

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
Simple Rules for Success	1
What This Book Contains	3
Test Yourself	7
1 Making Good Grades	17
Planning Your Schedule	17
What Classes Do You Have to Take?	18
What Classes Are Available?	18
What Classes Do You Want to Take?	19
When Is the Class and What Are the Requirements?	19
Knowing What Your Instructor Expects	21
A Good Student	22
A Problem Student	23
Preparing for Class	24
Doing Your Work	25
2 Getting Organized	29
Organizing Your Study Space	29
Helpful Items in a Good Study Space	30
Avoiding Distractions	31
Organizing Your Space at School	32
Keeping Track of Your Work	32
Managing Your Time	34
Ways to Record Your Schedule	34
Planning Class Time	35
Making a To-Do List	36
Planning Study Time	36
Planning Time for Big Assignments	37
Participating in Extracurricular Activities	38
3 Reading	41
Having a Plan for Reading Assignments	41
What's the Purpose?	42
What's the Resource?	43
When Is the Reading Due?	44

	Getting the Most from Reading Assignments	45
	Previewing the Reading	45
	Reading for the Main Ideas	48
	Reviewing Your Reading	49
	Taking Notes	50
	Improving Your Reading Skills	51
	Building Your Vocabulary	51
	Read More and Be an Active Reader	52
	Reading Literature	53
	Looking for Key Literature Elements	53
	Reviewing and Taking Notes on Literature	55
4	Taking Notes	57
	Taking Notes in a Lecture	58
	The Wrong Way to Take Notes	58
	The Right Way to Take Notes	58
	Taking Notes on Reading Assignments	64
	To Highlight or Not to Highlight?	64
	Making Notes in Your Textbook	66
	Recording Reading Notes in a Notebook	67
	Organizing Your Notes for Studying	68
	Compiling Your Notes	69
	Anticipate Questions	69
	Sharing and Comparing Notes with Classmates	70
	Recognizing the Benefits of Taking Note	70
5	Studying for Tests	73
	Anticipating the Test and Its Questions	74
	What Type of Test?	74
	What's Covered on the Test?	77
	When Is the Test (Or How Long Do You Have To Study)?	78
	How Will the Test Be Graded?	78
	Reviewing for a Test	80
	Reviewing Readings	80
	Reviewing Lecture Notes	82
	Practicing	82
	Final Tips on Studying for Your Test	83

6	Taking Tests87
	Final Preparation87
	Preparing Mentally and Physically88
	Studying the Material88
	Avoiding Test “Jitters”89
	Taking the Actual Test91
	Skimming the Test91
	Deciding Where to Start and What to Answer92
	Checking Your Test93
	Strategies for Typical Test Questions94
	True-or-False Questions94
	Multiple Choice Questions95
	Matching Questions96
	Fill-in-the-Blank Questions97
	Essay Questions98
	Strategies for Test Subjects100
	Preparing for a Math Test100
	Preparing for a History or Social Studies Test100
	Preparing for a Science Test101
	Preparing for an English or Literature Test101
	Performance Tests102
	Other Types of Assessments103
7	Doing Research105
	Selecting a Topic107
	Understanding the Assignment107
	Getting Ideas for Topics109
	Evaluating Your Topic112
	Understanding Types of Research Materials113
	Reference books113
	Regular Books114
	Magazines, Journals, and Articles from Other Sources114
	Web Site Resources115
	Finding Resources116
	Using Your Classroom Materials117
	Finding Sources at a Library118

	Finding Magazine Articles	119
	Using Internet Resources	121
	Using Other Resources	123
	Working with Resources	124
	Deciding What to Include	124
	Taking Notes	125
	Avoiding Plagiarism	126
	Citing Sources	126
8	Writing Papers	129
	Understanding the Paper-Writing Process	130
	Kinds of Papers	130
	Parts of a Typical Paper	131
	What Makes a Successful Paper	132
	Steps for Writing a Paper	133
	Picking a Topic	133
	Is the Topic Interesting?	134
	Is the Information Available?	134
	Is the Topic the Right Size?	134
	How To Find the Right Topic	135
	Researching Your Work	135
	Knowing in Advance What You Want to Find	136
	Know What Your Audience Expects	136
	Finding Sources	137
	Taking Notes on Your Research	138
	Citing Your Sources	139
	Organizing Your Paper	139
	Writing	141
	Editing	142
	Editing Strategies	143
	Taking Advantage of Your Word Processing Program	144
	Reviewing an Editing Checklist	144
	The End	146

9	Using Technology	147
	Using a Computer for	148
	Writing	148
	Doing Research	149
	Communicating with Your Instructor and with Other Students	150
	Calculating Numeric Data and Creating Charts	150
	Taking Pictures or Creating Videos	152
	Getting Extra Help	153
	Tips for Keeping Your Work Organized and Safe	154
	Saving Your Work	154
	Creating and Using Folders	155
	Printing Your Work	156
	Tips for Doing Internet Research	157
	Searching the Internet Using a Search Tool	157
	Searching for Something at a Particular Site	160
	Keeping a List of Favorite Sites	160
	Protecting Yourself and Your Computer	161
10	Getting Extra Help	165
	Deciding Whether You Need Help	165
	Identifying the Problem	167
	Creating a Plan for Improvement	169
	Working with School Resources	169
	Having Your Instructor (or Instructor Aide) Tutor You	170
	Working with a Reading Expert	171
	Working with a Student Tutor	171
	Getting Outside Tutoring	172
	Hiring a Tutor	172
	Tutoring Centers	173
	Using Other Tutoring Resources	174
	Taking Summer Courses	174

11	Dealing with Problems	177
	What to Do When You	177
	Miss a Class	178
	Miss a Test	179
	Miss a Deadline or Assignment Date	179
	Dealing with Instructor or Grade Conflicts	180
	Handling Instructor Problems	181
	Handling Grade Issues	184
	Dealing with Special Needs	185
	Reading	185
	Writing	186
	Math	187
	Technology	188
	Other Problems	189
	Appendix Resources	191
	Reference Books	191
	Style Guides	192
	Study Guides and Workbooks	192
	Web Sites	193
	General Reference Sites	193
	Search Sites	194
	Index	197