

CONTENTS

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

xi

PREFACE

xii

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

xiv

1 Becoming an Urban Planner: What Planners Do

1

Employment in Planning	3
A Young Profession: Planning Emerges in the Late Nineteenth Century	5
AN AGE OF IDEALISM IN DESIGN	6
THE ADVENT OF ZONING	9
POLICY PLANNING EMERGES SIMULTANEOUSLY	10
PLANNING AND SOCIAL INJUSTICE	11
PLANNING IN THE LATE TWENTIETH CENTURY	12
Urban Planning Is about the Future	13
Urban Planning Is about Place	14
Urban Planning Is about Helping Other People Make Decisions	17
The Planning Process	18
Profile: Getting People Involved in the Process	19
Buyer Beware: Things You Might Not Like About a Career in Planning	23
What Kind of Salary Can a Planner Expect to Make?	25
Skills for Becoming an Urban Planner	26

2 Becoming an Urban Planner: Education

31

What Research Shows About Planners' Education	31
Preparing for a Professional Education	32
Communicating in Words	42
Communicating through Pictures	45
Being Comfortable with Numbers	50
Drawing, Planning, and Urban Design	54
Picking a College Major	60
And on to Graduate School	63
Choosing the Right Graduate Program	65
ACCREDITATION	69
WHAT'S IN A NAME?	70
THESES, PROJECTS, OR OTHER CAPSTONE REQUIREMENTS	70
Applying to Graduate School	70
Financing a Planning Education	73
Planning Curriculum: Knowledge, Skills, and Values	74
Specializations	78
Dual-Degree Options	78
Alternative Paths	79
PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION	79
URBAN STUDIES	80

ECONOMICS	81	Planning Timeframes	131
ARCHITECTURE, LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE, AND URBAN DESIGN	81	CURRENT PLANNING	131
CIVIL ENGINEERING	81	Profile: Enforcing Codes and Reviewing Plans	133
PLANNING LAW	82	Profile: Addressing the Challenges of Long-Range Planning	136
Profile: Becoming a Land Use Lawyer	84	Profile: Improving Quality of Life in the Long Term	138
Conclusion	85	Profile: Creating Comprehensive Plans	140
3 Becoming an Urban Planner: Experience	87	At What Geographic Scale Do You Want to Work?	144
Informational Interviews	88	Profile: Working with Communities	145
Job Shadowing	89	Profile: Bridging Rural and Urban Areas	148
Volunteer Experience	90	Profile: Planning in a Midsized City	150
Internships	92	Profile: Becoming a Planning Director	153
Cooperative Education	94	Profile: Charting Another Path to Planning Director	159
Peace Corps and AmeriCorps VISTA	94	Profile: Merging Regional and Local Planning	164
Networking to Break the Ice	96	Profile: Planning at the Regional Scale	167
CAREER LADDERS: MOVING AHEAD FROM THAT FIRST JOB	97	Profile: Planning at the State Level	170
4 Planners' Many Paths	99	Profile: Leading a State Planning Agency	173
Many Paths into a Planning Career	99	Profile: Planning in the Federal Government	175
Profile: Entering the Field	100	Profile: Consulting for the Federal Government	178
Profile: Using Your Analytic and Creative Talents	102	What Planning Topics Interest You?	179
Profile: Applying a Talent for Mapping	104	URBAN DESIGN	179
Who Influenced You?	109	Profile: Designing Places	181
Where Do You Want to Work?	117	Profile: Using Urban Design to Create Consensus	185
Profile: Becoming a Developer	119	HOUSING PLANNING AND POLICY	189
Profile: Becoming a Small Town Planner	122	Profile: Filling Housing Needs	190
Profile: Establishing a One-Person Planning Firm	124	ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PLANNING	193
Profile: Making Transitions	127	Profile: Planning for Economic Development: Public Sector	195

Profile: Planning for Economic Development: Consulting	198	Profile: Planning for Bicyclists and Pedestrians	262
HISTORIC PRESERVATION PLANNING	200	EMERGING SPECIALIZATIONS IN THE ERA OF SUSTAINABILITY	263
Profile: Protecting, Preserving, and Planning for Historic and Cultural Resources	202	Profile: Planning for Hazards and Emergencies	264
COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AND EMPOWERMENT	205	Profile: Developing Green Communities	266
Profile: Engaging Neighborhoods	208	Profile: Planning for Sustainable Energy	268
Profile: Listening to People	211	Teaching Others to Become Planners	270
ENVIRONMENTAL AND NATURAL RESOURCES PLANNING	216	Profile: Becoming a Planning Professor	271
Profile: Advocating for Sustainability	219	Profile: Moving from Planner to Professor	275
Profile: Specializing in a Holistic Way	221	Profile: Being Called to a University Career—With a Practical Slant	279
GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION SYSTEMS	222	Challenges and Rewards	281
Profile: Specializing in GIS	223
LAND USE PLANNING, LAW, AND CODE ENFORCEMENT	225	5 What Is the Future of Planning?	293
Profile: Bridging Technical Disciplines	227	Economic Recession and Planning	293
Profile: Specializing in Code Writing	231	Profile: Coping with Layoff	294
Profile: Specializing in Land Use Law	232	Geospatial Technology and Planning	295
Profile: Assessing the Economic Impacts of Land Use Decisions	234	Profile: Adapting Zoning to the Twenty-first Century	295
TRANSPORTATION PLANNING	238	Rediscovering Public Health	296
Profile: Developing Transportation Models	239	Profile: Planning Healthy Communities	297
Profile: Planning for Transit	243	Carbon, Climate Change, Peak Oil, and Planning for Sustainable Energy	300
Profile: Advocating for Transit and Transportation Improvements	245	PLANNING FOR CLIMATE ADAPTATION	301
Profile: Integrating Land Use and Transportation	247	PLANNING FOR CLIMATE MITIGATION	304
PLANNING FOR SUSTAINABILITY	250	A Bright Future for Planning	306
New Urbanism	252
Profile: Applying the Principles of New Urbanism	253	Resources	307
Profile: Fostering Transit-Oriented Development	256	References	311
Profile: Creating Change and Livable Communities	260	Index	313

