

Contents

Contributors	vi
The Series	viii
Foreword	x
Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction	1
Helen Dickinson and Jon Glasby
1. Partnership working and organisational culture	10
Edward Peck and Helen Dickinson
2. Interprofessional practice	27
Celia Keeping and Gillian Barrett
3. Partnership working: key concepts and approaches	42
Walter Leutz
4. Key elements in effective partnership working	56
Henk Nies
5. Integrated service models: an exploration of North American models and lessons	68
Dennis Kodner
6. Working across the health and social care boundary	81
Amanda Edwards
7. Partnerships in the digital age	95
Justin Keen and Tracy Denby
8. The economics of integrated care	107
Marie-Eve Joël and Helen Dickinson
9. Self-management with others: the role of partnerships in supporting self-management for people with long-term conditions	121
Gawaine Powell Davies, Sarah Dennis and Christine Walker
10. Self-directed support as a framework for partnership working	136
John O'Brien and Simon Duffy
11. The outcomes of health and social care partnerships	152
Helen Dickinson
Index	167