
Index

- Absolute attendance, 96–97
- Academic beliefs, 64
- Academic success, 17, 54; and attendance intensity, 98; and breadth of attendance, 100–101; and participation, 63–64; requirements for, 116
- Academic support, 17
- Academically based programs, 78–79, 81–82
- Access to programs: importance of, 24–25; reasons for lack of, 44
- Accountability, 93
- Adolescents, 40; community service of, 83–84; employment opportunities for, 83–84; feeling states of, 123–128; incentives for, 82–83; increasing attendance of, 80–81; schedules for, 75
- Affective engagement, 112–114, 115, 117
- African American youth, 35, 36–41
- After School Education Safety Program, 18
- After School Matters program, 75, 82–83, 84, 93
- The After-School Corporation, 75, 93, 97, 99–100, 101
- After-school hours, 109–110
- After-school programs: children's view of, 110; diversity of activities in, 74; increase in, 110; number of children in, 15; objective of, 74; recent movements affecting, 3. See also Out-of-school-time programs
- Age, 25–26, 60, 103
- Alcohol, 36, 78, 110
- Apathy, 125*t*, 126
- Apprenticeships, 75–76, 82–83
- Arab Americans, 36–41
- Art lessons, 60–61
- Arts programs, 75
- At-risk youth, 78–79, 110–111
- Attendance: averages of, 18; benefits of, 5, 17; definition of, 23; engagement's relationship to, 2; expectations for, 3–4; factors contributing to low, 18; importance of, 79–80; indicators of, 95–101; as program goal, 1–2; standards for, 79–80; strategies to increase, 80–81
- Attendance measurement, 23; data collection in, 94–95, 102–104; overview of, 91–92; rationale for, 92–95
- Bartko, W. T., 7, 13, 109
- Bates, J. E., 97
- Beacons Initiative, 75, 77
- Behavior: and attendance duration, 99; and attendance intensity, 98; and participation, 64
- Behavioral engagement, 112–113
- Better Educated Students for Tomorrow program, 78, 100
- Bolt, D. M., 7, 13–14, 121
- Borden, L. M., 6–7, 10, 33
- Boredom, 36, 38
- Bouffard, S. M., 2, 6, 7, 8, 9–10, 12, 15, 91, 111
- Boys, 40–44, 53–63, 65–67
- Boys & Girls Club, 3, 35, 75, 80, 98
- Breadth, 23, 100–101
- Bresee Foundation, 82
- Brown, B. B., 7, 13–14, 121
- Bullies, 73, 117
- Busser, J. A., 35
- C. S. Mott Foundation, 6, 8
- Carrera-Model Teen Pregnancy Prevention Program, 83
- Carruthers, C. P., 35
- Case management, 92–93

- Case managers, 79
 Chaldean youth, 37, 39, 40–41
 Child and Family Study, 57
 Childhood and Beyond study, 52, 55–57
 Children's Aid Society, 83
 Choice, 3, 35–36
 Clinton administration, 109, 110
 Coed activities, 40
 Cognitive engagement, 112–113, 115
 Community service, 83–85
 A Company of Girls, 80
 Concentration, 19, 121, 127
 Concept mapping, 37
 Concept Systems methodology, 37
 Confidence, 40
 Crime, 109–110, 125–126
- Dadisman, K., 7, 13–14, 121
 Daro, D., 22
 Demand for services, 92
 Depth, 23
 Developmental outcomes: activities to reinforce, 73–74; and participation, 54–55, 66; study of, 57, 58
 Dodge, K. A., 97
 Drop-in programs, 76
 Drugs, 36, 39, 78, 110
 Duration, 23, 99–100, 101
 Dworkin, J. B., 19
- Eating, 125*t*, 126
 Eccles, J. S., 7, 10–11, 19, 51
 Economically disadvantaged children.
