

— Contents

Acknowledgments	v
Introduction	vii
Part One: Untying the Gordian Knot of Marketing Investment Excellence	1
1 The Marketing Accountability Imperative Understanding the Marketing Accountability Gap and Beginning the Journey to Close It	3
2 Recalibrating Basic Beliefs About Marketing Spending When Marketing Can Create Accretive Value and When It Is the Wrong Tool for the Wrong Problem	33
3 The Core Principles of Marketing Accountability Describing the Critical Competencies and Value Levers That Enable Accountable Marketing Investment	73
Part Two: Driving Material Performance Improvements Across the Six Value Levers of Marketing Accountability	103
4 Strategy and Content Enabling Purposeful Strategic Decision Making and Creating Engaging, Compelling Content	105
5 Marketing Vehicles and Investment Levels Selecting Which Vehicles to Deploy and How Much Investment Gets Put Behind Each	164
6 In-Market Execution and Fixed Cost Management Ensuring High-Quality In-Market Execution and Consistently Strong Leverage of Your Fixed Cost Basis	214

Part Three: Putting Core Principles of Marketing Accountability to Work Inside Your Organization	259
7 Laying the Tactical Groundwork for Long-Term Marketing Improvement Planning for Your Journey Through the Three Horizons of Marketing Accountability	261
8 Horizon One: Identifying Your Marketing Accountability Improvement Opportunities Designing a Fit-for-Purpose Marketing Accountability Diagnostic	298
9 Horizon Two: Employing a Test-and-Learn Approach to Drive Continuous Improvement Systematically Eliminating the Unknown and Improving Returns	335
10 Horizon Three: Sustaining and Accelerating Marketing Accountability Impact Building Sustainable Competitive Advantage via Deeper Capabilities, Faster Processes, and More Intelligent Brand Equity Development	383
Notes	425
Bibliography	427
The Authors	433
Index	435