

— Contents

Foreword	ix
Risa Lavizzo-Mourey
Editors' Introduction	xi
David C. Colby and Stephen L. Isaacs
Acknowledgments	xiii
Section One: Learning from Programs that Did Not Work Out as Planned	1
1. Good Ideas at the Time: Learning from Programs that Did Not Work Out as Expected	5
Stephen L. Isaacs and David C. Colby
2. New Direction, Midcourse: Redesigning a Program While It's in Progress	35
Tony Proscio
3. The National Health Care Purchasing Institute: A Case Study	63
Michael H. Brown
4. The Role of Failure in Philanthropic Learning: A Commentary on Chapters 1–3	93
Robert G. Hughes
Section Two: Inside the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation	107
5. Communications at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation: Turning Up the Volume, Adjusting the Frequency	109
Frederick G. Mann and David J. Morse

Section Three: Addiction Prevention and Treatment	139
6. The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Efforts to Combat Drug Addiction	145
James Bornemeier
7. Reclaiming Futures	175
Sara Solovitch
8. The College Alcohol Study	201
Lee Green
Section Four: Other Programs to Improve Health and Health Care	227
9. Overcoming Language Barriers to Care: Hablamos Juntos	229
Irene M. Wielawski
10. MicheLee Puppets and the Fight Against Child Obesity	259
Digby Diehl
The Editors	287
The Contributors	289
Index	297
Anthology Chapters by Topic, 1997 through Volume XIII	311