See Low-income children
 Effort, 113
 Elementary school, 18
 Employment, 83–85
 Engagement: attendance's relationship to, 2; benefits of, 5, 111; components of, 24, 111–113; and context, 24; implications for research in, 118–119; importance of, 20; key factors for, 24; lack of research on, 23–24; measurement of, 123–128; versus motivation, 24; precursors of, 113–115; in school, 111; strategies to foster, 115–118
 English language, 45
 Enrollment: definition of, 22; factors contributing to, 22–23
 Environment, 116, 117, 118
- Ethnicity, 35–36
 Extended-Service Schools Initiative, 18, 36, 77
- Faith-based programs: benefits of, 55; gender differences in, 53, 61; participation rates in, 60
 Families, 22, 46*t*, 76
 Fiester, L., 7, 12, 19, 91
 Financial incentives, 82
 Flexible schedules, 75
 4-H program, 99
 French, D., 35
 Friendship, 17; as engagement precursor, 114; as participation reason, 35, 38–39; as recruitment strategy, 77–78
 Fun, 35, 38
 Funders' concerns, 16
 Funding, 94, 110
 Furstenberg, F. F., 22
- Gangs, 73
 Gender differences, 53–63, 65–67
 Geomapping, 25
 Girls, 40–44, 53–63, 65–67
 Girls, Inc., 35
 Goals: attendance as, 1–2; attendance measurement to monitor, 94; and participation expectations, 26; prerequisite for, 1; to promote attendance, 81
- Halpern, R., 82
 Hansen, D. M., 19
 Harlem Children's Zone, 84
 Harvard Family Research Project (HFRP), 5–6, 16, 20, 21*f*, 72
 High school, 18
 Home visits, 77
 Homework, 26, 39
 Huston, A. C., 7, 10–11, 51
- Incentives, 78, 82, 93
 Intensity, 23, 97–99, 101
 Intermediary space, 3
 Internships, 84
- Jeffords-Gunderson legislation, 110

- KidTrax, 95
- Laird, R. D., 97
- Larson, R. W., 19, 121, 122, 126
- Latino youth, 35, 36–45
- Lauver, S. C., 7, 11–12, 71
- Leadership skills, 26, 83–85, 84
- Learn and Serve America, 84
- Learning: in effective programs, 46*t*;
and engagement, 113, 114; as participation reason, 38
- Little, P.M.D., 2, 6, 7, 8, 9–10, 11–12, 15, 19, 71, 95, 96, 97, 99, 111
- Low-income children: challenges of serving, 34, 53; participation discrepancies involving, 15–16; participation patterns of, 52–53; problems of, 54; and project-oriented activities, 82; types of activities of, 65. See also Minority children
- Management, 92
- Marshall, N., 54
- Maryland After School Community Grant Program, 18
- McCurdy, K., 22
- McLaughlin, M., 2, 118
- Middle school, 18
- Middle-income children, 53, 54, 65
- Minority children: participation discrepancies involving, 15–16; participation study of, 36–45; rationale for studying participation of, 34–35. See also Low-income children
- Motivation, 19, 125*t*; during academic work, 121, 122; versus engagement, 24; and environment, 116
- Needs assessment, 74
- Neighborhoods, 22, 53
- Nellie Mae Education Foundation, 6
- New Hope study, 52, 57–67
- Noam, G. G., 4
- Obesity, 126
- Orientation, 80
- Out-of-School Time Evaluation Database, 7, 72
- Out-of-school-time programs: benefits of, 15, 16, 17, 44; definition of, 6, 27*n.1*; past research in, 109–110; recent interest in, 109. See also After-school programs
- P. F. Bresee Foundation, 93
- Participant outcomes, 94
