summary of, 283–284. See also Health care reform

V

Vermont's Health Care Affordability Act, 153e
 Vertically integrated care: benefit delivery packages as part of, 214–215; benefits of creating, 210–211; pricing for, 194; vertically linked versus, 211–214
 Veteran's Administration (VA), 24, 259
 Vhi Healthcare (Ireland), 275
 Vioxx recall (2004), 147
 Virginia Mason Medical Group, 26
 Vivas Healthcare (Ireland), 275

W

Wal-Mart, 167–168, 232–233
 Washington, D. L., 268
 Web sites: HealthAffairs.org, 286;
 IV creation of PHR patient choice, 180, 182–183; NexProfiler Treatment Option Tool, 110b. See also Internet-driven care
 Wells, K., 271
 Wennberg, J., 8, 20, 146
 Wurtzel, M., 35

X

Xie, J., 271

Z

Zaslavsky, A. M., 268
 Zarkin, S., 286, 314, 315