- Participation: and academic beliefs, 64; and academic success, 63–64; barriers to, 18–19; and behavior, 64; benefits of, 44, 51–52; Childhood and Beyond study of, 52, 55–57, 59–67; conceptual model of, 20–25; definition of, 19; demonstrating importance of, 76; and developmental outcomes, 54–55, 66; discrepancies in, 15–16; expectation for, 25–26; incentives for, 82–83; of low-income children, 52–53; measurement of, 26–27; New Hope study of, 52, 57–67; overview of, 33–34; predictors of, 21*f*, 22, 27; rationale for studying minority youth's, 34–35; recommendations to increase, 45–47; recruitment strategies to enhance, 79–85; selection bias in, 34; systemic view of, 27; youth's reasons against, 35–36, 39–41; youth's reasons for, 35, 38–39
- Participation equation: definition of, 6; implications of, 20; overview of, 16, 19–20; in participation model, 21*f*, 22; research and participation issues involving, 25–27
- Passmore, A., 35
- Peer pressure, 40
- Perkins, D. F., 6–7, 10, 33
- Petit, G. S., 97
- Pierce, K. M., 7, 13–14, 121
- Planning, 92
- Policymakers: questions of, 16
- Program leaders, 117
- Program quality: attendance measurement to monitor, 94; critical elements of, 72–74; importance of, 25; and reasons against participation, 40
- Program youth, 122
- Project-oriented activities, 82

- Psychological safety, 73, 117
Public Agenda, 15
- Recognition, 46*t*
- Recruitment: definition of, 74; program elements critical to, 72–74
- Recruitment strategies: for at-risk youth, 78–79; common types of, 74; community service as, 83–85; direct contact as, 77; employment as, 83–85; to enhance participation, 79–85; to gain long-term retention, 79–85; and importance of participation, 76; for increased engagement, 116; overview of, 71–72; and program content, 74–76; and scheduling, 74–76; selection bias in, 22–23; types of, 11–12; use of friendships in, 77–78
- Religious programs. See Faith-based programs
- Retention: expectations for, 3–4; incentives for, 82–83; program elements critical to, 73–74; recruitment strategies to gain, 79–85
- Ripke, M., 7, 10–11, 51
- Risk-taking behaviors, 17
- Rolling admission policies, 76
- Safety: as barrier to participation, 40–41; in effective programs, 46*t*; importance of, 72–73; for increased engagement, 116–117; as participation reason, 35, 38, 39
- San Francisco Beacons Initiative, 18, 73
- Schedules, 74–76
- School absences, 78
- School reform, 3
- School-based programs, 78–79, 81–82
- Schools, 22, 46*t*; engagement in, 111; environment of, 116, 117
- Selection bias, 22, 34
- Self-esteem, 17, 35, 40
- Service-learning, 83–85
- Sexual activities, 110
- Shernoff, D. J., 7, 13–14, 121
- Simpkins, S. D., 7, 10–11, 12, 19, 51, 91, 95, 96, 97, 99
- Snacking, 125*t*, 126
- Social development skills, 26
- Sports programs: benefits, 55; effects of, 66, 67; gender differences in, 53, 61; participation rates in, 60
- Staff: importance of, 73; quality of, 40; self-reflection of, 93; training of, 93
- Stone, M. R., 6–7, 10, 33
- Study of Promising After School Programs, 25
- Swimming, 40
- Swipe cards, 93, 95
- Teacher expectations, 117
- Teasing, 40
- Technology, 94–95
- Teenagers, 40; community service of, 83–84; employment opportunities for, 83–84; feeling states of, 123–128; incentives for, 82–83; increasing attendance of, 80–81; schedules for, 75
- Telephone calls, 77
- Television watching, 125–126
- Transportation, 73
- Trust, 73
- 21st Century Community Learning Centers, 18, 78
- “Twenty-first century” skills, 17
- Upper-income children, 53
- Upward Bound, 78
- Vandell, D. L., 7, 13–14, 121
- Villarruel, F. A., 6–7, 10, 33
- Wallace Foundation, 6
- Weiss, H. B., 2, 6, 8, 9–10, 15, 19, 95, 96, 97, 99, 111
- YMCA, 3, 35
- YouthBuild USA, 77
- YouthServices.net, 95